STATE BREVITIES

Northfield. — A co-operative stock shipping association has been organized by farmers of the Northfield community.

Duluth.—Jean Duluth Pear of a local farm has established a new world's record for red poll cattle in the 1915 club contest by scoring more than 700 pounds of butterfat in one season.

Rochester. — The annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Minnesota conference has closed. Miss Winifred Willard of Denver, national field secretary, was the principal speaker.

Red Wing. — Mistaking a can of muriatic acid for coffee and drinking a small quantity of the poison before he discovered his blunder, cost the life of Samuel Alberts, 26 years old, a well known young man of Pine Island.

Stillwater.—Emil Klopp, 12 years old, and Alois Klopp, 10, sons of Anton Klopp, a farmer living on the shore of Huntley lake, north of Stillwater, were drowned while skating. Alois went down in fourteen feet of water.

Embarrass. — Anton Antila was arrested here charged with murdering Emil Neimi, a farmer boy living near, and who was killed in his own home by a bullet fired, it is alleged, by Antila after a quarrel between the two.

Crosby. — To satisfy United States immigration officials, who refuse to recognize an Oriental marriage by proxy of his brother, Kotomura Oye, who is manager of Hickory Lodge farm here for George H. Crosby, will leave soon for Nagasaki to claim his bride of six months.

Taylors Falls, Minn.—The Interstate Park Farmers' club has just held the first meeting of its fifth season. Miss Bess M. Rowe of the university farm made an address. The forenoon session was taken up by a debate on the subject, "Resolved, That the Farmer's Wife Does Not Receive a Living Wage."

St. Cloud. — Fifty cents was all the damage sustained by C. M. Miller of Wadena because O. E. Fuller slapped his face, according to the verdict of a jury. Miller was employed in a real estate office conducted by the plaintiff. After an altercation a year ago, Fuller slapped his employe's face and Miller sued for $1,000.

Winona.—For the first time in history, the season is closing with the ice houses along the Upper Mississippi river still well filled with ice stored last winter. Dealers here declare that if there were no ice harvest weather the coming winter, there would be nearly enough ice in storage to care for the next summer's business.

Red Wing. — Dr. Evan Elijah Edwards, a professor at Hamline university when it was located in Red Wing in the early days, and assistant rector at Christ church in this city in the late '80s, is dead. Word has been received in this city of his death, which occurred at the home of his son, Elmer E. Edwards, at La Belle, Florida. The deceased was about 85 years old.

Albert Lea, Minn.—The fact that they were regular church attendants saved the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sjukalski of East Chain township in Martin county. Sunday morning they were missed from church and when the services were half over one of their sons went to their house to ascertain the cause. He found them in a deep stupor caused from gas emitting from a hard-coal heater.

St. Paul.—This city was placed on the route of the Jefferson Highway, a New Orleans-Winnipeg automobile trail, at New Orleans by action of the highway association's directors. St. Paul and Minnesota defeated Omaha and the combined Nebraska and North Dakota delegations in the fight to be represented on this, the first international trail, through the efforts of J. H. Beek, representing the St. Paul Association of Commerce.

Duluth.—In the eyes of the law, Bert Canfield of West Duluth, missing since 1903, is dead; and in district court here his brothers and sisters have just obtained judgment against the grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. of Minnesota for $1,000, insurance on his life. Thirteen years ago, Canfield, then 21, left for the Dakota harvest fields, where he worked in the season of 1902, and then went to the Pacific coast. He wrote in 1903 from Oregon, and later from Wells City, Nev. Nothing has been heard of him since.

St. Paul. — Four suits to recover money and notes paid for stock in the Farmers' Terminal Packing company of St. Paul, have been filed in the Ramsey county district court. The plaintiffs are: Peter Olson, Cumberland, Wis.; John Carlson, Comstock, Wis.; E. P. Erlandson, Holdingford, Minn., and John Nelson, Upsala, Minn. The company, Mr. Olson charges, does not own the 164 acres near St. Paul intended for a site and the land, instead of $200 an acre, as represented, is not worth more than $75. The plant when completed will not have the capacity represented, it is charged, and not more than $100,000 worth of stock had been sold when it was stated that $250,000 worth had been sold.

Minneapolis. — Captured in Minneapolis after a pursuit of 20,000 miles that included England, France, Germany and Russia, and which was interrupted by the war, Samuel Litvinsky of Winnipeg was held at central police station for the police of Winnipeg, who accuse him of complicity in the disappearance of furs worth nearly $100,000.

Cloquet.—Cloquet has started a free night school at the Y. M. C. A. to continue throughout the winter. Enlish, mathematics, mechanical drawing, manual training, and commercial arithmetic are the subjects taught.

ORE MACHINE IS GIVEN TO STATE

PATENT ON PROCESS TO INCREASE OUTPUT ACCEPTED BY REGENTS.

STATE CAPITOL HAPPENINGS

Events of General Interest in Minnesota Condensed and Revised for The Greater Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

The Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota have accepted the patent on a process discovered by E. W. Davis, a member of the university mines faculty and experiment station, which may prove the means of more than doubling the salability of low grade magnetic ores in which Minnesota is rich, and which are distributed widely in all parts of the world.

The patent has been given through the university to the state with the right to use it without royalty on all state lands. Prof. Davis discovered the process while experimenting as a member of the mining research experiment station.

The process involves the washing of the low grade magnetic ores in a special washer of the log type. The unmarketable ore is concentrated to the point where it becomes profitable to handle it in the smelting industry.

Prof. Davis' model machine on which the early experiments have been made and the patent right based is being kept secret in the mines laboratory.

The session of the board was in secret. At the close the announcement of the action was made by President George E. Vincent.

AMERICA TO SEND STRONG PROTEST IN ANCONA CASE

CONTENDS SUBMARINE MAY NOT SET TIME LIMIT FOR PASSENGERS TO ESCAPE FROM LINER TO BE SUNK.

"PLACE OF SAFETY" TO BE DEMANDED OF AUSTRIANS

Lansing Intimates That Observance of Technical "Safety" Requirements Would Not Absolve U-Boat Commanders From Responsibility for Deaths of Americans.

Washington, Nov. 20. — Emphatic protest by the United States to Austria in the Ancona case is foreshadowed. The United States will stand pat in the contention that a submarine may not set a time limit for passengers to escape from a liner that is to be sunk, it was officially stated.

Neither will the American government excuse the action of a submarine commander who merely gives such passengers a chance to enter lifeboats.

In connection with the Ancona case, Secretary of State Lansing made it clear that the observance of technical "safety" requirements would not absolve U-boat commanders nor their governments from responsibility for the death of Americans.

"Place of Safety" Demanded.

The United States, it was clear from Mr. Lansing's statement, took the broad ground that all possible precautions to prevent the death of passengers must be taken. The placing of American citizens in small boats on the high seas, it was stated, was not regarded as according them "a place of safety" within the meaning of the term as used in international law. In its correspondence with Germany over the Frye case the American government expressed the view that open boats did not constitute a place of safety.

This was broadened by an official interpretation to apply to American citizens, whether traveling on belligerent or neutral ships. Officials qualified their assertions somewhat by stating that if a vessel was destroyed within a few miles of shore, lifeboats would be regarded as safe, but that weather conditions and the opportunity given for passengers to be transferred even then were pertinent circumstances.

45 Minutes Not Time Enough.

From these intimations it generally was believed that the American government would develop the entire question of submarine warfare further in correspondence with Austria and that even though, as the Austrian admiralty has declared, 45 minutes was given for the passengers and crew of the Ancona to be transferred, this was not regarded as affording American citizens a sufficient opportunity to be saved.

The United States has insisted throughout that the operations of submarines shall not "jeopardize the lives of American citizens," and, notwithstanding the formal denial from Vienna that the Ancona was shelled after she stopped, the fact that the ship actually was torpedoed while a number of passengers still were aboard, is regarded as the chief circumstance upon which representations will be made.

American Survivor's Statement.

The first official report alleging that the submarine continued shelling the Ancona after she had halted, reached the state department in a consular dispatch outlining an affidavit made by Dr. Cecil Greil, the only native American officially known to be a survivor of the tragedy.

In this affidavit Doctor Greil flatly asserts that the liner was subjected to shell fire by the U-boat after she had stopped and that the bombardment lasted 45 minutes. The statement from Vienna denying the charge of firing after stopping the liner was received previously from Ambassador Penfield.

This definite and authentic information from an American source, the first received by the state department, establishing that passengers were subjected to fire from the submarine after the vessel stopped, leaves the American government no alternative but to file a vigorous protest with Austria. This will necessitate negotiations, according to officials, regardless of the Ancona's alleged attempt to escape.

American Schooner Strikes Mine.

London, Nov. 20. — The American schooner Helen W. Martin has struck a mine. She is now at anchor.

$50,000,000 for Ship Purchase Bill.

Washington, Nov. 19. — A tentative draft of the new government ship purchase bill which will be urged by the administration at the coming session of Congress was considered at a conference at the treasury department. Secretary Redfield and Solicitor Thurman of the department of commerce went over the proposed measure with Secretary McAdoo.

The plan described by Mr. McAdoo in his speech contemplated the expenditure of $50,000,000 by a government shipping board.

MONASTER SEIZED; SERBS FORM LINE FOR FINAL STAND

FRENCH REPULSE INVADERS IN 3-DAY FIGHT IN SOUTH

Soldiers of Republic Redouble Efforts to Take Veles, But Whether Attempts Will Relieve Pressure on Serbs Is Uncertain—Italians Bombard Gorizia.

Bucharest, Roumania, via Copenhagen and London, Nov. 22.—The Newspaper Epoca asserts that Austrian and German troops have landed on the Roumanian island of Hurawal, in the Danube river and that they are placing mines in the river and watching the movements of the Roumanian troops. The Epoca asks why the Roumanian government takes no action in the matter.

London, Nov. 22.—Monastir has fallen to the Bulgarians, and the Serb armies are reported forming their forces for a last stand on the historic plain of Kossovo, east of the Montenegrin frontier, where more than 500 years ago they lost their independence to Turkey.

The Bulgarian invaders, sweeping on in pursuit of the defenders, are reported to have 45,000 men in the Prilep district. In the north the Austro-Germans are pushing the Serbs and Montenegrins farther and farther west, and their only avenues of escape now seem to lead into eastern Montenegro and northern Albania.

If the Serbians in the South lose in their crucial battle, they must either cross the Greek border or enter southeastern Albania. In the former case they may be interned.

French Beat Back Bulgars.

The French in the South claim to have beaten back the Bulgarians in three days bloody fighting, and they are now redoubling their efforts to take Veles, but whether their efforts will relieve the pressure on the Serbs is uncertain.

As to the position of Greece, there have been no developments, although a more hopeful feeling prevails in Paris and London since Denys Cochin's visit to King Constantine and the Greek ministers. There have been lively artillery engagements in Alsace and in some other points on the West.

The Italians are still hammering away at the Austrian positions on the Isonzo, but while they are gaining a little from day to day they have not succeeded in the capture of Gorizia, which has again been under heavy shell fire for several days.

BRITISH HOSPITAL SHIP STRIKES MINE; 100 PERISH

Dover, Nov. 19.—The hospital ship Anglia, with about 300 wounded men aboard, in addition to the crew, nurses and attendants, bound from France for Dover, struck a mine in mid-channel and sank in a very short time. Nearly 100 men, most of them seriously wounded, and, therefore, in their cots, lost their lives.

The Collier Lusitania, which was near by at the time of the accident, immediately went to the assistance of the Anglia and her boats were just lowered when she also struck a mine and foundered. All her crew were saved. A patrol boat succeeded in rescuing 300 of the Anglia's passengers and crew, including some nurses. A number of the bodies were recovered.

Italians Ready for Attack.

Geneva, via Paris, Nov. 20.— The Italians are preparing for a formidable attack on Gorizia, according to the Milan correspondent of the Zurich Gazette. Five hundred thousand men are to be employed.

British Fleet Enters Cattegat.

London, Nov. 20.—As a sequel to the report that a flotilla of 25 German torpedo boats and a big cruiser had passed Helsingborg, Sweden, proceeding in to the Cattegats, a dispatch to the Central News from Copenhagen says that a British squadron of cruisers and destroyers has been seen entering the Cattegat.

Big Kentucky Turkey for Wilson.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 20. — A 35-pound turkey, which will grace the Thanksgiving dinner at the White House, has been shipped to Washington from Lexington as the gift of South Trimble, clerk of the house of representatives and former congressman from the Ashland, Ky., district.

Hughes Not on Nebraska Ballot.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 20.—The name of Associate Justice Charles Hughes of the supreme court as a presidential candidate is not expected to appear on the Nebraska primary ballot as requested by a petition filed by a number of his Nebraska supporters. Secretary of State Pool has intimated that he would grant the request of Mr. Hughes that his name be left off. No decision will be made officially until Mr. Hughes' request, which is coming by mail, is received.

Confused Deities.

An Englishman was visiting in an American family in which there was a young boy of eight years. The nobleman was addressed by all members of the family as "My Lord." As soon as the family were seated at the table the lord was served first of all. Each dish was offered him with the remark, "My Lord, will you have this?" or "My Lord, do you care for this?" It happened that the pickle was overlooked, and the nobleman reached to get some. The small boy, seeing this, punched his mother and said in a loud whisper:

"Mother, mother, God wants a pickle."

How He Saw the Louvre.

A French literary man fell in with one of the new order of American commercial men the other night and asked him if he had seen the sights of Paris.

"Yes," he said, "but I find that the police have closed most of the sights."

"Oh no," said his literary friend, "the real sights of Paris, the monuments, are always open — the Pantheon, Notre Dame, the Invalides, the Madeleine and the Louvre."

"Ah, yes. I have seen the Louvre thoroughly."

"Thoroughly?" said the French homme de lettres in surprise, recalling the labyrinthian vastness of the Louvre collection, "and how long did it take you?"

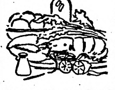
THE THANKSGIVING DINNER.



Every homekeeper delights in serving some novelty of dish or decoration for her Thanksgiving table. Each year in the shops will be found new favors or old ones with a new dress. Turkeys of papiermache, or of cardboard, holding nuts or bonbons. Marshmallow gobblers, browned in crumbs, may be used as cake ornaments or as favors on candy boxes. Some original touch which has been thought out by the hostess herself will mean much, for original ideas are things which take thought. Anyone with a little money may buy pretty things, but she who works out of her own supply something fetching is fully appreciated by her friends.

A basket of yellow flowers, like the small chrysanthemum, grown in our gardens, may be taken up in a pot and kept for Thanksgiving. The Roman hyacinth is another flower that may be grown for Thanksgiving.

When the price of a turkey is too much for the family to afford, try some substitutes. They cannot take the place of the time-honored turkey which we all enjoy, but when expense must be considered these dishes will be most satisfactory:

Braised Beef Tongue.—Wash the tongue well and put it into a kettle of fresh cold water, bring the water to a boil and let it simmer until the tongue is tender. Remove the skin carefully and lay the tongue in a pan surrounded by chopped carrots, celery, an onion and the liquor in which the tongue was cooked. Cover closely and bake an hour. Take out the tongue and put on a hot platter. Rub the vegetables through a sieve and add to the gravy. Season with salt, Worcestershire sauce and pepper.

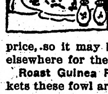
AUTUMN MEATS.



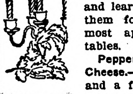
Our first turkeys cost only the powder and shot to bring them down, but each year has put an added value on the famous bird until now we hardly know what their cost will be, but we can be reasonably sure that they will be unreasonable in price, so it may be necessary to look elsewhere for the Thanksgiving meat.

Roast Guinea Fowl.—In many markets these fowl are reasonable in price and quantity and make a most appetizing dish as it is as full of flavor as the most delicate turkey. Use any preferred stuffing. Rub the bird with olive oil, and dust with pepper and salt, sprinkle with flour, turn in a little boiling water and bake in a hot oven for an hour and a half, basting frequently with butter, water and a little lemon juice. While the bird is cooking simmer the giblets in water to cover. Remove the fowl from the pan, add a little minced onion and parsley and a tablespoonful of flour. When brown, add the chopped giblets and the water in which they were cooked. Served with cranberry jelly.

Mock Possum.—The cheaper cuts of fresh pork may be used for this dish. Put three pounds of pork through a meat chopper, add a teaspoonful each of chopped parsley, onion, sage a sprinkling of pepper and salt. Soften three cupfuls of bread crumbs by covering them with hot milk; then squeeze dry and mix with the rest, adding two well beaten eggs. Shape in a loaf and bake for an hour. Then arrange around the loaf, halves of unpeeled apples, around these halves of parboiled sweet potatoes. Bake, basting with the gravy for another hour. Serve with the apples and potatoes on the platter.

Corned Beef.—Wrap a good fat piece of corned brisket in a cloth, cover with cold water and bring to the simmering point, cooking 20 minutes to the pound. When tender, lay out the cloth flat, cover with a board and weight. The next day lay on a platter and garnish with parsley or water cress

SEASONABLE DAINTIES.



Green peppers are so common and may be grown in any summer garden that it seems as if we might serve them often and learn to appreciate them for one of our most appetizing vegetables.

Peppers Filled With Cheese.—Take a cupful and a fourth of cream cheese, with a teaspoonful of salt, a teaspoonful of onion juice, a wash of red pepper, thicken with cracker crumbs and fill the peppers. Bake a light brown and serve with tomato sauce.

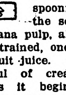
Salsify Soup.—Scrape a dozen salsify roots and cut them in thin slices. Drop into boiling water and cook for an hour or until tender. Just before serving add an ounce of shredded codfish, two tablespoonfuls of butter, a pint of milk and a half cupful of cream. Season to taste and serve piping hot.

Salad of Lemon Jelly.—Soak two tablespoonfuls of gelatin in a tablespoonful of cold water; then dissolve in two cupfuls of boiling water. Add a cupful of sugar, a half cupful of lemon juice, one green pepper cut in shreds, a third of a cupful of stuffed olives, sliced, a fourth of a cupful of almond meats, shredded. When the mixture begins to thicken it is time to add the vegetables and nuts. Mold in individual or large mold and serve on white leaves of lettuce with mayonnaise dressing.

A Delicious Dessert.—Bake in gem pans little spiced fruit cakes, and keep them for this dish. Cut each cake in three slices and put them together with sweetened and flavored whipped cream. Served on a pretty plate covered with a paper doily there could be no daintier dish.

Don't idly dream! There is no time for dreaming,
No time to drone and loiter on the way,
With opportunity each day is teeming,
That, till you deign to waken, will not stay.

GOOD THINGS FOR THE TABLE.



Bananas are always in the market, and this dish is worth the trouble in making if one is fond of bananas. Rub through a sieve, dissolve two and a half tablespoonfuls of gelatin in one and a half cupfuls of milk, add six tablespoonfuls of sugar and the softened gelatin to the banana pulp, also the juice of a lemon strained, one tablespoonful of other fruit juice. Chill, then stir in a cupful of cream whipped. As soon as it begins to set, pour the mixture into a ring mold. When unmolded fill the center with whipped cream, garnished with thinly sliced bananas.

Grape Sherbet.—This is another dish that may be made any time of the year. Boil four cupfuls of water with two cupfuls of sugar for 20 minutes, add the juice of two lemons and two cupfuls of grape juice. Soften one and a half tablespoonfuls of gelatin in a cupful of water; add to the other mixture, cool and strain into a freezer. Freeze and serve in sherbet cups with a spoonful of whipped cream on top.

Date Cookies.—Cream one cupful of butter, add two cupfuls of brown sugar, add a teaspoonful of salt, three eggs, well beaten, a half teaspoonful of soda, mixed with two tablespoonfuls of sour milk, add a teaspoonful of cinnamon, ginger, allspice, and between four and five cupfuls of flour. Add a cupful and a half of chopped dates, mixed with some flour, roll out and cut with a cooky cutter. Bake ten to twelve minutes in a moderate oven.

Raisin Fritters.—Mix together a fourth of a cupful each of cornstarch and flour, add a half cupful of sugar a fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, two and a quarter cupfuls of milk and the beaten yolks of three eggs; cook in a double boiler 15 minutes, then add a half cupful of raisins and pour into a shallow buttered tin to cool. Turn on a board and cut in squares, dip in egg, crumbs and fry in hot fat. Serve with a hard sauce or with a lemon sauce, if preferred.

Tomato sliced, placed on buttered toast, sprinkle with grated cheese, then placed in the oven long enough to melt the cheese is an appetizing dish to serve for lunch or supper.

Spoil Lives of Weak Men Only.

The man whose life can be "spoiled" by a woman is not much of a man. You do yourself great injustice when you think that so much depends upon that one particular girl. It does not. Many a man does his best work because some foolish girl does not know enough to marry him.

We would never have heard of Walt Whitman if it had not been for a case of disappointed love.

"Out of this I have written these songs," said Whitman.

Perhaps you will lose that girl and out of it you will be a far greater man than you could be with her. Maybe the really right girl is waiting around the corner.—From the Nautilus.

Neither the Child Nor Her Parents Discover She Is Better—Gradually Led to Walk and Talk By Teacher.

Los Angeles.—One of the most remarkable cases known in medical history and one fraught with interest both to surgeons and to students of psychology, has been called to the attention of scientists in this city. It is the case of Carlotaa Sausedo, a fifteen-year-old schoolgirl.

For three years Carlotaa was considered a hopeless paralytic, who would never be able to speak or walk. She had been injured by a fall on her head from a swing when she was twelve years old.

It is declared now by doctors and her teachers that whatever body or brain injuries she may have received from that fall have been absolutely outgrown and that she is perfectly normal physically and mentally, except that her mind has failed to register the fact of her recovery.

Doesn't Realize She Is Well.

In other words, according to the doctors, if the child's mind can be wakened to the fact that she has recovered from her fall she will be able to walk, talk and develop as other children do.

While three weeks ago Carlotaa could not speak and could not walk alone, today she speaks with ease, walks without help and can even walk up and down the school stairs alone.

Three years ago the little girl pitched from a swing to her head. She was picked up and stood on her feet. Instead of standing still she began to whirl round and round. She was entirely unable to stand still or to sit up. She was put to bed and pronounced a hopeless paralytic. Her power of speech was completely stopped.

Schoolteacher Finds Her.

With the beginning of the present school term Miss Ettie Lee, one of the grammar school teachers, discovered the child. There were five other children in the family, all normal, and Miss Lee inquired into Carlotaa's history. Securing medical examination, she learned that, whatever bodily injury may have been caused by the fall, it no longer existed.

In Bed for Three Years.

"We cannot tell Carlotaa she is not a cripple or sick because her mind has to be wakened up gradually to that fact," Miss Lee said, "but we are teaching her by degrees. She is placed in a special class at school and her teacher invents little exercises and lessons for her.

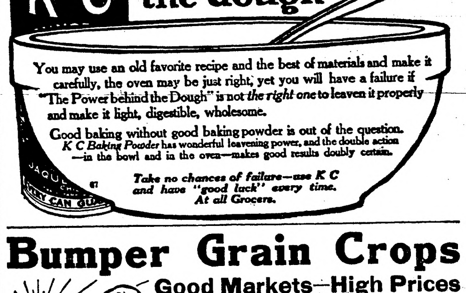
"She had to be almost carried to school. Her teacher made a small sand pile in the playground and many times a day took Carlotaa there and helped her walk over it. Today Carlotaa can walk up and down the school stairs. The other day she went alone to the soup kitchen, got her cup of soup and sipped it unaided.

Was in Bed Three Years.

"When school opened she could not talk. Now she talks to us and knows what we say. She can count in English and Spanish and can write her own name. Her father tells me she was unusually bright before the fall, and I see no reason to suppose that she cannot be restored to her former condition.

"She has been in bed for the greater part of the past three years, as the schools at Chino would not take her in. So, while her body healed itself, apparently her mind never recovered from the shock of the fall."

Little Carlotaa was taken to the Parent-Teacher clinic for further examination to verify the diagnosis of other doctors. If a similar report is made, her special teachers will continue as they have begun in their novel work of teaching the child's mind that her body is neither paralyzed nor injured in any way.



You may use an old favorite recipe and the best of materials and make it carefully, the oven may be just right, yet you will have a failure if "The Power behind the Dough" is not the right one to leaven it properly and make it light, digestible, wholesome.

Good baking without good baking powder is out of the question. K C Baking Powder has wonderful leavening power, and the double action —in the bowl and in the oven—makes good results doubly certain.

Take no chances of failure—use K C and have "good luck" every time. At all Grocers.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The winnings of Western Canada at the Soil Products Exposition at Denver were easily made. The list comprised Wheat, Oats, Barley and Grasses, the most important being the prizes for Wheat and Oats and sweep stake on Alfalfa.

No less important than the splendid quality of Western Canada's wheat and other grains, is the excellence of the cattle fed and fattened on the grasses of that country. A recent shipment of cattle to Chicago topped the market in that city for quality and price.

Western Canada produced in 1915 one-third as much wheat as all of the United States, or over 300,000,000 bushels.

Canada in proportion to population has a greater exportable surplus of wheat this year than any country in the world, and at present prices you can figure out the revenue for the producer. In Western Canada you will find good markets, splendid schools, exceptional social conditions, perfect climate and other great attractions. There is no war tax on land and no conscription.

An officer attached to one of the reenforcement drafts was making his rounds, and asked if there were any complaints. An Aucklander stepped forward and declared that he had been supplied with a ginger-ale bottle that contained not gingerale but benzine, and that he had drunk half the benzine unwittingly.

THE NEWEST REMEDY FOR BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM AND DROPSY

Kidney, Bladder and Uric Acid troubles bring misery to many. When the kidneys are weak or diseased, these natural filters do not cleanse the blood sufficiently, and the poisons are carried to all parts of the body. There follow depression, aches and pains, heaviness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness and rheumatism. In some people there are sharp pains in the back and loins, distressing bladder disorders and sometimes obstinate dropsy. The uric acid sometimes forms into gravel or kidney stones. When the uric acid affects the muscles and joints it causes lumbago, rheumatism, gout or sciatica. This is the time to send Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., 10c for large trial package of "Anuric."

During digestion uric acid is absorbed into the system from meat eaten, and even from some vegetables. The poor kidneys get tired and backache begins. This is a good time to take "Anuric," the new discovery of Dr. Pierce for Kidney trouble and Backache. Neglected kidney trouble is responsible for many deaths, and Insurance Company examining doctors always test the water of an applicant before a policy will be issued. Have you ever set aside a bottle of water for twenty-four hours? A heavy sediment or settling sometimes indicates kidney trouble. If you wish to know your condition send a sample of your water to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and describe symptoms. It will be examined without any expense to you, and Dr. Pierce or his medical staff will inform you truthfully. Anuric is now for sale by dealers, in 50c pck'gs.

SERBIAN FORCES DEFEAT BULGARS; RECAPTURE TOWN

ANGLO-FRENCH FORCES AT SALONIKA TOTAL 125,000

Allied Troops Abundantly Supplied with Arms—45,000 More Men Reported on Way—Germans Expected to Attack Serbian Army Retreating Into Greece.

London, Nov. 29.—The Serbians have recaptured Krushevo in Southern Serbia, about 20 miles west of Prilep, according to a dispatch to the Star from Athens. It is 25 miles northwest of Monastir. The sacking of Krushevo indicates the extension of the Serb line in Macedonia to within 15 miles of the Anglo-French front.

London, Nov. 29.—Press dispatches from Athens say the French and British forces landed at Saloniki have attained important proportions. The Patris of Athens gives their number at 125,000. These forces are abundantly supplied with arms and ammunition. Some 40,000 or 45,000 more men are said to be on the way to Saloniki, at which port 4,000 troops are debarking each day.

The Serbian forces soon will become an army without a country. Reports arrive from various sources that Monastir has been surrounded by Bulgarians and that they may not wait for their Austro-German allies before entering the Macedonian capital.

May Fight in Greece.

The main Serbian army retreating in a southwesterly direction before Field Marshal von Mackensen's troops may find no rest even in Greek territory, as it is reported here that the invaders of Serbia will not hesitate to cross into Greece. Apparently the German leaders expect the Serbians and their Allies will await attack in Greece. It is said these operations will be under the supreme command of Field Marshal von Mackensen.

The Germanic allies control the whole of the Blackbirds plain. Official reports say they are beating the country between the plain and the Montenegrin frontier for fleeing Serb detachments. Organized opposition to the invasion appears to have disappeared entirely in Northern Serbia.

Diplomats Active.

The diplomatic representatives at Athens of the entente powers still are active, their latest effort to settle definitely all outstanding questions being the presentation to Premier Skouloudis of a note detailing measures deemed indispensable for the security and freedom of action of the Allied troops.

The situation along the Roumanian frontier, where a great Russian force is said to have been gathered, still is obscure. The display by the Roumanian public of feeling in favor of the entente is regarded in London as an indication that the nation is in a position to disregard the demands of the central powers.

PROTEST U. S. TRADE TRUST

Washington, Nov. 29.—Great Britain has informally asked the United States if it intends to unofficially approve the American Overseas trust. The state department has replied that under no circumsances could any sancaion be given to an organization which would receive preferential treatment over other American shippers.

Sweden also has made similar inquiry and has been advised that the plan had not been indorsed.

It developed that part of the plan of the trust was to organize subsidiaries in neutral countries and that a measure of supervision was to be given to the British government by permitting access to the books of the concern in neutral countries. Sweden informed Great Britain that she would not approve such a plan.

State department officials declare that the Overseas trust organizers now realize they could not hope to get moral assistance from the American government so long as their plan contemplated preferential treatment for one set of American shippers as against others. That feature now has been abandoned and a representative of the trust is in London negotiating with the British government to the end that the latter will have no connection with the new organization.

GIRL WINS LAND BY GREAT RIDE

RECALLED BY FESTIVAL

Jennings, Okla.—Not for Al Jennings of "Beating Back" fame, but for Joe Jennings, an early day character in this section of the Southwest, cowboy, horse trader and general roustabout, was the town of Jennings named, according to Col. George McElroy, the last of the cowmen still in the business in this part of Oklahoma.

The original townsite of forty acres was given by Joe Jennings upon receiving a promise that the town would be given his name, McElroy says.

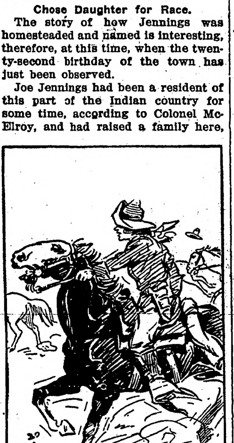
The Pawnee Indian country, including the old Oklahoma triangle, in the center of which is Jennings, was opened to settlement along with the old Cherokee strip in September, 1893, just twenty-two years ago. A number of the towns within the strip have just been celebrating the event of their twenty-second birthday with appropriate ceremonies.

The strip extended westward from the western boundary of the Cherokee nation, about thirty miles east of Jennings, to the Colorado and New Mexico border, including at one time, it is said, the famous No Man's Land, which is now divided into the counties of Cimarron, Texas, and Beaver.

Chose Daughter for Race.

The story of how Jennings was homesteaded and named is interesting, therefore, at this time, when the twenty-second birthday of the town has just been observed.

Joe Jennings had been a resident of this part of the Indian country for some time, according to Colonel McElroy, and had raised a family here, including a half grown daughter, then perhaps sixteen or seventeen years old. She was the typical country-raised girl of the border day period, able to ride, shoot, hunt and throw a lasso.



Made the Race for a Quarter Section.

Jenning's conceived the idea, when announcement of the strip's opening reached him, that this half grown daughter should make the race for a quarter section of land, which the family would homestead

The race for homes when the Cherokee strip was opened to settlement will go down in the history of the Southwest as the greatest horse race that was ever pulled off under the sanction of the federal government.

Few Knew She Was a Girl

There were several thousand choice quarter section farms as the prizes, and men came from all sections of the United States to make the race and win a claim if possible. The swiftest and most seasoned horses were selected wherever they were obtainable, for all the riders knew that by the men and animals with the best staying qualities would the farms be won.

Among the riders into the Pawnee country was the half grown Jennings girl, and she proved her ability as a horsewoman.

Dressed in men's clothing, with high-heeled boots and spurs, she entered the race and won a claim, a tract of valley land lying between two long ranges of low hills, one of the prettiest natural spots in the entire strip country.

Having won the claim, the family evidently did not care for it, for before long three-fourths of it had been sold to John Simmons and the other 40 acres had been given for a town site on condition that the new town be named Jennings. The family then left this section of the country, and in later years it was reported that Joe Jennings was living in Old Mexico.

WONDERFUL HOW QUICKLY RESINOL STOPS ITCHING:

To those who have endured for years the itching torments of eczema or other such skin-eruptions, the relief that the first use of resinol ointment and resinol soap gives is perfectly incredible. After all the suffering they went through and all the useless treatments they spent good money for, they cannot believe anything so simple, mild and inexpensive can stop the itching and burning INSTANTLY! And they find it still more wonderful that the improvement is permanent and that resinol really drives away the eruption completely in a very short time. Perhaps there is a pleasant surprise like this in store for you. Resinol ointment and resinol soap are sold by all druggists.—Adv.

Conservation.

"And," continued the lecturer, "I warrant you that there is not a man in this entire audience who has ever lifted his finger or in any way attempted to stop this awful waste of our forests and our lumber supply. If there is I want that man to stand up."

There was a slight commotion in the rear of the room and a nervous little man rose to the occasion—and to his feet.

"And now, my friend, will you explain in just what way you have conserved the forests of our nation?"

And with the utmost gravity and sincerity the little man said: "I have used the same toothpick twice."—Harper's Magazine.

STATE BREVITIES

Canby. — Fire starting at 10:45 o'clock p. m. destroyed the First National bank building at a loss of $56,000, and for a time threatened the entire business portion of the town. The cause is unknown.

Albert Lea. — Five hunters of this city, Burt Skinner, Peter Knutson, Edmund Gulbrandson, Casper Hanson and Dan Drommerhausen, have returned from the big woods in St. Louis county. Each brought back a buck. Hanson's deer weighed nearly 300 pounds.

Red Wing.—Mrs. George Brobert of Minneapolis, widow of the locomotive fireman on the Milwaukee road who lost his life near Lake City last summer in a train wreck as the result of a cloudburst, has been paid $6,000 by the railroad, it has been learned. The settlement was reached a few days ago.

Minneapolis. — The League of Minnesota Municipalities has authorized publication of a monthly bulletin which shall contain proceedings of its annual convention and general municipal news. The bulletin will be prepared by G. E. Gesell, director of the municipal research bureau at the university.

Winona. — During a blinding snowstorm in this city, two boys, Theodore Jones, 12, and William Jennison, also 12, walked out on thin ice on Lake Winona. It gave way and the pair were rescued after 20 minutes by a large number of persons who were attracted by their cries. The storm was so severe that the boys lost their way.

Thief River Falls.—The Pennington County Livestock Breeders' association was launched at a meeting here attended by 65 prominent farmers. The following officers were elected: President, Henry Hanson; vice president, Harry Woolson; secretary and treasurer, Henry Werner; directors, Peter Englestad and Fred Beerbour, all of Thief River Falls.

Duluth. — Nicholas Hoffman, 20 years old, son of pioneer Duluth parents, is dead as a result of the carelessness of an unidentified hunter, who is being sought. Hoffman was shot in the right leg while he and his brother, Joseph, were staking out a tent where they intended to camp, about two miles from Munger.

Anoka. — With the ice jam in the Mississippi river at this place extending one mile up stream, city authorities and business men are contemplating the use of dynamite to clear the stream if the pressure is much increased. As a result of the jam the Champlin flour mill and the Pillsbury-Washburn plant are suffering a curtailment of their water power.

Minneapolis, Minn. —Congressman George R. Smith's suggestion to Mayor Nye, President Platt B. Walker of the council, and John Ryan, chairman of the rivers and harbors committee of the council, that a committee should be sent to Washington to confer on the government dam power controversy will be considered in council meeting, according to announcement made by Mr. Walker.

Faribault.—Malcolm Grant of this city was awarded $17,500 damages against the Dan Patch road for injuries received in its employ by a jury in district court. Grant was caught between two box cars while working for the company at Mankato, and claims he was permanently injured. He sued for $20,000 damages. The court has one of the largest civil calendars that it has had for a number of years.

Shokapee, Minn.—William Keating, 19 years old, a recent arrival in Minneapolis from Streator, Ill., died Friday afternoon from wounds received in a Thanksgiving day hunting accident near here. Arthur Buckley, a companion, was reloading his shotgun during a stop of the party near Bush lake, when the charge went off, and struck Keating in the leg. He was taken to the Eitel hospital in Minneapolis but the loss of blood caused his death. The body was taken to Streator.

Rochester.—A municipal water power plant that will give to Rochester the opportunity to supply electric current to the consumer at a less price than anywhere in the country is a project that has been launched by the Rochester Commercial club, and probably will be presented to the voters of the city as soon as the legal phase of the question has been settled. The proposition is to bond the city for sufficient to purchase a nearby power site and to build a plant.

St. Cloud. — Though a verdict of $209.68 was returned by a jury in district court against W. L. Seabury, the judgment on file in the office of the clerk has been settled by the Methodist church committee, plaintiff in the action. The suit was started by Rev. F. W. Hill, former pastor of the church, in common with several other suits against men whom Hill claimed had subscribed to the new church but refused to pay. Acting under a policy adopted by the new pastor, all the cases have been dropped.

Minneapolis. — Minnesota has contributed its champion boy corn grower to the advancement of rural banking in North Dakota. Arthur Hoese of Mayer, the Minnesota champion who was awarded a bronze medal by the Panama-Pacific exposition, has gone into a bank at Zap.

St. Paul. — To obtain adequate funds to meet appeals sent in from outside the city, the Minnesota Humane society will commission a agent to travel through Minnesota during the coming year personally answering complaints and enrolling members.

EDUCATOR LAUDS STATE SCHOOLS

SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION WOULD COPY STATE AID SYSTEM.

STATE CAPITOL HAPPENINGS

Events of General Interest in Minnesota Condensed and Revised for The Greater Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

Minnesota's consolidated school system and the subject of state aid for public schools are being studied by Nathan C. Schaeffer, state superintendent of education of Pennsylvania, who was a guest of C. G. Schulz, Minnesota state superintendent of education. Mr. Schaeffer visited St. Paul on his return from a meeting of the South Dakota Teachers' association. He left Friday for his home at Harrisburg. He was astonished at the large permanent school fund of Minnesota and praised the rural schools of the state.

"Our state school fund is distributed by enumeration instead of attendance, as here in Minnesota," he said. "Your plan requires actual attendance at the schools, which I consider splendid. The Minnesota system is very efficient in raising the standard of rural schools."

Mr. Schaeffer is planning to request a new system of state aid to schools in his state. He will copy the Minnesota plan.

Insurance Rates Adjusted.

Fire insurance rates are the same in every part of Minnesota for the first time, following the order of Samuel D. Works, state insurance commissioner. Rates which have prevailed in southern Minnesota are to be applied in northern and northeastern Minnesota, where formerly they were much higher. In some instances a differential of 40 per cent is abolished by Mr. Works' order.

The ruling by Mr. Works directs the General Inspection company of Minneapolis, which makes rates for the state, to govern its rate-making accordingly. The action came after Mr. Works had had several conferences with Walter I. Fisher, manager of the company, and with underwriters of fire insurance.

In the order, Mr. Works says the contention of the bureau for maintaining the old rates is untenable.

The state has been divided into three sections by the insurance companies. The southern section comprises all territory south of Minneapolis and St. Paul and the Great Northern railroad to Breckenridge. The northern district includes all territory north of this with the exception of that in the northeastern part of the state, including St. Louis and Isanti counties, which comprises the northeastern section. Rates in the northern section were higher than in the southern section, while in the northeastern, the highest rates of all prevailed.

Oat Crop Worth $43,834,906.50.

The farm value of Minnesota's oat crop this year is $43,834,906.50. The farmers planted 3,129,500 acres in oats which produced 146,116,355 bushels. These figures were given out by Fred D. Sherman, immigration commissioner. The yield per acre was 46.69 bushels. "There is an increase this year in both the acreage and yield of oats as compared with last year," said Mr Sherman. "The 1914 figures according to Federal reports were 3,040,000 acres planted. The increase in acreage for this year is 89,500.

"The average yield per acre for Minnesota was 28 bushels last year. This yield has been increased this year by 18.69 bushels per acre. The total production of oats in Minnesota last year was 85,120,000 bushels. The gain in total production this year was 60,996,355 bushels."

Schools Receive $1,314,000.

All but $486,000 of the $1,800,000 due the public schools as special aid has been sent out by Walter J. Smith, state treasurer. The remaining money will be forwarded when Mr. Smith borrows $500,000 from the Federal Reserve bank, which is provided for in the resolution signed by Mr. Smith, J. A. O. Preus, state auditor, and Governor Hammond.

Wants Field Notes.

The state highway commission has suggested to Governor Hammond that the government field notes of surveys in Minnesota be turned over to it. The records are now in possession of the secretary of state. An act of congress will be necessary to make the change.

Suggests Advisory Board.

Reluctance on the part of one state department to suggest changes or improvements in another prompted Ralph W. Wheelock, a member of the state board of control, to direct a letter to the new efficiency and economy commission suggesting an advisory commission of experts to be composed of members of several of the principal state departments. In his letter Mr. Wheelock says he is acting as an individual and a taxpayer and without reference officially to the board of which he is a member.

EMPEROR WILLIAM MEETS AUSTRIAN RULER AT VIENNA

CONFER FOR FIRST TIME SINCE WAR BEGAN—AUSTRIA SEEKS PEACE IS RUMOR.

BRITISH WAR CHIEF TO MEET FRENCH MINISTER.

Earl Kitchener Arrives in Paris for Series of Conferences With Government—Forty-nine Lives Lost in Torpedoed Ships in Mediterranean.

London, Nov. 30.—The Kaiser and Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria met for a conference at Schoenbrunn castle, Vienna, on Monday. The meeting was their first since the war began.

Kitchener to Meet Gallieni.

Paris, Nov. 30.—Earl Kitchener arrived here at 8:30 a. m. Monday. General Yard-Buller of the British army and Captain Gigodot, representing French War Minister Gallieni, met him at the station. The Rome program of conferences between his lordship and the government heads will be repeated in Paris. The British war minister's presence in Paris is taken as effectually disproving all earlier rumors that he has been eliminated from the British cabinet.

Campaign Mapped Out.

When he visited Italy it was thought he might merely be arranging for Italian aid in the Balkans and that he would return there to direct the Allies' campaign. The first surmise was correct, but it is believed he would not have continued his journey to Paris if he were not on his way home. He is supposed to have mapped the Balkan campaign out fully, but to have left its actual execution in other hands.

French and British Ships Sunk.

Marseilles, Nov. 30.—The French steamship Omara has been sunk in the Mediterranean by a submarine. No word has been received of the 20 members of the crew. It is feared they have perished.

Deny Serbian Campaign Ended.

London, Nov. 30.—The British public is not inclined to grant the German contention that the Serbian campaign of the central powers has been brought to a successful conclusion. The hope is expressed here that the wintry weather will give time for reinforcing the Anglo-French troops until they are strong enough to assume the offensive before the invaders have consolidated their positions in Serbia. Russia also is counted on to play a part in these operations.

Monastir Reports Conflict.

In the meantime the only active military operations seem to be centering around Monastir, the fate of which is obscure. The many contradictory reports on this subject vary from the assertion that the city is still in the hands of the Serbians to the claim that the Bulgarians, accompanied by detachments of Austrians and Germans, have occupied the city.

THEY BEAT CONGRESS TO IT

Washington, Nov. 30. The National Commercial Gas association opened a threeday session at the New Willard hotel today. More than a thousand delegates were present, many of them having reached Washington on two special trains. Matters pertaining to the gas trade will be discussed and a events also has been arranged for the visitors and their ladies.

Commissioner Newman of the District of Columbia welcomed the delegates at the opening session. Then responses by members of the association were made and the session was adjourned to permit the visitors to go to the White House and other points of interest. Later a reception was to be given by H. B McLean of New York, president of the association.

The first business session will be held tomorrow when George Williams of New York will read a paper on "Selling Gas Service" and Joseph H. Appell of Philadelphia will discuss "The Principles of Merchandising as Applied to Gas Service."

President's Train Is Delayed.

Washington, Nov 30. Delayed by a wreck at Corwallis, Pa., between Philadelphia and Bristol, President Wilson was 25 minutes late in arriving here from New York. Freight train wreckage poled across the four-track right-of-way made it necessary to detour the president's train by way of Bordentown. The president's party bore little semblance to the one which he took with him to New York Saturday. Mr. Galt remained in New York to complete her wedding shopping.

SUDDEN DEATH

Caused by Disease of the Kidneys

The close connection which exists between the heart and the kidneys is well known nowadays. As soon as kidneys are diseased, arterial tension is increased and the heart functions are attacked. When the kidneys no longer pour forth waste, uremic poisoning occurs, and the person dies and the cause is often given as heart disease, or disease of brain or lungs.

Minimum Wage in Massachusetts.

A minimum wage schedule for women department store workers of Massachusetts has been decided on and will go into effect January 1 next. Mrs. Frank M. Hallowell, president of the State Consumers' league; Carroll N. Doten of the Institute of Technology, and Preston B. Clarke, president of the Plymouth Cordage company, represented the public on the minimum wage commission.

The board has been sitting since March, and though it has no power to enforce the wages decided on it may publish the names of employers who refuse to comply. The minimum wage for an experienced woman employed in a repartment store is $8.50. The minimum wage for inexperienced women is $7, while for a minor between seventeen and eighteen it is $5. Girls under seventeen years of age may not be paid less than $5 per week.—New York Sun.

Don't Shiver in Chilly Rooms

The discomfort of spending the early days of fall in chilly, unheated rooms is nothing to the danger to health.

It lowers the vitality and invites colds and pneumonia; if there are young children or old people in the family the risk of illness is doubled. It also is unnecessary, when the NEW PERFECTION Heater instantly banishes frosty chill and makes the living room a place of genial comfort.

Carry it with you from room to room and have heat to dress by in the morning and in the bathroom. After the winter fires are lighted, use the NEW PERFECTION in rooms that are hard to heat; in the night, if anyone is sick; wherever and whenever you want a warm room quickly—by simply striking a match.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

The NEW PERFECTION is easy to care for. Burns 10 hours on one gallon of oil. Can't smoke. No trouble to re-wick, because wick and carrier are combined—the fresh wick all ready to put in, clean, smooth and ready to light.

For best results use Perfection Oil.

At the Panama-Pacific Exposition the many points of superiority of the NEW PERFECTION Line won a Medal of Honor, while a Gold Medal was awarded the NEW PERFECTION Heater—a sweeping victory.

Your dealer has the NEW PERFECTION Oil Heater on exhibition. Look for the triangle for warmth, comfort and good cheer. He will be glad to show you the different models.

TEXT OF NOTE ON ANCONA DISASTER GIVEN TO PUBLIC

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY IS EXPECTED TO REPLY AT ONCE TO DEMANDS MADE BY UNITED STATES.

TORPEDOING OF LINER IS ARRAIGNED AS BARBAROUS

No Attempt Made to Conceal Fact That Unless Demands Are Quickly Complied With, Diplomatic Relations Will Be in Grave Danger of Being Severed.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Austria-Hungary is expected to reply shortly to the demands made by the United States in the note on the sinking of the Italian steamer Ancona. The note was delivered in Vienna December 6, and Washington officialdom considers the word "prompt" used, to mean the dual monarchy had but a week at most in which to reply.

In official and diplomatic circles the communication is regarded as being the most emphatic declaration from the United States government since the beginning of the European war. No attempt is made to conceal the fact that unless the demands are quickly complied with, diplomatic relations between the two countries will be in grave danger of being severed. The text of the note, which was handed to the Austrian foreign office by Ambassador Penfield, follows:

American Lives Lost.

"Reliable information obtained from American and other survivors who were passengers on the steamship Ancona shows that on Nov. 7 a submarine flying the Austro-Hungarian flag fired a solid shot toward the steamship; that thereupon the Ancona attempted to escape; but being overhauled by the submarine she stopped; that after a brief period and before the crew and passengers were all able to take to the boats the submarine fired a number of shells at the vessel and finally torpedoed and sank her while there were yet many persons on board; and that by gunfire and foundering of the vessel a large number of persons lost their lives or were seriously injured, among whom were citizens of the United States.

"The public statement of the Austro-Hungarian admiralty has been brought to the attention of the United States and received careful consideration. This statement substantially confirms the declaration of the survivors, as it admits the Ancona after being shelled was torpedoed and sunk while persons were still on board.

"Slaughter of Defenseless."

"The government of the United States considers that the commander violated the principles of international law and of humanity by shelling and torpedoing the Ancona before the persons on board had been put in a place of safety or even given sufficient time to leave the vessel. The conduct of the commander can only be characterized as wanton slaughter of defenseless non-combatants since at the time when the vessel was shelled and torpedoed, she was not, it appears, resisting or attempting to escape; and no other reason is sufficient to excuse such an attack, not even the possibility of rescue.

Austria Must Denounce Act.

"As the good relations of the two countries must rest upon a common regard for law and humanity, the government of the United States cannot be expected to do otherwise than to demand that the imperial and royal government denounce the sinking of the Ancona as an illegal and indefensible act, that the officer who perpetrated the deed be punished; and that reparation by the payment of an indemnity be made for the citizens of the United States who were killed or injured by the attack on the vessel.

"The government of the United States expects that the Austro-Hungarian government, appreciating the gravity of the case, will accede to its demands promptly and it rests this expectation on the belief that the Austro-Hungarian government will not sanction or defend an act which is condemned by the world as inhuman and barbarous, which is abhorrent to all civilized nations, and which has caused the death of innocent American citizens." "LANSING."

Teutons Bombard Gievgeli.

London, Dec. 13.—German and Bulgarian troops have begun the bombardment of Gievgeli, according to the Saloniki correspondent of the Mail.

Income Tax Revenue Jumps.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The personal income tax was paid during the last fiscal year by 357,515 individuals, who turned into the government $41,046,162, more by nearly $13,000,000 than the total paid by the 357,598 making returns the year before according to the annual report of the commissioner of internal revenue. The greatest increases shown was in the amounts paid by those subject to the normal tax, a jump from about $12,728,000, in 1914, to about $16,559,000, in 1915.

BRITISH LAND NEW FORCE AT SALONIKI; FRENCH FALL BACK

TEUTONS CONTINUE TO HARASS SERBIANS AND MONTENEGRINS AND CAPTURE MANY PRISONERS AND GUNS.

ALLIES RETIRING; GREEK ATTITUDE IS IMPORTANT

Athens Reports Entente Troops Will Be Allowed to Withdraw to Saloniki Without Interruption on the Part of the Greeks and Will Be Permitted to Remain.

London, Dec. 14.—The kaiser has written General von Mackensen saying that he will never forget the debt he owes him for his speedy campaign in the Balkans. A German paper says the Allies are already in a trap and cannot escape.

London, Dec. 14.—The Anglo-French troops, who last week began their retirement from their advanced positions in Southern Serbia, are now approaching, if they have not crossed, the Greek frontier, and the attitude Greece will adopt becomes more and more important.

French Troops at Saloniki.

Meanwhile, fresh contingents of British troops have been landed at Saloniki. Up to the northwest, along the Albanian frontier and in Montenegro the Teutonic allies continue to harass the Serbians and Montenegrins. The occupation of Korita and Roseaj in Montenegro and the capture of 6,000 prisoners and 40 Serb guns, are reported in the Austrian official statement.

Dispatches from Athens and news available in London indicate that the matter, which was left to the Greek and Allied military authorities at Saloniki, is being amicably arranged and that the Allies will be allowed to retire to that city without any interruption on the part of the Greeks, and will be permitted to remain there.

To Delay Bulgars.

Questions which are seriously occupying the Greek government have to do with the use of the railways, which are needed for the Greek troops, and the damage that might be done to them, with the object of impeding Bulgarian pursuit, should the Sofia government decide that the British and French are to be followed into Greek territory.

The British casualties are estimated at 1,500, while they were forced to leave behind eight field guns which had been placed in position to cover the retirement and could not be removed.

What the next move will be is known only to the Allied staffs, but it is generally believed that the Anglo-French forces will fall right back to Saloniki.

SEES DANGER TO NEUTRALITY

Attorney General Gregory Recommends Legislation Needed to Keep U. S. Out of War.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Increased facilities for keeping the United States from being drawn into the maelstrom of the European war and more specific authority for the punishment of persons who jeopardize American neutrality are needs to be met by the present Congress, according to the recommendations contained in the annual report of Attorney General Thomas W. Gregory to Congress.

The attorney general lays especial stress on the present dangers to neutrality and emphasizes the present helplessness of the government in putting a stop to the conspiracies, counter-conspiracies, bomb plots, filibustering expeditions and the score of other crimes, the repeated commission of which by foreigners and agents of foreign governments, he says, has harassed the United States since the outbreak of the European conflict.

U-Boats Sink 5 More Ships.

London, Dec. 16.—Five more vessels, among them a small Italian warship, have been sunk by Teuton submarines. A dispatch from Vienna says: "One of our submarines on the 5th sank a small Italian cruiser with two funnels off Avlona, Albania." The British steamer Ignis has been sunk. The crew has been landed. Eleven officers and 27 men of the British steamer Helmsdale have been picked up. The Italian steamer Dimis and the Italian bark Pietro Lofaro have been sunk.

COMMISSION ASKS FOR MORE POWER OVER RAILROADS

COMMERCE BODY RECOMMENDS ENLARGEMENT OF MEMBERSHIP WITH POWER TO ACT THROUGH SUBDIVISIONS.

REPORT SEEKS CONTROL OF RAIL CAPITALIZATION

Board Suggests to Congress that It Should Have Access to Letter Files of Carriers—Expenses for Past Year Approximately $4,000,000.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Early enlargement of the membership of the Interstate Commerce Commission, with statutory power to act through subdivisions, and legislation for control over railway capitalization were among the important recommendations made to congress in the commission's annual report.

The commission suggested that it should have express authority of law to have access to the letter files of carriers; that the use of steel cars in passenger trains be required and that the use in passenger trains of wooden cars between or in front of steel cars be prohibited. It was recommended that the minimum penalty for violations of the hours of service act be fixed at a fine of $100.

Spends Almost $4,000,000.

For the fiscal years which ended June 30 last the commission spent $3,933,925, including $2,133,925 for physical valuation work. By Jan. 1, the report says, surveys of nearly 50,000 miles of railroad will virtually be completed. The total railroad mileage of the country is put at $250,000 and the report says that the 200,000 miles left at the beginning of the year should be surveyed in the four following years under the present arrangement.

The commission expresses gratification at the decrease in the number of collisions, but says that individual instances of unsafe operating methods and violation of rules "are still too numerous. It suggests a standardization of operating rules through federal legislation. It shows that derailments have been on the increase and that in 1915 there were 3,538 collisions and 6,849 derailments, compared with 5,042 collisions and 3,633 derailments in 1902.

Track Conditions Bad.

"Track conditions which are unsafe for the operation of trains at the rate of speed permitted are too common," says the report. The commission suggests the need of definite information as to wheels, rails and other materials used in track and equipment and the strains and stresses they are required to sustain in service. Detailments caused by malicious tampering with track or switches are reported to be on the increase.

BRITAIN TO BUY SECURITIES

Chancellor of Exchequer Makes Announcement in House of Commons—Reply to Rumors.

London, Dec. 14.—The British government has decided to purchase American securities, paying for them in five-year 5 per cent exchequer bonds.

The chancellor of the exchequer, Reginald McKenna, has made this announcement in the house of commons.

He said the government was willing to buy such American dollar securities as were suitable at the middle American price of the day, without brokerage or commission.

Mr McKenna assured the house of commons nothing would be done to harrass the American market in connection with mobilization of American securities or to injure American financial interests here. He believed there was available a sufficient amount of securities to maintain exchange with New York.

The plan for mobilizing American securities, he said, was entirely voluntary. Estimates of the amount of American and Canadian securities held in this country varied, he said, from $300,000,000 to $400,000,000 to as high as $700,000,000 or $800,000,000.

Mr McKenna added he anticipated no difficulty in raising on voluntary terms such loans as the state might require.

This was the chancellor's reply to a request that he take steps to put an end to rumors that a compulsory loan might be necessary.

To Tax War Munitions Firms.

Washington, Dec. 14.—A bill to prohibit carrying passengers on ships with war munitions and a resolution to put the Senate on record for raising revenues for national defense by taxing manufacturers of munitions were introduced by Senator Kenyon. No action was taken on either.

The senator declared national defense plans were made necessary by the irritation of foreign nations by American sales of munitions to the Allies.

MAKING OUR OWN TOYS

No Scarcity of Gifts Because of War

Because of the European war there has been considerable comment to the effect that there will be a dearth of Christmas toys this year, since the toy sources of France and Germany will not be available to American children. French dolls have been the standard during at least two generations, and Nuremberg, Germany, is famed throughout the world as a toy center.

It must not be supposed, however, that little girls will have to go without dolls this year. Several manufacturers in the United States are turning out dolls by the thousands and they are of the very best type. One large factory in Philadelphia is making, under special processes, a type of indestructible doll from basswood, which is a light and easily worked material and is not likely to split or break. Those who have made a study of this manufacture, in connection with the study of the wood-using industries of the state of Pennsylvania, predict that dolls of the type made by this and other similar factories can gain first place for America in this branch of manufacture. Thus, the new trade slogan, "Made in the U. S. A.," will have a direct bearing in shifting the center of doll manufacture from Europe to America.

Painting the Features.

The following toys are now made in this country from American woods: Toy animals, blocks, cannon and forts, children's chair, circus sets, dolls, doll furniture, games, Christmas tree holders, swing jumpers, children's pianos, pastry sets, babies' play yards, toy shooting galleries, hobby horses, pop guns, toy wagons, toy autos and wheelbarrows. Basswood is the principal material for wooden toys and for wooden parts of metal toys. The basswood doll, in particular, is unique and ingenious. All parts of it are made of wood and are artistically carved and enameled in color. It is difficult to tell that it is made of wood when it is finished. The various parts of the body are joined with steel bands which not only give great flexibility and freedom of movement, but together with the wood make the doll practically indestructible.

Next to basswood, sugar maple, beech, birch and white pine are the principal woods used for toys, although elm, oak, chestnut, ash, yellow poplar and others enter into toy manufacture. Pennsylvania, which stands first among the states in toy manufacture, alone uses the equivalent of nearly 6,500,000 board feet of timber for toys, with a total value of $182,000 each year. The total amount of wood used annually in the United States for toy manufacture is nearly 29,000,000 feet, and the principal toy manufacturing states after Pennsylvania are, in order, Wisconsin, Maine, Michigan, New York, Ohio, Vermont, Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

Basswood is the favorite for such toys as toy animals, boats, dolls, circus sets and children's pianos. Blocks and dolls' furniture and toy vehicles are generally made of white pine. Stick horses, with a horse's head and a stick to ride upon, a more pretentious variation of the old-fashioned broom horse, are likely to be made of white pine, although the stick head may be made of different material. Rocking horses are usually made of white ash.

In the native forests, basswood occurs sparingly and very seldom in groups or in solid stands. In the lake states in particular it is sawed incidentally with other timber, but the logs are usually kept separate and generally sawed in accordance with standing orders from special industries. It is utilized for many other products besides toys, because it has qualities which fit it for a wide range of uses. It is one of the softest of the so-called hardwoods, it lacks taste and odor, is very easily worked, does not warp or check badly, is tough and takes paint very well. It is one of the woods preferred for boxes to contain food products likely to be contaminated by the tastes or odors which might be derived from other woods. For the same reasons it finds considerable use in the manufacture of kitchen woodenware. It is in some demand as a material for house finish and a great deal of it goes into the unseen parts of furniture and musical instruments. Other important uses are for trunks, picture frames and excelsior.

In farmers' woodlots, in particular, it is a tree which should be favored, because it is a fairly rapid grower, is free from defects, and is usually salable. In selling this tree from a woodlot, the department of agriculture advises that it should be held for special prices and not sold in a lump with others.

Basswood has several advantages as a standing tree in the woodlot. In the first place, its blossoms furnish a considerable source of honey which is always in good demand, and when the tree is cut it readily regenerates itself from sprouts, the best of which should be favored in reproducing the stand.

Our Christmas Customs.

Most of the Christmas customs in America have been transplanted from Europe: Our Christmas tree comes from Germany, our Santa Claus from Holland, the Christmas stocking from Belgium or France, while "Merry Christmas" was the old English greeting shouted from window to street on Christmas morning.

The Optimistic Note.

It is a time for joy and gladness and good cheer, for this old world, with all its faults, is on its way towards the kingdom of heaven, and the omnipotence of love assures its getting there. Some time every day will be the best of Christmas, every place its altar of observance, and every soul be transformed into the Christ of his environment.—Universalist Leader.

Remember the days when you were little, and plan your Christmas accordingly.

WESTERN CANADA'S WONDERFUL YIELD

Wheat Yields Reports Extraordinarily Heavy.

When one hears of individual wheat yields of thirty-five to forty bushels per acre, there is considerable incredulity, but when yields, in whole townships extending into districts covering three and four and five hundred square miles in area, of upwards of fifty and some as high as sixty-five bushels per acre are reported, one is led to put his ear to the ground to listen for further rumblings. The writer having heard of these wonderful yields made a trip through the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, to ascertain first hand their truthfulness. It was remarkable to discover that Dame Rumor was no rumorer after all, that modesty was her mantle, that all that had been said of these yields was true, and that yields of over seventy bushels per acre were told of. These were so high that the truthfulness of the story was doubtful and very little was said of them. But such there were, and not in one instance, but in several, not in one locality but scattered in places hundreds of miles apart. Leaving these out altogether, there were large areas in which the average was over fifty bushels per acre, which in all common sense ought to satisfy most people. One hundred and thirty threshers in Alberta have made their returns to the local government as required by an act of the Legislature, and the average of the wheat threshed was fifty-three bushels to the acre. So immense was the yield that official verification was required before giving it out to the public. Sitting in the smoking compartment of a day coach, where on passing through a farming community, there may be gathered the gossipy yarns of the neighborhood, one hears also a lot of news. Just now, the sole topic is that of the crops. A man with more or less of a hirsute appendage, smock, clothes and hands giving the appearance of one working in the field, was asked as to the crops. He had got on at Warner, Alberta. Taking out his pipe, lighting it and then crossing his knees, holding his chin in his hands, possessing an air of supreme contentment, and with an intelligent face, he looked the man who could give some information. And he was just the man. He was a thresher and on his way to Milk River to secure some more help. He was requisitioned for information. "Yes, a good season, I've made a lot of money. As for yields, let's see," and then he began to string them off. "Peterson had 63 bushels of wheat per acre on his five hundred acre farm; from 380 acres Roland got 65 bushels per acre; Bugler had one hundred and ten acres that went 63 bushels; Carr had 65 bushels per acre off an eight hundred acre field." And he gave others running from 58 to 66 bushels per acre. All these people lived east of Warner, Alberta. Looking out of the window and seeing immense fields, still covered with stocks he was asked why they were not threshed, he replied that there were not enough "rigs" in the district, and that they would not get through before Christmas.

An American writing of a trip he made through Western Canada says: "I went as far west as Saskatoon, back to Regina, Moose Jaw, and down on the Soo line, and I must say that I never saw such crops, or ever heard of anything to compare with it in any country on earth. The country is over the hill, and certainly the farmers have a lot to be thankful for. There are very few of them that have done their work and done it properly but what have their debts paid and have bank accounts left."

And he only traveled the skirt of the country. The same story could be written of any part of any of three Provinces.—Advertisement.

State News in Brief

Mankato.—In the district court, Ralph Macbeth was convicted of assault in the second degree on a 14-year-old girl.

Rochester.—Eighty registered sheep owned by John Fox, a farmer of Simpson, have disappeared, and all efforts to find the herd have failed.

Red Wing.—Mr. and Mrs. William Gherka celebrated their golden wedding at their home in Zumbrota. Dinner was served to thirty guests at the home of J. C. Miller.

St. Paul.—The state legal department has completed an inventory of the estate of the late Mrs. W. H. Dunwoody of Minneapolis. The value is approximately $2,000,000.

Fergus Falls.—Through increased activities of the county agent and the interest of dairymen two co-operative cow-testing associations have been organized in Otter Tail county.

Wheaton.—Petitions have been filed for the establishment of four judicial drainage systems, which will affect Traverse, Big Stone, Wilkin, Grant and Stevens counties.

Duluth.—Aad temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, Duluth, has made an offer of $50,000 to the city for the old armory, recently vacated by the Minnesota national guard when the new state armory was finished.

St. Cloud.—A cablegram received here said that Dr. A. J. Kirghis, local physician who was forced into the French war service when called to that country by the serious illness of his father, had procured his release and had sailed from Bordeaux.

Mankato.—Julius Just, 78 years old, a pioneer of the county, is dead. He was a native of Germany, but came here when a boy. He went South to work for a planter and while there was drafted into the Confederate army. At the close of the war he took a claim in this county.

Detroit.—Three girls, Lulu and Oma Knight, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Knight of Savannah, 13 and 16 years old, and Miss Gayle Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hughes of Savannah, 16 years old, were drowned in Boot lake in northeast Becker county. They were crossing the lake and failed to see an airhole.

Rochester.—North side residents of Rochester are planning to fight the state of Minnesota. The state has completed plans for a state hospital sewerage system which will empty into the Zumbro river in the north part of the city. Residents in that vicinity object and are planning to take steps to prevent such action on the part of the board.

Fergus Falls.—The Red River valley dairymen held the most successful convention in their history here. Officers elected at the closing session were C. G. Selvig of Crookston, president; L. Jensen, Clear Brook, first vice president; A. B. Stensgaard, McIntosh, second vice president; L. J. Houske, Halstad, secretary; C. M. Davidson, Climax, treasurer.

Bemidji.—Informal discussion of good roads occupied a prominent place on the program of the Northern Development association. Robert Dunn, in a letter read by Senator McGarry, announced that he intends to ask for an amendment to the Dunn law at the next session of the Legislature, which will include the workable features of the Elwell law.

Wheaton.—The Traverse County Agricultural association held its annual stockholders' meeting and elected the following officers: President, O. J. Davidson; vice president, J. E. Dodds; secretary, H. H. Dokken, treasurer, F. H. Klawon. The following are the members of the board of directors: S. L. Downey, F. F. Thill, G. A. Oscarson, F. J. Steidl, Peter Hauschild and William Ringdahl.

St. Paul.—The Minnesota College of Agriculture is making preparations for an attendance of from 1,200 to 1,500 at Farmers' and Home Makers' Week to be held at University farm, St. Paul, Jan. 3-8, 1916. This week, as it is called, is in fact expected to become a great annual rural-life school and conference, and on the home-makers' side it is expected to interest not only the women of the country, but the women of the city as well.

Cleveland.—While temporarily insane, Mrs. David Marsh, 32, wife of a telephone lineman, cut the throat of her 6-year-old son, Vernon, and then, using the same weapon, a butcher-knife, slashed her own throat. The woman had evidently planned to kill her husband and a younger son who were sleeping together, but was prevented by the husband, who was awakened by the cries of the dying boy. Before he could stay her hand, however, she drew the knife across her own throat.

To Close Immoral Hotels.

Minneapolis, Dec. 13.—The council on motion of Alderman Williams, unanimously recommended to the mayor and the chief of police that all hotels which have not applied for licenses be closed forthwith, and that the mayor and chief close immediately those having license applications pending, which are known to be of immoral nature. The motion from Alderman Williams set forth that the hotel licensing ordinance is four months old.

CO-OPERATION IS URGED BY WOOD

DEAN WOULD HAVE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY SEEK RURAL MEMBERS.

STATE CAPITOL HAPPENINGS

Events of General Interest in Minnesota Condensed and Revised for The Greater Convenience of Busy Readers.

A. F. Woods, dean of the state college of agriculture, has urged the Minnesota State Horticultural society to lose no time in having each of the 900 farmers' clubs in the state appoint a horticultural committee, one member of which would have representation in the society. Dean Woods was speaking at the opening session of the horticulutral society's meeting at the West hotel. He said fruits and flowers are civilizing and home-making influences.

Not only through the farmers' clubs but through the rural schools should better homes, better farms and better country life be enlarged upon, the speaker urged. Dean Woods asked delegates to the horticultural meeting to interest themselves in consolidated schools and teacherages. He said Minnesota has 148 community centers in the shape of consolidated schools. The speaker suggested that the horticultural association should have a community building of its own and that it should be located at the university farm.

Potato Crop Increases.

Minnesota lovers of potatoes will have 4,596,476 bushels more to digest this year than in 1914, according to figures made public by Fred D. Sherman, immigration commissioner. The total production this year was 35,376,476 bushels and the farm value $17,688,238. Farmers of Minnesota used 304,424 acres for potatoes this year, as against 270,000 acres in 1914. The yield this year shows a gain of five bushels to the acre, from 114 bushels to 119 bushels.

"A glance at figures for a period of years back shows that Minnesota's potato acreage is gradually increasing" said Mr. Sherman. "This is accounted for by the fact that much new land in Northeastern Minnesota is being opened every year.

"That section of the state is particularly adapted to potatoes and the settlers look on potatoes as a staple crop for the first few years.

"It was only a few years ago when practically all the potatoes used in Northeastern Minnesota were shipped from the central part of the state, but now many of the counties are shipping potatoes each year."

Commission Hears Complaint.

The state railroad commission has heard testimony on the complaint of William Devine, who asks for restoration of the old $5 switching rate on ice from New Brighton to Minnesota Transfer. Under the Cashman law he now pays 40 cents a ton, which amounts to $8 or $10 a car, and he says wipes out all profit in cutting. Railroad attorneys were present to oppose the application.

* * *

Hammond at St Cloud.

Outlining the purposes and objects of the All-Minnesota Development association organized in St. Paul on Dec 1, Governor W S Hammond in an address before the St Cloud Commercial club, urged its co-operation in making the general plan a success. The governor cited as one problem that could be taken up the extension of loans to settlers on cleared, tiled or drained lands.

Recommends Buck Law.

The prairie chicken soon will be extinct in Minnesota if it is not protected by a closed season, says Ethan A. Cleasby, district inspector under the federal migratory bird law, who called on Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner. Mr Cleasby also recommended the Wisconsin "buck law" for Minnesota, not only as protection to the deer, but to save the lives of hunters.

To Receive Filings.

Secretary of State [illegible] is prepared to receive filings from those who desire to seek the nomination of president or vice president, or convention delegate. Blanks necessary under the new presidential preference primary law have been received by him.

Prairie Chickens Extinct.

The prairie chicken soon will be extinct in Minnesota if it is not protected by a closed season, says Ethan A. Cleasby, district inspector under the federal migratory bird law, who called on Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner.

Says Work is Duplicated.

Frank [illegible], state [illegible], connected with the Stillwater prison and the St Cloud reformatory, believes state care of defectives and state charges generally are badly divided in the matter of responsibility. Writing to the new Efficiency and Economy commission, he says that all the institutions have agents whose duty is the care of those discharged or out on parole. The paths of these agents, he says, are crossing constantly, and he believes that a co-ordinated agent system should be created.

RICHES TO ALMS AND RICH AGAIN

PLOT FOR MELODRAMA

Cast Off by Father When She Divorces Her Husband to Marry Another—Returns in Old Age and Recovers Riches.

Chicago.—In the good old days of melodrama you might have stood, dime in hand waiting at the theater door for a sight of that rattling melodrama, "From Millionaire's Mansion to Poorhouse, or Stubborn as Her Father."

From the program slip you might have learned that Seth Wadhams was a millionaire ice manufacturer of Chicago, and beautiful Emma was his daughter. And then you would have leaned forward tensely to see old Seth point a forefinger (lean) at his daughter and hear his harsh Connecticut voice plank down the law:

"Daughter, you divorced Loring without my consent. The son of the proudest social family in Chicago. A couple of years of him sated you. You rid yourself of him.

"And now you're going to marry Colton, the architect, eh? I say you shan't! Marry him and you'll never darken my door again!"

Spirited Girl Departs.

Now, what could a young girl of spirit do? One insolent glance at old Seth; one defiant stare over the footlights—and she's gone!

Well, years had passed, and with their passing had come no word of beautiful Emma Wadhams nor of Colton. Married they had been, and then had vanished.

Old Seth Wadhams had become a man of sorrow. So Seth Wadhams began a search. It brought no results.

Seth Wadhams lost hope. He was out of business now, had sold his ice company and had retired permanently.

By the way, this isn't stage fiction; it's the truth. But to resume:

A dozen years had passed and Seth Wadhams made his will, disposing of all his property. No bequest was left to his daughter, for he was convinced that she was dead.

And on February 6, 1888, Seth Wadhams laid him down and died.

Here Skip 23 Years.

Skip 23 years. In April, 1911, a bent little woman came to the Old People's home of Chicago. Her hair was faded and her step was uncertain.

"My name is Emma Wadhams Green," she said. "I am sixty-two years old. I was once Mrs. Colton, and my husband was an architect, in affluent circumstances. We lived in various cities. A few years ago he died, and I married a third time. Now Mr. Green and I are poor. He is with relatives in Michigan, and I must ask for shelter."

One Glance at Old Seth, and She's Gone.

Then the manager of the Old People's home told her that her father, Seth Wadhams, had left $30,000 to the home, and they offered her a few dollars a week to live on.

She accepted the money and visited Attorney John J. Coburn. He investigated and found that Mr. Wadhams had left $10,000 to the home for its ordinary uses and $20,000 to build "a home for old men of American birth, only, separate and apart from said Old People's home."

But the $30,000 had not been used. It had been invested. So Mrs. Green sued for the money, asserting it should be forfeited because it had not been put to its proper uses and it should be given to her as the sole material heir of her father's estate.

Chased by Bull; Becomes Insane.

Lawrenceburg, Ind.—Mrs. Anna Newman, aged sixty-seven, wife of a wealthy farmer, became insane recently after being chased by an infuriated bull. Her mind is a blank.

Built Fire and Leaped Into It.

Wabash, Ind.—Mrs. Amos Reynolds committed suicide recently by leaping into a fire she had built. Her charred remains were found by her two step children.

Last Chance.

"It is said," he remarked, reflectively, "that women's hands are growing larger."

"Well?" she returned, inquiringly.

"Yes," he asserted. "And the worst of it is that there is every likelihood that this tendency will continue."

"Yes?" she said, in the same inquiring tone.

"Yes," he repeated. 'You see, driving, and golf, and tennis, and other sports that women have recently taken up are responsible for it."

"In that case," she said, with a glance at her own dainty hands, "you'd better speak quick if you want a small one."

He realized that it was the opportunity of a lifetime, and he spoke promptly.

Should Have Been Enough.

Mrs. Morgan had a colored maid named Sarah. One Sunday afternoon the mistress saw Sarah's lover leaving the house clad in a suit of white flannel. A little later, when the maid appeared, Mrs. Morgan said:

"Sarah, that beau of yours should never wear white. He is so very black that white clothes make him appear all the blacker. Why don't you give him a hint?"

"Why, Mis' Morgan," said Sarah, with animation, "I done give him er lot ob hints, but he jes' natterly ain't got no sense an' didn't take 'em."

"Probably you didn't make the hints strong enough," said the mistress.

"Well, ma'am, dat's jes' what I think myself," agreed Sarah, reflectively; "I don't believe I did. I jest looks at him right hard an' I says, 'Isham yo' sho do look like a black snake crawlin' out ob cream, you do!' Thet's jes' all I says to him, Mis' Morgan."—Everybody's Magazine.

THE VERY TIME

When Powerful Food is Most Needed.

The need of delicate yet nutritious food is never felt so keenly as when a convalescent gets a set back on account of weak stomach. Then is when Grape-Nuts shows its power for it is a most scientific and easily digested food.

"About a year ago," writes a Kansas woman, "my little six year old niece left the invigorating and buoyant air of Kansas, where all her life she had enjoyed fairly good health, to live in Ohio. She naturally had a change of diet and of course a change of water, and somehow she contracted typhoid fever.

"After a long siege her case seemed hopeless, doctors gave her up, and she was nothing but skin and bones, couldn't eat anything and for weeks did not know even her father or mother. Her parents, in trying to get something delicate and nourishing that she could eat, finally hit upon Grape-Nuts food and it turned out to be just the thing.

"She seemed to relish it, was soon conscious of her surroundings and began to gain strength so rapidly that in a short time she was as well, playful and robust as if she had never been ill.

"We all feel that Grape-Nuts was the predominating factor in saving the sweet little girl's life."

WILSON AND BRIDE GO TO VIRGINIA ON THEIR HONEYMOON

LESS THAN 45 WITNESS WEDDING AT GALT HOME

Rev. Herbert Scott Smith Officiates at Nuptials Conducted in Bower of Beautiful Flowers — Couple March, Without Music, Unattended, to Altar.

Washington, Dec. 21.—A blur of two faces inside the White House limousine as it whirled away was the last Washington saw of President Wilson and a new "first lady of the land."

The president of the United States and Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt were married Saturday night, and, speeding away in an automobile to Alexandria to elude curious crowds, were soon en route to Hot Springs, Va., on their honeymoon.

Only a few hundred persons received the last impression. They were those who had braved a raw, cold blustery night and had stood outside the Galt home, held at a distance by 100 police.

It was 10 p. m. when the big car dashed up. The old oil lamp which swung back and forth over the doorway of the bride's home flared up and gleamed brighter for a moment. The bride and groom walked down the enclosed stairway to the machine. There was a roar and the limousine dashed forward, closely followed by two cars with secret service men.

The wedding was over. The chill of the night grew sharper and the crowd melted away.

Ceremony Is Simple.

There was none of the panoply of a state function at the wedding ceremony. It was obviously the desire of the president that all the details should be in keeping with the idea that it was to have no official character whatever, and he was to appear as Mr. Woodrow Wilson, rather than as the chief executive of the nation. For that reason there were no military aids, no glint of uniforms, no shimmer of gold braid, no suggestion of the formalities which even on ordinary occasions surround the president. Even as weddings go, the ceremony at the Galt residence was of the simplest and most dignified character.

Bride's Rector Officiates.

It was beneath a canopy of green, banked with ferns, Scotch heather and orchids, that Woodrow Wilson took Edith Bolling Galt to wife. The ceremony was performed in the bride's home by Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of St. Margaret's Protestant Episcopal church, of which the bride is a member. He was assisted by Rev. James H. Taylor, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, the place of worship of the president and his family in Washington.

Woodrow Wilson.

Not more than 45 guests, members of the immediate families of the president and his bride, and several of their most intimate friends, were present at the wedding ceremony.

Bride Married in Black.

A half hour later Mrs. Galt, smiling radiantly, descended the stairs, at the foot of which her fiance stood waiting to receive her. It was immediately noted that she was to be married in black.

Mrs. Galt took the president's arm and, followed by the guests, they led the way to the drawing room where the improvised altar had been arranged for the ceremony. No music preceded the entrance of the wedding party. There was none during the impressive but simple ceremony.

When the president and his bride knelt on the white satin prie dieu to repeat their marriage vows, the bride in a gown of black silk velvet and wearing no jewels except a brooch of flashing diamonds, set in platinum, the president's gift, they were unattended.

The wedding bower was a mass of maidenhair ferns reaching from floor to ceiling, with a canopy of ferns arranged as a huge shell, lined with blooming Scotch heather. In the background of the bower was set a mirror framed in orchids. Tall standards of American beauty roses stood at either side of the bower, rising from masses of lacelike cibotium ferns. In the bower stood the prie dieu of white satin, adorned with maindenhair ferns and bunches of orchids held in place with ribbons.

Episcopal Service Is Read.

It was just 8:30 p. m., when the president and Mrs. Galt arrived at the altar and Mr. Smith began the reading of the Episcopal service.

When he asked: "Who giveth this woman to be married to this man?" Mrs. Bolling, mother of the bride, stepped forward, placed her hand in that of the president, and answered in a low voice, "I do."

The president kissed the bride at the conclusion of the ceremony and so did most of her relatives.

The ring used was of the plainest sort, a rounded band made from California nuggets presented to the president some weeks ago by a delegation of young women from that state.

The guests observed that Mrs. Galt responded in a firm voice to the admonition to "obey" as well as to love and honor her husband.

Bride Cuts Wedding Cake.

A ripple of excitement among the guests which communicated to the president and his bride, marked the close of the solemn ceremony and at the same time an orchestra of string instruments sounded a gayer note. The president and Mrs. Wilson and their guests, when the shower of congratulations had subsided, gathered about the table in the dining room. The bride cut the wedding cake, the health of the distinguished couple was drunk and the ceremony was over.

By the time the wedding cake was cut the mystery of the coming wedding trip of the president and Mrs. Wilson was no longer a mystery.

President Wilson took the newspaper men into his confidence early in the day and informed them that his plans were to leave for Hot Springs, Va.

Catch Train at Alexandria.

At 9:30 p. m., the president and Mrs. Wilson, with the eyes of the patient crowd gathered in the street centered on them, entered the White House limousine and trailed by the secret service men and police were driven to Alexandria, Va., where they caught the "Honeymoon Special" for Hot Springs.

As they left the front door they looked back at those within, and the smiling, happy countenances of the president and his lady were reflected in the big mirror in the entrance hall. Banks of ferns about the mirror and sprays of American beauty roses nodded goodbye as the cold night air swept into the hallway. The wedding was over.

How long the president and his bride will remain at Hot Springs on the honeymoon depends in some measure upon the pressure of public affairs. If the responsibilities of state do not intervene to demand the president's return to Washington it is probable they will not come back before the end of two weeks.

Roumanian General Kills Self.

Geneva, via London, Dec. 20.—Munich newspapers received here announce the suicide of General Jonesco, commanding the second Roumanian army corps. According to the story, the general was suspected of having been bribed by one of the powers. The minister of war ordered an inquiry and, his suspicions being confirmed, sent two officers to inform General Jonesco of the result of the investigation. Two hours later General Jonesco killed himself.

War Death Date Low.

Paris, Dec. 20.—Dr. Jacques Bertillon, director of medical statistics of the French army in a special report which he has prepared, states that the mortality among the sick and wounded in hospitals is only 18 in 1,000. Last year the mortality ratio was [illegible] to 1,000.

In peace times the Paris hospitals show a mortality of 106 in 1,000.

The cause of the decrease is attributed to better hospital conditions.

FORD PEACE PARTY 'HOPELESSLY SPLIT' AS STEAMER DOCKS

CONFIDENT HIS PLAN WILL GET MEN OUT OF TRENCHES

Detroit Manufacturer Declares American Pilgrims Soon Will Be Looked Upon as Taking Initiative in Stopping Worst War—Bryan May Join.

London, Dec. 21.—The majority of the members of the Ford peace party realize they are on a fool's errand and the delegation is hopelessly split, the correspondent of the Daily Mail reports from Christiania. Dissensions are wide and bitter, according to word received here, and a "cat and dog" fight to oust American reporters with the party is said to have taken place after Norwegian newspaper men left the ship with full details of all the happenings on the way over. It was charged the correspondents tried to wreck the mission.

Christiania, Norway, Dec. 21. — "Every nation in the world will soon look upon the American peace pilgrims as taking the initiative in stopping history's worst war. The landing of the peace expedition in Europe will be recorded as one of the most benevolent things the American republic ever did," said Henry Ford to a press representative on stepping ashore on Norwegian soil.

Reaches Port After 14 Days.

The Oscar II., carrying the Ford peace expedition, arrived at this port Saturday after a 14-days' voyage from New York. The delegates expressed much displeasure because the vessel was delayed three days by the British authorities at Kirkwall, Scotland.

Mr. Ford said he was confident the expedition would result in getting the men out of the trenches before the winter was over. He declared he had information from official sources that his peace plan was looked upon with approval.

Bryan May Join Party.

He added that his motive in coming to Europe was to develop to the full an understanding throughout the world by the time the peace sessions were begun at The Hague.

William Jennings Bryan was expected to join the peace party there, he said.

Mr. Ford explained the presence of the American party in Norway was merely intended to convince the Norwegians of the fervent wish of Americans for peace. He expects to gather a Norwegian delegation here and then in about three days proceed to Stockholm, Sweden.

Definite Program.

He said the party would grow as it traveled, through neutral countries and that this would convince the belligerents that the rest of the world demanded peace immediately.

By the time Copenhagen was visited and The Hague reached, probably two weeks hence, Mr. Ford said, the peace movement would have a definite program.

Receptions by Christiania preachers and university professors and an unofficial call made by Albert G. Schmedeman, American minister to Norway, attended the first day of the members of the peace expedition in Europe.

VILLA WOULD CROSS BORDER

Retires From Command of Forces Opposing Carranza—Friends Ask for His Immunity.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 21.—No word of denial of the report of his retirement from command of the Convention forces opposing the Carranza government, has been received from General Francisco Villa. Rumors declared first that he was enroute for Palomas, and would cross at Columbus, N. M. It was also reported that he was on his way to Ojinaga, opposite Presidio, Texas.

Ask for Permission.

At a conference of United States military officials, state and city authorities and representatives of the Carranza and Villa governments, it was requested by the Villa delegation that General Villa and his brother, Hipolito Villa, his financial agent, be permitted to cross the border unharassed by legal, criminal or civil action.

Germans Accuse American.

Berlin, (via London), Dec. 2.—Siegfried Paul London, a naturalized American citizen, has been placed in jail at Warsaw and is awaiting trial on a charge of espionage. As the investigation has not yet been completed the authorities have not been able to communicate to the American consulate the full charges against London, which are understood to involve an alleged conspiracy to convey information to the Russians after the German occupation of Warsaw.

WILLIAM R. WOOD

© HARRIS & EWING

William R. Wood, a new congressman from Indiana, has brought to Washington a plan for officering the much-talked-of increased army of the United States. He would have the government establish technical schools that would have also military courses, the graduates being pledged to service in case of war. Mr. Wood was born in Oxford, Ind. He is a lawyer and for 18 years before election to congress was a member of the Indiana state legislature. He is a Republican.

FOR CONFERENCE IN PANAMA

MORE THAN 1,000 SEEK PLACES IN CHURCH CONGRESS.

Promoters Say Controversy Over Delegation in Episcopal Church Will Not Affect Meeting.

New York, Dec. 21.—Promoters of the Panama congress, Feb. 10 to 20, to take place in the city of Panama to consider Christian work in Latin America, report applications for membership of more than 1,000.

Actual membership is to be limited to about 300, and visitors to about 300 more.

The promoters say that while they deeply regret the trouble that has arisen in the Episcopal church over sending delegates to the congress, they cannot see that it affects the congress as a whole, since only seven delegates out of a total of 300 are affected.

A special agent of the congress, just returned from Panama, where he went to arrange for accommodations, reports the city well equipped to care for the congress.

Four Conferences Announced.

Following the main congress at Panama, four district conferences are announced. One of these is rather a series of conferences, lasting throughout March. These will be at Lima, Santiago, Buenos Aires and Rio de Janiero, and the expenses of individuals making the round of all will be at least $1,000. Already, however, this tour is well filled.

Other district conferences are to be in Havana, Mexico City, at some city yet to be selected in Central America, and at Barranquilla in Columbia.

Eight commissioners on as many forms of missionary and educational work will report at Panama, after the plan of the Edinburgh conference. It is stated that these commission reports confine themselves to conditions as they now exist, and do not make recommendations for future efforts. Practically every Protestant society in North America is joining in this congress. Protestant societies of South America, of which there are several, are also joining.

WILSON AND BRIDE WELCOMED

Arrive at Hot Springs, Va., to Spend Their Honeymoon—Seek Seclusion in Mountains.

Hot Springs, Va., Dec. 21.—President Wilson and his bride, former Mrs. Norman Galt, have arrived here to spend their honeymoon. They were met at the station by a crowd of several hundred people who applauded as they alighted from their private car.

The distinguished couple upon whom the eyes of the nation turned Saturday night when they were married in Washington, came here to begin their married life in the quiet seclusion of the mountains of the state in which both of them were born.

ENGLISH TROOPS ARE WITHDRAWN FROM GALLIPOLI

MAY MEAN ABANDONMENT OF DARDANELLES PLANS

Retirement Which Affects More Than 100,000 Troops Cloaked in Mystery—Men May be Used to Defend Egypt Against Turco-German Invasion.

Paris, Dec. 21.—Fighting between small detachments of Greek and Bulgarian troops is reported in a dispatch from Brindiski, Italy, to the Havas news agency. It is said several Greek officers and soldiers were killed or wounded and that the Greek government is hastily forwarding reinforcements to the scene of fighting.

London, Dec. 21.—The British troops at the Suvla bay and Anzac districts of Gallipoli peninsula have been withdrawn.

The following official statement has just been issued here:

"All the troops at Suvla and Anzac, together with their guns and stores, have been successfully transferred with insignificant casualties, to another sphere of operations."

Presumably the British troops are being withdrawn for service at Saloniki or in Egypt.

Affects 100,000 Troops.

The withdrawal affects more than 100,000 British troops who have been vainly attempting for several months to advance against the Turks in the Suvla bay and Anzac regions on the west shore of the Gallipoli peninsula. No mention was made by the war office of any withdrawals from the Sedd-el-Bahr region, at the southern tip of Gallipoli, where French and British troops hold lines near Krithia.

The withdrawal, however, may be the forerunner of abandonment of the whole Dardanelles campaign in favor of Balkan operations or to defend Egypt against the expected Turco-German invasion.

More than 100,000 British troops, made up largely of Australians and New Zealanders, were landed on the shores of Suvla bay and in the Anzac region several months after the first land operations against the Dardanelles were begun from the region of Sedd-el-Bahr. Their object was to cut the communications and drive across the peninsula to an attack on the Dardanelles forts from the rear.

Uunable to Advance.

The attempt failed after nearly meeting with success in a grand assault. The British were driven back to their trenches close to the water's edge. They have made no important advance since the days immediately following the landing.

The Suvla bay and Anzac cove positions are on the north coast of Gallipoli peninsula. Anzac cove is about 16 miles from the tip. Suvla bay is five miles further on.

Lord Kitchener, secretary of state for war, recently made a trip to the Dardanelles to investigate conditions there after General Monro, the British commander, had recommended that the campaign there be abandoned. The present move, it is believed here, is the result of Lord Kitchener's investigation.

There are two fields of operations in the near east to which British troops withdrawn from the Gallipoli peninsula might be forwarded—Macedonia and Egypt.

President And Bride Play Golf

Hot Springs, Va., Dec. 21.—The golf links on the countryside here lured President Wilson and his bride on the second day of their honeymoon and they planned to spend several hours on the course. Mrs. Wilson is a devotee of the game, the president having taught her since they became engaged. Every arrangement has been made to allow the couple to spend the honeymoon quietly. A section of a hotel was set apart for them and secret service agents attempted to keep off a corps of photographers.

Says Japan Guards Suez Canal

Los Angeles, Dec. 21.—That Japan is giving material aid to the Entente Allies in the European war, not only by supplying munitions but actually guarding the Suez canal with her warships, was stated here by A. M. Papajian Boy, former minister of the interior in Egypt, who is in Los Angeles. The Suez canal has been strongly fortified since the war began, he said.

Taft Ill at La Crosse, Wis

La Crosse, Wis., Dec. 21.—Former President William Howard Taft came here Sunday night, sick, and was taken to the home of a former classmate at Yale, George W. Burton, where he was put to bed immediately. He was taken with such chills on the train that it was necessary to make up a bed for him in the parlor car. A telegram was sent ahead to have a bed prepared and a throat specialist ready. At 8:30 a. m. he was still in bed and there was doubt that he would be able to carry out his program here.

VILLA SIGNS PEACE TERMS

MAKES AGREEMENT WITH CARRANZA AT EL PASO, TEX.

State Department Officials Decide Mexican Is Entitled to Enter U. S. as Political Refugee.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 21.—Final arrangements for General Francisco Villa to enter the United States, ending his participation in Mexican affairs, have been made here, according to information from authentic sources. Preparations to this effect were begun upon receipt of Secretary Robert Lansing's decision that Villa would be accorded asylum as a political refugee.

Sign Peace Terms.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 21.—An agreement was reached and papers were being signed at noon Monday whereby the Villa faction in northern Mexico concludes peace terms with the defacto government of Mexico. The conference was between Mexican Consul Garcia and former lieutenants of General Francisco Villa at the consulate in El Paso.

General Francisco Villa is reported to be in Juarez.

A Political Refugee.

State department officials have decided that General Villa will receive the asylum accorded a political refugee should he enter the United States. This decision was sent to General Frederick Funston by the war department for transmission to Villa or his representatives.

State department agents had reported that alleged intermediaries had requested Villa's immunity from arrest, saying if this was given they believed Villa would abandon the fight against Caranza and retire to private life in the United States.

Villa Army to Quit.

The state department does not conceal its desire to have Villa eliminated. Without him the revolution in the north will certainly fail, officials believe. Intermediaries also said the plan was for the retirement from the field of the entire Villa army.

Much interest is displayed by officials here as to whether Villa would accept the promise of immunity as a political refugee. Such immunity would not protect him from prosecution within the United States on charges of an ordinary character.

BRITAIN DENIES TRADE HURT

Submits Further Arguments and Statistics Relating to War Restrictions to State Department.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Further arguments and statistics in support of Great Britain's denial of statements that her merchants are profiting by British war restrictions upon commerce at the expense of American trade been been submitted to the State Department by the British embassy with a letter of transmittal to Secretary Lansing from Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the ambassador.

The document is supplementary to a note on the same subject handed Ambassador Page last summer by the London foreign office and reiterates the assertion that increases in British trade with neutral countries have been infinitesimal compared with the growth of similar American trade. It draws particular attention to figures showing that the increase in exports from the port of New York to the Scandinavian countries during the first 13 months of the war exactly balanced the falling off of New York's exports to Germany.

The crew of the Milwaukee engine had a miraculous escape. The men were pinned in the cab and had to be taken out through the windows. Passengers were badly shaken up.

A New Year Message

By William S. Jerome

PERHAPS no better motto for the new year can be found than that which Longfellow prefixed to his popular work, "Hyperion." He says he found a tablet in the churchyard of St. Gilgen, in the Tyrol, bearing this singular inscription:

"Look not mournfully into the past. It comes not back again. Wisely improve the present. It is thine. Go forth to meet the shadowy future without fear, and with a manly heart."

Here we have a motto and message for the three divisions of time which mark the New Year.

The Past.—It is natural to look "mournfully into the past." The look backward recalls so many mistakes and failures that the result is always depressing. What we have accomplished seems small in proportion to what was desired and attempted. This perspective of time enables us to judge more accurately our life than we could at the time. It is not a bad idea at the New Year to "take account of stock," review the past, and seek to learn its lessons.

Yet there may be too much introspection and retrospection. We should not neglect the past or fail to learn from it, and there is a profound philosophy in the apostle's injunction to "forget the things that are behind." Whether they are evil or good, the advice is wise. If the review of an evil past leads us to discouragement and depression, the thought of a good past may lead to self-satisfaction and content, and thus prove an obstacle to further progress. We can make no real advancement if we "drag at each remorse a lengthening chain," even if that chain be of roses, and the remembrance of happy days and good deeds. Cultivate, therefore, a good "forgettery." Do not let the failures and mistakes of the days gone by prove stumbling blocks in the future pathway. Do not let past good deeds prevent yet nobler efforts and grander achievements. Whatever the past, it has gone forever. Neither prayer nor tears can bring it back. Let it go, therefore; unload its memories, that we may better run the race that is still set before us.

The Future.—The "shadowy future," our motto calls it. The word is well chosen, for a veil lies over the days to come, which is not lifted till we reach them. We naturally shrink from the unknown, and not knowing what may be on the morrow, we therefore fear the morrow. But fear is not the same as wise forethought. Because we do not know what the morrow will bring forth we are not to boast ourselves of tomorrow or recklessly waste the days granted us. But fear of the future weakens us for life's struggles, and is unworthy of one who believes that—

The true attitude toward the future is that of encouragement and faith. The fearless, "manly heart" does not mean rashness or bravado, or insensibility to life's seriousness and meaning. It means the triumph of faith over fear, of courage over cowardice. It expresses exactly the right spirit in which to face the unknown. "Trust no future, howe'er pleasant;" fear no future, no matter how dark and mysterious. For the future is made up of just such days as we have already had.

The Present. This is thine. Therefore it is to be wisely improved. It is literally and really all we have—the present moment—"the inch before the saw." Yesterday, like last year, is gone forever. Tomorrow may never come.

How urgent the call of the New Year, to spend no time in vain regrets or future forebodings, but to give ourselves diligently to the work of the day! At this season we often say, "A new year has dawned." But, really, only one more day has come. We have 1915, but 1916 is not yet here, and when it, too, is gone it will be too late to do anything in it. The recurrence of New Year's day does not really alter the ordinary conditions of life. We are prone to think that, with the new date and new year, things will be in some way different—duty will be easier and less distasteful. One who has wasted the past year is very apt to think that, by some magical influence the new year will bring new and more favorable conditions. But to think so is to deceive ourselves. Whatever new experiences may come to us, we know very well that the ordinary laws of morals or mathematics will not be changed by the change of date. In 1916, as in the past, two and two will make four; the law of gravity will operate irrevocably and certainly; and "whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." Now is the time, therefore, says Norman Hapgood, "to pitch in and achieve—now, now! Remember, my friends, the present is the future from which you hoped so much." Unless we "wisely improve the present" we shall find ourselves, at the end of the year, regretting our past, just as today we are mourning over mistakes and resolving to do better in the days to come.

> Yesterday is dead; forget it.
> Tomorrow isn't here; don't worry.
> Today is here; use it.

> Life is a leaf of paper white,
> Whereon each one of us may write
> His word or two—and then comes night.
>
> But for a line,
> But that sublime!
> Not failure, but low aim is crime!
>

O BRIGHT NEW YEAR!

O bright New Year! Hast thou in store
Health, happiness, success, complete—
Or sorrow, sadness and defeat,
With petty trials by the score?
Be kindly lenient, we implore
In blending bitter with the sweet,
O bright New Year!

Grant us a faith to tide us o'er
Whatever problems we may meet,
And may our hearts be more replete
With sympathy than heretofore.
O bright New Year!

—Caroline Louise Sumner.

The Old Year's Happiness.

Our past is sufficient assurance of a happy New Year. Writing a New Year's greeting to a friend, a Christian man well on in life said. "When I think about it, it seems to me that all our years are happy. Surely the dark days are few and the whole of each year is full of showers of grace, so full that we ought not to notice what only seems, but is not, dark." Sometimes it takes steadfast trust and confidence in our Lord to say that; and in many lives never more so than at the close of this war darkened year. But it is true even of this year. God is reigning; his steady grace is greater than all that opposes it. May we gratefully remember the happiness that is past, and confidently count upon our Lord for infinitely more to come.

All Aboard!

All aboard for the water wagon! Climb onto the seats so high. Avoid the rush, and the midnight crush, when the old year says "Good by!"

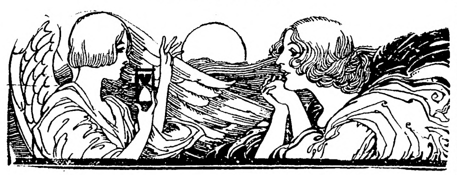
Questions for the New Year

BY T. J. WIGGINS.

I asked the New Year for some motto sweet
Some rule of life by which to guide my feet,
I asked and paused—It answered soft and low
"God's will to know."

"Will knowledge then suffice, New Year?" I cried,
But ere the question into silence died
The answer came—"Nay, this remember, too
"God's will to do."

Once more I asked—"Is there still more to tell?"
And once again the answer sweetly fell—
"Yea, this one thing, all other things above—
"God's will to love."



What's Doing in Minnesota

International Falls. — In a decision from Attorney General Smith, just announced, the city council is restrained from issuing liquor licenses.

Hutchinson. — The closing of the saloon at Biscay by the operation of the Dunn roadhouse law marks the end of a strenuous struggle for existence.

Moorhead.—The Clay county grand jury has returned four indictments against the Moose lodge of Moorhead, charging "illegal sales of intoxicating liquors."

Fergus Falls. — Otter Tail county is dry for the first time since it was organized, the last saloon in the county, at Elizabeth, eight miles from here, having closed.

Pine City. — A runaway near here resulted in the death of Charles Rebholz. He was thrown from his wagon and struck the frozen ground on his head and was dead when picked up.

Crosby. — Otto Hillbert was run over by a train here at Guthrie mine and killed. He was a car spotter, 33 years old, and lived in Ironton. He is survived by a widow and three children.

New Ulm. — Two Russian wolf hounds entered Schell's deer park here, killed four domesticated deer and inflicted injuries on three others before assistance could be given to the animals confined in an enclosure.

Rochester. — J. Q. R. Howell, a transient selling insurance here, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. Howell recently was discharged from the City hospital in St. Paul, following an attempt in that city to end his life.

Rochester. — Rochester's new armory, costing about $30,000, will be dedicated formally Jan. 8, according to plans being made by the local machine gun company. Governor Hammond has accepted an invitation to attend.

Morris. — The directors of the Minnesota State Drainage association met at the agricultural school here to discuss the general purposes of the organization and to arrange for a state drainage meeting to be held in St. Paul after the holidays.

Montevideo.—The Montevideo conference of senators and representatives and people of the Seventh congressional district, called by A. F. Teigen, has made its debut. Mr. Teigen was elected temporary chairman. A fair delegation was present.

Mankato. — The quarterly meeting of the Blue Earth County Equity society adopted resolutions favoring government ownership of telegraphs, telephones, railroads and money; also favoring national defense, but with the government making its own munitions and battleships.

Duluth. — Joseph T. Nelson and Gust L. Wedan, former cashier and assistant cashier, respectively, in the county treasurer's office, both confessed defaulters, were sentenced by Judge Danver to seven years each in the state penitentiary at Stillwater under the indeterminate plan.

St. Paul. — Corn raised in Minnesota, in the Dakotas, in Montana, Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Wisconsin, tastefully arranged and properly classified on exhibition racks which fairly groan beneath the weight, comprises the exhibits of the First National Corn show which has just opened in St. Paul.

Duluth. — Action of the United States supreme court which indirectly fixes the boundary line between Minnesota and Wisconsin, as the natural channel of the St. Louis river, is likely to start a fight between the two states as to the taxation rights on some valuable property which hitherto has been classed as in Minnesota.

Tower. — Fire destroyed the buildings at camp 2 at Bear creek, belonging to the Trout Lake Lumber company of this city. About 100 men were employed there. Five men received serious burns and were brought to a hospital in this city. Among those injured are John Hendericks and John Brewer of this place.

Brainerd. — The state convention of bricklayers, masons and plasterers elected these officers at their seventh annual convention: President, A. E. Hilker of Austin; first vice president, Sam Blondell of Red Wing; second vice president, Matt Tellman of Minneapolis; third vice president, Fred Gittkowski of Duluth; secretary-treasurer, Nic Korth of Mankato. Rochester procured the next convention.

Crookston. — A dispatch from Washington says that President Wilson has signed pardons for W. F. Peterson, Otto Kilen and S. B. Gillan, former saloonkeepers of Crookston, who were sentenced at Fergus Falls in the United States court in November to 60 days in jail and a fine of $100 for shipping whisky to points in Indian dry territory. The shipments were made through ignorance, and monster petitions were forwarded by friends here asking for the pardon. Half of the sentence has been served.

Rochester. — A mass meeting has been held in Dover and the consolidation of eight rural schools was discussed. O. C. Swain, rural school commissioner, and County Superintendent W. L. Mercer were the speakers. It is planned to build a $20,000 schoolhouse, where agriculture, domestic science and manual training will be included in the curriculum.

Winona. — Told recently that an affliction which impaired his eyesight eventually would bring total blindness, William Bartle, 40 years old, shot out both eyes. It is said he has a chance to recover.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

Three Hundred Million Bushel Crop in 1915

Farmers pay for their land with one year's crop and prosperity was never so great.

Regarding Western Canada as a grain producer, a prominent business man says: "Canada's position today is sounder than ever. There is more wheat, more oats, more grain for feed, 20% more cattle than last year and more hogs. The war market in Europe needs our surplus. As for the wheat crop, it is marvelous and a monument of strength for business confidence to build upon, exceeding the most optimistic predictions."

Wheat averaged in 1915 over 25 bushels per acre
Oats averaged in 1915 over 45 bushels per acre
Barley averaged in 1915 over 40 bushels per acre

Prices are high, markets convenient, excellent land, low in price either improved or otherwise, ranging from $12 to $30 per acre. Free homestead lands are plentiful and not far from railway lines and convenient to good schools and churches. The climate is healthful.

There is no war tax on land, nor is there any conscription. For complete information as to best locations for settlement, reduced railroad rates and descriptive illustrated pamphlet, address Superintendent Immigration, Ottawa, or

ASQUITH BLAMED FOR BLUNDERS IN BRITISH ATTACKS

LONDON NEWSPAPERS CONDEMN SLOWNESS AND MISMANAGEMENT OF THE DARDANELLES ENTERPRISE.

NO TRUCE ON CHRISTMAS AND NO HEAVY FIGHTING

English Cabinet Is Indicted for Postponement of Munitions Bill Until After Holidays—No Insight Given Into Lord Derby's Report on Recruiting Results.

London, Dec. 28.—King Constantine has telegraphed to Emperor William saying that it would be impossible to allow Bulgarian or Turkish troops to cross the Greek frontier, says the Mail's correspondent at Athens, who had interviews with the Greek ministers.

London, Dec. 28.—Christmas passed without heavy fighting anywhere on the European fronts. It passed also without a truce to give a touch of humanity to Christmas day. The United Kingdom, however, witnesses a general abandonment of the truce between the political parties, which was observed during the early months of the war and which apparently was cemented for the duration of the war when the coalition government was formed.

Attacks on Government.

The past week has seen a steady growth of the newspaper attacks on the government, the general burden of which is the slowness, the lack of foresight and decision and the mismanagement of the Dardanelles enterprise.

The newspapers generally hold Premier Asquith responsible for the conduct of affairs. The Northcliffe group, headed by the Times and the Daily Mail, with the support of the Morning Post, was joined by the Observer, which is the foremost Sunday paper, and the Referee, which has a large audience among the masses.

Munitions Bill Delayed.

The two latest counts of the indictment of the cabinet are the postponement until after the holidays of the munitions bill and the postponement of giving the country any insight into Lord Derby's report on his recruiting results. In the meantime the verdict of union labor on Mr. Lloyd George's appeal to relax union rules in munitions works to permit of the entry of 80,000 unskilled laborers is awaited with interest.

From different correspondents come various reports on the situation in the Balkans, some contending that the Bulgarians have accomplished all the territorial gains within their immediate ambitions and therefore will not move further. Other correspondents represent them as being determined to extend the boundaries to include the important port of Saloniki.

FAILS TO FIND INCAS' GOLD

U. S. Postoffice Inspector Working on Alleged Fraud in Peru, Ready to Return.

Colon, Panama, Dec. 27.—Harry A. Barber, a United States postoffice inspector, who has been in the interior of Peru trying to locate the buried treasure of the Incas, will start for Washington at once, having, it is understood, failed in his quest.

Inspector Barber was sent to Peru to investigate for the federal authorities at Wilmington, Del., the existence of a $500,000,000 placer gold deposit, which figures prominently in the McCune case in which the Duponts and other leading Delaware financiers are mentioned.

McCune, it is said, floated a large corporation on the strength of having discovered the source of the gold of the ancient Incas. He finally became involved with the postoffice department.

McCune is now at liberty under $10,000 bail, and according to Barber is in Peru again, endeavoring to locate the treasure.

Peace Societies United.

New York, Dec. 27.—The New York Peace society of which Andrew Carnegie is president, has united for "close cooperative efforts" with the American branch of the league to enforce peace, which is headed by William H. Taft, former president, according to announcement made by W. H. Short, secretary of both organizations.

Decrease in U. S. Ships.

Washington, Dec. 27.—Although the number of merchant ships under the American flag decreased during the fiscal year ending with last June, the tonnage of the merchant marine showed a record breaking increase, according to the annual report of the commissioner of navigation, just made public. On June 30, 1914, 26,943 vessels having a total gross tonnage of 7,928,688 were under American registry. A year later the number had decreased to 26,701, but the aggregate tonnage was 8,389,429.

LACKS DETAILS AS TO SINKING

U. S. ORDERS INQUIRY INTO ATTACK ON JAPANESE LINER.

Diplomatic Representations to Austria M[illegible]s Found Ameri[illegible] Aboard.

Washington, Dec. 28.—Official confirmation concerning the sinking of the Japanese liner Yasaka Maru reported to have been torpedoed without warning in the Mediterranean still is lacking here.

American consular officers stationed near the scene where the vessel was sunk have been requested to obtain accurate reports of the incident and forward them to the state department.

Should these prove that the liner with an American passenger aboard, was attacked without warning by an Austrian submarine as stated in unofficial reports, diplomatic representations to Austria-Hungary would follow.

The situation between the United States and Austria-Hungary growing out of the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona remains unchanged with the officials here awaiting the reply to the second American note now being composed by the Vienna foreign office.

G. O. P. LOOKS TO NORTHROP

Delegation of Minnesota Republicans to Ask Him to Become "Favorite Son" Candidate.

Minneapolis, Dec. 27.—A delegation of Minnesota Republicans intend to wait on Dr. Cyrus Northrop at once to ascertain from him whether he will become Minnesota's "favorite son" candidate for the Republican presidential nomination in accordance with the plan suggested by Walter N. Carroll for circumventing the presidential preference, primary law agreed upon by Republicans to be an absurd bit of election machinery.

Done in Other States.

Edward F. Smith, former lieutenant governor and former chairman of the Republican state central committee, has given Mr. Carroll's "favorite son" idea his indorsement and declares it to be just exactly what many other states are doing, notably, Massachusetts, Ohio, Iowa, Nebraska, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

"It already has been set forth," said Mr. Smith, "that our presidential preference primary law probably would preclude the voters of Minnesota from expressing themselves for Mr. Root, Mr. Hughes or Mr. Roosevelt, who unquestionably are the predominant men in Republican presidential consideration."

BARRED BY RESERVE BOARD

Public Office Holders Are Made Ineligible as Officers or Directors of Banks.

Washington, Dec. 27.—Public office holders and members of political party committees are made ineligible for election as officers or directors of federal reserve banks by a resolution adopted unanimously by the Federal Reserve Board.

The resolution, which was offered by Secretary McAdoo, also informs member banks of the reserve system that in the opinion of the board such persons henceforth should not act as officials or directors of the reserve banks.

The action of the board is understood to have been taken without extended discussion, the resolution being offered during the election of Class C directors of reserve banks, a task that was not completed when the session ended.

Later it was said that the action was not aimed particularly at any candidate or any director or officer now serving.

HOSPITAL SUPPLIES BARRED

Large Consignments Collected for Red Cross For Delivery to Central Powers Held.

Washington, Dec. 27.—Great Britain has suspended the issuance of permits for shipments of hospital supplies of any description from the United States to Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey. When this became known, at the same time it was learned that the state department at the instance of the American Red Cross, had made representations to the London foreign office seeking withdrawal or modification of the new order.

Berlin Protested Atrocities.

Boston, Dec. 24.—The German government on August 9 filed at Constantinople a protest against the Turkish treatment of Armenians, according to Dr. James L. Barton, chairman of the national committee for Armenian and Serbian relief, who has just made public the text of the protest.

Urge U. S. Border Extension.

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 27.—Announcement has been made here of a movement to bring about a change in the boundary line between the United States and Mexico by extending the present line directly west along the 31st parallel from the 111th meridian so as to take in the northern part of the Gulf of California and part of Lower California. Commercial organizations of Phoenix and other Arizona cities have sent telegrams to officials, urging their support of the movement.

WHITE, BLACK AND RED MEN IN RIOT

MOB BESIEGES FRONT OF COUNTY JAIL IN OKLAHOMA —THREATEN NEGROES.

200 BLACKS READY TO FIRE

Green and Foreman Accused of Slaying Neal, a Cherokee Indian Policeman, While Resisting Arrest —Militiamen Repulse Attacks.

Muskogee, Okla., Dec. 27.—While a mob of white men besieged the front of the county jail here threatening to lynch two negro prisoners, and 200 armed negroes waited across the street with the announced intention of opening fire should the mob obtain custody of the two men, the prisoners were hurried out a rear door to motors and taken from the city.

Accused of Slaying Indian.

William Green and Mathis Foreman, the prisoners, were accused of slaying Sam Neal, a policeman while resisting arrest. Neal was a Cherokee Indian.

While a race riot threatened to break out at any moment between the mob at the jail door and the negroes across the street a report that a posse of Cherokees were on their way from Tahlequah to avenge the death of their tribesman, further stirred the authorities.

Two Mobs Dispersed.

When the removal of the prisoners was announced the two mobs dispersed and nothing had been seen of the reported Indian band late at night.

The prisoners were being disguised and spirited away from the jail while Company F of the Oklahoma national guard held the mob at bay with fixed bayonets and loaded rifles.

Two determined attacks were made on the jail but the militiamen repulsed both. One of the attacks resulted in the battering down of the outer jail door, but the men in the fore front of the mob, carrying a piece of railroad rail as a battering ram, were driven back before they could reach the cell house.

ROADS GET RATE INCREASES

Western Railways Allowed to Advance Freight Charges by Second I. C. C. Decision.

Washington, Dec. 27. — Railroads west of the Mississippi river were given material increases in freight rates by the interstate commerce commission in a second decision in the so-called western advance rate cases.

Important increases granted included carload rates on agricultural implements except to points in Louisiana, carload rates on canned goods and carload rates on boots and shoes and leather between Missouri manufacturing points and points west. Increases on many miscellaneous items were allowed, but some others were held to be unjustified. The record in the case does not disclose how much additional revenue the carriers will obtain.

FORD LEAVES FOR NEW YORK

SAILS FROM BERGEN ON NORWEGIAN LINER.

Leader of "Peace Party" States Women's International Peace Society Will Continue Expedition.

Christiania, Dec. 27.—(Via London.) —The Norwegian liner Bergensfjord, with Henry Ford on board, has sailed for New York. Mr. Ford stated before leaving Bergen that the peace expedition would continue under the auspices of the Women's International Peace Association.

Stockholm, Dec. 28.—Mrs. Inez Milholland Boissevain of New York, who has withdrawn from the Ford peace expedition presented to a public meeting of the delegates a long statement of her reasons for doing so and for believing the project was doomed to failure.

"The undemocratic method employed by the managers of the expedition is opposed to my principles," she said. "Instead of all the members formulating plans, t work has been confined to a few specially selected persons. When the party embarked on the Oscar II, I took it as for granted that the rather vague opinions of the body of delegates would be hammered into effective shape by group action and constructive thinking throughout the voyage.

Reasons for Dissensions.

"An organization was not formed until three days before the end of the voyage. To that fact I trace all misunderstandings, dissensions, mistakes in policy, inefficiency and inability to get the idea of a mediating peace congress in comprehensive shape before the public.

"At the meeting the discussions have been purely private with the result of ill-feeling, suspicion and condemnation. For the reasons stated, I am unable to continue with the party."

London, Dec. 27.—A Reuter dispatch from Athens say that Germany is reported to have informed Greece that she hopes to reach Saloniki by January 15, promising at the same time to evacuate Greek territory as soon as the task is finished.

Greek correspondents of the Paris newspapers declare that the Teutonic Allies have decided that Austria shall have the initiative in all the active measures in the Balkans and reports are also published in Paris that the Austrians are actually marching on Saloniki.

Bulgars to Lead Drive on Saloniki.

Correspondents of the Times, both in Saloniki and in Athens and the Morning Post's Athens correspondent suggest that the Bulgarians will be in the vanguard of the Teutonic advance toward Saloniki.

The Times Athens correspondent says:

"During the last few days the Bulgarians have been filling gaps in their ranks and occupying positions all along their front, while all the Bulgarian heavy guns from Varna already have reached the front. Strumitsa, where the Bulgars are assembling all their stores, will be the base from which the army will attack the Allies. Their forces now number 120,000. Reinforcements are arriving and it is stated that the attack will begin when 180,000 men have been concentrated."

Liner Yasaka Maru Sunk in Mediterranean by Submarine—Passengers Saved by French Warship.

London, Dec. 24.—Recrudescence of submarine activity in the near east is signalized in a startling manner by the sinking of the new Japanese liner, Yasaka Maru, in the eastern Mediterranean. Reports just received here stated the passenger ship was torpedoed without warning.

All of the 300 persons aboard the vessel, of whom 120 were passengers, one of them being an American citizen, W. J. Leigh, were rescued by a French warship. This is one of the few instances in which a passenger liner has been torpedoed without warning in which all of those aboard were saved.

OBREGON AT HEAD OF NEW MEXICAN OUTBREAK, REPORT

IS LEADER IN MOVEMENT TO OUST CARRANZA ACCORDING TO SECRET INFORMATION OBTAINED BY U. S.

PRESIDENT WILSON AND ADVISORS ARE DISTURBED

Extent of Disorder Can be Judged Only by Serious Manner in Which Government Views Situation—Religious Questions May be Cause of Rebellion.

Washington, Dec. 28.—It has become known here that the United States government has secret information of a new revolutionary outbreak in Mexico, and that the president and his advisers are greatly disturbed.

The information is understood to be to the effect that General Obregon is at the head of the new movement, which has for its object the ousting of the Carranza government.

No Accurate Information.

It is supposed that this new outbreak is the result of the position of the Carranza government on the religious question. This however, is only a supposition, as there does not appear to be an accurate information of all that is behind Obregon.

The extent of the outbreak can be judged here only by the serious manner in which the government views the situation.

Wagon Load of Seed Worth $1,400.

Pierre, S. D., Dec. 28.—Fourteen hundred dollars for a single wagonload of farm product is apparently the record in this state. The seed was threshed on the Caret farm in Lyman county.

Sees Chance for Partial Success.

Stockholm, Dec. 28.—The new management of the Ford peace party is now endeavoring to close the ranks and prevent further secessions, following the withdrawal of Governor Hanna of North Dakota and Mrs. Inez Milholland Bossevain. The whole delegation probably will be called together and urged to bury the war hatchet while on the peace trail. Rev. Jenkin Lloyd-Jones believes there is still a chance for the mission's partial success if the pilgrims work in harmony from now on.

FROM ONE YEAR'S CROP HE PAID FOR HIS LAND IN WESTERN CANADA

Remarkable as are the reports of the yields of wheat in Western Canada, the marketing of which is now under way, they are none the more interesting than are those that are vouched for as to the value of this grain crop to the farmers of that country.

Some months ago the Department of the Interior, at Ottawa, Canada, wrote to those in the United States who were owners of land in Western Canada that was not producing, advising that it be put under crop. The high prices of grain and their probable continuance for some years should be taken advantage of. Cattle and all the produce of the farm commanded good figures, and the opportunity to feed the world was great, while the profits were simply alarming. The Department suggested that money could be made out of these idle lands, lands that could produce anywhere from 25 to 65 bushels of wheat per acre. A number took advantage of the suggestion. One of these was an Illinois farmer. He owned a large quantity of land near Culross, Manitoba. He decided to put one thousand acres of it under wheat. His own story, written to Mr. C. J. Broughton, Canadian Government Agent at Chicago, is interesting.

"I had 1,000 acres in wheat near Culross, Manitoba. I threshed 34,000 bushels, being an average of 34 bushels to the acre. Last Spring I sold my foreman, Mr. F. L. Hill, 240 acres of land for $9,000, or $37.50 per acre. He had saved up about $1,000, which he could buy seed with, and have the land harrowed, drilled and harvested, and put in stook or shock.

"As a first payment I was to take all the crops raised. When he threshed he had 8,300 bushels of wheat, which is worth in all $1.00 per bushel, thereby paying for all the land that was in wheat and more, too, there being only 200 acres in crop. If the 240 acres had all been in wheat he could have paid for it all and had money left."

That is a story that will need no corroboration in this year when, no matter which way you turn, you learn of farmers who had even higher yields than these.

G. E. Davidson of Manitou, Manitoba, had 36 acres of breaking and 14 acres older land. He got 2,186 bushels of wheat, over 43 bushels per acre.

Walter Tukner of Darlingford, Manitoba, had 3,514 bushels off a 60 acre field, or over 58½ bushels per acre. Forty acres was breaking and 20 acres summer fallow.

Wm. Sharp, formerly Member of Parliament for Lisgar, Manitoba, had 80 acres of wheat on his farm near Manitou, Manitoba, that went 53 bushels per acre.

One of the most remarkable yields in this old settled portion of Manitoba was that of P. Scharf of Manitou, who threshed from 15 acres the phenomenal yield of 73 bushels per acre.

These reports are but from one district, and when it is known that from almost any district in a grain belt of 30,000 square miles, yields while not as large generally as these quoted, but in many cases as good, is it any wonder that Canada is holding its head high in the air in its conquering career as the high wheat yielder of the continent? When it is pointed out that there are millions of acres of the same quality of land that has produced these yields, yet unbroken, and may be had for filing upon them as a homestead, or in some cases may be purchased at from $12 to $30 an acre from railway companies or private land companies, it is felt that the opportunity to take part in this marvelous production should be taken advantage of by those living on land much higher in price, and yielding infinitely less.—Advertisement.

ORDER MAY CAUSE BIG LEGAL BATTLE

REDUCTION OF FIRE INSURANCE RATES SUBJECT OF CONFERENCE IN CHICAGO.

STATE CAPITOL HAPPENINGS

Events of General Interest in Minnesota Condensed and Revised for The Greater Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

Insurance men and state officials saw omens of a legal battle between the two in the trip of State Insurance Commissioner Samuel G. Works and Walter I. Fisher, manager of the General Inspection company, which fixes fire insurance rates for the entire state, to Chicago. A conference is said to have taken place there in which there was an effort to effect a compromise on a situation that has grown out of an order by the commissioner, reducing the fire rates for northern and northwestern Minnesota.

The order causes a reduction of as much as 40 per cent on some classes of property and the companies are said to be preparing to resist the order in the court.

When the order reducing rates in northern and northeastern Minnesota followed another order reducing the rates on grain elevator insurance, there were rumors of a war. Many said that the companies were preparing to fight.

Then, after Mr. Works and Mr. Fisher had left for Chicago, it was said that representatives of insurance companies were to meet there and talk over the situation.

State Fair Big Success.

Every dollar the state has put in its great fair has been returned with better than compound interest, $2.60 for every $1 being the exact ratio, according to John C. Simpson, secretary of the Minnesota State Agricultural society, who uses the figures in his annual report to Governor W. S. Hammond.

The fairgrounds at Hamline represent a value of $1,713,780, of which $929,937 represents the value of the land, covering more than 300 acres; $721,856 the value of the buildings, $25,117 the electrical plant and $36,790 the personal property. Included in the assets should be the $16,627 on deposit with the state treasurer, representing the net proceeds of the 1915 fair.

"The greatest educational institution in the state," as Mr. Simpson calls the fair, in 1915 was the most successful the state ever has managed, having more new features and more exhibits than any of its predecessors.

Treasurer Handles Millions.

The business handled in the office of Walter J. Smith, state treasurer, during the year ending July 31, 1915, was the largest in amount in the history of the state. Receipts and disbursements have been mounting slowly year by year until they have grown in the last forty years from $2,014,113.94 during 1875 to $45,439,690.38.

The largest single account handled by the state is the general revenue fund. During the last fiscal year there was a total of $12,107,656.04 turned into the fund. This large amount was paid out about as quickly as it came in. During the year the total disbursements from the revenue fund were $11,609,916.42. Of this amount $2,019,256.54 was paid out as special aid to the public schools and for administering the special school aid. The remainder of the revenue fund was used to meet the expenses of state government.

The ruling of Attorney General Smith that the Board of Regents of the State University cannot be tampered with by the legislature probably will put a damper on the plans of some members of the Efficiency and Economy Commission to create one central board to have charge of all the educational institutions of the state, and may interfere with the plan to have one purchasing agency for all the state institutions, since the university would be exempt from such a provision.

HARD LUCK HITS BUSY BURGLAR

Illustrates Conditions Under Which Leading Second-Story Workers Are Striving.

SOFT FOR THE POLICE

After Getting Away With Suitcase in Taxicab Burglar Checks It at Hotel Where Owner Is Stopping.

New York.—The way luck is breaking against conscientious union burglars these days they might just as well go to work or else issue invitations to the police department when they arrange an evening of diverting crime.

As evidence of the perfectly abominable conditions under which some of our leading second-story workers are striving just hearken to the rough deal fate handed to Edward Winkler, thirty-seven years old, who says he is a salesman.

According to the yarn which the police says he spun for them Winkler possessed himself of a suitcase containing $300 worth of jewelry, some French lingerie and a new hat belonging to Mrs. Mabel Connors. He entered Mrs. Connors' apartment, according to the police, by means of a key known in police parlance as "a skeleton."

Suitcase Disappears.

Mr. William V. Dee of Bridgeport, Conn, newly arrived in New York, on his way to the Hermitage hotel, halted the taxicab in which he was riding in front of the Automat restaurant in Sixth avenue, near Forty-second street. While he was inside his suitcase disappeared, and he reported the matter to the police and bewailed the affair to the Hermitage hotel clerk.

Mr. Dee, passing the Hermitage hotel check room on his way to breakfast, espied a familiar looking suitcase. It was his. He identified it, and under the eye of the manager opened it. Previously he had told the manager about having silver mounted military brushes and some new shirts in that missing grip. So it was natural that when he opened it and found that he was looking into some pale blue lingerie there were some snickers of amusement behind him.

Bemoans Hard Luck.

Once more the police were notified, and Detectives O'Connell and McLaughlin took up their posts near the check room, waiting for the man who checked the grip to put in his appearance. Winkler entered. He was arrested and taken to Second branch detective bureau.

Was Looking Into Some Pale Blue Lingerie.

"Say," he asked, "how many hotels are there in New York?"

"About two thousand or more," said O'Connell.

After calling on profanity to its bitterest depths, Winkler concluded:

"And to think I picked out the one this guy was staying at to check his grip!"

Mrs. Connors identified her possessions, but missed the hat and some silk stockings.

"I gave 'em to my sweetheart," Winkler explained.

WIFE HAS RIGHT TO TANGO

Justice Sustains Assault Charge Against Husband Who Boxed Wife's Ears.

Peekskill, N. Y.—Police Justice C. E. [illegible] Frane of Mount Kisco, near here, settled a dispute between Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Osborne of Mohegan concerning whether she has a right to tango despite his objection. The justice ruled that she has.

Mr. Osborne rebuked his wife for going to a dance in Mount Kisco. When she insisted tangoing was one of a wife's privileges, she alleges, he cuffed her ears. She summoned him to court and asked the justice if she hadn't a right to tango if she wished. Winning her point, she laid a complaint of assault against her husband.

Mr. Osborne was found guilty and placed upon probation for six months. Mrs. Osborne chuckled, boasting as she left court that she will dance how it she pleases.

"Oh, yes," replied the statesman. "I find that quite necessary."

"But you surely don't let them do your thinking for you?"

"Certainly not. I act according to my own judgment, but when I know how they feel about certain matters it is easier for me to prepare a speech that will act as as sort of shock-absorber."

Slavery Originated in the East.

Absolute slavery seems to have appeared in the eastern colonies somewhat earlier than in the southern, for slavery existed in New York in 1628, in New Jersey in 1628, in Massachusetts in 1630, in Connecticut in 1631 and in Delaware in 1636. There was a statutory recognition of slavery in Massachusetts in 1641, which was considerably ahead of such recognition of slavery in Virginia or Maryland.

Recent experiments show that the color of milk is chiefly due to the presence of carotin, a coloring matter found abundantly in green plants, especially in grass. The yellow pigments of our bodies also consist of carotin, which is probably derived chiefly from our food.

Mud Lake Lands To Be Opened Next Spring

Following is a copy of a letter recently received by Congressman Steenerson from the U. S, Land Office, which explains the opening of the Mud Lake lands.

Honorable Halvor Steenerson,
House of Representatives.

My dear Congressman Steenerson:

In response to your recent inquiry I have to advise you that the present plan is to open Mud Lake Bottom in Marshall County Minnesota, in the same manner as other ceded Chippewa Indan lands.

Said lake bottom is within the limits of the former Red Lake Reservation, and was drained by ditches connected with the state projects. The matter was submitted to the Attorney General of the United States, who rendered an opinion that lands should be disposed of for the benefit of the Indians. They have been accordingly surveyed and the present prospects is that the lands will be opened to settlement and entry (under the homestead laws) the coming spring.

Very respectfully,
C. M. Bruce,
Assistant Commissioner.
General Land Office.

Pete Sater called at Ole Davidson's Sunday.

Flora Supreme.

[illegible] the product of artificial [illegible] are so largely as that of the [illegible] the country garden, the fence rows, the first roses, the daffodils, the arbutus which blooms under the hillside leaves, the first buds of the rhododendrons and the other forms [illegible] falling of the life blood drawn direct from the earth, while poor mankind has to take all second hand.

TRADE REVIVAL IN WESTERN CANADA

Not a Myth but an Actuality Shown in the Returns of Agricultural Statistics and Every Department of Trade and Commerce.

The trade revival in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta is an actuality and not a myth. There is today a spirit of optimism in the air, just as two years ago there prevailed the opposite spirit of pessimism.

A general trade revival has been felt in every department of business in the Prairie Provinces. The agriculturists are in better shape than they have ever been before in their lives. No farmers of any country are in better financial condition and in a more general state of prosperity than are the farmers of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. The farmers have harvested a record crop—a crop which enriches them to the extent of something over $400,000,000.

In the cities the prosperity of the country has been reflected. Everywhere business is on the hustle. The wholesalers and the retailers and the implement dealers find business good. The banks and other collection houses find collections satisfactory, and financial men declare that westerners are paying up their debts. In Winnipeg the bank clearings have been the largest in history, exceeding some weeks the figures of Montreal and Toronto. The grain shipments have been the biggest in the history of Winnipeg and in the history of the twin ports, Fort William and Port Arthur. The mail order houses have had a big year, the rush of fall orders exceeding all previous years and taxing the capacity of these establishments, whose most sanguine expectations have been exceeded by the actual business done.

The tide has turned in western Canada. The people of the West are forging ahead, forging ahead in actual production and in creation of wealth, giving generously to charitable and other funds, paying up their back debts, while going along carefully as regards any creation of new debts. They are economizing but not scrimping, acting cautiously but not miserly. The financial heads of eastern Canada, of the United States and of Europe are no longer criticizing western Canada: rather they are unstintedly offering their praise and their compliments. The financial press recognizes that the tide has turned in western Canada, and it has been published to the world.

The condition of western Canada at the close of 1915 is one of optimistic prosperity, backed by the same determination of western people to go on increasing their productiveness and maintaining the records which they have already established.

The trade revival of western Canada is the happiest feature in the business survey of the whole Dominion for 1915 and in the outlook for 1916.—Advertisement.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BACK HURTS

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

BILIOUS, HEADACHY, SICK "CASCARETS"

Gently cleanse your liver and sluggish bowels while you sleep.

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Adv.

She Didn't Smile.

The young woman had spent a busy day.

She had browbeaten 14 salespeople, bullyragged a floorwalker, argued victoriously with a milliner, laid down the law to a modiste, nipped in the bud a taxi chauffeur's attempt to overcharge her, made a street car conductor stop the car in the middle of a block for her, discharged her maid and engaged another, and otherwise refused to allow herself to be imposed upon.

Yet she did not smile that night when a young man begged:

"Let me be your protector through life!"

British Official Organ.

The London Gazette is not quoted for its opinions. Probably few people out of England have heard of it, and yet it is one of the oldest of English newspapers, and in staid fashion is just now celebrating its two hundred and fiftieth anniversary. It is the official organ of the British government, devoted solely to the publication of government announcements. Usually it appears only twice a week on Tuesday and Friday. In these war times "extras" are often required. It contains the official lists of the killed and wounded, the names of those mentioned in dispatches, the record of promotions and such information as is now eagerly sought. Its regular editions sell for a shilling each—24 cents. Its "extras" for four pence—eight cents.

LACK OF MONEY

Was a Godsend in This Case.

It is not always that a lack of money is a benefit.

A lady in Ark. owes her health to the fact that she could not pay in advance the fee demanded by a specialist to treat her for stomach trouble. In telling of her case she says:

"I had been treated by four different physicians during 10 years of stomach trouble. Lately I called on another who told me he could not cure me; that I had neuralgia of the stomach. Then I went to a specialist who told me I had catarrh of the stomach and said he could cure me in four months, but would have to have his money down. I could not raise the necessary sum and in my extremity I was led to quit coffee and try Postum.

"The results have been magical. I now sleep well at night, something I had not done for a long time; the pain in my stomach is gone and I am a different woman.

"Every time I had tried to stop coffee I suffered from severe headaches, so I continued to drink it, although I had reason to believe it was injurious to me. But when I had Postum to shift to it was different.

"To my surprise I did not miss coffee when I began to drink Postum.

"Coffee had been steadily and surely killing me and I didn't fully realize what was doing it until I quit and changed to Postum." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms:

Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

WILSON ABANDONS HONEYMOON WHEN NEW CRISIS LOOMS

LEAVES FOR WHITE HOUSE TO ASSUME CHARGE OF SITUATION CAUSED BY SUBMARINE CAMPAIGN.

CONSULS ARE ORDERED TO GATHER AFFIDAVITS

Secretary Lansing Instructs Ambassador Penfield at Vienna to Ask Austria For Any Information Which Might Establish Identity of Persia's Assailant.

Washington, Jan. 4.—President Wilson has cut short his honeymoon and was expected back at the White House Tuesday morning to assume charge of the new crisis in foreign relations caused by the submarine campaign in the Mediterranean with loss of American lives. He reached this decision upon learning of the sinking of the Glengyle and other steamers Monday.

In the meantime Secretary Lansing announced he had instructed Ambassador Penfield at Vienna to ask the Austrian government for any information which might establish the nationality of the submarine which is said to have sunk the Persia and which would develop the facts in the case.

To Notify Belligerents.

Secretary Lansing said some action would be taken to formally notify Turkey and Bulgaria of the attitude of the United States toward submarine warfare, so that all the Central Power belligerents operating in the Mediterranean might not be uninformed.

After conferences over the telephone between the President and Secretary Tumulty and Secretary Lansing it was announced at the White House, and also at Hot Springs, Va., that the President would start back to Washington, arriving about 7 o'clock in the morning, Tuesday.

During the forenoon Baron Zweidinek, charge of the Austrian embassy, called on Secretary Lansing and asked that judgment be withheld until all the facts were known and expressed his belief that a final explanation would be satisfactory. He also sought any available information for the benefit of his government.

Would Give Satisfaction.

Baron Zweidenik also assured Secretary Lansing that if it were proved that an Austrian submarine had sunk the Persia his government would give full reparation and satisfaction.

It was stated authoritatively that the destruction of the British liner Persia, with loss of American life, and that the destruction of the British ship, Glengyle had put such a grave aspect on the relations of the United States with the Teutonic powers that the President considered it necessary to return to the White House at once for conferences with Secretary Lansing and the other members of the cabinet to shape the course of the government.

STEAMER GLENGYLE IS SUNK

British Merchantman Is Third Largest Submarine Victim—Torpedoed in Mediterranean Sea.

London, Jan. 4.—The British steamship St. Oswald has been sunk.

London, Jan. 4.—The big Glasgow steamer Glengyle, the largest British merchantman submarine victim of the war, excepting the Lusitania and Arabic has been torpedoed and sunk, it was announced, in the Mediterranean en route from the far east to Italy.

The Glengyle had on board about 120 persons, passengers and crew. All, with the exception of three Europeans and seven Chinese, were landed. So far as is known no Americans were on board.

News of the sinking of the big Glasgow steamer reached here while the admiralty was bending every effort to learn more details of the sinking of the British liner Persia with a loss of about 250 lives.

A moment later came word that the Japanese steamer Kenkoku Maru, owned by the Inuni Gomei Kaisha Shipping company, had been torpedoed. The crew, it was stated, was saved.

It also was reported that several more shipping firms will announce suspension of sailings through the Suez canal within 24 hours as the result of increased activity by submarines. Because of the sinking of the Persia and the Glengyle, it was predicted that insurance rates on shipping through the Mediterranean will be lifted until they are prohibitive.

Party to Pass Through Germany.

Copenhagen, Jan. 4.—The German government has granted the Ford peace expedition permission to travel to The Hague through Germany by special train. The final arrangements for the trip were made through the German consulate at Copenhagen, who after consultation with Berlin, announced his government was willing for the mission to proceed through German territory. This privilege was granted despite the refusal of the American state department to extend the passports.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your druggist or at the store. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish tinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.—Adv.

Not Much Difference.

There had been several little shortages in the petty cash, and at last the partners in a certain firm set a trap for the pilferer.

It succeeded. The culprit was the office boy. The junior partner was so incensed that he wanted to call in the police and give the lad in charge without further delay.

But the senior partner was a kind old man. He took a more humane view of the situation.

"No, no, Smith!" he said gently. "Let us always remember that we began in a small way, too!"

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR A CHILD'S BOWELS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

ORDER MAY CAUSE BIG LEGAL BATTLE

STATE CAPITOL HAPPENINGS

Events of General Interest in Minnesota Condensed and Revised for The Greater Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

Insurance men and state officials saw omens of a legal battle between the two in the trip of State Insurance Commissioner Samuel G. Works and Walter I. Fisher, manager of the General Inspection company, which fixes fire insurance rates for the entire state, to Chicago. A conference is said to have taken place there in which there was an effort to effect a compromise on a situation that has grown out of an order by the commissioner, reducing the fire rates for northern and northwestern Minnesota.

The order causes a reduction of as much as 40 per cent on some classes of property and the companies are said to be preparing to resist the order in the court.

When the order reducing rates in northern and northeastern Minnesota followed another order reducing the rates on grain elevator insurance, there were rumors of a war. Many said that the companies were preparing to fight.

Then, after Mr. Works and Mr. Fisher had left for Chicago, it was said that representatives of insurance companies were to meet there and talk over the situation.

State Fair Big Success.

Every dollar the state has put in its great fair has been returned with better than compound interest, $2.60 for every $1 being the exact ratio, according to John C. Simpson, secretary of the Minnesota State Agricultural society, who uses the figures in his annual report to Governor W. S. Hammond.

The fairgrounds at Hamline represent a value of $1,713,780, of which $929,937 represents the value of the land, covering more than 300 acres; $721,856 the value of the buildings, $25,117 the electrical plant and $36,790 the personal property. Included in the assets should be the $16,627 on deposit with the state treasurer, representing the net proceeds of the 1915 fair.

"The greatest educational institution in the state," as Mr. Simpson calls the fair, in 1915 was the most successful the state ever has managed, having more new features and more exhibits than any of its predecessors.

Treasurer Handles Millions.

The business handled in the office of Walter J. Smith, state treasurer, during the year ending July 31, 1915, was the largest in amount in the history of the state. Receipts and disbursements have been mounting slowly year by year until they have grown in the last forty years from $2,014,113.94 during 1875 to $46,439,690.38.

The largest single account handled by the state is the general revenue fund. During the last fiscal year there was a total of $12,107,656.04 turned into the fund. This large amount was paid out about as quickly as it came in. During the year the total disbursements from the revenue fund were $11,609,916.42. Of this amount $2,019,256.54 was paid out as special aid to the public schools and for administering the special school aid. The remainder of the revenue fund was used to meet the expenses of state government.

Ruling May Stop Plans.

The ruling of Attorney General Smith that the Board of Regents of the State University cannot be tampered with by the legislature probably will put a damper on the plans of some members of the Efficiency and Economy Commission to create one central board to have charge of all the educational institutions of the state, and it may interfere with the plan to have one purchasing agency for all the state institutions, since the university would be exempt from such a provision.

The crime was discovered when the slayer took Mrs. Hart's two daughters to a neighbor's house after keeping them in the room with their murdered mother all night.

It was then that Hall ended his own life.

The murderer left two notes, one saying that he was an escaped prisoner of the Washington state reformatory. The other said: "Please forgive me for I am insane."

McCormick Back in Opera.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—The Chicago Opera company has brought John McCormick, the tenor, back to the operatic stage, after an absence of two years. Mr. McCormick appeared in La Boheme with Geraldine Farrar. Five years ago, when Mr. McCormick was with the Chicago Opera company he received $285 a performance. On his latest appearance he received $2,000. The box office sales showed the house to be the biggest in the history of the Chicago Opera company.

Bumper Grain Crops

Good Markets—High Prices

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The winnings of Western Canada at the Soil Products Exposition at Denver were easily made. The list comprised Wheat, Oats, Barley and Grasses, the most important being the prizes for Wheat and Oats and sweep stake on Alfalfa.

No less important than the splendid quality of Western Canada's wheat and other grains, is the excellence of the cattle fed and fattened on the grasses of that country. A recent shipment of cattle to Chicago topped the market in that city for quality and price.

Western Canada produced in 1915 one-third as much wheat as all of the United States, or over 300,000,000 bushels.

Canada in proportion to population has a greater exportable surplus of wheat this year than any country in the world, and at present prices you can figure out the revenue for the producer. In Western Canada you will find good markets, splendid schools, exceptional social conditions, perfect climate and other great attractions. There is no war tax on land and no conscription.

Mrs. A. L. Crawford, Medfield, Mass., writes: "Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me of Bright's Disease, and I am healthy and strong to-day and have been blessed with good health ever since my cure. HEADACHE AND NEURALGIA

Hoyt's Headache and Neuralgia Cologne now heads the list as a successful remedy for the relief of headache, nervousness, insomnia, car sickness, etc.

The dangerous tablet has had its day. Hoyt's Headache and Neuralgia Cologne is a harmless, refreshing, fragrant preparation, marvelous in its action, relieving nervousness, sleeplessness, exhaustion and all head and nerve ailments by external use and inhaling. It is not a nerve food, but a nerve soother. By giving the nerves a rest they furnish their own food and tone, and all nerve pains disappear.

For children's colds and catarrh it is just the remedy, harmless and efficient and so pleasant to use. For men a pleasant remedy to relieve and clear the head "the morning after the night before." This is not an expensive preparations at 50 cents a bottle, because it brings the relief. It has many imitators at less price, but if they do not bring the desired results they are not cheap at any price.

ANURIC!

The Newest Discovery in Chemistry

A recent discovery of Dr. Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments at Dr. Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that there is no other eliminator of uric acid that can be compared to it. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation as backache, scalding urine and frequent urination as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism it is simply wonderful how surely "Anuric" acts. The best of results are always obtained in cases of acute rheumatism in the joints, in gravel and gout and invariably the pains and stiffness which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear.

Go to your nearest drug store and simply ask for a 50-cent package of "Anuric," manufactured by Dr. Pierce, or even write Dr. Pierce for a large trial package (10c). If you suspect kidney or bladder trouble send him a sample of your water and describe symptoms. Dr. Pierce's chemist will examine it, then Dr. Pierce will report to you without fee or charge.

NOTE.—"Anuric" is thirty-seven times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid, and is a harmless but reliable chemical compound that may be safely given to children, but should be used only by grown-ups who actually wish to restore their kidneys to perfect health by conscientiously using one box—or more in extreme cases—as "Anuric" (thanks to Dr. Pierce's achievement) is by far the most perfect kidney and bladder corrector obtainable.

ELLEN KEY SENDS MESSAGE TO MINNESOTA SUFFRAGISTS.

The women of Sweden are beginning to fear that their countrywomen in America will all vote before they do. A prominent Scandinavian woman of Minneapolis, Mrs. Luth Jaeger, has recently received a letter from Ellen Key, the well known Swedish writer and feminist. The letter reads:

"To the Women of Minnesota who are striving for Suffrage:

"Everywhere that women have risen to the struggle for their rights one must wish them courage and patience until victory is theirs For just at present the greatest hope for humanity lies in that victory. To be sure, I do not—believe that the world-war would have been avoided even if women had already had the vote. But if another and more terrible world-war is to be averted, the women of the new as well as of the old world, must soon, very soon, attain the vote.

"With all good wishes.

(Signed) "ELLEN KEY."

The women of Norway, Denmark, Finland, Iceland and The Netherlands have already been enfranchised. Only Sweden of the Scandinavian group lags behind.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water each morning, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from any druggist or at the store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—Adv.

HAD NO REASON TO WORRY

Seeing That Jury Paid No Heed to Prosecutor's Remarks, Why Should the Defendant?

Claris Adams, deputy prosecuting attorney of Marion county, tells of the misgivings he had as he met for the first time after the trial a man whom it had been his official duty to try to send to the penitentiary. The crime charged was of the sort that gave the attorney abundant opportunity to score the defendant, and Adams accordingly "trimmed him up right." The defendant was lawless, murderous, bloodthirsty, as devoid of pity as the pirates of the Spanish main, and altogether lacking in every redeeming quality, according to the speech that was made, but despite these distressing facts the jury acquitted him.

The next day Adams met the defendant, now discharged and restored to full rights of citizenship. The latter approached Adams with a smile and extended his hand.

"Young man, I'm for you," he said.

"I am glad to hear you say that," responded Adams with a sigh of relief. "I thought you might take to heart some of the things I said about you."

"No," came the cheerful reply, "the jury did not pay any attention to them, so I don't see why I should."—Indianapolis News.

PUZZLED

Hard, Sometimes, to Raise Children.

Children's taste is oftitimes more accurate, in selecting the right kind of food to fit the body, than that of adults. Nature works more accurately through the children.

A Brooklyn lady says: "Our little boy had long been troubled with weak digestion. We could never persuade him to take more than one taste of any kind of cereal food. He was a weak little chap and we were puzzled to know what to feed him on.

"One lucky day we tried Grape-Nuts. Well, you never saw a child eat with such a relish, and it did me good to see him. From that day on it seemed as though we could almost see him grow. He would eat Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper, and I think he would have liked the food for dinner.

"The difference in his appearance is something wonderful.

"My husband had never fancied cereal foods of any kind, but he became very fond of Grape-Nuts and has been much improved in health since using it.

"We are now a healthy family and naturally believe in Grape-Nuts.

"A friend has two children who were formerly afflicted with rickets. I was satisfied that the disease was caused by lack of proper nourishment. The children showed it. So I urged her to use Grape-Nuts as an experiment and the result was almost magical.

"They continued the food and today both children are as well and strong as any children in this city, and, of course, my friend is a firm believer in Grape-Nuts, for she has the evidence before her eyes every day." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

SCOTT DECLARES U. S. NEEDS ARMY OF MILLION MEN

CHIEF OF STAFF SEES DISASTER, IF COUNTRY IS UNPREPARED RE-ITERATES SECRETARY GARRISON'S VIEW.

COMPULSORY SERVICE IF NEW PLAN A FAILURE

General Tells Committee that Under a Service System, an Adequate Force Could be Maintained for What Is Paid for Present Army.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Major General Scott, chief of staff of the army, told the House military committee at the army bill hearing that, in the event of war, the country must have an army of one million to two million men, or accept disaster.

The chief of staff reitered Secretary Garrison's view that if the continental army plan failed there was no escape from compulsory service. Every country at war in Europe realized that, he said, and he expressed the view that England might have better realized it sooner.

General Scott said that under a service system, which laid the burden alike upon all men between 18 and 21 as a public duty, an adequate army could be maintained for what is now paid for the small standing army. He thought the pay under such a system should be merely nominal. Of the efficiency of the regular army now, he said: "Our organizations, as far as they go, compare favorably with the troops of any foreign power."

School Training Not Practical.

School training was desirable but not practical because of lack of control by the federal government, the general thought. He believed it would not be necessary to provide additional military academies to train officers needed for the proposed mobile army of 500,000 men.

The plan of the administration as a measure of self defense, he said, was not proposed in the anticipation of a war. He believed organization of the continental army would not interfere with recruiting for the National Guard because the two forces would appeal to different classes of men.

He added that the training in the continentals would produce better soldiers than in the National Guard system.

IDENTIFIES PRICE'S DRAFTS

Charles D. Etchison Faces Defendant in Murder Trial and Tells Story of Slaying.

Minneapolis, Jan. 11.—With no more excitement in his voice than as though he were speaking of an every day occurrence, Charles D. Etchison, confessed accomplice of Frederick T. Price in the alleged murder of Mary Fridley Price, identified on the witness stand a $7,500 note to him, signed by Price, as the payment that he had received for his share in the participation of Mary Fridley's murder. The note was offered in evidence.

Looking squarely into the prisoner's eyes, the witness defied Price to contradict him as he identified draft after draft aggregating in amount $2,600, which he said had been paid by Price on the note as partial satisfaction of the debt that had been incurred when Etchison swore secrecy over the dying woman.

Price's eyes never faltered as he responded to the gaze of his former friend who had turned accuser. Only the swelling veins in his face and neck betrayed the tense-strained nerves of the man on trial. Not by a motion or a word did the prisoner show the breaking of his iron nerves that the hundreds of spectators in the court room watched for as Etchison, in his calm, low voice, told how for months Price had talked of the planned murder.

KAISER BETTER; PLANS WAR COUNCIL IN BERLIN

Rome, Jan. 11.—Optimistic news regarding the kaiser's health has reached the Vatican from Switzerland. These reports said that the emperor was still feverish and was kept indoors as a precautionary measure, but was attending to business of state, especially in connection with the preparations for a war council to be held at Berlin at the end of the month. The danger of complications, the nature of which is not divulged, is not yet over, however.

3 KILLED; 19 HURT, 6 BLOCKS FIRED IN YOUNGSTOWN RIOT

STRIKE SYMPATHIZERS AND ARMED GUARDS CLASH AT SHEET AND TUBE COMPANY'S PLANT.

MOB LEADERS THREATEN TO BLOW UP SECTION OF CITY

Attorney Organizes Body of Citizens Who March Against Rioters Who Had Just Looted a Building—Trouble Culmination of Strike for Higher Wages.

Youngstown, Jan. 10.—Two companies of United States regulars from Columbus are reported to have been ordered to East Youngstown because of the looting and burning of the post-office.

The bridge from East Youngstown to Strutchers has been burned to prevent the strikers from entering the town.

Youngstown, O., Jan. 10.—Three men were killed, 19 persons wounded, and six city blocks were burned with a loss estimated at $300,000 as the result of rioting in East Youngstown, following a battle between a crowd of strike sympathizers and armed guards at the plant of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company. Three regiments of state troops have been ordered here to take charge of the situation.

Threaten to Blow Up Section.

Shortly before midnight mob leaders broke into a freight car containing 500 pounds of dynamite. They took the dynamite and started toward the residential part of East Youngstown, declaring they would blow that section of the city to pieces.

The trouble was the culmination of a strike of laborers which began at the plant of the Republic Iron & Steel company a week ago and spread to the plants of the Tube company, the Youngstown Iron & Steel company, and the Brier Hill Steel company, all "independent" concerns. The men demand 25 cents an hour; the companies offered an increase from 19 to 19½ cents to 22 cents per hour.

Citizens Fire at Mob.

With the rioting at its height, Oscar Diser, city solicitor of East Youngstown, organized a body of citizens and armed with revolvers marched to the point where the rioters had just looted a building.

The citizens fired a volley over the heads of the rioters who returned the fire. Diser ordered his men to fire again, this time pointing their weapons point blank at the mob. About half a dozen men fell. Armed with night sticks the solicitor and his men waded into the rioters using their clubs freely and scattering them into groups.

Rioting started early in the morning when strike sympathizers and workers at the Steet and Tube plant clashed. Stones were thrown and several shots were fired, but no one was injured.

Squad of Police Stoned.

The most serious trouble started at night when the day shift at the tube mills left work. A crowd of 6,000 men gathered at the entrance to the works and stoned a squad of private police in charge of Chief J. M. Woltz of the Sheet & Tube company force.

According to a statement made by Woltz, he fired a blank shot in the air to scare the crowd, and then firing became general. Nineteen in the crowd were wounded, following which the mob surged into the East Youngstown business district and set fire to several buildings.

As the torch was applied first to a clothing store and then to a jewelry store, looting began. A saloon was fired and looted, the liquor being distributed through the crowd.

Crowd Drives Off Firemen.

The Youngstown fire department arrived at the fire but was driven off by the crowd. The East Youngstown department also attempted to check the blaze, but the hose was cut and the firemen driven away. The flames quickly spread and more than 15 buildings were destroyed. A score of families are reported homeless as a result of the fire which at an early hour still was burning beyond control.

Red Cross to Aid Blind.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The American Red Cross has appropriated $4,000 additional, making $6,000 in all, particularly for use in Europe in sealing and obliterating facial wounds of soldiers and for instructing those blinded by wounds to read and write by modern methods.

Steenerson's Election Unanimous.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Congressman Halvor Steenerson, of the Ninth Minnesota district will continue to represent the Minnesota delegation on the Republican national congressional committee. Congressman C. R. Davis withdrew at the psychological moment. The struggle threatened considerable hard feelings. Mr. Steenerson had been elected but Mr. Davis took the position that the meeting which had elected him had not been called for that purpose so that the election was void. Another meeting was called

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

STOP EATING MEAT IF KIDNEYS OR BACK HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Clean Kidneys If Bladder Bothers You—Meat Forms Uric Acid.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and uninary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Adv.

LITTLE DOG IS NEMESIS OF BOY

Alleged Murderer of Two Women Captured Because of Canine's Persistence.

CONFESSES HIS GUILT

Youth Flees From Scene of Crime and Black Dog Sticks at His Heels—After Capture the Dog Disappears.

Valentine, Neb.—A little black dog following along behind the murderer of its mistress caused the arrest here of William Cryderman, a seventeen-year-old farm hand, on the charge of committing a double murder. And his arrest was brought about by the little black dog. It is stated that he immediately confessed.

Last week Mr. Heelan went down to Omaha with a trainload of cattle for the market. The following day Mrs. Heelan and her friend, Mrs. Joe Layport, went to Arabia on business, Cryderman driving the carriage, and the Helan family dog trotting along under it.

Cryderman was "ugly" that day, storekeepers in Arabia say. Finally he quarrelled with Mrs. Heelan to return to the ranch house by himself. He did so, the little black dog going along. He tried to make the animal return to Arabia, but failed.

Some time after Cryderman reached the ranch Mrs. Heelan and Mrs. Layport returned. Cryderman demanded his supper at once, but, as he says in a confession, Mrs. Heelan would not give it to him.

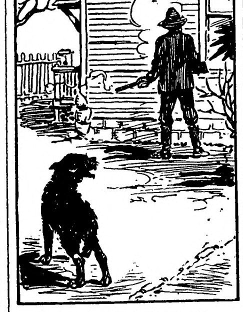
Shot Woman at Prayer.

Then Cryderman went out to the barn and wrote a note telling those interested that he intended killing the women and committing suicide. He put this note where it could be seen by anyone in the barn. Then he got the shotgun and loaded it and crept to the window. "The little dog followed me around," said Cryderman in his confession.

Looking through the window, Cryderman saw Mrs. Heelan at prayer. Cryderman fired through the window and the woman dropped dead.

"The little dog ran away when I fired," he said in his confession.

In the meantime Mrs. Layport had rushed to the rural telephone and frantically rung for central, but got no response. She was still at the telephone when Cryderman shot her twice, fatally. He then threw half a bucketful of kerosene on the women, sprinkled some around the house and then set fire to it.



The Little Dog Followed Him.

While the house was burning Cryderman went to the barn and saddled and bridled the best horse, donned Mrs. Heelan's skirt and started toward the town of Wood Lake.

"But that little black cur followed me," said Cryderman, "and I could not drive him back."

The Dog Follows.

Between the scene of the murder and the town of Wood Lake Cryderman passed two men on horseback. They recognized the dog as belonging to the Heelan family. At Wood Lake the dog was recognized again as belonging to Mrs. Heelan. Cryderman tried every way to get rid of the little fellow, but he persisted in following. Finally, to free himself from the dog, Cryderman abandoned his horse, after riding down the railroad track for several miles, and caught a freight train. When the train reached Valentine, the county seat, he was put off by the crew, and later was found almost within the shadow of the jail.

The next day the discovery of the crime was made, the note was found and the remains of the two bodies were found in the ashes of the house. Not finding the body of Cryderman, a search was made for him.

Two men remembered passing a woman riding a horse and followed by Heelan's dog. Cryderman was easily traced. As soon as he was arrested he confessed to both murders.

The little black dog has disappeared

What's Doing in Minnesota

St. Paul. — The Democratic state executive committee has decided to call a state conference February 1 to select delegates and alternates to a national convention.

Bemidji. — An appeal will be made to congress to abrogate the Indian treaty of 1855, under the terms of which the Indian bureau at Washington found opportunity to apply a liquor "lid" affecting 16 counties in Minnesota.

Minneapolis, Minn. — Telegraphic reports from Washington declared that influenza is spreading over the country from coast to coast in the most serious epidemic of the disease ever known, taking many lives and incapacitating workers.

Tracy.—The new $40,000 high school building in this city, used for community purposes, was crowded with persons attending the annual corn, grain and poultry show. Most of them were farmers and their wives, but the interests were broad enough to include others.

Litchfield. — Citizens of Litchfield held the last rites for Vincent Coombs, who died here, at the age of 76. He is survived by his wife and six grown children. Mr. Coombs came to Meeker county with his parents from Crawfordsville, Ind. The family traveled the entire distance in a prairie schooner.

Ball Club. — A delegation consisting of Sam Lyons, Sr., Dave Remway and Charles Wakefield, representing the Chippewa Indians of this district, has left for Washington to appear before Cato Sells, the commissioner of Indian affairs, and a committee of congress, in the interest of Chippewa claims now pending.

Kelliher. — Despite the fact that Kelliher is in the Indian lid territory, the village council here has granted a saloon license to J. O. Harris, hotelkeeper. Other applications have been made for licenses. This is the first saloon to be licensed by a village in the dry zone, where liquor can be confiscated wherever found.

Minneapolis.—At least six persons in Minnesota are able to snap their fingers at the high cost of living and the increasing price of gasoline and fresh eggs, according to the figures given out by the commissioner of internal revenue at Washington. Each of the six enjoyed an income of $250,000 and upwards in 1914.

Lakefield. — The Jackson County Farm Bureau association, organized about six weeks ago, is making full plans for the solution of important agricultural problems in its territory by concentration upon certain projects. It will promote drainage projects, crop improvement, better livestock breeding and farmer boys' and birls' clubs.

Bagley.—At the request of residents of Clear Brook, Judge C. W. Stanton in district court issued an order restraining the Clear Water county commissioners from buying the school building at Bagley to be used as a court house. Clear Brook residents asked for a permanent injunction, and the case was set for hearing January 13.

St. Paul. — Minnesota's high rank in stock and dairy production was recalled when more than 150 of the state's successful stockmen, members of the Minnesota Stock Breeders' association, met and banqueted at the Commercial club. The belief that Minnesota is on the crest of a development wave in stock production was generally expressed by the speakers.

Duluth.—Handlings of grain were in record volume at Duluth during 1915. Receipts of all domestic grains at this point during the year aggregated 122,459,501 bushels, as compared with 90,751,289 bushels in 1914. In addition, 4,792,119 bushels of bonded grain came in. Receipts of domestic wheat showed an increase of 30,757,000 bushels over 1915, amounting to 91,098,170 bushels, as compared with 60,341,506 bushels.

Fergus Falls.—The Northwestern college of this city began the new year free from debt. The college, which is under Swedish Lutheran auspices, has had an indebtedness of $20,000 and a few months ago James J. Hill agreed to give $2,500 toward clearing this up provided $17,500 was raised by popular subscription. The subscriptions have just been checked over and have been found to amount to $19,000, which, with Mr. Hill's contribution, will leave a small surplus.

Duluth. — Three fishermen near death in their frozen-in skiffs near Horseshoe bay, south shore of Lake Superior, were rescued by Captain W. J. Johns of the fishing tug Crescent. Two rescues were made. In the first instance a fisherman was found with his nets entangled and unable to escape from his predicament because of the ice. He was taken to the fishing station and revived. Near the mouth of the Brule river two men were found unconscious in skiffs which had frozen in the ice.

St. Paul.—Business was the chief order of the day at the ninth annual meeting of the Minnesota Retail Monument Dealers' association in St. Paul. Reports were made at an executive session. K. T. Soland, of Spring Valley, vice president of the association presided.

Brainerd.—Charged with attempting to blow up the Mississippi river dam of the Northwestern Paper company with 100 pounds of dynamite November 7, William Fischer, 34 years old and unmarried was arrested by Sheriff Theorin and lodged in the county jail.

WESTERN CANADA'S GREAT HARVEST

Decidedly Encouraging From Every Standpoint.

Speaking of conditions generally in Canada, the most encouraging feature of the year, from a trade and financial standpoint, has been the bountiful harvest of the Northwest, where a greatly increased area under cultivation has given the highest average yield in the history of the country. It is estimated that the grain crop of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta has a market value to the producers of approximately four hundred million dollars, in the use of which we may anticipate not only the liquidation of much indebtedness, but the stimulation of current trade.

The annual reports of the various banks throughout Canada are now being published. They savor of optimism all the way through, and, contrary to what might be generally expected in war times, business is good everywhere.

The General Manager of the Bank of Montreal at the recent annual meeting said: "The position of Canada is a highly favored one, with an assured future of growth, development and general prosperity."

In the same report it is said that the Canadian West "has recovered to a marked extent from the economic dislocation of a year ago."

The season's wheat and other cereal crops have exceeded all previous records in quantity and quality, and, despite the enormous yield, prices have been uncommonly well maintained.

It would be difficult to exaggerate the importance of these results to the Prairie Provinces—and the Dominion at large.

The prosperity of those engaged in mixed farming and ranching is most encouraging.

The flour mills in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are busy and are doing well. Their combined daily capacity is about 27,000 barrels.

The large advances of the Dominion Government to farmers in certain districts, principally in the form of seed were made very opportunely and have been amply justified by the very large crop yield in those districts.

Business in many important lines is good and should continue to improve as returns from grain yet to be marketed are received.

The general business outlook has been transformed by the large crop.

The returns of the gross earnings of Canadian railroads for November show those of the Canadian Pacific increased $1,796,000 or 78 per cent for the last nine days of the month. Compared with same month year ago, increase no less than $5,291,000 or 67.6 per cent against a 45 per cent gain in October, and a decrease of 4½ per cent in September.

H. V. Meredith, of the Bank of Montreal, in a recent address delivered at Montreal, declared that the most encouraging feature from a trade and finance standpoint had been the bountiful harvest of the Northwest, where the greatly increased area under cultivation had given the highest average in history of the country. He estimated the grain crop of the three provinces at a value of over $400,000,000, and said that such remarkable results would have the effect of attracting the tide of immigration to our shores, when the world is again at peace. The restoration of a favorable balance in our foreign trade is a factor of supreme importance at the present time.

It is the general opinion in the East that the 1915 grain crop in the Prairie Provinces not only put the whole Dominion in a sounder trade and financial standing, but that it will also result in a big increase in immigration to the West of agricultural settlers who will include capitalized farmers from Europe and the United States as well as homesteaders.—Advertisement.

PREDICTS ATTACK ON ELECTION LAWS

COMMISSIONER WORKS SEES PARTIAL RETURN TO CONVENTION SYSTEM.

STATE CAPITOL HAPPENINGS

Events of General Interest in Minnesota Condensed and Revised for The Greater Convenience of Busy Readers.

In the opinion of S. D. Works, state insurance commissioner and close political adviser of the late Governor Hammond, the present primary election laws will be attacked at the next session of the legislature. Mr. Works says he sees in present demands a partial return to the convention system.

"Reports to the contrary," said Mr. Works, "the meeting of the Democratic state central committee held recently, was unanimous in favor of a convention to name delegates to our national convention. We will hold our convention as of old."

James A. Peterson, who withdrew from the Republican nomination for governor, is reported to be drafting a plan for a convention system of which he will ask approval. I. A. Caswell, maanger of the Cummins presidential campaign, has suggested to the district that candidates for the several delegateships be named in mass convention.

Selects Route of Highway.

The Minnesota Highway Commission has selected the route of the Jefferson Memorial highway from St. Paul to Bemidji on the route to Winnipeg. The Jefferson Highway association designated the road leading from Albert Lea to St. Paul known as the Capital National highway which passes through Owatonna, Faribault, Northfield and Farmington. The association authorizes the Minnesota Highway Commission to select the rest of the route through Minnesota.

The route selected is through Osseo to Anoka, Hennepin coutny, to Elk River in Sherburne county, thence north on the east side of the Mississippi river to Little Falls, thence northwest to Staples in Todd county, west and north through Wadena and Park Rapids to the source of the Mississippi in Itasca state park, thence northeast to Bemidji. At this point the selection will be postponed until engineers have had an opportunity of picking out the best route from Bemidji to St. Vincent, where the highway will connect with the Canadian division.

Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner, has announced that he has a ruling from the attorney general declaring it illegal to serve venison or any other game as a free lunch, on the ground that the wild meat is offered as an attraction to bring customers. How to avoid Operations

These Three Women Tell How They Escaped the Dreadful Ordeal of Surgical Operations.

Hospitals are great and necessary institutions, but they should be the last resort for women who suffer with ills peculiar to their sex. Many letters on file in the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., prove that a great number of women after they have been recommended to submit to an operation have been made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here are three such letters. All sick women should read them.

Marinette, Wis.—"I went to the doctor and he told me I must have an operation for a female trouble, and I hated to have it done as I had been married only a short time. I would have terrible pains and my hands and feet were cold all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was cured, and I feel better in every way. I give you permission to publish my name because I am so thankful that I feel well again."—Mrs. Fred Behnke, Marinette, Wis.

Detroit, Mich.—"When I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was so run down with female troubles that I could not do anything, and our doctor said I would have to undergo an operation. I could hardly walk without help so when I read about the Vegetable Compound and what it had done for others I thought I would try it. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and used them according to directions. They helped me and today I am able to do all my work and I am well."—Mrs. Thos. Dwyer, 989 Milwaukee Ave., East, Detroit, Mich.

Bellevue, Pa.—"I suffered more than tongue can tell with terrible bearing down pains and inflammation. I tried several doctors and they all told me the same story, that I never could get well without an operation and I just dreaded the thought of that. I also tried a good many other medicines that were recommended to me and none of them helped me until a friend advised me to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. The first bottle helped, I kept taking it and now I don't know what it is to be sick any more and I am picking up in weight. I am 20 years old and weigh 145 pounds. It will be the greatest pleasure to me if I can have the opportunity to recommend it to any other suffering woman."—Miss Irene Froelicher, 1923 Manhattan St., North Side, Bellevue, Pa.

If you would like special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

IRMAN OF THE STATE PRESS COMMITTEE OF THE MINNESOTA SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

MRS. WALTER H. THORP.

WHY SHOULD WOMEN VOTE? ST. PAUL PAPER STATES FUNDAMENTAL REASONS.

Economic Changes Have Forced 8,000,000 Into Bread Winning Occupations—Politics an Essential Tool for Their Chest, Says Pioneer Press.

Because apart from whether she desires or not, woman must share "the obligations time and custom have given man." They see the "father-right" and the "mother-right" supplementing each the other throughout the whole of life.

Knowing that the "world do move," suffragists believe that this "initial form of woman's influence as developed through the ages" must keep pace with man. As he has progressed from primitive conditions, woman, advancing with him, has shared the the blessings of education and enlarging vision.

Suffragists see that political development has been logical, but is incomplete. The governing class, originally only chiefs, kings and priests, was extended to include knights and nobles. And then, as masses of men demanded it, further extended until now men are generally enfranchised.

Woman's life follows parallel lines. Abnormal in primitive industry within the home, she has been overtaken by modern industrialism that transforms her environment. Light, water, sewage, food, fuel, spinning, weaving, all have been commercialized. The home is subject to municipal regulation. Schools take over the teaching of the children. Lest woman forfeit her heritage as wife and mother, she must follow these interests, with her care and guidance into the larger life of the city which has absorbed them.

Gradually economic changes have forced approximately 8,000,000 women into bread-winning occupations. And mother-care is as necessary in the streets and council chambers as between the four walls of home. Women could not neglect these significant changes, so the best among them have for many years been feeling their way to larger service.

Many tools have been ready to their purpose, character, personal influence, untiring effort. But politics has laid over-emphasis upon the means of living and underestimated the quality of life. Women find their tool chest incomplete. As much as man, they need this other implement, the ballot. It is no more, no less important to woman than to man. It does not take the place of any of her other tools, but it will re-enforce them, dignify and relate her work to the issues of the time.

The franchise for woman cannot correct all evils, but its influence, like that of the church, will be on the side of good. This is proven by experience in countries and states where it exists.

During the last half century the women most distinguished for social service have felt the need of the ballot and have left a strong suffrage literature.

But suffrage for women is primarily a question of right and justice. Under republican form of government every one should have a right to a voice in the laws they are forced to obey, irrespective of whether they desire to exercise that right or not.

Neither can it be overlooked that approximately 4,000,000 women already have the ballot. Suffragists believe that Minnesota should not longer disfranchise Minnesota women who would be welcomed to effective citizenship in many other states of the Union.

The effort of women, both for and against suffrage, conclusively proves how vitally interested they are in public affairs and in itself is proof of their fitness to use the franchise.

And finally, suffragists hold that the voters of the state should decide this issue. And that, consequently, it is the manifest duty of the legislature to submit it to them.

ELLEN KEY SENDS MESSAGE TO MINNESOTA SUFFRAGISTS.

The women of Sweden are beginning to fear that their countrywomen in America will all vote before they do. A prominent Scandinavian woman of Minneapolis, Mrs. Luth Jaeger, has recently received a letter from Ellen Key, the well known Swedish writer and feminist. The letter reads:

"To the Women of Minnesota who are striving for Suffrage:

"Everywhere that women have risen to the struggle for their rights one must wish them courage and patience until victory is theirs. For just at present the greatest hope for humanity lies in that victory. To be sure, I do not believe that the world-war would have been avoided even if women had already had the vote. But if another and more terrible world-war is to be averted, the women of the new as well as of the old world, must soon, very soon, attain the vote.

"With all good wishes.

(Signed) "ELLEN KEY."

The women of Norway, Denmark, Finland, Iceland and The Netherlands have already been enfranchised. Only Sweden of the Scandinavian group

WOMEN VOTE IN 33 STATES

Have Full Suffrage in Eleven, Partial in Twenty-eight.

There are just fifteen states in the Union in which no women vote for anything whatever. There are eleven full suffrage states and one other state where women vote for president. There are twenty-one other states in which women have a partial right to vote—generally for members of school boards.

"So in two-thirds of the United States," says the Independent, "the question is no longer, 'Shall women vote?' It is rather, 'Shall women who vote for this be allowed to vote for that as well?' And in one quarter of the states even that searching question has been answered in the affirmative.

"Let us face the issue squarely.

"Since women may vote on child education, why not on child labor?

"Since women may have a hand in the spending of public moneys for hiring school teachers, why not for employing food inspectors?

"If women are to vote at all, they should vote in all states. If woman's place is in the home, it is as bad for her to take a place in a school board as in a health board."

IS CHILD CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

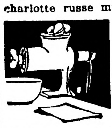
The KITCHEN CABINET

Commend us to the man who does not agree with you always. You might as well go out in the timber and talk to an echo as to the person who agrees to everything you say.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

A delicious dessert is made by piling charlotte russe mixture on pieces of chocolate cake. Another combination with charlotte russe is the orange marmalade, using it as a garnish and serving the charlotte in sherbet glasses. The combination is especially pleasing.



Pineapple Toast.—Add a little sugar to the sirup in a can of pineapple, using half of a can of fruit for this dish. Add a tablespoonful of lemon juice and boil three minutes; then add the slices of pineapple and keep the whole hot. Cut rounds of sponge cake, butter and dredge with sugar, then set in the oven to brown. When ready to serve set a round of pineapple on the round of cake and pour over the sauce.

Hashed Lamb With Rice and Peas.—Chop fine edible portions of cold cooked lamb, to the meat; add a little of the broth or gravy and boiling water, season well with salt and pepper and heat very hot. Place the meat on a hot platter, surround with cooked, seasoned rice and surround the rice with seasoned green peas or the canned variety.

Curried Potatoes.—Peel a small onion and cut into thin rings; melt three tablespoonfuls of butter in a frying pan and cook the onion until it is softened and yellow; add six or eight sliced potatoes, sprinkle with salt, pepper and a level teaspoonful of curry powder, stirred smooth, with a cupful of broth; simmer ten minutes. Squeeze over the juice of half a lemon, turn and serve very hot.

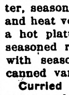
A delicious combination when one desires something especially dainty is creamed celery with shredded almonds. Prepare a rich cream sauce, add cooked, tender celery and the almonds. Serve in timbale cases or patty shells.

Baked Ham.—The Swedish people use the following covering over a ham while baking. Take two cupfuls of bread crumbs, four tablespoonfuls of vinegar, one tablespoonful of mustard, one egg and a dash of pepper and salt to season, spread over the ham before baking. It forms a delicious crust and keeps in all the flavor of the meat.

If thou of fortune be bereft,
And in thy store there be but left
Two loaves—sell one, and with the dole
Buy hyacinths to feed thy soul.

PINEAPPLE JUICE.

Pineapple juice is one of the wholesome nonalcoholic drinks which may be bought in bottles or can be put up at home. The wonderful Hawaiian pineapple is now well known and appreciated all over the country. Medical scientists have been experimenting for years with the fruit and juice to discover its therapeutic qualities. It has been decided by these experts that while pineapple juice is not a cure-all it is especially good for the digestive organs and a great benefit to sufferers of sore throat. It is also used in the treatment for tuberculosis. It is a delightful drink served with carbonated water or simply as one does grape juice.



All cooks who use gelatin with pineapple know that they need to use more of the gelatin with pineapple than with other juices as it shows its digestive power on gelatin.

Regents Punch.—Take the juice of three lemons, one pound of sugar, two quart bottles of pineapple juice a quart of strong Oolong tea and a quart of carbonated water.

Fruit Punch.—Take two lemons, two oranges sliced thin, add two quarts of pineapple juice, one quart of fine large strawberries or raspberries, one quart of Apollinaris water and a pound of sugar. Serve with plenty of ice.

Pineapple Punch.—Add to the juice of three lemons a pound of sugar, three quarts of pineapple juice and six slices of pineapple, cut in pieces. Serve in a punch bowl with a quart of carbonated water and a large piece of ice. This will serve a small company liberally. Let stand a while to get thoroughly cold and somewhat diluted with the ice.

Pineapple juice may be used in any number of ways as desserts. A delicious frappe is the following. Boil together for a quarter of an hour, one and a half pints of water with two cupfuls of sugar. Pour the hot sirup over a can of grated pineapple, then add the juice of three lemons, and let stand until cold. Strain and add a pint of pineapple juice and a pint of water. Freeze to a mush.

COMPANY LUXURIES.

These dishes are not for daily use in the ordinary household, as they are either too much work to prepare or are too expensive.

Fillets of Game or Chicken.—Cut the meat from the bones in wide strips and cook it in well-buttered skillet until brown, then add a tablespoonful of butter, two tablespoonfuls of currant jelly and the strained gravy left from the first cooking of the fowl, or venison. Have molded a ring of rice, place in the oven after spreading with butter and brown. Serve on a round dish and put the fillets in the center with the sauce poured over. A teaspoonful of curry and a teaspoonful of chutney added to the sauce will add variety to this dish.

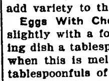
Eggs With Cheese.—Beat six eggs slightly with a fork. Place in a chafing dish a tablespoonful of butter, and when this is melted and hot add two tablespoonfuls of grated cheese. Stir until smooth, then add the eggs and season with paprika and salt. Cook until the eggs are scrambled. Serve on toast.

Nesselrode Pudding.—Make a custard of three cupfuls of milk, 1⅓ cupfuls of sugar, the yolks of five eggs and a half teaspoonful of salt, strain and cool; add a pint of thin cream, a fourth of a cupful of pineapple sirup and 1⅓ cupfuls of cooked and mashed chestnuts. The nuts are put through a strainer after cooking. Line a two-quart melon mold with a part of the mixture and to the remainder add one-half a cupful of candied fruit, cut in bits, a quarter of a cupful of sultana raisins and eight chestnuts broken in pieces and soaked in cherry juice for a few hours. Fill a mold, cover, pack in salt and ice and let stand two hours. Serve with whipped cream, sweetened and flavored with Maraschino sirup.

Bombe Glacee.—Line a mold with sherbet or water ice, fill with ice cream or thin charlotte russes, cover, pack in ice and salt and let stand two hours. Macaroon ice cream is another good combination.

DESIRABLE DUMPLINGS.

Dumplings are a great emergency dish when the chicken or stew seems too small for the family. A nice fluffy lot of dumplings to surround the platter of meat makes a most satisfying sight.



Dumplings.—Add one beaten egg to a cupful of milk, a little salt and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, sifted with flour enough to make a mixture stiff enough to drop from the spoon. Flours differ so in thickening power that no exact measurement can be given. Drop them on the boiling stew with a teaspoon and they will cook in eight minutes. Leave them covered during the entire time so they will be puffy and light.

Bread Dumplings.—Just before putting the bread into the pans, take out about half a loaf, add butter and make small biscuits. Let rise a few minutes until about the size of a walnut. Drop these in the hot broth and cook, carefully covered, twenty minutes. If larger dumplings are made the time must be longer for the cooking.

Potato Dumplings.—To a pint of milk add a beaten egg, a little salt, a cupful of mashed, hot seasoned potato, and flour to make a drop batter. Add two teaspoonfuls of baking powder to the last of the flour, mixing well. Drop in small spoonfuls in chicken or beef broth and cook twenty minutes.

Potato Dumplings With Sauce.—Cook and rice six medium sized potatoes; add a pint of bread crumbs, browned in butter, also two well beaten eggs and salt enough to season. Form in twelve balls and steam twenty minutes; place on a dish and pour over them a half cupful of melted butter.

Sauce.—Brown one teaspoonful of onion and a tablespoonful of flour in two tablespoonfuls of butter, then add a cupful of cider vinegar and stir until it boils, season with salt to taste.

MONTENEGRO SUES FOR PEACE, BERLIN WAR OFFICE HEARS

AGREES TO UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER OF ARMY, ACCORDING TO ANNOUNCEMENT IN HUNGARIAN PARLIAMENT.

FIRST BREAK IN RANKS OF THE ALLIES OCCURS

Beaten Little Kingdom Did Not Sign Treaty of London Binding England, France, Russia and Italy to Conclude no Separate Peace.

Berlin (via wireless to Sayville), Jan. 18.—The first break in the ranks of the Allies has occurred. Crushed and threatened with complete disaster at the hands of the Austrian invaders, Montenegro has sued for peace and has agreed to an unconditional surrender of the remnants of her armies.

Official announcement of this fact was made in the Hungarian parliament by Count Tisza. The news was received with great rejoicing in Budapest and in Berlin when it was telegraphed here.

Austrian to Be Ruler.

Count Tisza announced that peace negotiations will begin at once. It is understood here that King Nicholas will leave his country with other members of the royal family and go to Italy. In all probability an Austrian will be named to the throne of the tiny kingdom that had withstood invading armies for decades.

News of Montenegro's capitulation caused no surprise here. Unofficial reports several days ago said that King Nicholas had agreed to an armistice with General Koevess, the Austrian commander, immediately after the fall of the Montenegrin capital, Cettinje. Subsequent engagements in southern Montenegro are presumed to have been found between Montenegrin irregulars and Austrian troops.

Negotiations Include Germany.

Montenegro declared war on Austria on Aug. 7, 1914, and on Germany five days later. The peace negotiations, therefore, will include the conclusion of a peace with Germany.

The Montenegrins invaded Bosnia and Herzegovina, co-operating with the Serbians. They were poorly equipped and were unable to make much progress, but retained a hold on a small portion of Austrian territory until only a few weeks ago. At no time did the Montenegrin army exceed more than 50,000 men, according to reports received here.

Not Bound by Treaty.

The Austrian invasion of Montenegro began shortly after the Austro-German drive against Serbia. Austrian troops swung west through the Sanjak of Novibazar and drove the Montenegrins well into their own territory. While holding them there, a new offensive from Cattaro was strongly developed. The fall of Mount Loween last week was followed quickly by the capture of Cettinje, the Montenegrin capital, and the dispersion of the Montenegrin forces.

Montenegro did not sign the treaty of London, binding England, France, Russia and Italy to conclude no separate peace.

BANK ROBBER IS CAPTURED

Takes Bag Marked "$10,000 in Gold," But Containing $25 in Pennies—Overpowered by Clerks.

Minneapolis, Jan. 18. A man who posed as an electric burglar alarm expert to gain admittance to the bank's vault, snatched a big money bag from the St. Anthony Falls bank's store of treasure and dived through a plate glass door.

It was a daring act, but the prize was seemingly worth it.

The bag bore the label: "$10,000 in Gold."

Well, the label was wrong. The bag may have been used for gold once upon a time, but when it was taken it contained just $25 in pennies.

The bank's clerical force jumped through the hole he had made, threw a man they found outside to the sidewalk and sat on him until the police arrived. The bag of pennies was recovered.

JURY FINDS PRICE GUILTY OF MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE

RETURNS VERDICT AT 12:40 P. M. AFTER DELIBERATION OF 20 HOURS—STAY OF SENTENCE GRANTED.

APPEARS NERVOUS AS VERDICT IS ANNOUNCED

Defendant in Sensational Murder Trial Near Break-Down For First Time—Motion for New Trial to be Argued Wednesday.

Minneapolis, Jan. 17.—Frederick T. Price was convicted of murder in the first degree by a jury that reported to Judge Fish at 12:40 p. m. Saturday. On motion of M. C. Brady, attorney for Price, Judge Fish granted a stay of sentence until Wednesday, when a motion for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence and alleged errors occurring in the conduct of the trial will be argued.

Price Appears Nervous.

More nervous than he had appeared since the trial began, Price was led into the court room five minutes before the jurors filed in. His hands were trembling and his chin quivered. As he saw the crowd that filled every seat in the small court room in which Judge Fish received the verdict, he pulled himself together and, outwardly calm, waited while Judge Fish took the bench and A. E. Frost, deputy clerk of the district court, called the roll of jurors.

"Gentlemen, have you agreed on a verdict?" asked Mr. Frost and there was tense silence in the court room as James C. Bain, first venireman chosen and the foreman of the jury, replied, "We have."

Reads Verdict.

Every eye was riveted on the prisoner as Mr. Frost received the verdict, handed it to Judge Fish and then when the court had passed it back, read the words:

"We, the jury, find the defendant, Frederick T. Price, guilty as charged in the indictment."

During the wait for the verdict Price sat at a table, just behind his attorney, M. C. Brady. Brady was nervous. Price sat quietly and looked about the room, then casually at the sober-faced jurors.

But his right hand, resting on the table, tapped a little tattoo, the one sign that he knew he was facing his great climax. The verdict was read: "Guilty."

When the jurors received their charge from the court more than a thousand men and women thronged the room and filled the corridors.

Judge Fish Charges Jury.

In his charge, Judge Fish told the jurors that they could not convict, under the Minnesota statutes, on the unsupported word of an accomplice. The question of whether or not the testimony of other witnesses for the state corroborated Etchison's testimony, according to the attorneys, was one of the stumbling blocks in the way of the jurors' agreement.

Guilty or Acquittal.

Under Judge Fish's charge the jury could return only two verdicts, guilty of murder in the first degree, or acquittal. Second degree murder was not charged. From the evidence, Judge Fish instructed the jury, Price was either guilty of premeditated murder or he was not guilty. The story told by Etchison, the bulwark of the state's case, left no room, according to Judge Fish, for a verdict of murder in the second degree, wherein there is no premeditation.

Collapse Is Averted.

In his closing address to the jury Mr. Brady accused Etchison, star witness for the state, of using narcotics on the stand. Once, while apparently on the verge of wilting under his cross-examination, Mr. Brady says Etchison drew out a folded handkerchief and snuffed its contents. "From that moment he was brighter on the stand and his collapse was averted," declared the attorney.

Ridicules State's Theory.

Mr. Brady ridiculed the theory of the state that Price had killed his wife that he might have her money to live at ease with another woman. "If he were going to kill her for money," declared the attorney, "he would have waited until Christmas, when her father planned to give her $20,000 more in property."

New York G. O. P. State Convention.

New York, Jan. 17.—The Republican state committee decided unanimously to hold an unofficial state convention in this city Feb. 15 for the purpose of recommending four delegates and four alternates to the national convention at Chicago. Elihu Root was named as the committee's choice for president. The session was harmonious until F. D. Kilburn moved that the committee go on record as being in favor of any measure designed to prepare the U. S. against invasion.

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

Open sluices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast and it is said to be but a little while until the roses begin to appear in the cheeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at your druggist or from the store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.—Adv.

The Social Whirl.

Blondine—I notice Bennie Beanbrough is home for the winter.

Brunette—Yes, after spending the summer at a seaside resort he says he is tired of the social whirl.

"I don't wonder he is tired of the kind of social whirl he knows about."

"What do you mean?"

"CASCARETS" FOR SLUGGISH BOWELS

No sick headache, sour stomach, biliousness or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken. Adv.

Trying the Jury.

"What is the status of that murder case you are on?"

"Counsel for the defense has convicted all us jurymen of being the sons of parents, and intimates that we will be criminals if we don't let his client go."

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.—Adv.

The Best Excuse.

Brown—Ignorance of the law excuses no one.

Smith—Quite so. It is much better to be rich and hire good lawyers.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days
Druggists refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles. First application gives relief. 50c.

Thoughtless.

Didn't the fire spoil your party?"

"Oh! dreadfully. Not one of the firemen was in evening dress."

'Twould Spoil It All.

Mother—Young man, don't ever let me catch you kissing my daughter.

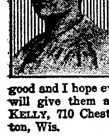
Young Man—No, ma'am, I won't.

To keep clean and healthy take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They regulate liver, bowels and stomach.—Adv.

The man who attempts to match his logic against a woman's tears is one kind of a padded-cell candidate.

PAINS IN SIDE AND BACK

How Mrs. Kelly Suffered and How She was Cured.



Burlington, Wis.—"I was very irregular, and had pains in my side and back, but after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and using two bottles of the Sanative Wash I am fully convinced that I am entirely cured of these troubles, and feel better all over. I know your remedies have done me worlds of good and I hope every suffering woman will give them a trial."—Mrs. ANNA KELLY, 710 Chestnut Street, Burlington, Wis.

The many convincing testimonials constantly published in the newspapers ought to be proof enough to women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they need.

This good old root and herb remedy has proved unequalled for these dreadful ills; it contains what is needed to restore woman's health and strength.

If there is any peculiarity in your case requiring special advice, write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for free advice.

What's Doing in Minnesota

Red Wing. — Mrs. Jennie Fraser, said to be the oldest member of the Sioux tribe of Indians on Prairie Island, is dead. She was about 90 years old.

Bemidji.—This city will not only join in the national "pay-up week," Feb. 21 to 26, but its banks have agreed to loan money that all persons may balance their accounts at that time.

Duluth. — A decision handed down by Judge W. A. Cant has knocked in the head about two-thirds of the paving program which the city had arranged for this year, and which was to cost in the neighborhood of $1,000,000.

Duluth. — Civil proceedings to recover $3,462.13 of county funds from William A. Anderson, Thomas Clark and the American Bonding company of Baltimore have been started by Charles E. Adams, special counsel for the county board.

Duluth. — The sale by the city of the old armory to the Shriners has raised a storm of protest among working men, who wanted it saved for a public assembly hall and social center for laborers, and is likely to result in a referendum election.

St. Paul.—The All-Minnesota Development association will incorporate, it has been virtually decided at a meeting in the Senate Chamber at the Capitol. The committee was named at the first meeting of the association at the call of the late Governor Hammond, December 1.

Northfield. — The men who will compose the Carleton intercollegiate debating teams for the coming year were chosen following a series of tryout debates. Two teams of three men each will represent Carleton in the debates against Beloit and Grinnell colleges to be held in March.

Duluth.—Trappers arriving here with wolf hides for bounty report that hundreds of Northern Minnesota deer are being slaughtered by wolves. The exceptionally deep snow and the alternate freezing and thawing have made a crust that will sustain the weight of wolves, but the sharp hoofs of deer break through and they fall an easy prey.

Winona. — James A. Tawney has returned from Detroit, Mich., where he attended a meeting of the international joint commission. The conference was confined exclusively to consideration of the consulting engineers' report on the Lake of the Woods level, the most advantageous use of the waters of the lake, and the question of land values along the shores.

Kelliher.—When the village council met here to grant a liquor license to R. J. Pupore and Gust Olson, despite the fact Kelliher is in Indian "lid" territory, they found themselves blocked by Sheriff Johnson, who was armed with papers from County Attorney Torrance notifying members of the council that they would violate the law and lay themselves open to being ousted from office by granting the licenses.

Warren.—Eight thousand acres of Minnesota land, a part of the Red Lake bottom, will be thrown open to entry and settlement next spring, according to an announcement by local agents, based on information received from the general land office in Washington. Twice before the interior department has made arrangements to open this land, which is in the eastern part of Marshall county, but certain complications arose and delays ensued.

Minneapolis. Three thousand men are expected to enroll for the Minneapolis Laymen's Missionary Movement convention which will be in session at Westminister Presbyterian Church, January 23 to 26. More than 1,000 have registered already, and judging by the rapid enrollment during the final pre-convention days in other cities the remaining two thirds will no doubt be secured. The convention has aroused keen interest in the smaller towns in the southern part of the state served by it.

St Paul. If the state fair is to expand and become more valuable to the state, the people of Minnesota must realize the fair is an educational institution and deserves ample support from the legislature C. P. Craig of Duluth, president of the Minnesota State Agricultural society, stated in his annual address at the Capitol. Governor Burnquist made his first formal talk since taking office December 30 and offered his co-operation. He said the fair has been a big factor in development of the state.

Minneapolis. More than 100 farmers from the neighborhood of Frederic, Polk County, Wisconsin made a flying trip to Minneapolis and the University Farm school, recently. Under the direction of County Agent Klinka, the party reached the Farm school in time for luncheon as guests of the committee on Northwest Development of the Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association.

Duluth. — This city has a cow with a gross earning capacity of $1,000 yearly for milk alone, with an additional $1,000 for her calf. She is Jean Du Luth Beauty owned by the Jean Du Luth farms here, and has set several new official world's records for a year's production of milk and butter fat.

Minneapolis. Establishment of a state museum of the European type was advocated by Dr George E Vincent president of the University of Minnesota, in an address before the Minnesota Historical society in the senate chamber of the state capitol.

SALTS IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS TROUBLE YOU

Eat Less Meat If Your Kidneys Aren't Acting Right or If Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

NO CHANCE FOR BUSINESS

Old Gentleman's Explanation Convinced Agent That He Had Called at the Wrong House.

The agent stopped at the piazza of the cottage by the sea, where sat a bronzed and ragged old man.

"If you are troubled with moths, as no doubt you are, I have just the proper remedy."

"Moths have never bothered me," said the old man.

"How about the grasshopper pest? I have something here which is guaranteed—"

"I don't believe I've seen a grasshopper in forty years. The fact is—"

"But surely you want to be prepared to fight the locusts. Now, this package contains—"

"I have never had any trouble with locusts, and I never expect to," replied the old man.

"Well, you've got me stumped," said the agent. "How do you manage to escape all these things?"

"Easy enough. I'm captain of the brigantine Nellie M., sailing between here and Java."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

He's a Wiser Man Now.

There is no use in arguing with your better half as to who is boss of the shack, especially if she happens to be in the amazon class. This didn't occur to a New York married man until after his spouse was through discipling him. And then he looked as if he had tried to stop a train. He is wearing enough gauze around his head to make a summer frock for an elephant, his windpipe is in splints and his pretty blue eyes are closed and in deep mourning. The doctors say he will live for years, but that he will be dizzy for about a week. Wifey allowed that she did all this by "tapping hubby with a comb." The court, however, inclined to the belief that the lady combs her hair with a healthy anvil.

PRESSED HARD

Coffee's Weight on Old Age.

When people realize the injurious effects of coffee and the better health that a change to Postum can bring, they are usually glad to lend their testimony for the benefit of others.

"My mother, since her early childhood, was an inveterate coffee drinker, had been troubled with her heart for a number of years and complained of that 'weak all-over' feeling and sick stomach.

"Some time ago I was making a visit to a distant part of the country and took dinner with one of the merchants of the place. I noticed a somewhat unusual flavor of the 'coffee and asked him concerning it. He replied that it was Postum.

"I was so pleased with it that I bought a package to carry home with me, and had wife prepare some for the next meal. The whole family liked it so well that we discontinued coffee and used Postum entirely.

"I had been very anxious concerning my mother's condition, but we noticed that after using Postum for a short time she felt much better, had little trouble with her heart, and no sick stomach; that the headaches were not so frequent, and her general condition much improved. This continued until she was well and hearty.

"I know Postum has benefited myself and the other members of the family, especially my mother, as she was a victim of long standing." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms.

Postum Cereal—the original form must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

"There's a Reason" for Postum.

In compliance Mr. Smith left at once for New York and will endeavor to find a buyer among the big insurance and investment companies of the East.

Insurance Assets $233,486.

Minnesota, which began Aug. 1, 1913, to carry its own fire insurance, had on Dec. 31 last a surplus over all liabilities of $187,073.69, with unearned premiums of $46,413, making total assets of $233,486.69. In the 2½ years since the state abandoned the old system of fire insurance the losses incurred reached $9,385.81, with about $12,000,000 of insurance in force. The expense of administration was $7,126.94, making the total cost $16,512.75.

From these figures Samuel D. Works, state insurance commissioner, is convinced that the experiment has been amply justified.

There have been earned premiums to the amount of $126,069, which with the unearned premium of $46,413 and $77,517 remaining from the latest legislative appropriation, comprise the assets of the state's insurance account.

Contributes to Revenues.

The following companies were licensed last year: 100 stock fire, 42 foreign fire, 25 mutual fire, 158 township mutuals, 55 level premium, 62 casualty (stock), 17 assessment casualty, 7 hail and cyclone, 65 fraternal, 5 assessment, life and accident.

There were four new stock fire companies licensed, 2 foreign fire, 2 mutual fire, 1 townsip mutual, 8 level premium life, 6 stock casualty, 2 fraternal, 2 mutual casualty and 1 reciprocal exchange.

Makes Plea to Farmers.

A plea to the farmers of the state not to permit the University to be made the "football of politics," and to spread the gospel of confidence in the administration of the institution, especially among members of the legislature, was made by Fred B. Snyder, president of the board of regents, at the final session of the farmers' short course at the Agricultural college.

Mr. Snyder charged that the board of regents had been misrepresented regarding expenditures and the use of appropriations and read a resolution which was introduced at the last session of the legislature in support of his charges.

Protests Flat Charge For Icing.

J. J. Farrell, state dairy and food commissioner, was in Chicago to attend a hearing before the interstate commerce commission to protest on behalf of the creameries of Minnesota against the commission's order allowing refrigerator car companies to make a flat charge for icing. Shippers now pay for ice only when it is furnished. Mr. Farrell says the new rule will work a great disadvantage to the Minnesota creameries that ship to New York, and will mean thousands of dollars a year in additional charges.

Sophie's Quick Retort.

Her quick wit has carried Sophie Tucker through many ticklish positions in vaudeville, and once while rehearsing for a production turned an unpleasant situation in her favor. Ben Teal, the veteran stage director, was doing the rehearsing and took occasion to correct Miss Tucker's pronunciation of a certain word, explaining so the assembled members of the company could get the benefit of his remarks, that in the word disputed the letter "t" was silent. Sophie accepted the correction with the remark: "All right, Mr. Teal—with the 'T' silent."

WHY "ANURIC" IS AN INSURANCE AGAINST SUDDEN DEATH!

Sufferers from Backache, Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble

Before an Insurance Company will take a risk on your life the examining physician will test the urine and report whether you are a good risk. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or the twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism and gout. The urine is often cloudy, full of sediment; channels often get sore and sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. This is the time you should consult some physician of wide experience—such as Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Send him 10 cents for sample package of his new discovery—"Anuric." Write him your symptoms and send a sample of urine for test. Experience has taught Dr. Pierce that "Anuric" is the most powerful agent in dissolving uric acid, as hot water melts sugar; besides being absolutely harmless it is endowed with other properties, for it preserves the kidneys in a healthy condition by thoroughly cleansing them. Checks the degeneration of the blood vessels, as well as regulating blood pressure. "Anuric" is a regular insurance and life-saver for all big meat eaters and those who deposit lime-salts in their joints. Ask the druggist for "Anuric" put up by Dr. Pierce, in 50-cent packages.

The Wheat Yield Tells the Story of Western Canada's Rapid Progress

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The heavy crops in Western Canada have caused new records to be made in the handling of grains by railroads. For, while the movement of these heavy shipments has been wonderfully rapid, the resources of the different roads, despite enlarged equipments and increased facilities, have been strained as never before, and previous records have thus been broken in all directions.

The largest Canadian wheat shipments through New York ever known are reported for the period up to October 15th, upwards of four and a quarter million bushels being exported in less than six weeks, and this was but the overflow of shipments to Montreal, through which point shipments were much larger than to New York.

Yields as high as 60 bushels of wheat per acre are reported from all parts of the country, while yields of 45 bushels per acre are common.

Thousands of American farmers have taken part in this wonderful production. Land prices are still low and free homestead lands are easily secured in good localities, convenient to churches, schools, markets, railways, etc.

There is no war tax on land and no conscription.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

How To Cook A Husband.

A good many husbands are spoiled in the cooking. Some women go about it as if their husbands were bladders and blow them up. Others keep them constantly in hot water, others let them freeze by their carelessness and indifference. Some keep them in a stew by irritating ways and words. Others roast them Some keep them in a pickle all their lives. It cannot be supposed that husbands will be tender and good managed in this way, but they are delicious when properly treated.

In selecting your husband you should not be guided by the silvery appearance as in buying mackeral or by the golden tint, as if you wanted salmon. Be sure and select him yourself as tastes differ. Do not go to market for him, as the best are always brought to your door. It is far better to have none unless you will patiently learn how to cook them. A preserving kettle of the finest porcelain is the best, but if you have nothing but an earthenware pepkin, it will do, with care. See that the linen in which you wrap him in is nicely washed and mended, with the required number of buttons and strings. Tie him in the kettle by a strong silk cord called comfort, as the one called to duty is apt to be weak. They are apt to fly out of the kittle and be burned and crusty on the edges, such like crabs and lobsters, you have to cook them alive.

Make a clear steady fire of love, neatness and cheerfulness. Set him as near this as seems to agree with him. If he sputters and fizzes, do not be anxious: some husbands do this, until he is quite done. Add a little sugar in the form of what confectioners call kisses, but no vinegar or pepper on any account. A little spice improves them, but must be used with judgment. Do not stick any sharp instruments into him to see if he is becoming tender. Stir him gently watch the while lest he lie too flat, or close to the kettle and so become useless. You cannot fail to know when he is done. If thus treated you will find him very digestable, agreeing nicely with you and the children, and he will keep as long as you want, unless you become careless and set him in too cold a place.—Anonymous.

Lutefisk

I cannot praise the lutefisk much;
It runs a lot to pith.
It has no fragrant odors
Like sauer krout supplies us with.

It is not pulpy like the fruit
Nor juicy like the beet.
It seems more like a substitute
For something good to eat.

I do not sing the lutefisk much;
My spirits always droop.
To see it lay its deadly clutch
Upon a plate of soup.

I always greet it with dispair;
And sometimes even scream,
But lutefisk is eaten everywhere
Except in my "esteem."

The village council met Saturday evening and purchased a lot of C. W. Latta, next to Sollom's store on which to erect a town building. They adjourned to Tuesday evening and on account of opposition to the site purchased, they held another adjourned session last night. Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which, if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from any druggist or storekeeper. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do. —Adv.

Nothing Doing.

"Put your car up for the winter yet?"

"No, I'd like to, but none of the pawnbrokers are willing to lend me any money on it."

MOTHER! LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is ofttimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

In the Watered Stock.

"Did you take that plunge in the market you were contemplating?"

"Yes, went in over my head, all right."

In the effort to eradicate

HEADACHE AND NEURALGIA

Hoyt's Headache and Neuralgia Cologne now heads the list as a successful remedy for the relief of headache, nervousness, insomnia, car sickness, etc.

The dangerous tablet has had its day. Hoyt's Headache and Neuralgia Cologne is a harmless, refreshing, fragrant preparation, marvelous in its action, relieving nervousness, sleeplessness, exhaustion and all head and nerve ailments by external use and inhaling. It is not a nerve food, but a nerve soother. By giving the nerves a rest they furnish their own food and tone, and all nerve pains disappear.

For children's colds and catarrh it is just the remedy, harmless and efficient and so pleasant to use. For men a pleasant remedy to relieve and clear the head "the morning after the night before." This is not an expensive preparations at 50 cents a bottle, because it brings the relief. It has many imitators at less price, but if they do not bring the desired results they are not cheap at any price.

Get Hoyt's and you will be satisfied. For sale at all drug stores.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.—Adv.

Winona.—When the Minnesota Supreme Court, in a decision just handed down, held that the Winona county board, in spite of an expressed desire so to do, cannot turn back after having decided to build Elwell highways, it gave assurance that Winona county will in a few years be the center of improved rural highways in the Northwest.

Inver Grove. — This village is torn asunder by a fight over the location of a site for a new schoolhouse. The latest development was the announcement that a petition remonstrating against the lending of money for the erection of the building on the Krech farm west of the village had been prepared for presentation to the Minnesota Board of Investment.

Winona, Minn.—In the series of conferences of county superintendents of schools to be held in the state in the next few weeks Winona county has associated with several other counties in a meeting at Red Wing, February 3. The counties to be represented include Winona, Goodhue, Fillmore, Dodge, Dakota, Mower, Wabasha, Houston and Olmsted.

Glenwood.—Among the skiers of national reputation who will take part in the National Tournament to be held in Glenwood February 4 and 5 are the Haugen brothers, one of whom won last year's championship, Barney Riley, Ragnar Omtvedt and a score or more of other equally well known celebrities. The ski hill and slide are in excellent condition and this year's tournament promises to be the best in the history of the association.

Cass Lake. — Ka be na guay yance, said to be 128 years old and the most famous Indian in Northern Minnesota, was seriously injured in a railroad accident here, and is in a local hospital. It is feared he will die. He is known more briefly as Captain John Smith.

McKinley.—A recent attempt of the village of McKinley in St. Louis county to annex adjacent territory was nullified when the supreme court held that the action of the village in annexing such territory was without authority of law. A writ of ouster was ordered by the court.

FOR DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC DOMAIN

IMPORTANT REFORM SUGGESTED TO EFFICIENCY COMMISSION BY STATE AUDITOR.

STATE CAPITOL HAPPENINGS

Events of General Interest in Minnesota Condensed and Revised for The Greater Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

One of the most important reforms the efficiency and economy commission can seek to bring about is the creation of a department of public domain with the Governor in control. This suggestion was made by J. O. A. Preus state auditor, who was summoned by the commission. Mr. Preus pointed out that the sale of lands and timber, forestry work, administration of mines and protection of game and fish should be grouped under one department.

He said the Governor should head the department as attention is focused on his office and the public would be able to indicate its choice in the handling of the state's public domain at the polls. Mr. Preus said the immigration department should be coupled with this department also.

Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith, who appeared before the commission, declared that the state should have greater supervision over grainage projects. Members of the commission showed great interest in the subject, and a discussion which followed brought out ideas which may be brought to the attention of the 1917 Legislature.

It was planned to call on secretary of State Schmahl, State Treasurer Smith and Ira B. Mills, chairman of the Railroad and Warehouse Commission.

Ratifies Appointments.

The Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota, which met in President Vincent's office, ratified the following appointments: J. B. Johnston as acting dean of the graduate school for the second semester; William H. Thompson as instructor in the school of chemistry; Dr. Samuel T. Forsythe as teaching fellow in the department of ear, eye, nose and throat in the medical school; G. G. Parkin as assistant in the school of chemistry; Linwood G. Downs as assistant in German; C. P. Stone as assistant in education; B. N. Ohmstead as assistant in the department of physical education.

The following resignations also were accepted: John S. Sinclair as instructor in business law in the evening extension classes, and George F. Ghostley as pathologist in outpatient department on account of ill health.

State Banks Prosperous.

State banks of Minnesota are in a prosperous condition, as shown by the report just issued by A. H. Turritin, superintendent of banks, on their condition for the year ending December 31, 1915, the date of the last call. Loans and discounts show an increase of $14,651,352.39 as compared to the year previous, while the total increase in deposits approximately more than $20,600,000. A year ago there were 861 state banks. Now there are 971, an increase of eighty.

The total resources increased from $185,908,133.13 in 1914 to $210,276,057.44, a gain of $24,461,116.89. The overdrafts decreased $80,769.33.

Suspension Request Denied.

The attempt on the part of the Railroad and Warehouse Commission to have suspended the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission allowing Western railroads to put into effect a 2.4 cents a mile tariff for passenger rates on interstate business has failed. Notice was received from the Federal commission, according to C. E. Elmquist of the Minnesota commission, that the request for suspension made by Minnesota had been denied.

Grants Only Two Pardons.

The indiscriminate making of pardon applications by those incarcerated in Minnesota's penal institutions was given a death blow when the board of pardons closed its January meeting granting only two pardons and denying the request of ninety-one. The board considered the applications of 108 prisoners who sought full pardons or commutation of their sentences.

Proposes School Reforms.

Absolute leveling of the school system in Minnesota, with equal opportunity and equal expenditure for every pupil in the state, is the proposition laid before the state efficiency and economy commission by R. H. Jefferson of Bingham Lake, former house member.

To Discuss Express Rates.

As a follow up to its recent order reducing express rates in Minnesota the state railway and warehouse commission has called another hearing for a discussion of rates on ice cream, laundry and newspapers, "patent insides." The hearing was called for February 9 at the state capitol and every express company operating in the state has been cited to appear. So far no protest has been lodged by the express companies against the action of the commission in reducing rates.

INCOME TAX LAW IS UPHELD BY U. S. SUPREME COURT

FEDERAL STATUTE DECLARED CONSTITUTIONAL IN OPINION HANDED DOWN BY CHIEF JUSTICE WHITE.

ARGUMENTS ADVANCED BY OPPOSITION OVERTURNED

Contention That Measure is Retroactive and Exempted Certain Classes Held Immaterial—Democrats Make Plans to Secure Revenues.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The federal income tax law was declared constitutional in the supreme court Monday.

Chief Justice White gave the court's decision, sweeping aside all the many objections to its constitutionality in whole or in part.

Chief Justice White announced the decision in the case of Frank R. Brushaber, stockholder of the Union Pacific railroad, who sought to enjoin the company from paying the tax on the ground that it was unconstitutional.

Most of the opinion was directed toward overruling the contention that the income tax amendment provided a hitherto unknown power of taxation. Going far into the history of income tax legislation the chief justice concluded the argument was without merit.

Arguments Answered.

Advancing to other points the chief justice held that the tax was not unconstitutional because it was retroactive.

The argument that the law was unconstitutional because labor, agricultural and horticultural organizations and such were exempt the chief justice held was answered by decisions under the corporation tax law. He said the point was only another illustration of an erroneous assumption that the tax was imposed under a new power conferred upon the government by the sixteenth amendment whereas it was a power recognized to exist from the beginning of the government and thus dcisions defining the taxing power previously rendered were applicable to it.

Hull is Father of Law.

Democratic leaders in Congress almost immediately declared income taxes would be made to furnish the greater part of revenues needed for the proposed national defense prfgram.

"We are now free to go ahead and revise the law to meet the needs," said Representative Hull of Tennessee, known as the father of the law.

As it stands, the income tax law raises $80,000,000 a year, as revised it is intended by the administration that it shall raise several times that amount.

G. O. P. COMMITTEE MEETS

Body Empowered to Name Temporary Chairman Fails to Take Action at Meeting in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Members of the Republican National committee's subcommittee on convention arrangements met here, and discussed plans for the party convention which is to be held June 7 in Chicago.

Though empowered by the national committee to select a temporary chairman, the committee members declared that no steps would be taken at this meeting toward selecting the man whose gavel would open the 1916 convention.

When the sub-committee went into executive session it had before it blue prints of the Coliseum where the convention is to be held, and a tentative seating arrangement which would accommodate 12,500 persons, 1,300 more than were provided for in the 1912 convention. Fred Upham, chairman of the Chicago convention committee, met with the sub-committee.

Hundreds Dig in Snow for Bodies.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 25.—Three hundred men continued digging Monday in the huge pile of snow and debris which marks the spot where an avalanche wrecked two cars of the west bound Cascade limited train. The men are seeking the bodies of Mrs Fern Wallace and her baby of Lyons, Wash., Ralph Batterman of Wenatchee, Wash., and an unidentified passenger. Eight passengers are now thought to have lost their lives. Other gangs of men assisted by hugh rotary snowplows are clearing away slides.

DISASTER OCCURS NEAR SCENE OF FORMER SLIDE

Dining Car and Coach Struck Squarely on Side and Carried Away Like Chips At Almost Exact Spot Where Catastrophe in 1910 Occurred.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 24.—Caught in an avalanche of snow which roared down the mountainside, the dining car and a day coach on Great Northern Train No. 25 were cut off from the rest of the train and carried over a 300-foot cliff near Scenic Saturday. Several persons were reported killed. The passenger train was en route to Seattle from Spokane.

All the persons in the two cars must have been killed or injured.

Physicians have been sent from Everett.

Stopped by Small Slide.

Workmen had just completed removing the debris from the rails, and the train was about to proceed when an avalanche thundered down from the mountainside above the tracks. The dining car and day coach were struck squarely on the side and carried away, as though they had been chips. The other cars and the engine were left on the track.

Corea is about 120 miles east of Seattle and is at the loop of a big switchback. It is the second station down the west slope from the Cascade tunnel at almost the exact spot where a train was swept from the tracks February 28, 1910, with great loss of life.

Passengers Found Dead.

The first passenger reached in the day coach, a small boy, was severely injured. The next two passengers were dead.

Five employes in the dining car are believed to be dead.

It is impossible to say how many passengers were in the day coach.

Two negro porters and a trainman are known to be dead. The dining car is reported burning. The cars in the gulch are not covered by snow as in the 1910 disaster. At that time many of the dead were suffocated.

Cries for help from the cars in the gulch can be heard on the track above.

Two dead and three injured were taken from the dining car according to reports from Seattle. The engine, baggage car and observation car were reported not buried.

Recalls 1910 Disaster.

In the 1910 disaster two Great Northern passenger trains, which had been detained two weeks by snowslides in front and rear, were struck by an avalanche at night and carried several hundred feet into a gulch. Nearly all the persons on the trains perished.

The bodies were not all recovered for several weeks. After the accident the railroad began construction of concrete snow sheds at a cost of millions of dollars. The railroad engineers believed they had protected all the most dangerous places.

The snowfall during the present winter has been very heavy and the Great Northern has experienced much trouble, but has managed to keep trains moving with only slight delay.

ANOTHER AMERICAN IS SLAIN

Texas Ranger Is Shot In Back by Mexican Cattle Rustlers According to Companion's Story.

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 24.—Customs officers early Saturday opened fire on several Mexicans attempting to cross the international border with large bundles of rags. The Mexicans fled. It is not believed any were injured.

El Paso, Jan. 24.—Shooting to death of another American citizen in Mexico has aroused the border anew over conditions prevailing in the trouble torn republic. Riding into Ysleta, Texas, Douglas Downs brought a story of a manhunt for Mexicans by himself and his friend, Bert Akers, a Texas ranger, which ended in the killing of Akers. Downs and the murdered man were in Mexico, accompanied by a Carranza official, hunting cattle stolen from the Texas ranch of Mrs. J. D. Murphy, Akers' sister-in-law.

Five Mexican cattle rustlers, including the two Duran brothers, are accused of the killing and two of them have been taken by Mexican soldiers.

Papers Urge Sweden to Retaliate.

Stockholm, via London, Jan. 24. The Swedish newspapers comment extensively on the seizure of the cargo of the Swedish-American line steamer Stockholm. The general opinion is that it will be impossible to keep up the sailings of the newly formed Swedish-American line. As this has been regarded as a sort of national undertaking any interference with it, the newspapers say, will cause bitter feeling. The papers urge retaliatory measures against Great Britain.

What Does Catarrh Mean?

It means inflammation of a mucous membrane somewhere in the head, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, biliary ducts or bowels. It always means stagnant blood—the blood that is full of impurities. Left alone, it extends until it is followed by indigestion, colds, congestion or fever. It weakens the system generally and spreads its operations until systemic catarrh or an acute illness is the result.

Peruna

Is the nation's reliable remedy for this condition. It restores appetite, aids digestion, checks and removes inflammation, and thus enables the membranes, through which we breathe and through which our food is absorbed, to do their work properly. Forty-four years of success, with thousands of testimonials, have established it as the home remedy—Ever-Ready-to-Take. Its record of success holds a promise for you.

Censors on the Seashore.

Irvin Cobb, looking over an Atlantic City paper when he was there for the trial performance of "Back Home," was reminded of the fact that the seashore papers are as careful never to mention a drowning as a San Francisco paper is to avoid mention of earthquakes, relates the Philadelphia Record, and he told of finding one day the following sentence in a story evidently doctored by the censors:

"Mr. So-and-So died of shock, in shallow water. The body was not recovered."

Innocent Merriment.

The following conversation was overheard between two of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw's little nieces, who were seriously discussing votes for women:

"I shan't tell the girls at school that I'm a suffragist," confided the older sister.

"I don't mind if they know I'm one," burst out the smaller girls. "What do you care for?"

"Because they will all laugh at me," her sister admitted.

"Why, don't you know," came the solemn reply, "that people have been laughing at Aunt Anna for hundreds and hundreds of years?"

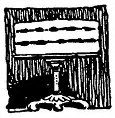
EGGLESS DISHES.



When eggs are expensive it is a relief to find good things which usually call for eggs, prepared without them.

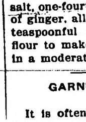
Oatmeal Dainties.—Cream one cupful of butter with one cupful of sugar. Dissolve a teaspoonful of soda in a cupful of sweet milk and add to the butter and sugar, then stir in six cupfuls of rolled oats. Add a teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, a half teaspoonful of cinnamon, and a fourth of a teaspoonful of cloves. Mix these with a little flour, add a cupful of raisins and sufficient flour to handle. Flour the hands and make into cakes the size of a silver dollar. Bake in a slow oven until brown. These are cakes which keep well.

Bread Sponge Cake.—Take two cupfuls of brown sugar, one cupful of lard, three cupfuls of light bread sponge, two cupfuls of seeded raisins, two cupfuls of flour, one tablespoonful each of cinnamon and allspice and a half teaspoonful of cloves. Add a teaspoonful of soda dissolved in one-half cupful of coffee. Mix the ingredients and let rise a half hour. Bake one hour in a slow oven. This will make a large loaf or two small ones.

Eggless, Butterless, Milkless Cake.—Boil together three minutes a cupful of sugar and water and a half cupful of lard, two cupfuls of raisins, an eighth of a teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, a teaspoonful of cloves and a pinch of salt. When cool add two cupfuls of flour, a cupful of molasses, a half teaspoonful of baking powder, a teaspoonful of soda, dissolved in a little water. Bake forty minutes. This makes a chewy cake which the children especially enjoy.

Cream Spice Cake.—Take a cupful of sour cream, one cupful of brown sugar, one teaspoonful of soda, a teaspoonful of baking powder, a pinch of salt, one-fourth of a tablespoonful each of ginger, allspice and cloves, one-half teaspoonful of cinnamon. Stir with flour to make a drop batter and bake in a moderate oven.

GARNISHES FOR SOUP.



It is often the tasty garnish which takes the soup out of the common into the unusual.

Almond Balls.—Pound a dozen almonds to a fine powder. Beat two eggs light, season with salt and pepper, add the almonds, half a teaspoonful of minced parsley and three-fourths of a cupful of flour sifted with a teaspoonful of baking powder. Mix and roll into very small balls and drop into the boiling soup to cook for five minutes before serving.

Marrow Balls.—Take a piece of marrow the size of an egg, add a cupful of crumbs, moisten with cold water, add two eggs unbeaten and shape into small balls. Add to the boiling soup and cook very gently two minutes.

Croutons.—Trim crusts from bread and cut in half dice. Toast in the oven and fry in deep fat. If toasted in the oven, spread the slices with butter before cutting in dice.

Egg Custard.—Beat three eggs and add half a cupful of highly seasoned beef stock. Butter a small pan and pour the mixture into it. Set the pan in another of warm water and place in a moderate oven for half an hour until the custard is set. Cool and cut in squares and add to the soup just before serving.

Egg Balls.—Chop fine four hard cooked eggs, add a teaspoonful of chopped parsley, two tablespoonfuls of grated cheese, a cupful of bread crumbs and a pinch of salt, with a dash of red pepper. Bind with the yolks of two eggs or a half cupful of cream. Make into balls, dip in egg and crumbs, fry in deep fat and add to the clear soup when ready to serve.

Soup Balls.—Roll cracker crumbs, mix with butter and make into firm balls the size of a marble. Drop in the soup when ready to serve.

Quenelles.—Take small bits of meat finely chopped, mixed with crumbs and bound with egg, shape into balls, dip in egg and crumbs and fry in deep fat. Add to the soup when serving.

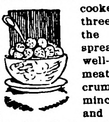
SOME CHEAP MEAT DISHES.



The flank which is one of the cheap cuts of meat is very good when nicely cooked. Take two or three pounds, remove the tough skin and spread the meat with a well-seasoned force meat, using bread crumbs, herbs, parsley, minced onion and salt and pepper. Roll up and tie firmly to keep in shape. Have ready a pint of mixed vegetables, carrots, onion, celery and turnip. Place these in the bottom of a shallow baking pan with the meat on top with just enough water to cover; add a blade of mace and three or four cloves. Cover closely and cook slowly for four hours, basting the meat frequently with the liquor in the pan. When done remove the meat and vegetables to a hot dish and thicken the gravy with browned flour. Strain the gravy over the meat, removing the cloves and mace before serving.

Sour Beef.—This is a good way to treat tough beef. Take a pound and a half of lean beef from the shin, cut it in small pieces and roll in flour. Brown the meat in a little bacon fat, then remove it and add to the same fat two tablespoonfuls of flour; brown this also, then add slowly two cupfuls of water or stock and stir until boiling hot. Put in the meat and cook slowly for one hour, then add two onions, salt and pepper to taste and finally a tablespoonful each of Worcestershire sauce and vinegar. Continue the cooking until the meat is tender. Sprinkle with chopped parsley and serve.

Beef in Casserole.—This is another method of cooking meat that is inclined to be tough. Take two pounds of the shin or round, wipe it carefully and lay in a casserole. Cover with a can of tomato, add two bay leaves and salt and pepper to season. Cook in the oven for two hours. Dish up the meat, thicken the tomatoes with flour and butter cooked together and serve the meat with potato pancakes. The acid of the tomato softens the tough fibers of the meat as does vinegar.

HELPFUL THOUGHTS.

Blood spots on woolen may be easily removed by rubbing the spots with dry starch. This absorbs the blood, and the cloth when dry may be brushed, freeing the starch from the cloth.

Before polishing a stove soap the hands well with a good laundry soap, filling the nails with the soap, then dry and the hands will not be at all stained when the black work is done.

A bar of laundry soap moistened to a lather rubbed over the back of the oilcloth that slips and slides on the table will keep it firm without the use of tacks.

Salt shaker tops which have become rusted on may be removed by soaking the tops in a little vinegar. The acid dissolves the rust and the tops will then unscrew.

Cut hot gingerbread or cake with a fork. This makes each piece light and fluffy, whereas a knife used will spoil the cake, making a heavy streak where it is cut.

Use a little kerosene in the cleaning of windows, adding a teaspoonful to a pail of soapy water. Also use it in cleaning the bathtub, kitchen sink, linoleum, wash basin and the rollers of the clothes wringer.

Newspapers may be used in many ways to lighten work. Cut in small squares and hang from a convenient hook. Use the pieces to rub off the stove, wipe out a greasy dish, or on which to set a smoky kettle. They save utensils in dressing chickens and preparing vegetables, fruits and nuts; they protect the sink drain if used to wipe out greasy dishes before washing. If dampened and torn in bits may be used to keep down dust sweepings. When tightly twisted they make good kindling for fires, and good packing for a homemade fireless cooker.

To keep a kitchen coal stove clean an ordinary school eraser sprinkled with kerosene is a fine improvement over the brush which just changes the position of the dust.

WANTED A BABY WITH RED HAIR

Husband's Order Listed as Cruelty in Wife's Suit for Separation.

HER BEAUTY IN DANGER

Man Promised to Smash Her Face and Spoil Her Eyes If Child Was Not Redheaded, Alleges the Wife.

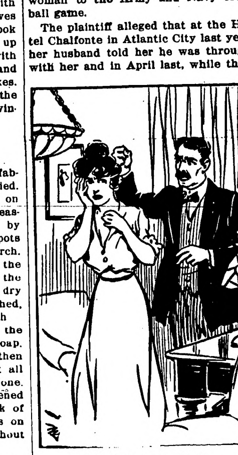
New York.—John Ross Stuart, a mechanical engineer, was sued in the supreme court for a separation by Mrs. Evelyn M. Stuart, who alleges that since their marriage in Michigan City, Ind., in 1911, her husband has been "uniformly unkind and cruel." One of the charges of cruelty is that he insisted on having a red-haired child.

Mrs. Stuart says her husband has an ungovernable temper and "flies into angry rages." She says one objection to him is that he had the habit of coming home from his trips unannounced. When they were living at 720 Riverside drive in 1912 Mrs. Stuart was out late one evening and when she returned she found her husband in bed. He abused her and insisted on knowing where she had been. She named two restaurants she had visited with friends. On the following night her husband took her to these places and to her great mortification he led her before the doorman and head waiter in each place and asked if she had been there with another man the previous night.

Her Beauty in Danger.

Mrs. Stuart said that in 1913, when she and her husband were passing a Broadway restaurant with members of her family, he stopped and said to the others. "She knows too d—— much about these places." While they were living at the Imperial hotel in the fall of that year she says he told her to go to her home in Chicago because he had an engagement to take another woman to the Army and Navy football game.

The plaintiff alleged that at the Hotel Chalfonte in Atlantic City last year her husband told her he was through with her and in April last, while they were leaving the apartment house at Convent avenue and One Hundred and Forty-ninth street her husband suddenly turned and ran back to the house saying he intended to leave her. She followed him and when he locked the door with the chain she tried to open it. He caught her arm in the door and injured her so seriously she fainted.



Flies Into Angry Rages.

When Mrs. Stuart expected an heir last April she alleges that her husband said: "If that baby hasn't got red hair I won't have anything to do with it." In July, when they were living at 782 West End avenue, Stuart is alleged to have said. "I'll change that smile on your countenance I'll smash your face and spoil your pretty blue eyes."

Mrs. Stuart says her husband told her he would rather cut his throat than live with her longer.

MAN THOUGHT DEAD RETURNS

Thirty-Five Years Ago This Indianian Sold His Property and Quietly Disappeared.

Connorsville, Ind.—Jacob De Haven, seventy-five, long believed dead by relatives here, has just returned to Connorsville after an absence of thirty-five years. When he appeared at the door of his nephew, Samuel D. Haven, the family did not recognize him.

De Haven, once a prosperous farmer of this community, sold his place one day and departed without saying a word to any one. It was reported that he was killed by bandits in the West. He says that he followed the sea and spent several years in the Orient and south seas.

"What's that song they're singing now?"

"'Rock of Ages.'"

"'Rock of Ages'? Well, that's the first time I ever heard those words to 'Rock of Ages,' and that's the first time I ever heard that tune to it. Must be something new. Nice window they got there, ain't it?"

"Ye-e-es, I should say it is!"

"I don't think I'll care much for your new preacher—don't like his collar."

"John!"

"Well, I don't! And I don't like the way he says 'idear,' neither. If your other preacher hadn't talked like he had a lot of potato in his mouth all the time I'd have come oftener. Lots of time I came here just on your account, and sat here in misery."

"Yes, how many times were you here in the last year?"

"Wasn't I here last Children's day?"

BIG EATERS HAVE BAD KIDNEYS AND BACKACHE

Take a Glass of Salts at Once If Your Back is Hurting or Kidneys and Bladder Trouble You.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.

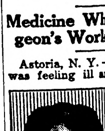
WOMAN AVOIDS OPERATION

Medicine Which Made Surgeon's Work Unnecessary.



Astoria, N. Y.—"For two years I was feeling ill and took all kinds of tonics. I was getting worse every day. I had chills, my head would ache, I was always tired. I could not walk straight because of the pain in my back and I had pains in my stomach. I went to a doctor and he said I must go under an operation, but I did not go. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told my husband about it. I said 'I know nothing will help me but I will try this.' I found myself improving from the very first bottle, and in two weeks time I was able to sit down and eat a hearty breakfast with my husband, which I had not done for two years. I am now in the best of health and did not have the operation."—Mrs. JOHN A. KOENIG, 502 Flushing Avenue, Astoria, N. Y.

Every one dreads the surgeon's knife and the operating table. Sometimes nothing else will do; but many times doctors say they are necessary when they are not. Letter after letter comes to the Pinkham Laboratory, telling how operations were advised and were not performed; or, if performed, did no good, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was used and good health followed.

If you want advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

THE NEWEST REMEDY FOR BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM AND DROPSY

Kidney, Bladder and Uric Acid troubles bring misery to many. When the kidneys are weak or diseased, these natural filters do not cleanse the blood sufficiently, and the poisons are carried to all parts of the body. There follow depression, aches and pains, heaviness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness and rheumatism. In some people there are sharp pains in the back and loins, distressing bladder disorders and sometimes obstinate dropsy. The uric acid sometimes forms into gravel or kidney stones. When the uric acid affects the muscles and joints it causes lumbago, rheumatism, gout or sciatica. This is the time to send Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. 10c for large trial package of "Anuric."

During digestion uric acid is absorbed into the system from meat eaten, and even from some vegetables. The poor kidneys get tired and backache begins. This is a good time to take "Anuric," the new discovery of Dr. Pierce for Kidney trouble and Backache. Neglected kidney trouble is responsible for many deaths, and Insurance Company examining doctors always test the water of an applicant before a policy will be issued. Have you ever set aside a bottle of water for twenty-four hours? A heavy sediment or settling sometimes indicates kidney trouble. If you wish to know your condition send a sample of your water to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and describe symptoms. It will be examined without any expense to you, and Dr. Pierce or his medical staff will inform you truthfully. Anuric is now for sale by dealers, in 50c pck'gs.

IN ESTABROOK IS HOPE OF SUCCESS

"NATIONAL" IN EXPERIENCE

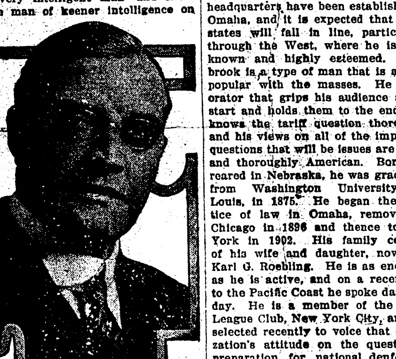
His Dictum That the American Farmer Must Not Be Compelled to Sell in a Free Trade Market and Buy in a Protected Market Has Made a Powerful Impression on the Agricultural Element, Always the Backbone of the G. O. P.

Declaring that the American farmer must not be compelled to sell his products in a free trade market and buy his machinery and supplies in a protected market, Henry D. Estabrook of New York and Nebraska, candidate for the Republican nomination for President, has made a strong appeal for the support of the agricultural element in the country, which has always been the backbone of the Republican party.

"Yet, this is exactly what Canadian Reciprocity would have done and exactly what the present Democratic tariff law has done," continued Mr. Estabrook. "Upon the excuse that the consumers of food products in the cities were being charged such exorbitant prices as to render the cost of living almost prohibitive, the Northern farmer was sacrificed by the Democratic party. The Southern farmer, who is interested primarily in cotton and rice, was well taken care of by the Democrats.

"It was a cruel and needless sacrifice of our Northern and Western agricultural interests, for it is now admitted that the consumers have not been benefited in any degree. The cost of living has not been reduced. Indeed, not one of the pledges made by the Democratic leaders to the American people when their tariff law was enacted has been redeemed.

"Every intelligent man—and there is no man of keener intelligence on such questions than the American farmer—knows that only the intervention of the war in Europe prevented the visitation upon the United States, as a drastic result of this Democratic tariff, of business and industrial depression and calamity such as the country has never known.



Henry D. Estabrook.

"Canadian Reciprocity would have put the Northern and Northwestern farmer at the mercy of Canadian competition. The Democratic tariff law has done that, particularly with reference to wheat, the product of first interest to the farmers of Minnesota and North Dakota and the rest of that section. While there is a nominal duty of ten cents a bushel on wheat, the Democratic law provides that that duty shall be removed as applied to any country that will admit American wheat free. Thus, at any moment when Canada desires it, her wheat will be admitted into the American market without paying a cent of duty. Amazing as it may seem, the Democrats have passed this question so vital to the American farmer from the control of the American Government to the control of Canada.

"Canada, with one-twelfth the population of the United States, last year produced more than a third as much wheat as we produced. Canadian farmers boast that today they can raise enough wheat to feed the world. They pay less for their labor than does the American farmer. They pay less for their farm equipment and supplies. How can the American wheat grower meet the competition of Canada unless he is given the protective tariff, to which he is clearly entitled and which the Republican party will give him?"

Forty years a Nebraskan, seven years an Illinoisan and fourteen years a New Yorker, Henry D. Estabrook is emphatically "national" in character and experience. His friends believe that he is an ideal compromise candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, and they are hard at work in his behalf. He will enter the primaries in Minnesota and North Dakota and an organization has been made in Nebraska that already assures him the support of that state.

SHREWD POLITICAL PROPHET DECLARES FOR ESTABROOK

Ralph Cameron Believes He is the Only Man Who Can Rally to His Support All Factions.

Ralph H. Cameron, Republican National Committeeman for Arizona and former Delegate in Congress from that state, has declared himself for the nomination of Henry D. Estabrook of Nebraska and New York, as the Republican candidate for president of the United States. Mr. Cameron is known as one of the shrewdest political observers in the country, which adds greatly to the interest in his lining up with the Estabrook movement. He said:

"I am for Henry D. Estabrook for the Republican nomination for President. I am for him because, in my judgment, he is the one man who can rally Republicans of all elements and shades of opinion to his support, and, therefore, the one man whose nomination will give us the best assurance of victory in 1916. I have made several extended trips over the country within the last few months. None of the old-line candidates for the Republican nomination has aroused any appreciable enthusiasm. Obviously, the favorite son movement in the several states can get nowhere, for it can never develop a national leadership. Indeed, I see great danger in this favorite son brand of politics, for it can readily develop a situation that would mean a repetition of the disaster of 1912.

"Republicans generally welcome the new leadership idea. Mr. Estabrook is able, aggressive, sound in his Republicanism, and free of factional entanglements. To me, as a Republican, there is genuine inspiration and hope in Mr. Estabrook's candidacy."

A NEW JERSEY TRIBUTE

Henry D. Estabrook, a lawyer by profession, a Nebraskan by birth, and a New Yorker by residence, is an avowed candidate for the Republican nomination for President. Already headquarters have been established at Omaha, and it is expected that other states will fall in line, particularly through the West, where he is well-known and highly esteemed. Estabrook is a type of man that is always popular with the masses. He is an orator that grips his audience at the start and holds them to the end. He knows the tariff question thoroughly and his views on all of the important questions that will be issues are sound and thoroughly American. Born and reared in Nebraska, he was graduated from Washington University, St. Louis, in 1875. He began the practice of law in Omaha, removed to Chicago in 1896 and thence to New York in 1902. His family consists of his wife and daughter, now Mrs. Karl G. Roebling. He is as energetic as he is active, and on a recent trip to the Pacific Coast he spoke day after day. He is a member of the Union League Club, New York City, and was selected recently to voice that organization's attitude on the question of preparation for national denfense.—Newark, N. J., Sunday Call.

THE ONLY NEW LEADER

The Railroad Employee, one of the most important labor journals in the United States, regards Henry D. Estabrook as the only available new leader in sight. Following is an excerpt from the January issue of the Employee:

"Estabrook seems to be, at the present time, the only available new leader in sight. His discussions of the tariff from the fundamental protection standpoint, of national defense, and of anti-business agitation and legislation, his attitude toward labor—he has said that whatsoever power inheres in capital through aggregation and organization must be permitted to labor—his criticisms of the Democratic administration's foreign policy, and his 'Get Together' plea to Republicans of all elements and of all shades of opinion, have attracted widespread attention.

"From the time he opened the Republican national campaign in Chicago, in 1896, Estabrook has been known as one of the most effective campaigners among the big men in the Republican party. He is eloquent, courageous, forceful, and a man of engaging personality. His Republicanism is described as unhyphenated—the kind that does not need any qualifying adjective. He has always kept the faith and fought for it."

ESTABROOK ON PREPAREDNESS.

"We must forthwith spend money for defense and lots of it. We must know that we are safe even from the temptation of attack."—Henry D. Estabrook.

"I would heartily advocate Mr. Bryan's policy of non-resistance rather than any policy of half preparedness. I had rather scrap every gun and warship we own if we are not to add to them."—Henry D. Estabrook.

"To fight inadequately armed and with the certainty of losing would be nothing short of murder, for which you and I and every taxpayer in the United States would be measurably responsible."—Henry D. Estabrook.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

THOS. FRANKSON.

First to File for Republican Nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

Mr. Frankson, Minnesota real estate dealer, and former representative from Fillmore county in the sessions of 1911, 1912 and 1913, is the first candidate to file for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor. In announcing his candidacy Mr. Frankson informs the voters that he stands squarely for the following:

Good government conducted on economic and businesslike principles.

Fair and equitable system of taxation.

Rigid enforcement of the laws.

Good roads.

Progressive legislation consistent with the needs and requirements of the people.

For a greater Minnesota; for the rapid development of the agricultural and commercial interests of the entire state.

Mr. Frankson is a Scandinavian, and was born in 1869 on a farm in Fillmore county on which his father located in 1854. He received his education in the public schools, taught school thirteen terms and later graduated from the law department of the State University with the class of 1900. He practiced law two years and then engaged in the real estate business at Spring Valley, Minn. He now has large real estate interests in both Northern and Southern Minnesota. and is also heavily interested in real estate in the Twin Cities, having offices in Spring Valley, Glenwood and St. Paul.

He is in close touch and thoroughly familiar with the needs and conditions in all parts of our state, and his friends throughout the state consider him an ideal man for the office he seeks.

Mr. Frankson has always been a booster for Minnesota. His motto has ever been, "A Rented Farm Is Not a Home," and the energy with which he has brought this motto home to the farmers of Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio has been the means of bringing to Minnesota thousands of farmers from those states who are prospering with the ever increasing prosperity of our great commonwealth.

They have farmers clubs all over the country. Why can't we have one here?

Vote for bonds-for a better, bigger village and to protect the property of yourself and neighbors.

The spelling contest Saturday was not largly attended on account of the storm. Ida Reierson and Kenneth Latta were chosen from this school for the contest and, with the two from Dist. No. 20 were all that were present to take part in the struggle.

Master Kenneth proved to be the best speller and expects to go to Warren Saturday to take part in the county contest.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Monday morning the pumps in both the drilled wells in town, were frozen and it would have been hard work to fight a fire under those conditions. These pumps at best, work hard and slowly.

There may be one or two surface wells that yield plenty pf water but they are not in convenient places.

Fire insurance rates are sky high on main street because of no fire protection, which protection will materially reduce the fire rates.

No town can hope to make progress, that does not have fire protection. The reasons are many and so obvious that it is not necessary to give them here.

Electric lights are now needed and will be necessary before any great length of time. Vote for improvements that all may well be proud of Again we say vote for bonds.

More than sixty lives have been lost and millions of dollars worth of property lost by floods and storms in California. Floods in Illinois, Kentucky, Arkansas, and other parts of the Mississippi valley have done untold amount of damage and rendered hundreds of people homeless. Rains have caused suffering to both man and beast, in some places where so far there have been no real floods. Minnesota people should'nt kick if it is sometimes 25 below zero.

WE AIM TO PLEASE

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from any store that handles drugs which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv.

As a rule the world never sympathizes with the married man whose nose is against the grindstone.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR A CHILD'S BOWELS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

Not every young man who smells of gasoline owns an automobile. Perhaps he cleans his own clothes.

THE PROFESSOR'S STATEMENT.

Prof. Aug. F. W. Schmitz, Thomas, Okla., writes: "I was troubled with Backache for about twenty-five years. When told I had Bright's Disease in its last stages, I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. After using two boxes I was somewhat relieved and I stopped the treatment. In the spring of the next year I had another attack. I went for Dodd's Kidney Pills and they relieved me again. I used three boxes. That is now three years ago and my Backache has not returned in its severity, and by using another two boxes a little later on, the pain left altogether and I have had no trouble since. You may use my statement. I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills when and wherever I can." Dodd's Kidney Pills, 50c. per box at your dealer or Dodd's Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

THE BUILDING OF A COUNTRY

The Natural Pride of Those Who Take Part in It.

To those who have built railroads through and across the prairies of Western Canada, connecting that great empire of grain and cattle, horse and sheep with the world's markets in the east, must be awarded the privilege of looking upon their work, and its results with pardonable pride. If they reminiscence, and tell of the hardships and the privations, why shouldn't they? The broad prairies on which the buffalo roamed and fed, are now alive with cities, towns and villages. Farms—large and small—on which machinery has chased the bugaboo of laborious work off the farm, and making farm life one of the most pleasant and prosperous of occupations—are being cultivated by men of the highest stamp of manhood. Many of these have inherited from their forebears the physical strength and the high type of manliness that was theirs in the days when they hewed their homes out of the virgin forest, and made them what may be seen today, beautiful farms in the east. On the whole the western prairies breed a high type of manhood, wrest from him faults and diseases which would be his were it not for the upbuilding influence and character of prairie life.

When the builder of the western Canadian prairie looks upon the result of his work, why shouldn't his chest expand? It was probably some of this feeling of pride that took possession of Sir Donald Mann, vice president of the Canadian Northern Railway the other day in Winnipeg, when he said:

"I am not in the habit of giving advice, but I have no hesitation of advising the young men of Canada, every young man, to get out and get a piece of western Canada's land that now can be had for the asking and be their own masters."

"It was 36 years ago when I first came to Winnipeg," he said. "At that time there were less than 150,000 people west of Lake Huron in Canada, and the only bit of railway in operation was between St. Boniface and Emerson—about sixty miles. Today there are nearly 20,000 miles of railway in actual operation and the population is over two and a quarter million, a wonderful achievement in such a short period you will agree, when you have contemplated it a moment."

"At that time all the flour, meat and many other supplies for our contracts were brought from the States. Now consider what the west is doing today. You have a grain production exceeding a billion bushels and yet only a comparatively small area of the tillable land of the country is occupied. Five years hence you will be more than doubling that."—Advertisement.

A GLASS OF SALTS WILL END KIDNEY-BACKACHE

Says Drugs Excite Kidneys and Recommends Only Salts, Particularly If Bladder Bothers You.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Adv.

It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.—Adv.

GERMANS LAUNCH GREAT OFFENSIVE ON WEST FRONT

CLAIM CAPTURE OF NEARLY A MILE OF FRENCH TRENCHES IN ARTOIS REGION—OCCUPY VILLAGE OF FIRSE.

DEFENDERS ASSERT ALL ATTACKS ARE REPULSED

French War Office in Official Statement Denies Reported Teuton advance—Artillery Fires German Ammunition Depot at Ville-En-Feucht.

Berlin, Jan. 30.—In the greatest German offensive on the Western front in many months, the Germans have captured nearly a mile of French trenches in the Artois region and have captured the village of Firse and 1,000 yards of French trenches south of the river Somme.

The war office announced that about 1,200 French prisoners were taken. The double offensive was launched Friday.

"Northwest of the farm of Laerolle, northeast of Neuville the Germans stormed 1,500 yards of enemy trenches, capturing 237 enemy soldiers, said the official statement.

"They also took nine machine guns. Positions near Neuville broke down, though the enemy succeeded in occupying a mine crator."

South of the river Somme, the Germans captured the village of Firse and 1,000 yards of French positions connected with it. Further southward the Germans took twelve officers and 927 French soldiers prisoners.

Launch New Offensive.

After a several hours' violent bombardment, the Germans launched a new offensive against the French positions south of the river Somme, the French war office reported. The Germans charged the French trenches on a front several miles wide, extending from the bend of the Somme to Frise and southward. Every attack was repulsed, the official statement asserted.

Meanwhile there was no lull in the heavy fighting north of Arras, particularly on the section from Neuville to Givenchy. The French by a lively counter attack recaptured a portion of the trench positions taken by the Germans west of Hill No. 140.

"In the region of Ville-En Feucht, our heavy artillery set fire to a German ammunition depot," said the official statement. "Numerous explosions resulted."

NOTES TO ALL BELLIGERENTS

Requests to Subscribe to Declaration of Principles of Naval Warfare Sent to Powers.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Identical notes have been sent to all the belligerent countries, Secretary of State Robert Lansing says, in which the various countries have been asked whether they were willing to subscribe to a declaration of principles governing attacks on merchant ships and forbidding the arming of such vessels.

Government officials said that favorable responses would clinch the principles of submarine warfare, for which the United States has long contended.

In brief, the United State proposes that noncombatants may expect protection under the rules of international law and the principles of humanity when traveling on merchant ships that warning must be given beffore a merchantman is attacked, that belligerent owned merchant ships must obey warning must be given before a mer- shall not be fired on except in case of resistance or flight, that no merchantman shall be sunk except where it is impossible to supply a prize crew or until passengers and crew are placed in safety and that merchant men shall not be permitted to mount arms.

Morning lameness, sharp twinges when bending, or an all-day backache; each is cause enough to suspect kidney trouble. Get after the cause. Help the kidneys. We Americans go it too hard. Faribault.—The 1917 convention of the Minnesota Dairymen's association probably will be held here. A strong bid was made for the meeting at Rush City by Mayor Erb, E. Fleckenstein and George E. Deverey. The matter is left to the board of directors, who meet in September.

Rochester.—This city's new $35,000 armory is to be formally dedicated, and C. M. Andrist, private secretary to Governor Burnquist, will deliver the principal address and a banquet will follow. The late Governor Hammond first had been engaged to dedicate the armory, January 7.

Owatonna.—The building of good roads in Steel county, already famous for the quality of its roads, was given added impetus at two good roads meetings held in this city recently. "If it were not for the river's promise of future cheaper rates my company would have a large branch in Duluth, if, indeed, we're not forced to move its main house there."

BILIOUS, HEADACHY, SICK 'CASCARETS'

Gently cleanse your liver and sluggish bowels while you sleep.

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Adv.

HEADACHE AND NEURALGIA

Hoyt's Headache and Neuralgia Cologne now heads the list as a successful remedy for the relief of headache, nervousness, insomnia, car sickness, etc.

The dangerous tablet has had its day. Hoyt's Headache and Neuralgia Cologne is a harmless, refreshing, fragrant preparation, marvelous in its action, relieving nervousness, sleeplessness, exhaustion and all head and nerve ailments by external use and inhaling. It is not a nerve food, but a nerve soother. By giving the nerves a rest they furnish their own food and tone, and all nerve pains disappear.

For children's colds and catarrh it is just the remedy, harmless and efficient and so pleasant to use. For men a pleasant remedy to relieve and clear the head "the morning after the night before." This is not an expensive preparations at 50 cents a bottle, because it brings the relief. It has many imitators at less price, but if they do not bring the desired results they are not cheap at any price.

Get Hoyt's and you will be satisfied. For sale at all drug stores.

Prejudiced.

"Any American who supports that policy," he said, "any champion of the sinkers of the Lusitania and Ancona, must have a taste like the old Scot's.

"An old Scot was once boasting that Scottish apples were better than our splendid Oregon ones—our sweet, juicy, enormous, red-cheeked Oregon apples that sell in the restaurants of Europe for forty or fifty cents apiece.

"'Yes,' said the Scot, 'our Scottish apples are the best.'

"'Come now,' said a fruit farmer, you can't mean that.'

"'Yes, I do mean it,' said the Scot; 'but maybe I'd better tell ye, laddies, that for my ain taste I prefer them sour and hard.'"

Retort Courteous.

He was an estimable young man, whose life happily had not intimately acquainted him with the etiquette of the barroom, but he had evidently picked up some knowledge of this from hearsay and reading.

"Here," said his fellow worker, in reaction against the toil of the holiday "rush," "is to hell with Christmas!"

The young man bowed gravely, and clicked his glass. Perhaps the din of the place a bit confused him. "Same to you," he said in a polite voice.

COFFEE WAS IT

People Slowly Learn the Facts

"All my life I have been a slave to coffee. I kept gradually losing my health but I used to say 'nonsense, it don't hurt me.'

"Slowly I was forced to admit the truth and the final result was that my nervous force was shattered.

"My heart became weak and uncertain in its action and that frightened me. Then my physician told me that I must stop drinking coffee or I could never expect to be well again.

"I thought of Postum but could hardly bring myself to give up the coffee.

"Finally I concluded that I owed it to myself to give Postum a trial. I got a package and carefully followed the directions, and what a delicious, nourishing, rich drink it was! Do you know, I found it very easy to shift from coffee to Postum.

"Almost immediately after I made the change I found myself better, and as the days went by I kept on improving. My nerves grew steady, I slept well and felt strong and well-balanced. Now the old nervousness is gone and I am well once more."

It pays to give up the drink that acts on some like a poison, for health is the greatest fortune one can have. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms:

Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

The state mines now shipping have turned over to the state $165,000 royalties for the last quarter of the year. The money goes to the state school fund. To Show State's Advantages.

Residents of forty-eight towns in Ohio and Indiana will be told of Minnesota's advantages to the settler on the tour of John D. Deets, who will lecture for the immigration department during January, February and March. The itinerary of the lecturer was given by Fred D. Sherman, immigration commissioner. Territory in Illinois will be covered by Frank M. Eddy.

"We are receiving inquiries daily from persons who have attended lectures," said Mr. Sherman. "Instead of giving away literature promiscuously this year, I am trying out another plan. Each lecturer is provided with an unlimited supply of post cards, addressed to my office, asking that literature be sent. These are given to persons interested in Minnesota and if they fill out the post card and mail it to this office I consider the prospect worth following up.

Gets Half of New Settlers.

Chattels of immigrants to Minnesota during 1915 required 2,306 cars and the number of new settlers coming to Minnesota is just half those going to all the other states of the Northwest combined. Fred D. Sherman, immigration commissioner, said that the Minnesota Transfer railway handled 4,444 cars of immigrant movables in the year.

"Prospects for immigration this year are not as bright as I would like to see them," said Mr. Sherman, "but notwithstanding I look for a fair movement to the Northwest when the spring opens and I have no fear but that Minnesota will maintain her present percentage."

Forty-One Kinds of Birds.

How many kinds of birds may be found in Minnesota in the winter season? None but ornithologists would be likely to answer this question offhand and the general public probably will be surprised to know there are forty-one kinds. Full information about these birds and all of them in Minnesota at this time of the year is contained in the latest number of Fins, Feathers and Fur issued by Carlos Avery, game and fish commissioner.

Issues Fire Warning.

Realizing that the [illegible] makers gathered in St. Paul for the carnival were out to "make it a Hot One," R. W. Hargadine, state fire marshal, issued a warning to the people of Minnesota to be careful of fires while the festivities occupied attention.

"This department does not want to be a 'kill joy' but we advise people to watch out for fires," he said. "The cigarette, cigar or half burned match may result in a serious fire."

Sale of State Lands.

J. A. O. Preus, state [illegible], and Walter J. Smith, state [illegible], went to International Falls last Thursday to conduct a sale of state lands in Koochiching county. Other sales to follow are: Lake county at Two Harbors, January 31, St. Louis county at Duluth, January 31, Itasca county at Grand Rapids, February 1, Aitkin county at Aitkin, February 2, and Cass county at Walker, February 3.

Abatement Ruling Applied.

The first application of [illegible] state supreme court decision that in abatement cases knowledge of the owner must be proved was made when District Judge Michael granted a motion to amend a decree of April 29 which closed the Auditorium hotel, Fourth and St. Peter streets, St. Paul, for one year. The property may be re-opened immediately.

On Government Reorganization.

In order to give the public an opportunity to air its views on the proposed reorganization of the state government the new efficiency and economy commission set aside last week for those who desired to address it and asked a number of prominent citizens to make talks. Congressman C. A. Lindbergh of the Sixth district, a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor and S. G. Iverson, who also aspires to the same honor, were among the number who were solicited by the committee.

Health for Sick Women

For Forty Years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Been Woman's Most Reliable Medicine —Here is More Proof.

To women who are suffering from some form of woman's special ills, and have a constant fear of breaking down, the three following letters ought to bring hope:—

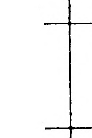
North Crandon, Wis.—"When I was 16 years old I got married and at 18 years I gave birth to twins and it left me with very poor health. I could not walk across the floor without having to sit down to rest and it was hard for me to keep about and do my work. I went to a doctor and he told me I had a displacement and ulcers, and would have to have an operation. This frightened me so much that I did not know what to do. Having heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I thought I would give it a trial and it made me as well as ever. I cannot say enough in favor of the Pinkham remedies."—Mrs. Mayme Asbach, North Crandon, Wis.

Testimony from Oklahoma.

Lawton, Okla.—"When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I seemed to be good for nothing. I tired easily and had headaches much of the time and was irregular. I took it again before my little child was born and it did me a wonderful amount of good at that time. I never fail to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to ailing women because it has done so much for me."—Mrs. A. L. McCasland, 509 Have St., Lawton, Okla.

From a Grateful Massachusetts Woman.

Roxbury, Mass.—"I was suffering from inflammation and was examined by a physician who found that my trouble was caused by a displacement. My symptoms were bearing down pains, backache, and sluggish liver. I tried several kinds of medicine; then I was asked to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has cured me and I am pleased to be in my usual good health by using it and highly recommend it."—Mrs. B. M. Osgood, 1 Haynes Park, Roxbury, Mass.



If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

SUDDEN DEATH

Caused by Disease of the Kidneys

The close connection which exists between the heart and the kidneys is well known nowadays. As soon as kidneys are diseased, arterial tension is increased and the heart functions are attacked. When the kidneys no longer pour forth waste, uremic poisoning occurs, and the person dies and the cause is often given as heart disease, or disease of brain or lungs.

It is a good insurance against such a risk to send 10 cents for a large trial package of "Anuric" the latest discovery of Dr. Pierce. Also send a sample of your water. This will be examined without charge by expert chemists at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. When you suffer from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, it's time to write Dr. Pierce, describe your symptoms and get his medical opinion, without charge—absolutely free. This "Anuric" of Dr. Pierce's is 37 times more active than lithia, for it dissolves uric acid in the system, as hot water does sugar.

Simply ask for Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets. There can be no imitation. Every package of "Anuric" is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the ever-famous friend to ailing women.

Worry is a frequent cause and sometimes a symptom of kidney disease. Thousands have testified to immediate relief from these symptoms after using Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets for the kidneys and backache.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

Three Hundred Million Bushel Crop in 1915

Farmers pay for their land with one year's crop and prosperity was never so great.

Regarding Western Canada as a grain producer, a prominent business man says: "Canada's position today is sounder than ever. There is more wheat, more oats, more grain for feed, 20% more cattle than last year and more hogs. The war market in Europe needs our surplus. As for the wheat crop, it is marvelous and a monument of strength for business confidence to build upon, exceeding the most optimistic predictions."

Wheat averaged in 1915 over 25 bushels per acre
Oats averaged in 1915 over 45 bushels per acre
Barley averaged in 1915 over 40 bushels per acre

Prices are high, markets convenient, excellent land, low in price either improved or otherwise, ranging from $12 to $30 per acre. Free homestead lands are plentiful and not far from railway lines and convenient to good schools and churches. The climate is healthful.

There is no war tax on land, nor is there any conscription. For complete information as to best locations for settlement, reduced railroad rates and descriptive illustrated pamphlet, address Superintendent Immigration, Ottawa, or Suffers Partial Loss Of Sight.

We are sorry to report that P. A. Riesberg is almost blind as the result of the breaking of a small blood vessel, near the optic nerve. Mr. Riesberg had a bad head ache, all day Saturday, and while attending the school meeting that evening, he was taken much worse and had to be assisted home. This is probably the time the blood vessel broke. He has had the same trouble before and has always recovered in a short time and it is sincerely hoped that he may soon have his usual eye sight restored.

A Successful Year.

The Free Mission Ladies Aid held their annual meeting last week Thursday. There was a good attendance and the receipts for the day were over $5.00 Their annual report shows that they carried over from 1914 a balance of $53.21 and their receipts for last year were $153.43 making a total of $206.64.

During the year they paid $154.03 on the debts of the church and paid other expenses of $2.35 leaving a balance of $50.26, which is a good work done by these ladies who have worked hard to accomplish this. Mrs. R. L. Olson was re-elected President and Mrs. P. A. Riesberg was re-elected Secretary. Mrs. T. T. Sollom was elected Treasurer to succeed Mrs. Ole Reierson who did not wish to have the office again on account of poor health.

County Printing.

The financial statement of this county cost the tax payers $345.95 last year and the total of the county printing cost $962.75. The financial statement of Pennington Co. cost them $739.20 and their totals were $1597.98. Roseau Co. paid $727.20 for their financial statement and $1674.85 was the total of all their county printing. All the comment we have to make, is: Marshall county printers must be getting rich at this rate.

The Goodridge news paper has discontinued their ready print service on account of its high cost, and hereafter the Eleven Towns will be all home print.

This state has two lecturers, with moving picture outfits, making a two months tour of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio with a view of booming Minnesota and bringing in new settlers. It is said to be a paying proposition.

Minneapolis pays nearly a million dollars a year on its bonded indebtedness. That makes one wonder what becomes of the annual revenue from between 400 and 500 saloons that are doing a flurishing business there.

Over eighty thousand new members joined the Woodmen last year. The society is now 33 years old and has paid nearly 88,000 death claims amounting to over $150,000,000.00, to widows and orphans of its members.

Holt Boy Winner At Warren.

Kenneth Latta won the county spelling contest, at Warren Saturday, standing 99 and 2-3 per cent out of a possible 100. This is pretty good for Kenneth as he is only in the seventh grade and his competitors from the country schools were in the eighth grade. Master Kenneth represented Marshall Co. at the Farm Crops Show in Crookston Tuesday and tied another pupil for third prize, a girl from Kittson Co. winning first prize. Kenneth conducted himself creditably at the Crookston contest, and considering he was the only seventh grade pupil pitted against pupils of the first and second year in the eighth grades, Marshall County may well be proud of Holt's bright pupil. Holt with the News extends congratulations, and wishes Kenneth a bright and successful future.

A New "Northern Light."

The initial copy of The Williams Northern Light reached our office this week, and we must say that it is one of the best country newspapers it has ever been our lot to see, and it is a booster from A to Z.

The editor and proprietor is Sam S. Sherman, a former Iowa newspaper man, who settled on a claim near Williams, a couple of years ago for the benefit of his health. We wish him unbounded success.

WE AIM TO PLEASE

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin drinking phosphated hot water. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your druggist or storekeeper a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish tinge which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.—Adv.

HEADACHE AND NEURALGIA

Hoyt's Headache and Neuralgia Cologne now heads the list as a successful remedy for the relief of headache, nervousness, insomnia, car sickness, etc.

The dangerous tablet has had its day. Hoyt's Headache and Neuralgia Cologne is a harmless, refreshing, fragrant preparation, marvelous in its action, relieving nervousness, sleeplessness, exhaustion and all head and nerve ailments by external use and inhaling. It is not a nerve food, but a nerve soother. By giving the nerves a rest they furnish their own food and tone, and all nerve pains disappear.

For children's colds and catarrh it is just the remedy, harmless and efficient and so pleasant to use. For men a pleasant remedy to relieve and clear the head "the morning after the night before." This is not an expensive preparations at 50 cents a bottle, because it brings the relief. It has many imitators at less price, but if they do not bring the desired results they are not cheap at any price.

Get Hoyt's and you will be satisfied. For sale at all drug stores.

QUIT MEAT IF KIDNEYS BOTHER AND USE SALTS

Take a Glass of Salts Before Breakfast if Your Back is Hurting or Bladder is Irritated.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

WONDERFUL PROGRESS IN CANADA

It Is Over the Hill—Splendid Bank Clearings, and the Crop Returns Reveal Vast Possibilities for the Future.

"There are opportunities for investment in Canada now that may prove attractive to American capital. Land prices in the west are low and wages less than on this side of the line, and whatever the outcome of the war, the future of the Dominion is assured as one of prosperity in the development of its vast resources." Chicago Tribune.

A short time ago the Canadian government asked for private subscriptions to a loan of fifty million dollars. Less than a month was given for completion of the subscription. On November 30th, the day upon which subscriptions were to cease, it was found that 110 million of dollars had been subscribed or 60 million dollars more than the amount asked. If there were any so pessimistic as to imagine that Canada was passing through a period of hard times the wonderful showing of this subscription should put aside all doubts of Canada's rapidly increasing prosperity.

The bank clearings of Winnipeg for 1915 were a billion and a half of dollars. Think of it. Then, in addition, there were the bank clearings of the other cities throughout Western Canada. Regina, Saskatoon and Moose Jaw also show big increase in clearings. The Winnipeg statistics show that the city has done the biggest financial, commercial and industrial business in its history in 1915. A billion and a half are big clearings, representing business on a per capita basis of over $7,000 per head for every man, woman and child in the city, and has gone ahead of big manufacturing cities like Buffalo, and runs a close second to Detroit. It has shown bigger bank clearings than the middle west cities of Minneapolis and Duluth, and has exceeded Los Angeles, Seattle and other noted shipping centers. It is now side by side with the ten biggest cities in North America in amount of bank clearings. But because the war helped Canada recover quickly from a natural economic depression it does not follow that, at the end of the war, the country must suffer a relapse, and straightway return to a state of inactivity and hard times.

A Winnipeg paper, with a well-known reputation for conservatism in economic matters says:

Canada's undeveloped fields should prove a mighty factor after the war in adjusting the country's business from one period to another. The staggering figures of this year's crop, showing increases in production of 50 per cent over last year, give a slight idea of the future wealth stored in vast stretches of prairie plain yet untouched by the plow. The Northwest Grain-Dealers' Association on September 1 estimated that the wheat crop of the three Prairie Provinces would amount to 250,800,000 bushels. On November 10 that estimate was increased to 307,230,000 bushels. The Dominion government on September 13 estimated the Western wheat crop at 275,772,200 bushels, but on October 15 those figures were changed to 304,200,000 bushels.

Monetary Returns for the Western Crop.

And the amount of money which the west is receiving for its grain has not yet been wholly appreciated. Up to the 10th of December the Canadian west had received some 170 million dollars for 182 million bushels of its grain crop, of which 149 million bushels was wheat. The average price of No. 1 Northern wheat for September was 93⅞ cents; for October 98½ cents, and for the first three weeks of November $1.03¾. On the 10th of December there was fully 120 million bushels of wheat to be marketed. This would leave about 30 million bushels for local consumption in the Prairie Provinces.

Bradstreet says:

"Confidence seems to have returned in Canada; grain crops are exceptionally large, prices pay the farmer, and the war-order lines provide work and aid in circulating much money. Credit is more freely granted, and interior merchants are disposed to buy rather liberally."—Advertisement.

TEUTONS OFFER SUBSTITUTE FOR WORD "ILLEGAL"

GERMANY AGREES REPRISALS MUST NOT BE DIRECTED AGAINST ANY OTHER THAN ENEMY SUBJECTS.

DECLARES REPORTED STATEMENT IS FALSE

Lansing Emphatically Denies Alleged Assertion of German Under Secretary Zimmerman That United States Injected new Demands.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Germany has agreed that reprisals must not be directed against any other than enemy subjects. This expression is offered by Germany to take the place of the phrase containing the word illegal, which was incorporated in the draft of the Lusitania agreement now under consideration.

Would Co-operate With U. S.

It also became known that Germany expresses the hope that it may have the opportunity to co-operate with the United States in some action looking toward the freedom of the seas before the end of the war. This statement is taken in high diplomatic circles to imply that the Berlin government sees no occasion to await the cessation of hostilities before settling that issue.

Calls Blockade Inhuman.

Furthermore the German government refers to the British blockade of Germany as being inhuman, calls attention to the fact that neutral vessels have been affected by the efforts of the British government to starve Germany and puts forth the contention that the German retaliation in the war zone around the British Ises is justified by the actions of Great Britain. Claims that the reprisals are legal are not mentioned.

Killing of Citizens Without Intent.

As has been previously stated Germany says in the communication that the killing of citizens of the United States was without intent and that the method of conducting warfare in the war zone around the British Isles has been changed out of regard for the long standing friendship between the United States and Germany and because American lives were lost.

A sensational turn was given the controversy between the United States and Germony when Secretary Lansing declared that Under Secretary Zimmerman of the foreign office had made an "utterly false" statement if he had said, as quoted by a dispatch that the United States had made new demands in the Lusitania case.

In connection with the secretary's announcement was another significant episode.

No Change in Demands.

Lansing declared that the United States had neither "increased or reduced" its demands regarding the Lusitania. Later in his formal statement he eliminated the reference to reducing the demands, explaining that it had no bearing on Zimmerman's charges.

The flat declaration coming from the secretary of state that the United States has not reduced its demands is believed to bode ill for German hopes that the President and the Secretary might decide to meet compromise offers half way.

"This government," said Secretary Lansing, "has not increased the demands made in the Lusitania case as set forth in the notes of May 13, June 9 and July 21. I doubt if Dr. Zimmerman ever made the statement that new demands had been injected, because he must know that it is utterly false."

KITCHENER TO GO TO EGYPT?

To Head Forces in Defense of Suez Canal Says London Paper—Important Changes Contemplated.

London, Feb. 8.—Changes of great importance in the direction of the war are contemplated, says the Daily Sketch. It asserts Earl Kitchener probably will leave the war office.

The Sketch also says Sir William Robertson, now chief of staff, probably will take over active direction of the war without interference, except from the cabinet as a whole, and that a civilian of real ability for organization will become secretary for war.

In event that Earl Kitchener leaves the war office, the Sketch adds, he will undertake work of an important character elsewhere. London intimates he will head the British forces in Egypt in defense of the Suez canal.

British Detain Norwegian Ship.

St. John N. F., Feb. 8.—The British admiralty has refused permission to the Norwegian steamer Ontaneda, now at this port, to take sufficient coal to continue her voyage from Copenhagen for Baltimore. The Ontaneda formerly was under Spanish register under the same name but was transferred to the Norwegian in Ballast. The steamer was delayed by gales and when she put in here January 20 to replenish her bunkers, nearly all the wooden fittings had been burned to keep the fires going.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

HEAT FLASHES, DIZZY, NERVOUS

Mrs. Wynn Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.

Richmond, Va.—"After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the Change of Life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2812 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness.

State News in Brief

Doings of Last Few Days Throughout Minnesota Condensed for Hasty Perusal.

Winona.—St. Joseph's German Catholic church has celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its establishment here. A number of visiting priests assisted.

Mankato.—Sixty editors, including several women, gathered here for the annual meeting of the Second district of the Minnesota Editorial association.

Moorhead.—Robert W. Richards, for fourteen years associated with editorial work on the Moorhead Daily News, and a pioneer newspaperman of Northern Minnesota, died at Long Beach, Cal.

Red Wing.—The annual meeting of the Bellechester Co-operative Creamery association was held in the Bellechester hall. The reports showed a very prosperous year, the receipts being $22,000.

Hibbing.—There is a movement on foot among range Democrats to boost the candidacy of Victor Power, "Hibbing's Fighting Mayor," the man who won the tax fight for the biggest village on the range, for governor.

Faribault, Minn.—The forty-second annual convention of the Minnesota Young Men's Christian association will be held in Faribault, February 11 to 13. The theme of the program this year is "America's Appeal to Christian Men."

Minneapolis.—The thirty-second annual meeting of the Minnesota State Pharmaceutical association, which is composed of druggists throughout the state, will be held in Minneapolis February 8, 9 and 10. The sessions are to be held in the auditorium of the college of pharmacy at the University of Minnesota.

Mankato.—Postoffice Inspector George H. Drake of St. Paul has brought to Mankato, Daniel W. Vomhof, postmaster of Nicollet, charged with issuing two postal money orders without having paid into the postoffice department the full amount collected. It is alleged he received $135.45 and accounted for only $122.

St. Cloud.—Better supervision of schools, a better system of records and increased efficiency in the examination in the rural district were three desires of the county superintendents of the Sixth district expressed at their meeting here. State Superintendent C. G. Schultz and other officials attended. It was decided to continue the discussion in March.

St. Paul.—Minnesota Democracy, as represented by some 1,500 delegates to a state convention held in the St. Paul Auditorium went on record for Woodrow Wilson and all his works, for Fred B. Lynch, Democratic National committeeman, for adequate preparedness, and for government ownership of munitions plants for supplying the nation's army and navy.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"Society night" at the Auto Show broke all records for attendance, not only for the week, but for all the shows that have been given. Visitors arrived steadily all the afternoon, and even during the supper hour. Starting at 8 o'clock in the evening they came for an hour in a solid phalanx and filled the aisles so that people climbed into automobiles to get out of the crush.

Walker.—Chippewa Indians are about to share in the prosperity of the Northwest. For this is the first time the money will be spent for necessities of life instead of firewater. Attorney Ed. Rogers of Walker has returned from Washington where he represented Chippewa interests and announced every man, woman and child enrolled in the tribe soon will receive $150. About $1,500,000 will be disbursed.

Little Falls, Minn.—Behind the desire of Congressman Lindbergh to seek the nomination for governor of Minnesota, is the reported opposition to his re-election to congress by many persons who blame him for failing to urge the abrogation of the Indian treaty of February, 1855, under the provisions of which the Indian bureau, fifty years after the treaty had been forgotten, applied a lid which, business men say, is doing incalculable harm.

St. Paul, Minn.—Minnesota's county option law is valid and does not conflict with the home rule charter provisions of the state constitution, the state supreme court has ruled in an opinion written by Commissioner M. D. Taylor. The opinion sustains Judge W. S. McClenahan of Brainerd, who enjoined the mayor and council of International Falls from issuing saloon licenses, which they contemplated doing in spite of the fact that Koochiching county had voted dry.

Fairmont.—An orphans' home costing approximately $50,000, will be built and endowed here by State Senator A. L. Ward. Bids for the construction have been opened. A Minneapolis concern submitted a bid of $22,600, which was the lowest. This firm probably will get the contract.

Red Wing.—While members of the First Methodist Episcopal and the Presbyterian churches were bowed in prayer a thief entered the lobbies and carried off several overcoats. Six of the worshippers went home coatless with the mercury at 12 degrees below zero.

Stranger Possibly Resented Fact That He Had Been Caused Some Inconvenience to Ascertain Time.

On one of the recent stormy nights a man was hastening home with his overcoat buttoned up to his neck. He was rather anxious to know what time it was, but he was too lazy to unbutton his coat in order to get at his watch.

Just then he saw a man of well-dressed appearance coming in the distance, and remarked to himself: "I'll ask this gentleman the hour of the night, and so save myself the trouble of unbuttoning my coat."

He perceived that the stranger was buttoned up just as he was. When he came up, the man who wanted to know the time touched his hat politely and said:

"Sir, do you know what time it is?"

The stranger paused, removed his right glove, unbuttoned his coat from top to bottom, unbuttoned his undercoat, and finally pulled out his watch, while the cold wind beat against his unprotected chest.

Holding up the watch so that the light would shine upon it, he scrutinized it an instant, and said:

"Yes!"

Then he passed on without another word.

FOOD FACTS

What an M. D. Learned

A prominent physician down in Georgia went through a food experience which he makes public.

"It was my own experience that first led me to advocate Grape-Nuts food; and I also know from having prescribed it to convalescents and other weak patients that this food is a wonderful rebuilder and restorer of nerve and brain tissue, as well as muscle. It improves the digestion and patients gain, just as I did in strength and weight, very rapidly.

"I was in such a low state that I had to give up my work entirely and go to the mountains, but two months there did not improve me; in fact I was not quite as well as when I left home. My food did not sustain me and it became plain that I must change.

"I began to use Grape-Nuts and in two weeks I could walk a mile and in five weeks returned to my home and practice, taking up hard work again. Since that time I have felt as well and strong as I ever did in my life.

"As a physician who seeks to help all sufferers I consider it a duty to make these facts public."

Trial 10 days on Grape-Nuts when the regular food does not seem to sustain the body will work wonders.

FOR RECLAMATION OF STATE'S LANDS

COMMITTEE WORKING FOR MEASURE, PLANS EXTENSIVE EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN.

EVENTS AT STATE CAPITOL

Interesting and Important Happenings of the Past Few Days Selected and Arranged for the Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

Every voter of Minnesota will be asked to cast his ballot next November for Amendment No. 1, providing for the establishment of a revolving fund by the state for the development of the state lands, now wild and unproductive. Members of the committee in charge of boosting the amendment met in St. Paul, and made plans for a campaign to reach every precinct in the state.

The amendment contemplates a fund of $250,000 to be used for putting these undeveloped lands in condition to make them salable. The lands, they assert, are of no value to the state, because there are no roads leading to them, they are in no condition to be tilled. The tract amounts to nearly 2,500,000 acres.

To raise funds for carrying on the educational campaign, the committee decided to issue tags to be sold at county fairs, neighborhood picnics and political meetings at 5 cents each. It is estimated that $5,000 will be necessary to carry on the campaign.

Decrease in Three Diseases.

A marked decrease in the number of cases of scarlet fever, diptheria and typhoid fever in Minnesota in 1915 as compared with 1914 is shown in the report made by the Minnesota Board of Health. Scarlet fever cases reported in the state in 1915 were 3,813, or 2,590 less than in 1914. There were 2,610 cases of diptheria in 1915 as against 4,577 in 1914. A decrease of 808 typhoid fever cases is shown with a total of 976.

Classifications of death returns for 1915 are not yet complete, but the estimates warranted by the incomplete compilation indicate that there was a marked decrease in the death rate of 1915 from these deases as compared with that of 1914.

In 1914 there were 321 deaths from scarlet fever, 355 deaths from diphtheria and 220 deaths from typhoid fever. The estimated number of deaths in the state in 1915 are; Scarlet fever, 191; diptheria, 201, and typhoid fever, 120.

The report of the division of preventable diseases shows the number of cases reported, as follows: Smallpox 1,660; cerebro-spinal meningitis, 23; diptheria, 2,610; leprosy, 1; measles, 3,177; poliomyelitis, 104; scarlet fever, 3,813; trichinosis, 4; typhoid fever, 976; chickenpox, 1,457; erysipelas, 104; rabies (human), 1; trachoma, 19; tuberculosis, 3,869; whooping cough, 552; anthrax, 1; malaria, 1.

The prevention of smallpox by vaccination is shown by the statement that for the past three years there were 6,356 cases of smallpox in Minnesota and that 92.5 per cent of these cases were persons not vaccinated.

Would Stop Timber Sales.

The state should stop selling state timber, in the opinion of J. A. O. Preus, state auditor, who has returned from an inspection trip of county sales of state timber. "There is only about $12,000,000 to $15,000,000 worth of timber left," he said. "The state should now adopt the practice of selling as little as possible of its timber. Only that which is endangered should be sold." Sales were held in Koochiching, Lake, St. Louis, Itasca and Aitkin counties. $100,000 worth of timber was disposed of.

Mean Query.

Conceited Karl—You know, people are always running after me.

Sarcastic Gus—Who? The police?

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.—Adv.

Ideal Citizen.

"He's an ideal citizen?"

"What is an ideal citizen?"

"One who doesn't stop shoveling the snow off his sidewalk two feet inside his line, for fear of going six inches over."

WOULD YOUR SKIN STAND THIS TEST?

The bright lights of an evening gathering show up mercilessly the defects of a poor complexion. But the regular use of Resinol Soap makes it as easy to have a naturally beautiful skin as to cover up a poor one with cosmetics. It lessens the tendency to pimples, redness and roughness, and in a very short time the complexion usually becomes clear, fresh and velvety.

In severe or stubborn cases, Resinol Soap should be aided by a little Resinol Ointment. All druggists.—Adv.

Progressive Dampness

"Young Twobble first decided that he wanted to be a lawyer."

"Yes."

"But he thought the law was too dry, so he decided to become a doctor."

"But even that was too dry, so he opened a drug store in a dry town, and now it's the wettest place you can find in a day's walk."

Hitting the Nail.

Maud—Your hat's a perfect fright.

What force cannot do, ingenuity may.

Slow.

He—And may I kiss your hand?

She—Is that the way you've been brought up?

Horseshoes that are attached by bolts instead of nails have been patented by an Englishman.

WHAT IS URIC ACID?

THE CAUSE OF BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM, LUMBAGO

Ever since the discovery of uric acid in the blood by Scheele, in 1775, and the bad effect it had upon the body, scientists and physicians have striven to rid the tissues and the blood of this poison. Because of its overabundance in the system it causes backache, pains here and there, rheumatism, gout, gravel, neuralgia and sciatica. It was Dr. Pierce who discovered a new agent, called "Anuric," which will throw out and completely eradicate this uric acid from the system. "Anuric" is 37 times more potent than lithia, and consequently you need no longer fear muscular or articular rheumatism or gout, or many other diseases which are dependent on an accumulation of uric acid within the body. Send to Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., for a pamphlet on "Anuric," or send 10 cents for a trial package of "Anuric" Tablets.

If you feel that tired, worn-out feeling, backache, neuralgia, or if your sleep is disturbed by too frequent urination, go to your best store and ask for Dr. Pierce's "Anuric."

Dr. Pierce's reputation is back of this medicine and you know that his "Pleasant Pellets" for the liver and his "Favorite Prescription" for the ills of women have had a splendid reputation for the past fifty years.

Death of Ed. M. Silbaugh

The body was taken to his old home in Viroqua, Wis., where the funeral will take place Saturday and interment will be made. Fire In Sollom's Store

About 10 o'clock Wednesday forenoon fire was discovered in Sollom's store, by Chris Knutson and the alarm quickly spread through the village. The fire started in the back room or warehouse where they had been unpacking dishes and there were considerable straw, etc., there and the fire had a good start before help arrived. Quick work with several fire extinguishers is undoubtedly all that saved a large part of our little village. Water in pails and tubs were carried from the different wells and was freely used also. The men responded quickly and worked hard to put out the fire and they deserve great credit for their work.

Pleasantly Surprised.

A most enjoyable time was spent when a dozen or more ladies invaded the home of Mrs. Jacob Nelson Tuesday afternoon,—laid wait for the good lady of the home to return from her shopping to give her a royal surprise. The scheme worked out to perfection and not until after a very pretty and servicable present was presented to Mrs. Nelson and the ladies most royally served a luncheon fitted for a queen's table, did the good lady of the house recover from the unexpected invasion. However everybody was happy and each one returned to their home, feeling better because of the afternoons pleasure.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from any druggist or storekeeper, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver kidneys and bowels.—Adv.

Some time since an ambitious young actor went on a barnstorming trip and on his return he recounted his experience to a friend.

"One night," he said, "I played the part of Hamlet, and at the end of the show the audience rose and loudly shouted, 'Fine! Fine!' I—"

"I suppose," smilingly interrupted the friend, "that it made you feel rather good."

"Yes," answered the young actor, with a deep-drawn sigh; "or, rather, it would have made me feel good if a large voice hadn't vociferously added: 'Make it fine and imprisonment.'"—Philadelphia Telegraph.

"CASCARETS" FOR SLUGGISH BOWELS

No sick headache, sour stomach, biliousness or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken. Adv.

A shortage of wedding rings in jewelers' shops and in wholesale factories is experienced throughout Britain, although the shortage has nothing to do with a scarcity of gold. There are three main causes for the wedding-ring famine. FRENCH CRUISER TORPEDO VICTIM; BRITISH SHIP SUNK

WARSHIP ADMIRAL CHARNER IS LOST OFF SYRIAN COAST—374 MEMBERS OF CREW PERISH.

DAREDEVIL OF ENGLISH FLEET IS TOTAL WRECK

The Arethusa, a Light Cruiser, Meets Accident Off East Coast—Crew Were Popular Heroes in Great Britian—Figured in Thrilling Naval Exploits.

London, Feb. 15.—With a loss of the British cruiser Arethusa on a mine, the torpedoing of the French cruiser Admiral Charner by a submarine and gains for the Teutons in thrusts at the battle front in France, the day's war news scores up against the Allies.

Only One Man Rescued.

Reports of the loss of the French cruiser Admiral Chtarner, which was reported to have been sunk by a submarine which was patrolling the Syrian coast, were confirmed. Three hundred and seventy-four men perished.

According to information received at the French ministry of marine, a raft bearing one live sailor and the bodies of 14 of his companions, had been picked up off the coast of Syria. She was a 4,680-ton vessel.

British Chuiser Mined.

The British cruiser Arethusa, which has figured in some of the most thrilling English naval exploits of the war, has struck a mine off the east coast. The admiralty announced that it is feared she is a total wreck. Ten of her crew were lost.

The Arethusa, a light cruiser, built in October, 1913, had several encounters with German torpedo boats and other warships early in the war and became known as the daredevil of the English fleet. Her exploits inspired several English poets to create ryhmes in her honor and the Arethusa's crew were popular heroes in England.

The Arethusa displaced only 3,520 tons and as armament mounted only two six-inch and six four-inch guns. She carried also four torpedo tubes. Her length was 450 feet.

SMITH PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Former State Treasurer of Minnesota to Stand Trial on Three Indictments Charging Grand Larceny.

Minneapolis, Feb. 15.—Walter J. Smith and Robert C. Pickit stood at the bar of the Ramsey county district court and pleaded not guilty to indictments charging them with betraying their trusts as servants of the state of Minnesota.

Former State Treasurer Smith was taken to St. Paul in an automobile, pleading not guilty to three grand larceny indictments, gave a bail bond and was hurried back to the sanatorium, where he has been since his breakdown.

Pickit, former investment board clerk in the office of the state auditor, in spite of the fact that he has made a full confession involving himself and Mr. Smith, pleaded not guilty to two indictments charging forgery. His trial was set for Feb. 21. Pickit's appearanced preceded that of Mr. Smith by several hours.

Meanwhile at the state capitol the state treasurer's office was being transferred to Arthur C. Gooding, appointed by Governor J. A. A. Burnquist to fill out Mr. Smith's unexpired term.

Pickit was taken before Judge F N. Dickson at 10 a. m. He was not handcuffed and looked composed. He chatted with former school classmates who had called to cheer him up. When the indictment had been read he pleaded not guilty in a low voice, but showed no sign of weakness.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Speaker Clark has issued a statement characterizing as nonsense talk of ousting Representative Kitchin from the House majority leadership because of his opposition to the preparedness program and other administration plans. Another Fire in War Goods Plant.

Schenectady, N. Y., Feb. 15.—Serious damage is reported to have been done by a mysterious fire in the munitions factory of the General Electric company here. Although a report from the company declared the property was slightly damaged, owing to oil papers becoming overheated, the plant is reported from outside sources to have been put out of commission. As the company has its own fire fighting forces, there was no call for the local department. Officers, however, were sent to investigate.

IS CHILD CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK

Children love this "fruit-laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

WHEN KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE GLASS OF SALTS

Eat Less Meat If Kidneys Hurt or You Have Backache or Bladder Misery—Meat Forms Uric Acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

The winnings of Western Canada at the Soil Products Exposition at Denver were easily made. The list comprised Wheat, Oats, Barley and Grasses, the most important being the prizes for Wheat and Oats and sweep stake on Alfalfa.

No less important than the splendid quality of Western Canada's wheat and other grains, is the excellence of the cattle fed and fattened on the grasses of that country. A recent shipment of cattle to Chicago topped the market in that city for quality and price.

Western Canada produced in 1915 one third as much wheat as all of the United States, or over 300,000,000 bushels.

Canada in proportion to population has a greater exportable surplus of wheat this year than any country in the world, and at present prices you can figure out the revenue for the producer. St. Paul.

Unless measures are taken in the near future to curb the number of unnecessary banks being organized, Minnesota will be overrun with weak banks, according to A. H. Turritin, state superintendent of banks. Too many banks are being started in towns where banks amply able to care for the needs of the business men and people there already exist, he said. "Something must be done by the legislature soon which will make it more difficult to organize state banks."

Mr. Turritin offers the following suggestions for the guidance of the Legislature. Increase capital stock required. Limit banks to population. Issue permits to cashier or manager of a bank.

Create a bank charter commission.

"No town of less than 200 persons should be permitted to have more than one bank. This allowance should not be increased to permission for a second bank until the municipality has increased in population to 500 persons,' said Mr. Turritin.

State Normal Board Meets.

The state normal board at a meeting in St. Paul, has laid on the table the recommendation of the normal school presidents regarding extension work and aid to rural schools. The recommendations will be acted upon at some future meeting. The presidents, in their report, expressed doubt as to the advisability of establishing either study centers or correspondence coures on an extensive scale in Minnesota, advising that the work be tried out first on a small scale.

Teachers of special qualifications with supervision in the hands of a man who could devote his entire time to it were declared necessities.

Besides a moderate amount of extension work for those who are preparing to teach, the presidents stated that the educational system of the state would benefit by the employment of a competent training teacher to visit the schools where normal graduates are employed.

Competent rural school visitors who could lecture at farmers' club meetings and entertainments were recommended.

Tobacco Industry Thrives.

Tobacco growing in Minnesota, until recently the theme of many rural jokes, has assumed sufficient proportions in recent years as an industry, in the opinion of experts at the agricultural college of the university, to be the subject of a special bulletin. Minnesota is growing tobacco and growing it in quantities large enough to be given statewide recognition. According to the bulletin, Minnesota is in line to emulate Wisconsin's $6,089,000 yearly output within a short time.

The production of the plant at present has been confined to the southeastern part of the state. The brand raised is recognized as filler and binder grade. Thus far the profit from Minnesota farms has averaged $165 88 per acre as the highest gross income.

Blow to State Tax Board

The Minnesota state tax commission received a severe blow from the supreme court when the latter body held that leases on mineral lands cannot be assessed as credits. Such leases have heretofore been so assessed. The decision will mean a heavy loss for the state in taxes, though the commission was unable to tell the amount because the leases are listed with all the other credits. The case was brought by the Royal Mineral association.

Obtains Place on Ballot.

Walter N. Carroll of Minneapolis has accomplished two things in his litigation before the Supreme Court over the presidential primary law. He has obtained a place on the ballot and he has induced the Supreme Court to read something out of the law something out of the law. The court has ordered the secretary of state to accept the filing of Mr. Carroll as presidential elector, and it has approved his course in omitting from his affidavit the words "as expressed by the voters at such nominating election.

State News in Brief

Doings of Last Few Days Throughout Minnesota Condensed for Hasty Perusal.

Red Wing.—G. E. Belin, pioneer riverman and a resident of Red Wing for more than half a century, is dead.

Winona. — Joseph Kowalewski, 25 years old, was fatally burned in an explosion inside of a seventy-five-barrel vat at the Bub brewery here.

Alexandria. — A successful meeting of teachers of Douglas county has been held here, the sessions being the first meetings in the Auditorium of the new high school building now about completed.

St. Paul.—Colonel Josias B. King, the first man in the United States to enlist in the Union army in the Civil war, is dead at his home here. Colonel King was 84 years old. He died of heart trouble.

Duluth.—Thousands of miners of foreign birth, employed on the Minnesota Iron Ranges will be Americanized through night schools, if plans of R. K. Doe, government examiner of aliens, are carried out.

Mankato. — Mrs. Julia Presley, a resident of Mankato for forty-six years, and widow of J. A. Presley, is dead. She was 78 years old. She was a native of Bremen, Germany. She is survived by three sons and two daughters.

Bemidji. — The Commercial club has raised $300 to send delegates to Washington to oppose Nelson's Red Lake forest reservation. John Morrison, chief of the Chippewas, and other Indians already are en route to Washington to fight the bill.

St. Paul.—Co-operation of the U. S. postoffice department in the movement recently begun to save the quail in Minnesota took active form when rural mail carriers were instructed to distribute feed for the birds along their routes when it is provided.

St. Paul.—Governor Burnquist announces that he has been notified by Congressman Charles A. Linbergh of Little Falls that he will discontinue further activities in connection with his filing for the Republican nomination for governor and will withdraw from the race.

Monticello, Minn. — That Lawrence Carr of St. Paul came to his death by suicide is the verdict of the coroner of Wright county. The discovery of burned powder in the wound in the head established the coroner's theory that the shot was fired at close range. Several witnesses were examined.

Crookston—"That the farmer is the main man of the country" was the keynote of an address by George E. Vincent, president of the University of Minnesota, before the Red River Development association here. The great hall was crowded and the speaker was frequently interrupted by applause.

Red Wing—At the annual meeting of the Goodhue County Co-operative company, George F. Gross, general manager, submitted his annual report. It showed the aggregate business done by the company amounted to about $205,000. Net profits reported to be distributed among the shareholders or purchases were nearly $11,000.

Brainerd.—Upper Mississippi reservoirs north of Brainerd will be filled to bursting should the winter snow go out with early rains. The snow here has settled to nineteen inches deep, the total fall for the winter being 27.7 inches. A heavy spring thaw will fill reservoirs, allowing no room for succeeding rains, and June precipitation.

Preston.—Slippery walks have caused two deaths in Fillmore county, according to reports to the coroner here. John Harland of Henrytown, a farmer, on his way from his house to the barn, fell and his skull was fractured. He was found dead several hours later. Alfred Bowman of Leonora slipped while on the street. A blood vessel was ruptured and he bled to death.

Minneapolis.—A free trip to the Minnesota State Fair Farm Boys' Camp, Sept 4 to 9, is to be given to 177 boys who excelled last year in the state acre-yield corn contest, state pig club contest, and Northern Minnesota potato contest, as a result of action just taken by the fair board. The 1916 Camp will be nearly twice as large as any of its four predecessors.

St. Paul.—Following a four day investigation carried on by W. J. Stevenson, acting attorney general, and J. A. O. Preus, state auditor, these officials reported to the county attorney of Ramsey county that irregularities amounting to $28,962 have been discovered in the office of State Treasurer Walter J. Smith. The irregularities included three forged district school warrants for $18,000, $4,600 and $6,000. Robert C Pickit, alleged confessed forger of the state warrants, is locked up in the central police station here charged with second degree forgery and first degree embezzlement, and Walter J Smith, state treasurer, is in a Minneapolis sanitarium, under official surveillance. Pickit is held without bail.

South St. Paul.—Selling soft corn over the stockyards scales rather than at the country elevator has proved the more profitable way for many Minnesota farmers, if prices realized at South St. Paul on cattle and hogs fed on such rations are to be regarded as typical of the results obtained generally in this territory by farmers who have had only last year's inferior crop to feed.

Red Wing.—About 500 teachers were in attendance at the annual meeting of the Southeastern Minnesota Educational association, which met here.

Taste in Reading.

"Oliver's taste for books seems to be improving."

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.—Adv.

LIVED UP TO INSTRUCTIONS

Told Always to Do Things by Combination Pat Faithfully Obeyed His Employer's Orders.

A gentleman in want of a coachman had an Irishman apply for the situation, when the following conversation took place between them:

"You know, Pat, if I engage you, I shall expect you to do things by combination. For instance, if I tell you to bring the carriage round at a given time I shall expect the horses with it and driving gloves, etc."

"Yes, sor," said Pat.

He was duly engaged, and gave satisfaction. One day, his master came to him in a hurry, telling him to look sharp and go for a doctor, as his mistress was ill. Pat was gone for a long time, and on his master grumbling at him for his delay, he said:

"Sure, they're all here, sor."

"All here!" said the master. "What do you mean?"

"Didn't you tell me to do things by combination?"

"What's that got to do with it?" said the master.

"Well," said Pat. "I've got the doctor, the parson, the undertaker."—Tit-Bits.

Then She Said "Yes."

She—Before I give you my answer I must know more about you. Are you aiming at anything worth while?

He—You seem to have a very poor opinion of yourself.

A GOOD CHANGE

A Change of Food Works Wonders

Wrong food and drink cause a lot of trouble in this world. To change is first aid when a person is ill, particularly from stomach and nervous troubles. As an illustration: A lady in Mo. was brought around to health again by leaving off coffee and some articles of food that did not agree with her.

She says:

"For a number of years I suffered with stomach and bowel trouble which kept getting worse until I was ill most of the time. About four years ago I left off coffee and began using Postum. My stomach and bowels improved right along, but I was so reduced in flesh and so nervous that the least thing would overcome me.

"Then I changed my food and began using Grape-Nuts in addition to Postum. I lived on these two principally for about four months. Day by day I gained in flesh and strength until the nervous trouble had disappeared. I feel that I owe my health to Postum and Grape-Nuts.

"Husband was troubled, for a long time, with occasional cramps, and slept badly. Finally I prevailed upon him to leave off coffee and take Postum. After he tried Postum for a few days he found that he could sleep and that his cramps disappeared. He never went back to coffee." Name given by Postum Co, Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms:

Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

"There's a Reason" for Postum.

CUMMINS URGES UNITY OF PARTY

Says It Is Duty of Republicans to End Wilson Regime.

IOWAN'S LINCOLN DAY SPEECH

Points Out Mistakes of Present Democratic Administration in Address at St. Paul.

St. Paul, Feb. 13.—Senator A. B. Cummins of Iowa was the principal speaker at the Lincoln Republican club banquet here last night. He said, in part:

Mr. Toastmaster and Gentlemen of the Lincoln Republican Club:

Inasmuch as I am speaking to Republicans just entering upon an important campaign for political supremacy; Republicans who are now viewing with sadness and regret the humiliations and disaster inflicted in three years of Democratic administration, and who are profoundly convinced that the American people deserve something better, I must be permitted to recall one sentence which fell from Lincoln's lips at the very outset of the struggle of 1858. He was referring to a situation in the country at large, but it may well be invoked as the watchword for the Republican party in the months immediately before us. He said, as you will remember: "A house divided against itself cannot stand * * * *. I do not expect the house to fall, but I do expect it will cease to be divided."

The house of Republicanism, founded upon the truest principles ever espoused by the human kind and reared by the labor of the wisest and most unselfish patriots of modern time, must not fall; but to stand, it must not be divided against itself; and it has become our highest and most imperative duty to see that it is not divided, and that it shall endure for the glory of free institutions and the welfare of the people.

Wilson Regime a Failure.

The miserable failure of the present administration in managing our domestic affairs and its shameful weakness in dealing with our foreign relations have so angered the people of the country that it has become not only the imperative duty but the deepest desire of all good citizens to drive it out of power, and reinstate as speedily as the laws of the land will permit, a government that will restore the confidence and rekindle the pride which every patriot ought to feel in the strength and justice of his nation.

The president and congress began their assault upon our institutions by the enactment of a tariff law, which, taking it all together is the completest compound of ignorance and indifference ever composed by a legislative body. It neither gives protection to our home markets nor yields revenue for the maintenance of the government. It defies every principle of economics ever advanced by the principles of any school of scientific thought. Had it not been for the hideous war which has paralyzed the industries of Europe, it would have put this country into bankruptcy with no prospect of a dividend to creditors.

Tariff Hostile to Farmers.

This tariff law has no redeeming feature except the income tax, and that I may say in passing was of Republican origin, but its crowning folly and unspeakable injustice lie in the palpable and indefensible discrimination against the farmers of the country. It gives the manufacturers of the East some protection, inadequate it is true, and therefore ineffective; but it remorselessly exposes the agricultural producers in the great West to the unrestrained invasion of the whole world. It must be swept away, and in its stead there must be substituted a fair, reasonable and adequate tariff for the protection of American industries, a tariff which will enable home producers to hold their own markets in decent prosperity against all comers.

Again, the energetic but elusive secretary of commerce is insisting that we must enact an anti-dumping provision. a provision which recognizes the necessity of protective duties, but which our Democratic friends hope may be so obscured that the people generally will not perceive the admission of past folly which it clearly implies.

Why a Tariff Commission?

Again, the president and his leaders in congress are now proposing the establishment of a tariff commission. Why? For this reason and no other: they are praying that through the work of such a commission some of the disasters which their tariff law necessarily inflicts may be avoided without a frank avowal that they have imposed upon the country a policy so destructive that they dare not meet its logical outcome. The tariff commission has been for years a Republican proposal, desirable because we want to know, from time to time, the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad. We want a tariff commission in order to fix duties that will protect our home markets against unfair competition, but why does a believer in the ruinous doctrine of free trade or tariff for revenue only want a commission?

The law revising our banking system, while it has some good in it, which Republicans rather than Democrats put there, is, as a whole, a most dangerous experiment. It has not only made powerful combinations among banks lawful, but it has created a board clothed with more authority than was ever before conferred upon an administrative body.

It is a unique administration in that it abandons, without a thought of responsibility, the most vital parts of the platform upon which it came into power, and assumes that the people will be satisfied with the simple explanation that minds have changed. At this moment it is in a state of chaotic confusion. The balance in the treasury which it inherited from a Republican administration has been absorbed in the extravagance of its appropriations, and it needs money and does not know where to get it. It is blindly groping around amidst further stamp taxes, gasoline taxes, automobile taxes, income taxes, and the like, but lacks the courage to lay its hands upon anything.

Mexican Policy Shameful.

In the past three years American citizens who had a right to be in Mexico have been robbed, shot, hung and starved at the pleasure of the so called armies roving about the country; and never a thing done save a protest, now and then, to an irresponsible, cruel and lawless leader. Our government has not only failed in its duty toward our own people who are in Mexico, but it has witnessed the most atrocious outrages against Mexican men and women the world has ever known, without a decisive word or a courageous act.

At the present moment the situation in Mexico is absolutely hopeless. There was a time when in my judgment, intervention might have been avoided, but now the horrors of indiscriminate murder and the savage lust for blood and rape and all other crimes against humanity, have broken the civilized spirit of the people. They have not the strength needed to construct a government. They are starving, not by the thousands, but by the tens of thousands; and I predict that unless we are willing to stand by and see that country lapse into barbarism, and to see it ravaged day after day by the cutthroats and plunderers who are now in possession, we will be compelled to intervene simply to furnish a nucleus around which the remnant of liberty and decency can gather.

I turn to our troubles with the belligerents of Europe, strange as it may appear, with a profound relief. I believe the president was wise and patriotic in his proclamation of neutrality. Sacred as the compact of nations ought to be, and sympathetic as all right-minded men are with stricken Belgium, our country would not have been justified in declaring war because Belgium was invaded. Whether we have been in fact neutral is quite another thing. The government may have maintained, technically a neutral position, but individually, industrially, and financially we have not been neutral. Agreeing, as I think most of us do with the president in the neutrality of the nation, it is yet unfortunately true that, in maintaining the dignity of our position, and in convincing the belligerents of the sincerity of our purpose, the state department has met with ill success.

Question of Preparedness.

We are all profoundly grateful that we are not in war; but some of us are skeptical about the credit which one man claims for the peace which now prevails. The stability of the president and his administration is not forfeited when we remember that a year ago he set his face firmly against any increase in our military strength, and impliedly opposed even the maintenance of the naval program of the last few years, whereas when congress assembled last December he recommended with great earnestness an immediate addition to both army and navy and recently toured the country in advocacy of his program.

To me the course is plain before us, we ought to go quietly, firmly forward strengthening and balancing the military arm of the government according to the program universally accepted. Before any radical change is made in the policy we ought to know the outcome of the war. It may happen that conditions will arise that will compel us to stand armed ready for instant conflict, not against one nation alone but against a combination of nations; one the other hand, it may happen that the war will so close that the partial disarmament of the great countries will begin and that a long era of international peace will be assured.

MOTHER! LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is ofttimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

TAKE A GLASS OF SALTS WHEN BLADDER BOTHERS

Harmless to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids—Splendid for the System.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

BABY HANDS STAY ARM OF THE LAW

Father Is Saved From Prison Term by Prattle of Child.

CROWD WINS PAROLE

Intercedes With Judge in Behalf of Prisoner — Somebody Passes the Hat and His Honor Scowls and Then Contributes.

Kansas City, Mo.—A pair of baby hands reached out and stayed the arm of the law just before it thrust Arthur Beeson into the penitentiary for three years. The hands belonged to Baby Beeson, aged eighteen months, who sat upon his mother's lap during the trial of his father.

Beeson, who is an expert handler of horses, took a horse from the pasture of Herman Vogel, near Independence. He sold the animal and went to Des Moines, where he worked steadily until his arrest. Beeson attracted little attention in the courtroom. But every one not otherwise engaged was looking at or playing with Baby Beeson.

"Three years," said Judge Latshaw.

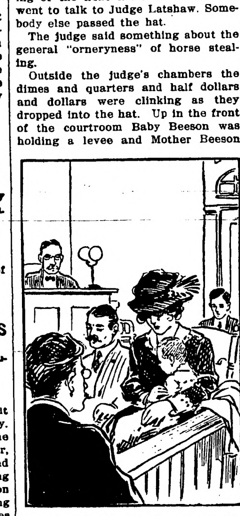
Went on Prattling.

Baby Beeson's mother blanched. Baby Beeson reached out his hands to a new-found friend and went on prattling. That was too much for the attaches of the court. They had seen many men slink into the room behind the jury box and pass down the long corridor and stairway of the jail—the way that leads finally to the penitentiary.

A newspaper man went down to the jail to talk to the prisoner. Then he came back and talked to the crowd in the courtroom, which awaited the calling of the next trial. A dozen men went to talk to Judge Latshaw. Somebody else passed the hat.

The judge said something about the general "orneryness" of horse stealing.

Outside the judge's chambers the dimes and quarters and half dollars and dollars were clinking as they dropped into the hat. Up in the front of the courtroom Baby Beeson was holding a levee and Mother Beeson was trying hard not to let anyone see that she was crying.



Sat Upon His Mother's Lap During the Trial.

"But the baby," pleaded the delegation.

"All right, get him a job and I'll parole him," said the judge.

Dignity Is Forgotten

"Good boy, judge!" shouted some one who had forgotten the dignity of the court.

The judge scowled and slipped into the hand of a deputy marshal "something for the hat."

Lee Nevins, one of the marshal's force, wired to Des Moines at his own expense to see if Beeson could have his former position back.

During the afternoon a message came from Beeson's former employer in Des Moines. It said that there is no work for him now but that as soon as a place can be found he may come on. The marshal's force offered to pay Beeson's way to Des Moines.

"Better get him something to do here. I'll let him out as soon as you do," suggested Judge Latshaw.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at your druggist or general store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.—Adv.

SENATE ASKS BANK TO SHOW BOOKS IN HARVESTER PROBE

AGRICULTURAL COMMITTEE DECIDES TO CALL ON CHICAGO INSTITUTION FOR EVIDENCE IN SISAL INQUIRY.

ATTEMPT TO MONOPOLIZE TWINE OUTPUT, CHARGED

Washington, Feb. 21.—The Senate agricultural committee has decided to call upon the Continental and Commercial National bank of Chicago to submit a statement showing the deposits of the International Harvester company for the last three years in order to determine the truth of charges that the Harvester company had disciplined the Chicago bank for extending financial aid to the sisal growers of Yucatan.

To Refuse Request.

Arthur Reynolds, vice president of the bank, when informed of the decision of the Senate committee to ask for a statement from the bank showing the International Harvester company's deposits, said that the request would be refused.

Sol Wexler, a New York banker, charged that the Harvester company had sought by intimidation to prevent the National City bank of New York as well as the Continental from loaning money to aid sisal growers.

"We Question Authority."

"We question the authority and jurisdiction of the Senate committee and we will refuse to open our books to the committee until so directed by a competent court," Mr. Reynolds' statement said.

"For a long period," he continued, "the International Harvester company has carried a considerable balance with us and there has been no marked decrease in the amount of the deposit. I do not consider that the bank has been 'disciplined' in any manner by the Harvester company."

Mr. Wexler explained the organization of the Pan-American Commission corporation, of which he is president, which guaranteed to loan the Yucatan planters, $10,000,000 a year.

"When I went among the banks of the country to assure myself that I could get this money from them when needed, all but two agreed that if other conditions justified the loans I could secure them," he said. "These were the Continental and Commercial National bank of Chicago and the National City bank of New York.

Banks Heads Threatened.

"The president and vice president of the International Harvester company had gone to them and tried to intimidate them with threats of withdrawing their deposits and withdrawing their representatives from the board of directors.

"And further, this entire propaganda to arouse the farmers against the sisal growers, conducted through the trade journals and by mouth has been started by the harvester company, in its underhanded, gumshoe way."

Senator Gronna of North Dakota declared that he had received many letters from farmers in his state urging him to advocate laws forbidding interstate commerce to binder twine manufactured in the various state penitentiaries.

Wexler testified that the prison twine factories were the chief independent buyers of sisal.

Cyrus H. McCormick of the International Harvester denied the statements accusing the big company.

Major Scott, Acting War Secretary Directs Investigation of Aviation Corps at San Diego.

Washington, Feb. 21.—An exhaustive investigation into every phase of the administration and conduct of the army aviation school at San Diego has been ordered by Hugh L. Scott, acting secretary of war.

To delve into the charges made by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, which were an aftermath of the court martial and sentence of Leutenant Colonel Goodier, judge advocate general of the Western department, General Scott appointed the inspector general, judge advocate general of the army and General Macomb, chief of the war college, as a board of investigation. "The instructions are to go into every phase and detail of the situation," General Scott said.

Tennessee War Plant Burned.

Bristol, Tenn., Va., Feb. 21.—A telephone message received here reported that the New Federal Dyestuffs & Chemical company plant at Kingsport, Tenn., 25 miles from here, had been destroyed by fire. Later reports do not bear out the first information, stating that only one building had been destroyed and that the fire was not of great consequence. The plant was erected recently and manufactured picric acid, a base for high explosives. The company is a Delaware corporation capitalized at $15,000,000.

U.S. NOT TO REQUEST GERMANS TO DELAY NEW U-BOAT ORDER SITUATION SAID TO BE AS GRAVE AS AT ANY TIME SINCE THE LUSITANIA ISSUE AROSE.

LOSS OF AMERICAN LIFE MAY PRECIPITATE CRISIS

Failure of Teutons to Bring Lusitania Negotiations to Satisfactory Close Also May Cause Trouble—Submarine Decree Effective March 1.

Washington, Feb. 22.—The situation between Germany and the United States is said to be as grave at this time as at any time since the Lusitania issue arose.

This was the positive declaration at the state department and with the announcement Secretary Lansing did not deny the fact of strained personal relations between himself and Ambassador von Bernstorff.

Two things may precipitate a crisis, it was stated. One would be the loss of American life by the inauguration of Germany's proposed new submarine warfare March 1. The other, and this is regarded as the more significant—by the failure of Germany to bring the Lusitania negotiations to a satisfactory close. Inasmuch as the state department says closing these negotiations satisfactorily to the United States is impossible while the German decree remains in force, a serious situation is believed imminent. Only eight days remain until the decree is to become effective.

Will not Make Request.

Germany, through her ambassador, has intimated a willingness to again postpone the date, if requested, but the state department has said such a request will not be made by this government.

As for the relations between Lansing and Bernstorff, growing out of what the administration considers the latter's unfair publicity methods, little effort was made to conceal the facts. The ambassador was not in the city.

When Secretary Lansing was asked flatly whether he was still contemplating calling Ambassador von Bernstorff to account for his alleged dissemination of propaganda which the department regards as annoying, he evaded a direct answer. The Secretary waited a full two minutes before answering.

His face grew grave and he finally said:

"If I did contemplate such action I would not make it known beforehand through the press."

Great War Costs Forty Billions.

London, Feb. 22.—Premier H. H. Asquith has introduced in commons the government measure for new war credits of £420,000,000 (slightly more than $2,000,000,000). The credits, the prime minister said, will raise England's war expenditure to £1,700,000,000 or about $8,640,000,000. According to unofficial estimates all belligerents in the European war have spent since the beginning of hostilities about $40,000,000,000.

Former Treasurer's Trial Feb. 28.

St. Paul, Feb. 22.—Walter J. Smith and Robert C. Pickit, accused of complicity in mishandling of state trust funds, appeared for trial before judge F. N. Dickson in Ramsey county district court. Their cases were reset for Feb. 28, although a plea was made for delay by Thomas R. Kane, attorney for Smith, on the ground that his client is not in physical condition to stand the strain of a trial.

Asks Prompt Reply to Protest

Washington, Feb. 22.—Secretary Robert Lansing has asked the London foreign office for prompt replies to the American notes protesting against seizures of mails and against application of act referring to trading with the enemy against American firms and interests.

Arrests May Follow Spy's Escape.

New York, Feb. 22.—Agents of the department of justice here are investigating the circumstances attending the escape of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln, self-styled international spy, who has been recaptured after enjoying nearly a month's freedom. It is hinted that more arrests may result if found that Lincoln was willfully aided to make his escape or given shelter. Nothing definite has been discovered by the authorities to identify Lincoln with any of the unlawful activities of foreign agents in this country.

MADE OWN ROAD TO SUCCESS

Woman Proved She Was Capable of Making Her Way, Despite All Forms of Competition.

Forced by the illness of her husband five years ago to take up the burden of supporting the family, Mrs. Jennie Watkins in that time has become one of the foremost woman insurance agents in the country and has written more than one million dollars' worth of insurance policies.

Mrs. Watkins lives at No. 280 Fort Washington avenue, where she maintains her office. She is the only woman member of the $200,000 club, an organization of expert insurance agents whose annual writings of policies reach that amount every year.

She declares, and her associates, who are men, agree with her, that she gained her success through competition on equal grounds with her male opponents, and she has vanquished them in contests entirely by superior arguments, and not by falling back on the handicap which her sex might give her.—New York Times.

Claims Lye Is Not Injurious.

Prof. M. E. Jaffa of the California state board of health denies that, as is generally believed, lye-peeled peaches are more injurious to health than hand-peeled fruits. The food value, quality and flavor are unchanged, and it is impossible to distinguish one from the other except by the knife marks of the hand-peeled product, he says. Analyses show that the acidity of the fruit is not affected by the use of lye in the peeling process.

THE EVIDENCE IN THE CASE

Results Following Settlement Show That Conditions in Western Canada Are Highly Satisfactory.

Until a few years ago Mr. Henry Lohmann lived at Effingham, Ill. He thought he would better his condition in a new country, where he would have wider scope for his farming operations. It would not seem essential to refer to Mr. Lohmann, at this particular time, as of German blood, but for the fact that so many false statements have gone out as to ill treatment of Germans in Canada.

Writing from Willmont, Sask., under date of January 30, 1916, Mr. Lohmann says:

"We are perfectly satisfied in this country, and doing well up here.

"I bought a half section of land and took up a homestead, my three sons also took homesteads, two of them buying each 160 acres of land as well. I sold my homestead, and I and one of my sons own a threshing outfit.

"The crop this year was good; the oats went 80 to 90 bushels per acre, and wheat went 40 to 50 bushels and the price is fair."

Sam Morrow, of Millet, Alta., in writing to Mr. J. M. MacLachlan, Canadian government agent at Watertown, S. D., says: "I am well pleased with the country. The climate is better than I ever thought it could be so far north; ideal climate for stock. I have some colts and cattle that have not been inside of a stable in four years. I consider this a fine country for mixed farming. I know of farmers around here who had 42 bushels of barley to the acre and 55 bushels of oats to the acre."

Jacob Goetz of Piapot, Sask., had 43 acres of wheat from which he got 1,200 bushels, and got an average of 93 bushels of oats to the acre.

Golden Prairie, Sask., is a district largely settled by South Dakotans. Horace Blake is one of those. He says: "The crops of 1915 were immense."

Wheat in his locality went from 40 to 55 bushels per acre; oats about 80 bushels on an average. One hundred bushels of potatoes were grown on a quarter of an acre of land; twelve potatoes weighed 30 pounds. His horses run out all winter, and come in fat. He raised excellent corn, and fattened hogs on it. He concludes an interesting letter by saying: "There are schools in every district. The people here are most all hustlers and are fast pushing to the front. When I first came up here on almost every half section stood a little 12x14 shack, now almost everyone has real modern houses and barns."

Some Southern Alberta yields for 1915:

I. H. Hooker, 82 acres, 3,820 bushels Marquis wheat No. 1, 64 pounds per bushel.

I. I. Lee, 40 acres stubble, 1,500 bushels, 40 acres summer fallow, 2,530 bushels.

R. Marandi, 135 acres 6,920 bushels, 64 pounds per bushel.

I. McReynolds, 45 acres 1,675, stubble.

Ole Christofferson, 60 acres, 2,647 bushels.

D. Dunbar, 130 acres, wheat, 5,925 bushels.

Ingauld Hoppy, 50 acres wheat, 2,800 bushels, all stubble.

Louis Kragt, 80 acres wheat 4,000 bushels.

W. J. Pate, 20 acres wheat 850 bushels.

W. Roeniche, 180 acres wheat, 5,337 bushels, 80 of this stubble.

J. C. McKinnon, 50 acres wheat, 2,536 bushels.

John Hecklin, 37 acres, 1,484 bushels.

Wm. Hecklin, 100 acres 3,316, stubble and breaking.

O. Salisbury, 50 acres Marquis wheat, 1,600 bushels, on breaking.—Advertisement.

The general staff of the Cuban navy has appointed a committee to study designs for a new uniform for the officers and enlisted men of the navy. What's Doing in Minnesota

Minneapolis.—Women of Minneapolis have enlisted in the city-wide campaign the Real Estate board has initiated to rid the city and its environs of mosquitoes.

Zumbrota.—William F. Bevers, 70 years old, dropped dead at his home here. He was born in Illinois and came to Minnesota in 1855. He was educated at Hamline university.

St. Paul. — The federal commissioner of fisheries has allotted Minnesota 25,000 land-locked salmon eggs and 200,000 lake trout eggs, according to Carlos Avery, game and fish commissioner.

Duluth. — Because his father and brother have enlisted in the Canadian forces, Alfred Cottrel, a 16-year-old boy, has been deported by the immigration officers here and will be sent back to Port Arthur to support his mother and sister.

New Ulm. — John C. Rudolph, former auditor of Brown county, is dead at the home of his daughter in Chicago. He was born in Prussia in 1828, and settled here in 1857. He took an active part in the defense of this city in the Sioux war.

Northfield. — This city has entertained the 20th annual meeting of the United Lutheran church. Seventy pastors from Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, North and South Dakota attended and a representation of lay delegates also was present.

Ponsford.—A delegation from this place attended a meeting of the Detroit Commercial club at Detroit, to consider the building of an electric line from Detroit to Ponsford. Ponsford is about 40 miles from Detroit, the county seat, and the road would mean the development of a fine farming section.

Brainerd.—The Booster club of Brainerd has gone on record by a large vote as favoring a modification of the 1855 Indian treaty. State Senator George H. Gardner praised the work of Congressman B. M. Chipperfield of Illinois "for his efforts to maintain the rights of citizens of northern Minnesota."

Minneapolis.—With $75,898 secured in signed pledges and $24,112 underwritten by the 102 teams of solicitors, the $100,000 subscription fund campaign of Minnesota college has come to a formal close. A total of $100,033, pledged and guaranteed, was reported at the closing meeting of the 500 campaign workers.

Crookston.—The jury in the J. F. Verreaux arson case here, failed to agree and was discharged by Judge Watts. This may dispose of the bribery charges against several well-known citizens made by William Richards, star witness for the state, who testified that he had been paid $75 to change his testimony.

Worthington.—The display of corn and other seeds at the annual convention of the Minnesota Crop Improvement association here is excellent as to quantity and quality, notwithstanding that 1915 was a poor corn year. Exhibits from southern Minnesota are all high grade and scored higher than the exhibits from the central and northern parts of the state.

Minneapolis.—After being present on the University of Minnesota campus for almost a week, smallpox made itself known, Stafford King of the law school being the victim. The university is taking precautions to prevent the spread of the disease. E. B. Pierce, registrar, has published notices that every student who has been directly or indirectly exposed must be vaccinated.

Minneapolis, Minn.—The editors of Minnesota went into gridiron session, were panned variously, regaled with panegyric; urged to cast off modesty and delve a little in politics, and then they cheered loudly when Michael Dowling of Olivia lighted the fuse to a preparedness bomb. It was the big social session of the golden jubilee convention, staged in the roof garden of the Radisson hotel and graced gloriously by the presence of the editors.

Northfield.—A cow testing association is being organized by the Northfield Holstein club and Gaylord Hancock, agricultural instructor in the local high school. The decision to organize was made at a meeting of the Holstein club which was addressed by Professor W. A. McKerrow of the state agricultural college. The club also voted, following an address by Dr. S. H. Ward, state veterinarian, to have the dairy herds of the community tested for tuberculosis.

Duluth.—That John McAlpine, millionaire lumberman, committed suicide, was the decision of the jury which heard the suit of his widow to recover on an accident insurance policy of $28,000. The jury also returned a verdict in favor of the insurance company in addition to the special finding as to the manner in which Mr. McAlpine met his death. Suits for $89,000 were brought. This is the first time that a jury has given a definite answer as to how John McAlpine met his death.

Albert Lea.—The annual meeting of the patrons of the state creamery has been held here. One hundred and fifty heard the address by J. J. Farrel, state dairy and food commissioner. The annual report showed the creamery had produced 321,335 pounds of butter, which sold for $113,399.21.

St. Paul.—The annual reunion of the Reads Landing association of the Twin Cities will take place at the river spot August 26. The association was so decided at the eighth annual midwinter picnic held at the Midway commercial club quarters. All officers were re-elected.

CONTROL BOARD TO SET PRICES AT CONFERENCE SOON—SISAL COSTS MORE.

EVENTS AT STATE CAPITOL

Interesting and Important Happenings of the Past Few Days Selected and Arranged for the Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

Minnesota farmers must pay from three to four cents more for their binder twine bought at the Stillwater prison this year than heretofore. R. W. Wheelock, of the State Board of Control, stated that prices for the raw material are advancing. The prices for this year's binder twine will be set about March 1 at a conference between the board and Warden C. S. Reed.

Raw sisal bought for the prison in December cost 6.86 cents and a consignment procured February 8 cost the board 7.36 cents a pound.

"While the prices of twine will be higher this year," said Mr. Wheelock, "it will not go above eleven cents a pound and will still be lower than the prices asked by competitors of the prison twine plant."

Gives State 13,321 Acres.

To the vast domain which the Federal government gave to Minnesota in its infancy has just been added 13,321 acres of school lands, according to word received by Governor Burnquist from the general land office in Washington. The lands have just been patented to the state as indemnity for lands due to Minnesota, but for various reasons never obtained, and they are the first acres to be patented to the state in eight years.

The new state lands all are situated in St. Louis county, and the parcel is composed of all kinds of lands from timber to swamp lands.

J. A. O. Preus, state auditor, estimated that the lands, some of which are covered with valuable timber, are worth approximately $100,000, based on the price at which state lands are now selling.

The lieu lands were selected for the state by S. G. Iverson, former state auditor, in 1911, but it has taken five years for the work of patenting them to be handled through the routine of the general land office.

The lands originally alloted to Minnesota came to it through the act of Congress of February 26, 1857, which authorized Minnesota as a state and gave to the people of Minnesota sections 16 and 36 in each township which might thereafter be surveyed. These lands were given to the state as a necleus of the school fund.

Sees Abundance of Seed Corn.

The seed corn situation in Minnesota is not so serious as predictions last fall held it would be at this time, according to A. C. Arny, agronomist at University farm. In fact, he says there is an abundance of seed corn, "such as it is," so far as seed supply goes. Minnesota's corn acreage the coming season should not be up to normal.

"There is plenty of good germinating corn in South Dakota to furnish Minnesota farmers with seed," Mr. Arny said, "in varieties that will mature here, though not of the kind that we'd like most to plant. Minnesota No. 13 and No. 23 varieties developed in this state and proved profitable, are a little more scarce, the situation as to them is rather acute, I should say."

Bracken Called to Washington.

Dr. H. M. Bracken, secretary of the Minnesota board of health, has been called to Washington to give his views on the proposed establishment of a national asylum for lepers, before the senate committee on public health, of which Senator J. 12 Bushel Yield Pays Cost.

Minnesota wheat growers must produce more than 12 bushels to the acre to make a profit, according to figures obtained at University farm as a result of study of five-year average of costs and returns on several farms. F. W. Peck, farm management specialist, says a yield of 12 bushels of wheat is necessary to pay the cost of cultivation, and that to pay such cost in growing corn, a 32 bushel yield is necessary; in oats 34 bushels, barley, 19 bushels, potatoes 46 bushels, hay, one ton to the acre.

A Woman's Problem

How to Feel Well During Middle Life Told by Three Women Who Learned from Experience.

The Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Read these letters:—

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I started the Change of Life five years ago. I always had a headache and backache with bearing down pains and I would have heat flashes very bad at times with dizzy spells and nervous feelings. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new person and am in better health and no more troubled with the aches and pains I had before I took your wonderful remedy. I recommend it to my friends for I cannot praise it enough."—Mrs. MARGARET GRASSMAN, 759 N. Ringgold St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Beverly, Mass.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for nervousness and dyspepsia, when I was going through the Change of Life. I found it very helpful and I have always spoken of it to other women who suffer as I did and have had them try it and they also have received good results from it."—Mrs. GEORGE A. DUNBAR, 17 Roundy St., Beverly, Mass.

Erie, Pa.—"I was in poor health when the Change of Life started with me and I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, or I think I should not have got over it as easy as I did. Even now if I do not feel good I take the Compound and it restores me in a short time. I will praise your remedies to every woman for it may help them as it has me."—Mrs. E. KISSLING, 931 East 24th St., Erie, Pa.

"ANURIC!" NEWEST IN CHEMISTRY

This is a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce, head of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments for several years proved that there is no other eliminator of uric acid comparable. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation as backache, scalding urine and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, "Anuric" acts quickly. In rheumatism of the joints, in gravel and gout, invariably the pains and stiffness which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear.

The Honor of the Boy Scout.

The most important scout virtue is that of honor. Indeed, that is the basis of all scout virtues and is closely allied to that of self-respect. When a scout promises to do a thing on his honor, he is bound to do it. The honor of a scout will not permit of anything but the highest and the best and the manliest. WOMAN HAD NERVOUS TROUBLE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headaches, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Hatching a Controversy.

"Yes?"

"For instance, if you can get two music lovers to discussing the respective merits of Caruso and John McCormack, the chances are they won't stop talking till it's time to go home."

Achy Joints Give Warning

A creaky joint often predicts rain. It may also mean that the kidneys are not filtering the poisonous uric acid from the blood. Bad backs, rheumatic pains, sore, aching joints, headaches, dizziness and urinary disorders are all effects of weak kidneys and if nothing is done, there's danger of more serious trouble. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the best recommended kidney remedy.

A Montana Case

H. H. Baker, 208 Broadwater Ave., Billings, Mont., says: "My kidneys were badly disordered and the kidney secretions were profuse and painful in passage, also filled with a sandy substance. I had dull, heavy pains in the small of my back that kept me in agony. I tried many different medicines, but without success until I took Doan's Kidney Pills. They acted like magic and restored me to good health."

FRENCH FORTRESS DEFENDING VERDUN TAKEN BY TEUTONS

DOUAUMONT STORMED AND CAPTURED AFTER VIOLENT BOMBARDMENT BY GREAT GERMAN CANNON.

COLLAPSE OF FRENCH RIGHT WING IS FEARED

Troops on "Pepper Heights" Believed Falling Back Upon Remaining Forts—Defenders Retire to Within Four Miles of City—Kaiser Witnesses Triumph.

Berlin, Feb. 28, via London.—The French forces in the Champagne have made an attack on the German positions south of St. Marie-a-Py. The war office statement says the French penetrated the first German trenches over a distance of about 250 yards.

London, Feb. 28.—The great French fortress of Verdun, considered impregnable, is now seriously threatened by the greatest German drive on the western front since the march on Paris.

The Kaiser was a witness to the capture of Douaumont, the Berlin office announced. The steel clad fort Douaumont, keystone of the fortifications on the northeast, and but four miles from Verdun, has been stormed and captured by German troops, according to an official statement issued at Berlin. Brandenburgers entered the works of Douaumont.

French Statement Vague.

The statement from the French war office did not confirm the German report, but indicated that the French have been compelled to take up new positions. The vagueness of the French official statement in view of the German claims of a great victory aroused feelings of uneasiness here.

Paris reported the battle raging with new fury on both wings but made no definite statement of the outcome of the bloody struggle on "Pepper Heights," four and one-half miles from Verdun itself, where the French war office declared the French were under heavy attack.

French Positions Taken.

French positions southwest and east of Louvemont, have been captured, said a later official statement from the German war office, which admitted, however, that reports of the capture of the village of Champ Neuville were incorrect.

This Berlin statement indicated that while the French right is giving way the left, resting along the Meuse heights, is maintaining its position, despite terrific onslaughts.

Fort Douaumont was the key to a strongly fortified line of defenses forming the last line of French defenses extending outside the forts on the north and the northeast. It si considered probable here that its capture has been followed by the collapse of the French right wing which 's believed to be falling back upon the remaining forts of Verdun. The French positions on the "Pepper Heights" and just east of the Meuse are believed to be threatened by the capture of Douaumont, if they have not already fallen.

Russian Forces Capture Kermanshah After Three Days' Battle—En Route to Aid British.

Rome, Feb. 28.—The report that Durazzo, an Albanian port on the Adriatic sea, had been evacuated by the Italian troops stationed there is confirmed.

Petrograd, Feb. 28.—The important Persian city of Kermanshah has been captured by the Russians after a three days' battle, according to dispatches received here.

The movement of the Russians from Hamadan southwestward to Kermanshah brings them now to within 150 miles of Kut-el-Amara, on the Tigris, where General Townshend's British force, which was ascending the river for the conquest of Bagdad, is besieged by the Turks.

An official dispatch from Teheran, said that after a series of battles in the mountain passes, as a result of which the Russians captured a considerable quantity of booty, the Turks, who had been aided by Germans, had retreated toward Kermanshah. Kermanshah is 280 miles southwest of Teheran and has a population of about 30,000. The routes from Bagdad, Shuster, Ispahan, by way of Hamadan and Suleimaniyah meet there and make the city an important center of traffic.

Austrian Reply on "Petrolite."

Washington, Feb. 28.—Austria, supplementing her request for more information concerning the protest against the submarine attack on the Petrolite in the Mediterranean, has informed the United States that her version of the affair is that the submarine commander thought the Petrolite was an enemy ship disguised under the American flag, that he fired upon her as the ship changed her course and he believed she was about to ram him and that the Petrolite's captain voluntarily furnished food.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR A CHILD'S BOWELS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

Its Worth.

"What do I get for this stunt?" asked the haughty amateur.

"You get nothing from me for it as a manager," replied that individual, "but if I were a magistrate as well you'd get sixty days."

MEAT CLOGS KIDNEYS THEN YOUR BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers You—Drink Lots of Water.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

GERMANS' LOSS IN FOUR DAY BATTLE AT VERDUN 150,000

ALLIES' WAR LORD RUSHES TO VERDUN TO OPPOSE KAISER'S ARMIES—TEUTONS CAPTURE FIVE TOWNS

FRENCH LINE CRUMPLED BACK IS BERLIN REPORT

Wings and Center Retire to Within Six Miles of Fortress, German War Office Claims—Both Sides Suffer Enormous Losses—Teutons Capture Supplies.

Paris, Feb. 28.—The fighting in the region of Verdun continues unabated, according to the French official communication. Several infantry attacks launched by the Germans with huge effectives have been repulsed. The artillery duels are going on with great intensity east of the Meuse despite a heavy snow fall.

Paris, Feb. 26.—The German losses during the first four days of the battle around Verdun are authoritatively estimated at 150,000.

The German offensive is recognized now as probably only the beginning of a determined effort to take the fortress, formerly the key to the French front, and compares in violence and losses to the battle of the Yser. The French assume that the battle may continue a fortnight.

Smash Way Forward.

London, Feb. 26.—By a battering assault, the Germans have smashed their way forward on a eight-mile front, capturing six villages and farms north of Verdun and taking thousands of prisoners, Berlin reports. Not only the French wings, but the French center has been hurled back to within six miles of Verdun, the German war office reports. The crown prince has stormed and taken the heights of Champ Neuville, barely five miles from Verdun in the bend of the Meuse river.

Germans Take More Towns.

The Germans claim the capture of Champ Neuville, Cotellette, Marmont, Beaumont, Chambrettes and Ornes, villages and groups of farms extending in a line east from the Meuse and less than two miles from Verdun's forts.

The French center, Berlin reported, has been broken and hurled back upon Louvemont, as the wings crumpled under terrible German attack.

The official statement from the French war office, while claiming that the German Verdun offensive is being halted, virtually admits the capture of Champ Neuville, Beaumont, Ornes and the villages and farms between them.

Teutons Capture Supplies.

Berlin also reported the capture of immense quantities of supplies, the exact amount having not yet been compiled.

The two war lords of Europe are now directing the operations in the great battle for Verdun. Paris dispatches reported that General Joffre has arrived at the French front and is personally directing the defense of the fortress. The news has created great enthusiasm in Paris.

Kaiser Directs Blows.

Across the battle front the kaiser surrounded by his ablest staff officers and the crown prince, are planning the blows being struck in the greatest German offensive since the defeat at the Marne.

London Publication Says House Was Specially Privileged Observer of Conflict in Europe.

London, Feb. 26.—"A landmark of the war" is "The Nation's" editorial characterization of the visit of Col. E. M. House, President Wilson's personal representative to Europe.

"No one," the publication says, "had anything like his chance for valuing the general factors which will decide the fate of Europe now dreadfully in the balance. Neither side knows what the other side thinks.

"It is well, therefore, for the world to have at least one carrier of ideas and intelligence. As eyes and ears for President Wilson, he must have been a specially privileged observer of the conflict."

Albanian Dictator Flees.

Rome, Feb. 26.—Essad Pasha, dictator of Albania, has abandoned his country before the Austro-Bulgar advance. Dispatches from Bridisi reported his arrival in Italy. Essad Pasha is the last of the Balkan rulers who took up arms against the Austro-Germans forced to flee from his native country. First King Peter of Serbia, and later King Nicholas of Montenegro fled to Italy. Essad Pasha became provisional president and dictator of Albania shortly after the prince of Wied abdicated the throne.

WAITING FOR THE END OF THE WAR

"Then Take Advantage of the Opportunities in Canada."

(Contributed by W. J. White, of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, Canada.)

I strolled into a bank in one of the cities of the west a short time ago and the bank manager said "after the war, the Canadians should be prepared for a great influx of people. The crops that the western Canadian farms have produced in 1915, and the wealth that the farmers have had thrust upon them by the high price of grain, will make farm lands valuable and farming remunerative. After the war is over there will be thousands go to Canada to engage in agriculture and many other industries that will certainly prove profitable. Conditions will be wonderfully good. The advertising that Canada has had during the last year or two by its magnificent contribution of over 250,000 men to fight for the Empire, the wonderful sums it has given to the Red Cross and Patriotic funds, the excellent showing it made in subscribing over double when only 50 millions of dollars was asked as a war loan, the bravery, courage and hardihood of the soldiers who have fought the battles in Flanders, it is just wonderful," and my enthusiastic banker grew eloquent One might have thought he was a subsidized booster for Canada. "But," he said "they won't go until after the war."

"Well, now, Mr. ——, why wait until after the war? If all you say be true, and you have said nothing yet of the wonderful bank clearings of Canada today, nothing of the fact that the immense grain crop of Western Canada this year has given to every man, woman and child in that country, over three hundred dollars per head, why wait until after the war? After the war, under such conditions as you have pictured (and which are real) land values will go up, prices will increase. Advantage should be taken of the low prices at which these agricultural lands can be had today. They have not increased any as yet, and excellent farm lands can be had close to railways in old settlements, in excellent communities for from fifteen to thirty dollars per acre. The climate is good and will be no better after the war."

"What about conscription, though? Is there not a danger from conscription, and should I advise any to go there now, would they not have to face it? Then too, there is the report that there is a heavy war tax on lands."

I was surprised to learn that these old yarns, stories that I thought had been exploded long ago, were still doing duty in many parts of the United States, and that a gentleman of the wide learning of my friend, was inclined to believe them

"Conscription!" I said. "With Canada contributing 250,000 men voluntarily enlisted, why conscription? There is no conscription in Canada, and neither will there be It is not needed. In any case no legislation could be passed by the Dominion Parliament which would impose military service upon people who are not citizens of Canada, either by birth or naturalization. Settlers from the United States could not become naturalized British subjects until they had resided in Canada continuously for three years." I quoted from official documents

"In the first few months of the war I clearly stated that there would not be conscription in Canada I repeat that statement today"

"And then as to taxes," I continued quoting again from official authority "All taxes levied by the Federal Government take the indirect form of customs excise and inland revenue duties. It is untrue that farmers are paying direct war-tax levies and no intending settler need hesitate to come to Canada on this account

"Official denials should convince you that all apprehensions which have been making some would-be settlers from the United States hesitate to make a change while the war lasts are without foundation With these misunderstandings cleared up the present war conditions even become an added inducement to settlement in any part of the provinces of western Canada, inasmuch as war prices and keen demands for all manner of farm products afford the farmer a special opportunity to make money"

I was glad of the chance and pleased to have him state that his views had altogether changed

I could have continued, and told him of the fortunes that had been made in the season of 1915, out of farming, wheat growing, oat growing, barley growing, cattle raising, dairying and mixed farming I could have told him of an Ottawa (Canada) syndicate that had a yield of 130 bushels of oats per acre from their farm at Wainwright and from 60 acres of wheat field they threshed over 60 bushels per acre. These yields while phenomenal were repeated in many portions of western Canada It was interesting to inform him that the average yield of spring wheat in Saskatchewan was 25.16 bushels per acre, Manitoba 26.3 bushels; in Alberta, 36.16 bushels and over the three provinces there was a total average of over 30 bushels per acre

The immense crop that has just been harvested has put millions of dollars in the hands of the farmers, and the work of distribution through the regular channels of trade has already begun. Millions of bushels of grain are still in the hands of the farmers, which means that there is a vast store of realizable wealth that will be steadily going into circulation, benefitting the thousands who are dependent indirectly on the basic industry of the province for their livelihood.

"The mock prosperity that rested on the insecure foundation of inflated real estate values has passed away, and in its place the corner stone of the country's sound financial future is being built.

"The trust and mortgage companies, the large implement concerns and the wholesale merchants all tell the same story today of marked improvement in their business. The farmers and others are meeting their just dues and paying off debts that in many cases have been long overdue. Collections are better today than they have been since the most prosperous days of our history, and obligations are being met freely and promptly.

"Now," I said, "why should they wait until the war is over?"

And he agreed with me.—Advertisement.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much from your druggist or at the store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.—Adv.

According to figures compiled by State Auditor Preus the state road and bridge fund this year will realize for the highways of Minnesota $1,405,000. This estimate is made on the 1915 tax levy. Mr. Preus has certified to George W. Cooley, engineer of the state highway commission, a statement of the estimated receipts for 1916 that will accrue to the state road and bridge fund.

The 1-mill tax levy on 1915 valuation, Mr Preus finds, will bring him $1,4[illegible]; interest on internal improvement land fund, $12,000; receipts from government land sales, $700, and moneys from Babock trust licenses $500.

The estimate of the 1915 tax levy, Mr. Preus says, is made smaller on account of the 1915 apportionment's exceeding the receipts from the 1914 tax levy by $38,000.

Urges "Seed Corn Week."

Governor Burnquist has issued an executive letter to corn growers of Minnesota calling their attention to the fact that seed corn should be selected this year with more than ordinary care because the 1915 corn crop was under-developed. A seed corn week has been designated.

The governor's communication follows:

"It has been called to my attention that the seed corn situation is a serious one in the Northwest because of the under-development of the corn crop of 1915.

"It is asserted by those who are in a position to know that very little corn of the 1915 crop shows sufficient vitality to warrant planting without making a test of each ear and much is so low in germination that new seed will have to be procured.

"In nearly every county there is to be found some 1914 corn from which good seed can be obtained if it has been well cribbed. The authorities in some of the neighboring states have recognized that the matter of seed corn is so important that a week has been designated by them as "Seed Corn Week." Let us hope that farmers of Minnesota will also join in making a thorough test of their seed corn.

The Governor's letter asks cooperation and encouragement on the part of all citizens.

Preus, state auditor It reveals that in the last year the state tax on liquor licenses has decreased $10,996.50. The 2 per cent tax on liquor licenses levied by the state brought a return in 1914 of $48,293.36 and in 1915 the amount collected by the tax was $37,297.89 The returns of the tax are used to maintain the hospital farm for inebriates at Willmar.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from your druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than one ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.—Adv

The Wheat Yield Tells the Story of Western Canada's Rapid Progress

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The heavy crops in Western Canada have caused new records to be made in the handling of grains by railroads. For, while the movement of these heavy shipments has been wonderfully rapid, the resources of the different roads, despite enlarged equipments and increased facilities, have been strained as never before, and previous records have thus been broken in all directions.

The largest Canadian wheat shipments through New York ever known are reported for the period up to October 15th, upwards of four and a quarter million bushels being exported in less than six weeks, and this was but the overflow of shipments to Montreal, through which point shipments were much larger than to New York.

Yields as high as 60 bushels of wheat per acre are reported from all parts of the country; while yields of 45 bushels per acre are common.

Thousands of American farmers have taken part in this wonderful production Land prices are still low and free homestead lands are easily secured in good localities, convenient to churches, schools, markets, railways, etc.

There is no war tax on land and no conscription.

STAND ON TARIFF INDORSED

Estabrook's Convincing Statement of Situation Is Praised by Former New Hampshire Governor.

N. J. Bachelder, former Governor of New Hampshire, former Master of the National Grange, and for 26 years Secretary of Agriculture for the state of New Hampshire, has endorsed Henry D. Estabrook's discussion of the tariff, as it affects the farmer, in unqualified terms. Mr. Estabrook is one of the two candidates for the nomination for President of the United States for whom Minnesota Republicans will vote at the Primary on March 14th. Governor Bachelder's letter to Mr. Estabrook is as follows:

Highland Farm, East Andover, N. H.,
January 25, 1916.

My dear Mr. Estabrook.

I have received a copy of your address to farmers entitled "The Farmer and the Tariff," and I have read this carefully and with the greatest interest.

It is a clear and convincing statement of the situation of the American farmers today and of what they have to face in the near future, and I trust that the farmers of the Western States will take to heart what you have said, which I know to be true in every respect.

It is a great satisfaction to me to find that you are so ably and fearlessly bringing these facts to the attention of western farmers, and that you so thoroughly understand farming conditions in the necessary course of the real farm life as well as in the larger matters of wise policy for the happiness and progress of farmers. Your address is the only one that I have ever read, by a candidate for the Presidential nomination, which shows actual knowledge of agricultural affairs and a sympathetic insight into the great needs of farming.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) N. J. BACHELDER.

Agricultural products should be the first to receive protection, and the very last to lose protection, in any proper governmental policy.—Henry D. Estabrook.

DEMOCRATIC PLEDGE BROKEN

Henry D. Estabrook, Candidate for Republican Presidential Nomination, Scores Opposition Party.

Not one of the pledges made by the Democratic leaders to the American people when their tariff law was enacted has been redeemed. They promised that their law would reduce the cost of living; that it would extend the markets for American products; that it would not interfere with American industry, and that it would provide adequate revenues for the purposes of the government. It is not necessary to argue the assertion that none of these promises has been made good. Every intelligent man—and there is no man of keener intelligence on such questions than the American farmer of today—knows that only the intervention of the war in Europe prevented the visitation upon the United States, as a drastic result of this Democratic tariff, of business and industrial depression and calamity such as the country has never known. Our Democratic friends, with their usual consistency, first blamed the war for the disastrous conditions resulting from their tariff policy, and then, when the war had resulted in a feverish, hectic, unnatural prosperity, they were even quicker to claim that their legislative and administrative policies were responsible for this prosperity. They thus demonstrated only, that, if they were not statesmen, they were at least accomplished acrobats, capable of turning back somersaults so rapidly that the human eye can scarcely follow their gyrations.

But they have not fooled the country. I doubt that they have even fooled themselves. The country knows, and they know, that the war has saved us but temporarily from suffering the full effects of our folly in electing a Democratic Congress and a Democratic President, and thus making a Democratic tariff possible. After the war will come the deluge.—Henry D. Estabrook.

WHAT ESTABROOK STANDS FOR

His Position on All Pending Issues Epitomized in Words—"Protection, Prosperity and Preparedness."

In his letter authorizing Nebraska Republicans to present him as candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination, Henry D. Estabrook of New York stated frankly his position on all pending issues. He epitomized these issues in the words—"Protection, Prosperity and Preparedness."

Protection, he said, properly comes first for there can be no great prosperity in this country without it—protection for the American farmer, the American laborer and the American manufacturer; American markets for American products.

Preparedness Program.

His preparedness or national defense program includes a navy the equal of any navy in the world, a standing army of 150,000 to 200,000 men, a reserve army of ten times that number, military training for the youth of the land in our public schools, high schools and colleges, and a merchant marine.

Mr. Estabrook favors a system of rural credits or land banks, the national development of waterways, an absolutely square deal for every class of citizenship and every commercial enterprise and the conservation of the national resources—"not the absolute withdrawal of our natural resources from present use for the sole use of generations yet unborn, but their economical use by those now living."

Under the free trade policy of the Democratic party our farmers are now forced to compete under free trade conditions not only with Canada, but with the entire world.—Henry D. Estabrook.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your druggist or at the store. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish tinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.—Adv.

Taking a Short Cut.

"I'm perfectly willing to help you," said the practical philanthropist, "but you ought to try to help yourself when the occasion presents itself."

"The last time I did that it got me into a whole lot of trouble," answered the shabby visitor. "In fact, I spent some years in durance vile."

"What do you mean?"

A GRATEFUL ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Mr. F. C. Case of Welcome Lake, Pa., writes: "I suffered with Backache and Kidney Trouble. My head ached, my sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I felt heavy and sleepy after meals, was always nervous and tired, had a bitter taste in my mouth, was dizzy, had floating specks before my eyes, was always thirsty, had a dragging sensation across my loins, difficulty in collecting my thoughts and was troubled with shortness of breath. Dodds Kidney Pills have cured me of these complaints. You are at liberty to publish this letter for the benefit of any sufferer who doubts the merit of Dodds Kidney Pills."

"CASCARETS" FOR SLUGGISH BOWELS

No sick headache, sour stomach, biliousness or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken. Adv.

CARRANZA STOPS PLOT TO MURDER MORE AMERICANS

TROOPS HOLD UP TRAIN AND WARN MORMON'S OF VILLA'S PLANS, ACCORDING TO CONSUL AT EL PASO, TEXAS.

U. S. CENSORS ALL NEWS OF TROOP MOVEMENTS

Attitude of De Facto Government's Forces on Proposed American Invasion Not Known—Six Hundred Carranzista Soldiers Reported Near Columbus.

El Paso, Texas, March 13.—Villa's plan to massacre 500 American Mormon colonists of Chihuahua at Guzman, Mexico, has been foiled by the Carranzistas, Andres Garcia, Carranza consul here, reports.

The train on which the Mormons were fleeing toward the border was stopped by Carranzistas, who were warned of Villa's plans by General Gavira, Carranza commandant at Juarez.

The whereabouts of the Mormon train is not known to Garcia, but he stated that all trains on the Mexican and Northwestern railroad were stopped pending the result of Villa's movement. This order affected the regular train which left Casas Grandes for Guzman six hours ahead of the Mormon special.

Plan to Intercept Americans.

According to Garcia and Gavira, they had positive information that Villa planned to intercept the Mormons at Guzman and massacre all. The Carranzista officials said they were informed Villa left La Ascension at daybreak for Guzman, only 36 miles distant, and would have had ample time to prepare to ambush the American colonists. The Carranzistas were confident the Mormons would now escape the trap.

Fear for the safety of the Mormons almost overshadowed interest in the proposed invasion of Mexico by American troops to capture Villa dead or alive and wipe out his bandit followers.

Strict Censorship in Effect.

No step toward executing President Wilson's orders was apparent here before noon. A strict censorship was in effect, although Brigadier General Pershing at Fort Bliss stated at 9:30 a. m. that he knew nothing of any contemplated troop movements. Pershing said the orders, if any, were given to General Funston at San Antonio.

Funston was expected to start for El Paso at once, according to the belief of army officials.

While 600 Carranzista troops have arrived at Palamos, Mex., eight miles south of Columbus, it was not known what their attitude toward the proposed American invasion would be.

NO NEED FOR VOLUNTEERS.

Washington, March 13.—Secretary of War Baker states that the War department has been deluged with telegrams from individuals and organizations offering service as volunteers for Mexico service. There was at present, he said, no need for summoning volunteers to the colors, although the department appreciated fully the patriotic spirit behind the offers.

Carranza's Men Reported in Raid.

Douglas, Ariz., March 14.—Further reports of the alleged raid on American ranches south of Osborn Junction, Ariz., stated that a command of Carranza soldiers, who had been drinking, were encamped for the night near Osborn, while on the way from Naco, Sonora, to Agua Prieta, Sonora. They amused themselves by roping cattle and horses belonging to the American ranchers, whose property extended both sides of the international boundary. The Mexicans did not cross the line themselves.

Little Resistance at Trebizond.

Petrograd, March 13.—The Turkish port of Trebizond will be surrendered to the Russians with little or no resistance, according to Tiflis dispatches. Big guns in the harbor have been dismantled and all the city's valuable stores removed. Russian van guards are now within less than a day's march of the city. The Russian fleet is harassing the retreating Turks by shelling the roads lying close to the Black Sea shore.

Funston Has Big Task.

El Paso, Texas, March 13.—General Funston's orders to invade Mexico and bring back Villa, "dead or alive," is the largest organized man hunt ever attempted and will cover a territory more than 400 miles long and 400 miles wide. And Villa knows every desert, waterhole, cattle trail and mountain fastness contained in the entire 160,000 square miles. Villa's present forces are estimated at 3,000, according to an estimate telegraphed Washington officials.

NO CONSCRIPTION IN CANADA

No War Tax on Land—Embargo on Shipment of Live Stock Removed.

During the prevalence of the foot and-mouth disease in some portions of the United States, an embargo was placed upon inter-state shipments. This also had an effect upon shipments to Canada, and necessarily an embargo was placed upon them, making it almost impossible for upwards of a year to ship cattle into Canada, from the United States. This was especially hard on the settler. As a result, Western Canada lost a number of settlers, they being unable to take their live stock with them. Canada is practically free from horse and cattle diseases, and the wish of the authorities is to keep it so.

Recently, though, an order has been issued by the Department of Agriculture, removing the embargo, and settlers are now free to take in the number of head of horses or cattle that are permitted by the Customs authorities and the freight regulations. This will be welcome news to those whose intention it is to move to Canada, taking with them stock that they have had in their possession for six months, and which it is the intention to use on land that they will farm in the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta.

There are thousands of splendid homesteads of 160 acres each in any of these provinces that may be had upon the payment of a ten-dollar entry fee and fulfilling the requisite living and cultivation duties. These lands are well adapted to the growing of all the small grains, and besides, having an abundance of grass, and sufficient shelter, they are well adapted to the raising of stock.

If one prepares to purchase land, there could be no better time than the present. Prices are low, and particulars may be had from any of the land companies, of which there are several, or from the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern railways, whose holdings are in the older settled districts, and whose terms are exceedingly easy to the settler. What these lands will do in the matter of production cannot be more strongly emphasized than in reading the reports of the crops throughout all parts of the Canadian West in 1915. Yields of 50, 60, and as high as 70 bushels of wheat to the acre were numerous, while reports of yields of from 30 to 45 bushels per acre were common. Oats as high as 120 bushels per acre are reported, 50 and 60 bushels per acre being ordinary. The prices realized by farmers have placed most of them on "easy street."

Lately there have appeared articles in a number of United States newspapers to the effect that there was conscription in Canada, or that such a law was likely to be put into effect. We have it from the highest authority in the Dominion that there is no truth in the statement. Sir Robert Borden at the opening of Canadian parliament on January 17th, said:

"In the first few months of the war I clearly stated that there would not be conscription in Canada. I repeat that statement today."

This statement should set at rest the conscription talk that has been so freely used to influence those who may be considering settling in Canada during the war.

It has also been said that there was a war tax on land. Hon. Dr Roche, Minister of the Interior, over his own signature has denied this, and the premiers of the different provinces join in saying "such a report is absolutely untrue, and has no foundation whatever in fact nor is there likely ever to be any such tax upon land in Canada."

The general prosperity of Western Canada farmers and business institutions is such that Canada is well able to take care of the extra war expenses without any direct war taxation. This has been well illustrated by the magnificent response to the Dominion Government's recent bond issue, which was more than doubly subscribed for within the first eight hours of its being offered to the public.

PRESIDENT HOLDS GERMAN TERMS OF PEACE, IS REPORT

RECEIVES OUTLINE OF NEW PROPOSALS FROM COLONEL HOUSE ACCORDING TO RUMOR IN WASHINGTON.

SPOILS FOR GREECE; NOTHING FOR ENGLAND.

Alleged Teuton View of Proper Settlement Following End of War, Provides for No Indemnities—Would Return Belgian and French Territory.

Washington, D. C., March 14.—President Wilson, it is understood on good authority, has in hand, without any definite use to make of them, the peace terms that are likely to be heard from Berlin if the crown prince takes Verdun.

E. M. House, shortly after his return from Germany, it is said, laid before the President Germany's tentative proposals as modified by recent months of warfare. Colonel House did not go to Berlin to discuss possible peace terms, but it is said he did receive an outline of the German view of a proper settlement following the end of the war.

Terms Germany Would Consider.

That German colonies taken by the Entente Allies be returned to Germany.

That Montenegro, Serbia and Albania be divided between Austria, Bulgaria and Greece.

That an autonomous government be established in Poland.

That Turkey be entirely freed of British influences.

That Germany return Belgium and those portions of French territory now in possession of the kaiser's army.

That Russia assume possesion of Persia.

British to Receive Nothing.

That England remain as she now is, neither giving nor receiving anything.

A high German official said that both sides "ought to pretty thoroughly understand by now that there could be no demands for indemnities," and as for Germany's retaining Belgium, he added: "There is no longer any thought of it by the German government."

Regarding other terms of peace, it is the belief of the German government, according to reports said to have been made to President Wilson, that the only way to establish order in the Balkans is to distribute the land inhabited by the Albanians, Montenegrins and Serbians between Austria, Bulgaria and Greece.

DEPOSITS BREAK RECORDS

Minneapolis Moves Into New Position Among Cities of United States—Big Gain Made in Year.

Minneapolis, March 14.—The figures $171,331,777.32 move Minneapolis into new financial position among cities of the United States. This is the total of bank deposits that will be shown when statements called for to the close of business March 7 are compiled.

The former high record is broken. It was made Dec. 31, 1915, when the total mounted to $169,620,223.49.

The present statement shows that they are carrying $38,000,000 more than at the time the corresponding call last year was issued, March 4, 1915.

NAVAL BATTLE IS IMPENDING

Greatest Struggle in History for Supremacy of Seas Expected—Squadrons Again Reported Seen.

Rotterdam, March 14.—There is little doubt here that the greatest naval battle of history is impending in the North sea between the augmented German fleet and the British navy.

Widely circulated reports that the 50 war craft of the Teuton nation had put back to their base are generally discredited in the face of repeated dispatches from points along the coast that the squadron has been sighted by small vessels.

It is said that the largest part of the German navy has been massed for a decisive struggle that is to settle once and for all the question of whether England shall continue as dictator of the ocean.

California Army Post Destroyed.

Monterery, Cal., March 14.—The headquarters building of the presidio was destroyed by fire about six hours after being vacated by troops of the First cavalry who left for the Mexican border. Firemen attempting to extinguish the flames found that the water supply had been shut off at the source. An investigation was started immediately. Monterery was the Spanish and Mexican capital of California and the presidio occupies the site of the ancient military headquarters.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

Three Hundred Million Bushel Crop in 1915

Farmers pay for their land with one year's crop and prosperity was never so great.

Regarding Western Canada as a grain producer, a prominent business man says: "Canada's position today is sounder than ever. There is more wheat, more oats, more grain for feed, 20% more cattle than last year and more hogs. The war market in Europe needs our surplus. As for the wheat crop, it is marvelous and a monument of strength for business confidence to build upon, exceeding the most optimistic predictions."

Wheat averaged in 1915 over 25 bushels per acre
Oats averaged in 1915 over 45 bushels per acre
Barley averaged in 1915 over 40 bushels per acre

Prices are high, markets convenient, excellent land, low in price either improved or otherwise, ranging from $12 to $30 per acre. Free homestead lands are plentiful and not far from railway lines and convenient to good schools and churches. The climate is healthful.

There is no war tax on land, nor is there any conscription. For complete information as to best locations for settlement, reduced railroad rates and descriptive illustrated pamphlet, address Superintendent Immigration, Ottawa, or

It's time to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, purely vegetable and free from alcohol or narcotics. It will search out impure and poisonous matter and drive it from the system. Buy "Discovery" now in tablets or liquid.

It will dissolve the poisonous accumulations and replace the bad blood it drives out, with rich, pure blood full of vital force.

It will clear the skin, eczema pimples, rash, blotches will dry up and disappear; boils, carbuncles and other evidences of tainted blood will pass away, never to appear again.

A NEW DISCOVERY

"Anuric" is a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments at Dr. Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that "Anuric" is a wonderful eliminator of uric acid. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—as backache, scalding urine and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, it is simply wonderful how surely "Anuric" acts; and in gravel and gout, invariably the pains and stiffness rapidly disappear.

Go to your nearest drug store and simply ask for a 50-cent package of "Anuric," or send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial pkg.

STATE BREVITIES

Fergus Falls.—A long fight over the Sunday theater question was ended here when the city council adopted an ordinance forbidding Sunday shows or other entertainments, except religous.

Albert Lea.—The right eye of Hugo Bremer, a young farmer, was torn from its socket when a splinter of wood flew from a tree. This is the third accident of its kind in the Bremer family.

Owatonna.—The Steele County Agricultural association has decided to hold its annual county fair the week previous to the holding of the state fair. The dates will be Aug. 31 and Sept. 1 and 2.

Red Wing.—This city's voters will be asked to consider a bond issue of $170,000 for the erection of new school buildings and the remodeling of the high school, at a special election to be held Monday, March 27.

Winona.—Headed by Bishop P. R. Heffron of the Catholic diocese of Winona, a large delegation of Winona Catholic clergy was in St. Paul to attend the funeral of Father Henry Jajeski, who was killed in his church.

Dayton, Hennepin county, has made plans for a farmers' short course to be given under the direction of the agricultural extension division of the University of Minnesota, in co-operation with the Dayton short course committee.

Mankato.—City Commissioner Robert Lamm, was chosen mayor by the city council to fill the unexpired term of Mayor A. G. Meyer, who died. Former Commissioner Jud. J. Humiston was chosen to succeed Lamm in the council.

St. Paul.—A labor temple, costing about $50,000, will be erected at Cedar street and Summit avenue during the coming summer by the St. Paul Local Union of the United Brotherhood, Carpenters and Joiners of America. R. F. Schroeder, assistant county attorney, and a member of the carpenters' organization, made this annoucement.

Minneapolis.—J. A. Broderick, chief of the auditing force of the federal reserve board, Washington, was at the Minneapolis Federal Reserve bank weighing up the $14,000,000 in gold that the bank's vault holds and counting up assets that total nearly $31,000,000. Mr. Broderick had two assistants with him. It was expected that the work would require two days.

Bemidji.—James George, county auditor, and Attorney A. A. Andrews have gone to Washington to seek an amendment to the Volstead act so the bonus money from land sales will go to the county where the land is located instead of to the Federal government. This would mean several hundred thousand dollars to Beltrami and Koochiching counties.

St. Paul.—There is a greater quantity of wheat and oats and less corn on Minnesota farms than a year ago, according to the March crop report issued by the Federal bureau of crop statistics. The unusually poor quality of the 1915 crop is shown by the statement that "the percentage of the 1915 crop which was of merchantable quality is estimated at 12 per cent compared with 88 per cent of the 1914 crop and 85 per cent of the 1913 crop."

Duluth.—Servetus W. Clark, G. A. R. verteran, Mason and prominent resident of Duluth for 34 years, died here aged 72 years. He served two years in the Civil war and was present at Appomattox, at the surrender of General Lee to General Grant and his staff. He was one of the 20 charter members of Joshua B. Culver Post No. 128, G. A. R., and at the time of his death was one of the six surviving charter members.

Mankato.—Dates for some of the county fairs of the Second congressional district were fixed at a meeting of the Second District Fair Officers' association here, as follows: Faribault county, at Blue Earth, August 30, 31 and September 1; Murray county, at Slayton, September 7, 8 and 9; Watonwan county at St. James, September 11, 12 and 13; Jackson county, at Jackson, September 14, 15 and 16; Cottonwood county, at Windom, September 18, 19 and 20; Nobles county, at Worthington, September 21, 22 and 23; Redwood county, at Redwood Falls, September 27, 28 and 29.

Minneapolis, Minn.—While Carl Swanson and Ray Hawkins, alias Hawkes, were being brought to Minneapolis by Chief Martinson and his secretary, Edward Fitzgerald, to answer a charge of murder in connection with the hold-up and shooting of Godfrey Carlson in his meat shop on Riverside avenue, the St. Louis police located James Spencer, named by the two men as their accomplice.

Spencer, according to a telegram received from William Young, St. Louis chief of police, was sentenced to the reformatory at Boonville, Mo., February 14 for burglary. Questioned at the reformatory, he is said to have admitted that he was with Swanson and Hawkins when Carlson was murdered.

Winona.—At the annual meeting of the Southwestern Minnesota and Western Wisconsin Beekeepers' association here the beekeepers went on record as favoring uniform state taxation of bees. In some counties it is said that bees are taxed and in others they are not.

Mankato.—The will of the late Mrs. Flora Gates Haynes leaves $2,000 to the Minnesota Baptist state convention, $1,000 to the American Baptist Foreign Missionary society and three fourths of the proceeds of the sale of her home in this city to the First Baptist church here.

DRINK LOTS OF WATER TO FLUSH THE KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat and Take Salts for Backache or Bladder Trouble—Neutralize Acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

Fashions Set by Soldiers.

Alexander the Great is said to be responsible for men shaving their faces, the Baltimore Sun observes. When his phalanx swept into Asia the beards of his soldiers were found to be a source of danger to themselves. In hand to hand encounters with the enemy the latter were found to possess too great an advantage in being able to grasp the beard. As a matter of military necessity Alexander ordered all his fighting men to shave. Today in the trenches of Europe soldiers are permitting their beards to grow as a protection against cold—again a necessity of war—and doubtless the wearing of beards will be very generally revived in consequence.

The Optimist.

Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, praising optimism, said:

"When I am looking for cheery, bracing optimism I often think of the street musician playing 'Christmas Awake' on a cornet in the midst of a driving snowstorm on Christmas day.

"The snow fell, the wind blew, and the musician, standing in a deep drift, tooted away when a lady passed.

"The man looked down at his shabby attire and said to himself proudly and optimistically:

"'How lucky it is only my shoes that's full of holes. They don't show at all in this deep snow.'"—Washington Star.

STOPPED SHORT

Taking Tonics, and Built up on Right Food.

The mistake is frequently made of trying to build up a worn-out nervous system on so-called tonics.

New material from which to rebuild used up tissue cells is what should be supplied, and this can be obtained only from proper food.

"I found myself on the verge of a nervous collapse, due to overwork and study, and to illness in the family," writes a Wisconsin woman.

"My friends became alarmed because I grew pale and thin and could not sleep nights. I took various tonics, but their effects wore off shortly after I stopped taking them. My food did not seem to nourish me.

"Reading of Grape-Nuts, I determined to stop the tonics and see what a change of diet would do. I ate Grape-Nuts four times a day with cream, and drank milk also, went to bed early after eating a dish of Grape-Nuts.

"In about two weeks I was sleeping soundly. In a short time gained weight and felt like a different woman. Grape-Nuts and fresh air were the only agents used to accomplish the happy results." "There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

AUTO TAX FUNDS TO GO TO ROADS, SOON

MONEYS COLLECTED BY STATE, AVAILABLE AUGUST 1, ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES.

EVENTS AT STATE CAPITOL

Interesting and Important Happenings of the Past Few Days Selected and Arranged for the Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

Beginning August 1 next, all moneys collected by the state automobile registration department for the year ending with that date will be available for state road and bridge purposes. A ruling to this effect has just been made by Attorney General Smith. Deductions are to be made for expenses incurred by the department, which is in charge of the secretary of state. Mr. Schmahl said that he thought the earnings of his department by next August would be between $100,000 and $120,000. Beginning January 1, 1917, the cost of automobile licenses will be increased to $5 each and the revenue in consequence will be many times greater.

Automobile registration in Minnesota is more than 93,000. Tags have been ordered with numbers running to the 100,000 mark, and Mr. Schmahl expects that the figure will be reached in a few weeks. Numerous requests have already been made for license No. 100,000 and requests are also in for license No. 99,999.

Reports High Fire Loss Ratio.

Minnesota citizens paid for fire insurance in 1915 the sum of $8,324,855.90. The companies in the same period paid them $4,908,101.34, the latter figure representing the aggregate of adjusted losses. The figures are in an official statement by Samuel D. Works, state insurance companies which collected $7,648,000 in premiums and paid out $4,529,000, which represents a fire loss ratio of 59.2 per cent, the highest since 1911, when the loss ratio was 61 per cent.

Mr. Works said there had been a reduction in cost of insurance, which he hoped would be further reduced the coming year as the result of his order placing rates in the state on a basis. The average premium rate in 1915 was $1.25 a $100 of insurance, compared with $1.30 in 1914.

Certifies School Allotment.

C. G. Schulz, state superintendent of education, has certified to the state auditor the March apportionment of the current school fund, amounting to $885,962.70 and derived from the 1 mill state tax and partly from the interest on the permanent school fund. The average total enrollment of the state schools is 421,887, and the March distribution allows the districts $2.10 for each pupil, compared with $3.55 allowed in the April apportionment. Hennepin county, with 54,486 pupils, leads with an allotment of $114,420. St. Louis county, with 34,028, will get $71,458, and Ramsey county with 30,621 pupils, receives $64,304.

Would Improve Girls' Home.

The state board of control has decided to ask the next state legislature for money to build two additional cottages and a central heating plant at the Home School for Girls, Sauk Center. The decision followed a special visit of inspection to the school by the entire board. The board placed 27 girls on parole, making 108 in all now out on parole, with 198 left in the institution.

'Phone Companies Delinquent.

There are 258 Minnesota telephone companies delinquent, out of about 2,000 in the state, in paying their 1915 gross earnings taxes. A. C. Gooding, state treasurer, has attached the 10 per cent penalty required by law to the unpaid taxes, which range in amounts from 26 cents to $1,012.

Smith Receives Complaints.

Many complaints alleging violations of the liquor laws are being received by Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith, who says that it will require his entire staff to follow them up. "I am writing in answer to all complaints," said Mr. Smith, "that I am willing to give assistance."

May Raise U's Fees.

It's going to cost a [illegible] yearly to do [illegible] the university's academic college, if the board of Regents authorizes an increase in fees. Heavy increase in enrollment out of proportion to the increase in size of the teaching body has led to the raising project. The amount suggested is $5 each semester, which for a total of about 1,600 students would bring in about $16,000 a year. Dean Johnston of the college has prepared a statement of the situation in justification of the proposed fee raising.

Colds Make Backs Ache

MORE aching backs, more kidney troubles come in March, than in any other month. Slushy sidewalks, dampness, raw winds and sudden changes cause chills and colds. And chills or colds tend to hurt the kidneys. It is good sense to use a kidney remedy when recovering from a cold and at any time when suffering from a lame back, sharp pains when stooping or lifting, dizzy spells, irregular or annoying kidney action, and a run-down, nervous state.

Don't delay and take a chance of getting dropsy, gravel, Bright's disease or some other serious kidney disease. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the best-recommended, special kidney remedy. All over the world grateful people frankly praise Doan's.

Here's What North Dakota People Say:

Samuel Pickett, 812 N. Fourth St., Grand Forks, N. D., says: "For years I was bothered by lameness and soreness in my back. Mornings when I got up it was hard for me to move. The least cold I got settled in my kidneys and made me suffer worse. Finally I tried Doan's Kidney Pills and they removed every symptom of the trouble. I have had no return attacks."

Mrs. M. Christenson, Bottineau, N. D., says: "The first sign of kidney trouble in my case was a dull ache in the small of my back, followed by headaches and dizzy spells. I was extremely nervous and mornings felt lame and worn out. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage, too. Every cold I got made these troubles worse. Doan's Kidney Pills have put me in much better health and have relieved the pains and aches in my back."

IS CHILD CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless, children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

The Province of MANITOBA, CANADA Calls for Farm Helpers

[illegible] urgent [illegible] for farm workers this Spring for the [illegible]. [illegible] Owing to the keen demand for all kinds of foodstuffs caused by the war, together with the enlistment of so many thousands of our young men, the farmers of Manitoba find themselves face to face with a serious labor shortage. In order to encourage farmers' sons and other farm workers from the United States to answer to this call the Railway Companies are offering reduced rates to all such passengers from all points on the International boundary line northward, going West in Canada. This will enable anyone who wishes to see Western Canada to do so at a very small cost and will permit inspection at first hand of the thousands of acres of cheap land which are still available.

The scale of wages for experienced men will run from $[illegible] to $45.00 per month according to experience, and it is estimated that from 3,000 to 3,500 such men are needed. In order to allay any apprehension on the question it may be asserted that absolutely no military obligation of whatever sort is imposed upon anyone coming into or living in Canada.

HIGH PRICES—GOOD CROPS

And Good Demand for All Farm Products.

It is no new experience for settlers located in a fertile country such as Western Canada, where lands may be bought at very reasonable prices, to harvest a crop that in one season pays the entire cost of their farm. Undoubtedly this was the experience of many farmers during 1915, but one instance may be quoted. A settler who came to Canada from the United States some years ago decided to add to his holdings by buying an adjoining quarter section near his home at Warner, at $20.00 an acre, with terms spread over a period of years. He got the land into a good state of cultivation and last spring put the whole quarter section in wheat. When the crop was threshed he found that it only took half the wheat on the farm to pay the whole purchase price of it; in short a single year's crop paid the cost of the land, paid all the expenses of operation and left him a handsome surplus as profit. This settler had some adjoining land, and his whole wheat crop for the season amounted to over 18,000 bushels. He is now planning to obtain some sheep and invest his profits in live stock which will assure him a good living irrespective of what the season may happen to be.

Canada's financial position is excellent. All speculation has been eliminated, and trading is done on a cash basis, with restricted credit.

Detailed figures of Canada's trade for twelve months ending October 31 show how the war is forcing Canadian trade into new channels. One of the most extraordinary changes is in commerce with the United States. A couple of years ago Canada imported from the United States two or three hundred million dollars' worth of goods more than she exported. The balance of trade was all with the United States. The balance is rapidly disappearing, and the present outlook is that by the end of this year Canada will have exported to the United States more than she has imported.

The figures for the past four years are illuminating. They are as follows:

	Exports.	Imports.
1912	$145,721,650	$412,657,022
1913	179,050,796	442,341,840
1914	213,493,406	421,074,528
1915	314,118,774	346,569,924

Four years ago, in 1912, the balance of trade in favor of the United States was no less than two hundred and sixty-seven millions, and this year, the balance is reduced to only thirty-two millions. The figures are extraordinary and reflect the changed and new conditions in Canada. It looks as if for the first time in nearly half a century this year Canada will sell more to the United States than she will buy from the Americans.—Advertisement

MOTHER! LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is ofttimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

State News in Brief

Doings of Last Few Days Throughout Minnesota Condensed for Hasty Perusal.

Duluth. — The Minneapolis East high school debating team won by a two to one vote its debate with the team of Central high of Duluth.

Mankato. — Mrs. Anna Christine Anderson, lacking less than a year of reaching the century mark, is dead at the home of her daughter-in-law, near here.

Faribault.—The plans for the buildings of the new packing plant have arrived. Bids for their construction will be received from Faribault and Twin City contractors.

Montevideo.—A baby welfare meeting was held in the high school building under the auspices of the Tuesday Study club. Upward of 100 babies competed for the prizes in the various classes.

Winona. — A "bible class" of 10 members has just been given the first degree of the Knights of Pythias here. High officials witnessed the taking of the oath on the original bible on which the order was started.

Winona. — Leslie Allen, a Winona boy, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen, now reside in Minneapolis, has appealed for release from the British navy on the ground that he is a subject of the United States.

Duluth. — Mrs. Alexander Henricksen is at a Duluth hospital with a dangerous wound at the base of her skull, and her husband has a severe scalp wound and a bullet wound in the arm as a result of a bold attempted robbery at noon.

Thief River Falls. — An important meeting for the discussion of the treatment of peat lands is scheduled for this month, when Professor Alway, soil expert of the state university, will meet with business men and farmers of this locality.

St. Paul.—Rev. Henry Jajeski, pastor of St. Casimir's church, who was shot and killed by Mrs. Aniela Dudek of Minneapolis, a former parishioner, left an estate of $6,450, according to the petition for letters of administration filed in probate court.

St. Cloud. — More than 250 prisoners in the St. Cloud state reformatory were tested in the "ordeal by fire" and not one was found wanting when flames threatened the institution. The fire burned the roof off the storehouse and damaged the tailor shop.

Hawley. — At the annual meeting of the Clay County Federation of Farmers' Clubs, held in this city, plans for a big county picnic day were laid. The picnic will be held in June or July, the date to be fixed soon by the federation officers.

Duluth. — With a total of $30,511,287.81, deposits in Duluth's four national banks are now at their high point. Statements of conditions as on March 7, made at the call of the comptroller of the treasury, were reported gratifying in every respect.

St. Paul.—The landslide vote for V. R. Irvin for mayor of St. Paul, the utter defeat of Commissioner Anthony Yoerg, and the failure of Mayor Winn Powers to take even second place in the mayoralty race, were the outstanding features of the St. Paul primaries.

Bemidji. — This city will show a population of 10,000 when the new city directory is completed June 1, is the belief here. In 1914 the city had 6,937 residents. With the annexation of Nymore this spring it is believed the population will reach 10,000. Nymore had 1,400 in 1914.

St. Cloud. — While members of the normal faculty here were making arrangements for the entertainment of several hundred educators arriving for the meeting of the Central Minnesota Educational association, Waite A. Shomaker, president of the state normal school fourteen years, died at Lawrence hall annex.

St. Paul. — Senator A. B. Cummins of Iowa carried the state easily against Henry D. Estabrook of New York in the presidential preference primary election. William Grant Webster, the Chicago "unknown," is recorded as receiving a scattering few votes. The Cummins delegation will be headed by two former governors, S. R. Van Sant and A. O. Eberhart, and by the "old war horse" of Lac qui Parle, J. F. Jacobson. The fourth delegate-at-large is in doubt with Fred C. Stevens of St. Paul, A. A. D. Rahn of Minneapolis and James Manahan of St. Paul leading for the place.

Woodrow Wilson had no opposition on the democratic ticket, but the figures show that thousands of democratic voters failed to mark the president's name. The battle was between the supporters and opponents of Fred B. Lynch, national committeeman. The Lynch candidates, indorsed by the conference at St. Paul, Feb. 3, appear to have won out in the state at large and in most of the districts. Anti-Lynch men declare the fight is not yet over, but the outlook now favors Mr. Lynch's re-election at St. Louis in June.

Duluth. — The government's ice report on Lake Superior, just given out, shows that the Duluth field has lost five miles in the past week. Two Harbors, Minn., reports broken ice in the harbor and a moving field. South shore harbors report solid and thick ice. Port Arthur is ice-bound.

Mesaba. — While crossing Birch lake, eighteen miles east of this village, William C. Taft of Utica, N. Y., was surrounded and attacked by a pack of seven timber wolves. Taft had no weapon except a pocket knife with which he killed two of the wolves before assistance reached him.

Synthetic Eggs.

An Austrian scientist of Graz is said to have been making synthetic eggs. He has been able to extract the albumen contained in the blood of bullocks, sheep, pigs, and other animals slaughtered for human consumption, and to present it in such a form that it has no trace of its origin, either in taste or smell. As prepared by his system, it is a coarse, yellow powder to which he has given the name of haematalb. His process has already been applied in a number of German and Austrian abattoirs, and haematalb is in use in many hospitals of the central empires as a substitute for eggs. It dissolves in water, and can also be used in the preparation of pastry and other dishes.

Increased Capacity for Work Since Leaving Off Coffee.

Many former coffee drinkers who have mental work to perform day after day, have found a better capacity and greater endurance by using Postum instead of coffee. An Illinois woman writes:

"I had drank coffee for about twenty years, and finally had what the doctor called 'coffee heart.' I was nervous and extremely despondent; had little mental or physical strength left; had kidney trouble and constipation.

"The first noticeable benefit which followed the change from coffee to Postum was the improved action of the kidneys and bowels. In two weeks my heart action was greatly improved and my nerves steadier.

"Then I became less despondent, and the desire to be active again showed proof of renewed physical and mental strength.

"I formerly did mental work and had to give it up on account of coffee, but since using Postum I am doing hard mental labor with less fatigue." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms:

Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled, 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both forms are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

EVENTS AT STATE CAPITOL

Interesting and Important Happenings of the Past Few Days Selected and Arranged for the Convenience of Busy Readers.

Backed solidly by the business men and commercial organizations of the state, the University of Minnesota has taken a step in advance of any state institution in the country and has announced a residential course of one year in retail merchandising. Further the University will, during the coming scholastic year, offer a four-year course in business education, culminating in the degree Bachelor of Arts.

The projected courses were discussed in detail at a conference between members of development and civic societies and members of the University faculty.

President Vincent in outlining the work told the business men that it was to be divided into three general classes: the evening extension courses for those engaged in day work in the Twin Cities; the one-year short course, really an extension of the merchant's short course offered last year with marked success and finally the four year's business course leading to a bachelor of arts degree.

To Spend Millions On Roads.

Minnesota will improve more than 3,000 miles of roads at an aggregate cost of $7,453,451, according to figures prepared in the office of George W. Cooley, state engineer of the Minnesota Highway commission. More than 1,000 miles, will be graveled, and more than 2,000 graded. These figures were obtained through the total in the state apportionment, the amount of the county road and bridge levies, and the sum spent last year by the townships.

The amount of the state apportionment was $1,500,000, made up of the state road levy and the amount received from motor vehicle taxation. The county road and bridge tax brought in $2,753,451, and the townships $3,200,000.

Of the total, about $4,000,000 will be used under the supervision of the highway commission. Besides the amount raised from taxation, Winona county is planning a bond issue of $500,000 to be spent on roads and bridges.

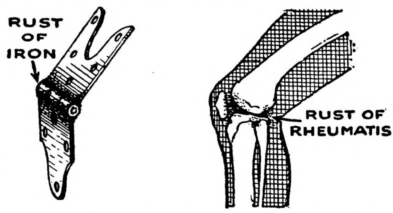
DRINK HOT WATER AND RID JOINTS OF RHEUMATIC RUST

Why rheumatism and lumbago sufferers should drink phosphated hot water each morning before breakfast



Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste material, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons, called uric acid, is formed and then sucked into the blood where it continues to circulate, collecting grain by grain in the joints of the body much like rust collects on the hinge as shown above.

Men and women who suffer from lumbago, rheumatism or sore, stiff, aching joints should begin drinking phosphated hot water, not as a means to magic relief from pain, but to prevent more uric acid forming in the system. Before eating breakfast each morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will first neutralize and then wash out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's accumulation of toxins and poisons; thus, cleansing, sweetening, and freshening the entire alimentary canal, each morning, before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make any rheumatic or lumbago sufferer an enthusiast on the morning inside bath.

Millions of people keep their joints free from these rheumatic acids by practicing this daily internal sanitation. A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate, drank before breakfast, is wonderfully invigorating; besides, it is an excellent health measure because it cleanses the alimentary organs of all the waste, gases and sour fermentations, making one look and feel clean, sweet and fresh all day.

Those who try this for one week may find themselves free from sick headaches, constipation, bilious attacks, sallowness, nasty breath and stomach acidity.

It May Be.

Efficiency built the Panama Canal, after inefficiency failed. The efficiency of the Panama Canal doubled the effectiveness of the U. S. Navy without adding a ship to it. It took over 8,000 miles out of the trip from New York to San Francisco and changed the highway between London and Australia from Suez to Panama.

Efficiency insures against lost motion—it produces the utmost service out of equipment and yields the finest product, at the least cost.

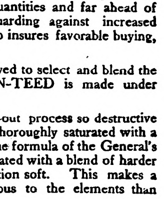
Certain-teed
Roofing
is an efficiency product

Every advantage that men, money and machinery can offer is used to increase the production, maintain the quality and lower the cost. Each of the General's enormous mills is advantageously located to serve the ends of efficient manufacture and quick distribution. Each is equipped with the most up-to-date machinery. Raw materials are purchased in enormous quantities and far ahead of the needs of manufacturing, thus guarding against increased cost due to idle machinery. This also insures favorable buying, and the pick of the market.

Expert chemists at each mill are employed to select and blend the asphalts, and every roll of CERTAIN-TEED is made under their watchful care.

CERTAIN-TEED resists the drying-out process so destructive to ordinary roofing, because the felt is thoroughly saturated with a blend of soft asphalts, prepared under the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphalts, which keeps the inner saturation soft. This makes a roofing more pliable, and more impervious to the elements than the harder, drier kind.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles.



There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it lasts longer.

KIDNEYS CLOG UP FROM EATING TOO MUCH MEAT

Take Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers—Meat Forms Uric Acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.

Women Once Invalids

Now in Good Health Through Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Say it is Household Necessity. Doctor Called it a Miracle.

All women ought to know the wonderful effects of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound even on those who seem hopelessly ill. Here are three actual cases:

Harrisburg, Penn.—"When I was single I suffered a great deal from female weakness because my work compelled me to stand all day. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for that and was made stronger by its use. After I was married I took the Compound again for a female trouble and after three months I passed what the doctor called a growth. He said it was a miracle that it came away as one generally goes under the knife to have them removed. I never want to be without your Compound in the house."—Mrs. FRANK KNOBL, 1642 Fulton St., Harrisburg, Penn.

Hardly Able to Move.

Albert Lea, Minn.—"For about a year I had sharp pains across my back and hips and was hardly able to move around the house. My head would ache and I was dizzy and had no appetite. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, I am feeling stronger than for years. I have a little boy eight months old and am doing my work all alone. I would not be without your remedies in the house as there are none like them."—Mrs. F. E. YOST, 611 Water St., Albert Lea, Minn.

Three Doctors Gave Her Up.

Pittsburg, Penn.—"Your medicine has helped me wonderfully. When I was a girl 18 years old I was always sickly and delicate and suffered from irregularities. Three doctors gave me up and said I would go into consumption. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and with the third bottle began to feel better. I soon became regular and I got strong and shortly after I was married. Now I have two nice stout healthy children and am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. CLEMENTINA DUERRING, 34 Gardner St., Troy Hill, Pittsburg, Penn.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice,—it will be confidential.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."—Mrs. E. H. Bean, 525 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

SLAIN BECAUSE HE REFORMED

St. Louis' "Most Dangerous" Man Is Called "Snitch," and Then Shot.

LEFT OUT IN TREAT

Reformed Criminal Demands Reason, and Stranger Shoots Him—Dead Man Has Long Record of Unlawful Acts.

St. Louis.—William (Skippy) Rohan, once known as "the most dangerous man in St. Louis," was killed because he had reformed. The police have come to that conclusion.

When a gangster reforms, the police hold, he necessarily keeps out of jail. His companions immediately become suspicious of him and imagine he is enjoying immunity because he is "snitching." Rohan married and said he had reformed two years ago, after 22 years of criminal activity. He was shot through the heart, probably by one of his own gang, in a saloon on North Broadway.

Witnesses to the shooting arrested by the police said Rohan was killed by "a stranger" who happened into the saloon, denounced Skippy as a "snitch" and fired five times at him. The slayer escaped. The murder of Rohan was the eleventh in St. Louis in three months. In only three of them have the police been able to get evidence in murder charges. Rohan was killed within a short distance from where John (Red) Murphy, a notorious gangster, was found shot to death, and a few doors from the saloon in which Charles Reutlinger was killed.

"You're a Snitch," Said Stranger.

A patrolman standing at Broadway and Cass avenue heard five shots in the Broadway saloon. He found Skippy's body lying on the sidewalk in front of the place. There were three men in the saloon—John Laker, the bartender; James J. Jeffries and August Hartmann.

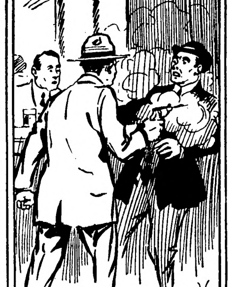
Laker said Rohan and several other men were lined up at the bar when a stranger entered and "set 'em up," to everybody in the place except Rohan.

"Why this slam at me?" asked Rohan, according to Laker's story.

"You're a snitch," replied the stranger, according to the bartender.

A quarrel followed, and the stranger drew a revolver and fired five shots. He fled as Rohan fell, dropping the revolver on the floor. Hartmann said Laker picked up the revolver and tried to thrust it into his pocket, but he pushed the bartender away. Hartmann said that he and Jeffries carried Rohan's body out of the saloon at the command of the bartender.

Rohan's police record began in 1892. His first sentence was to the Pontiac reformatory to serve three years for burglary. He escaped soon after being sentenced, and turned up in St. Louis a few months later. In 1892 he was sentenced to the Missouri penitentiary for shooting Detective O'Connell of the St. Louis police department.



Drew a Revolver and Fired Five Shots.

Escaped From Jail.

Three years later he was arrested, accused of killing Casper Beinford. While being held for trial he escaped from the city jail and three months later was arrested in Chicago, following a running fight with two policemen, in which one of the policemen was wounded.

In 1898 he was acquitted of a charge of murder, but sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for a diamond robbery. After his liberation he was sent to the workhouse to serve a sentence for stealing a pocketbook.

Rohan served three prison terms between 1902 and 1914, one of them in Sing Sing. He was arrested in East St. Louis in 1914 on suspicion, and attempted suicide in jail. After that he married the widow of Daniel Winn, who had four children. She did not discover Rohan's record until after her marriage, and then she declared she would reform him. She did. Since his reform Rohan has been working as a shoeworker.

SOME WESTERN CANADA GRAIN REPORTS

In its issue of February 24th, 1916, the Wadena (Minn.) Pioneer Journal has the following letter from Western Canada written by Walter Gloedeu, who is renewing his subscription to his home paper: "The times we are having up here are very good in spite of the war. I have had very good crops this fall and we are having very good markets for it all. Wheat went from 30 to 60 bu. to the acre, oats from 50 to 100 bu. to the acre. I had an 18-acre field of oats which yielded me 115 bu. per acre by machine measure, so I think this is a pretty prosperous country. I have purchased another quarter section, which makes me now the owner of three-quarters of a section of land. The weather was very nice this fall up to Christmas, then we had quite severe weather, but at the present time it is very nice again."

Oats 115 Bushels Per Acre.

"I lived many years in Alberta; filed a homestead in the Edmonton district; own property in several parts of Alberta. I found it one of the best countries I ever saw; its banking system is better than that of the United States; one quarter section I own, with about $4,000.00 worth of improvements, pays $18.00 a year taxes. All tax is on the land; implements and personals are not taxed. I was secretary-treasurer of Aspelund school district for two years. My duties were to assess all the land in the district, collect the tax, expend it ($1,000.00 a year), hire a teacher, etc., for the sum of $25.00 a year. Some economy, eh!

One of the Best Countries I Ever Saw.

"All school and road taxes are expended in the districts where they are collected. There are no other taxes. Land titles are guaranteed by the government and an abstract costs fifty cents. Half of the population of Alberta are Americans or from Eastern Canada. (Sgd.) WILL TRUCKENMILLER." Advertisement.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BACK HURTS

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

CAVALRY LOCATES VILLA; BELIEVED HUNT NEAR END

UNITED STATES TROOPS UNDER COLONEL DODD REPORTED CLOSE ON REAR GUARD OF OUTLAWS.

BANDIT CHIEFTAIN HAS 200 SOLDIERS WITH HIM

Is Located Near Entrance of Santa Clara Canyon—Dispatches Confirm Reports that Carranza Troops Had Come in Contact with Villistas.

El Paso, Texas, March 27.—Slipping through a circle of enemies under cover of night, Villa, the bandit, has escaped from the net, according to reports received here.

El Paso, Texas, March 27.—General Gavira at Juarez states that American cavalry under Colonel George Dodd located Villa and his main force in the Santa Clara canyon.

The United States troops were close upon Villa's rear guard, according to Gavira. Gavira's statement renewed hopes here that the pursuers might close in on the outlaw and bring the man hunt to a sudden, successful close.

Bandits in Wild Region.

Villa had 200 followers with him, Gavira said. The bandits were located about 30 miles from the western entrance of the canyon, which is a short distance east of Namiquipa and in a wild district without road or trail.

Several thousand American soldiers are known to be ranging the country south of Casas Grandes in every direction, trying to locate the bandit, but have not come into contact with him. Wire communication out of El Paso into Mexico is still interrupted and it is believed that roving bands of Villa men are responsible for the wire cutting.

Waits for News of Battle.

Mexican Consul Garcia was still waiting further word of the fight reported between Carranza soldiers and Villa at El Oso.

Dispatches received at Mexico City and Douglas, Ariz., apparently confirm the reports to El Paso from General Bertani in the field that the troops of the de facto government had come into contact with Villa in the Santa Clara canyon. General Pershing has made no mention of this battle and army officers here incline to the belief that it was probably no more than an outpost engagement.

Only 200 at Agua Prieta.

Colonel Foltz, commanding the troops at Douglas, disposed of the rumor that Carranza troops were being massed along the border. He reported that the garrison at Agua Prieta, opposite Douglas, comprised only 200 officers and men and that there was but one battery of artillery.

COMMERCE RAIDER IS SUNK

German Warship Facing Destruction By British Fire, Torpedoes Conqueror in North Sea.

London, March 27.—The story of one of the most thrilling naval fights of the war was told in an admiralty statement, announcing the sinking of the German commerce raider Grief and the British auxiliary cruiser Alcantara in the North sea, with a loss of 254 lives.

The engagement occurred Feb. 29. The admiralty withheld the news, though 120 German prisoners were taken, in order that the word might not reach the German admiralty. The story was made public when a wireless message from Berlin, picked up by English stations, revealed the news that the sinking of the Grief was known there.

London, March 27.—Reports just received here state that the auxiliary ship Aurora of the Shackleton Antarctic expedition, which was damaged in the ice and is now proceeding to New Zealand for repairs, is not in distress or in need of assistance. The latest message indicates that the Aurora is proceeding under her own team. Reuter's Melbourne correspondent telegraphs that if necessary a relief ship will be dispatched from New Zealand to meet the Aurora. A wireless station is in touch with her.

Split in German Socialist Party.

Berlin, March 27.—The long-expected split in the German Socialist party as the result of the political situation created by the submarine warfare controversy in the Reichstag has just occurred. A new party, consisting of 18 Socialist members, was constituted by the radical wing after a Socialist caucus had decided to exclude Deputy Haase for a breach of discipline.

The total number of Socialist members in the Reichstag is 100. The dissenting minority on the last vote consisted of 30 Socialists.

AMERICAN TROOPS MAY FACE SERIOUS SHORTAGE OF FOOD

MAY BE RETARDED IN PURSUIT OF OUTLAWS UNLESS PERMISSION TO USE RAILWAYS IS GRANTED.

VILLA PREPARING TO RESIST U. S. FORCES

Evidence That Bandit Leader Intends to Make Stand is Collected by Scouts—Flying Columns Seal Up Trails and Passes in Mountains.

Field Headquarters, American Expeditionary Force, Colonia Dublan, Chihuahua, Mexico, March 28.—(By Aeroplane to Columbus, N. M.)—Unless permission is granted soon for the shipment of supplies over one of the railroads to the American troops in Mexico the pursuit of Villa may be seriously retarded. It was explained at department headquarters that the lengthening lines of communication along heavy trails had made it practically impossible to deliver supplies by auto trucks and that already a serious shortage of grain for horses and mules had been experienced.

Americans Prove Superiors.

Horses, mules and automobiles have done the work and success this far has been attained by the ability of the American cavalry to travel fast and far on light rations. Several cavalry organizations have been out for more than a week on a little beef, salt, coffee and rice or beans. Not a word of complaint has come back from these troopers. Reports here give good cause for belief that thus far the American troopers have proven themselves the superiors in speed and endurance over the Villa bandits.

Bandits to Resist Americans.

Evidence that Francisco Villa is preparing to resist the American pursuing columns and that the Mexican people are not as yet rallying to him has been collected by the officers and the scouts of the American troops.

Flying columns of American cavalry are seeking to entrap Pancho Villa and his band by sealing up all the trails and passes in the mountainous district south of El Valle. Once the outlets are barred squadrons of cavalry and detachments of infantry, operating from the base near Casas Grandes, will comb the country and endeavor to flush their quarry in the open.

Outlaws Moving Rapidly.

Villa and his band are moving rapidly among the foothills of Sierra Tarahumares, hotly pursued by three columns of American cavalry. Col. George E. Dodd is directing the cavalry movement.

This information confirms reports of American travelers from the Casas Grandes district that Villa had escaped through the lines of the Carranza troops. Mexican Consul Garcia does not believe the Carranza forces permitted the bandit to escape.

LITERACY TEST IS UPHELD

Is Retained in Immigration Bill By Vote—Question to Come Up Again, Later.

Washington, March 28.—The literacy test was kept in the immigration bill by the house, working in committee of the whole, by a vote of 225 to 82, which defeated a motion by Representative A. J. Sabath of Illinois to strike it out. The question comes up again when the house votes on the bill as a whole.

An amendment to exempt from the literacy test persons coming to this country to escape either religious or political persecution was rejected, 140 to 43.

The bill as drawn would exempt only persons persecuted for religious beliefs.

Attack on Allies at Saloniki Begun.

Athens, March 28.—Dispatches from Saloniki say the frontier actions which had been considered as trying out operations on the part of the Bulgarians and Germans, are now assuming the character of a general attack against the Allies. Considerable vigor is being displayed and heavy artillery is being employed on both sides. It is said that in both military and diplomatic circles of the Teutonic allies here is a belief that the long prophesied effort to drive the Allies into the sea has begun.

A MODERN DISCOVERY

The farmer will be proud to learn that in the search for the ideal beverage, the real thirst-quenching drink with health and sobriety in every glass, science has been obliged to resort to the grain product of the farm for its production. This new beverage, now capturing the taste of the country, is made from the juice of grains, without the addition of any malted cereal. It does not contain the alcohol found in grape juice, and hence can be handled and sold by any drink dispenser or merchant who keeps ice—for it must be served cold. With no malt or alcohol, it follows that this new drink, Golden Grain Juice, can be sold in all communities where malts and alcohols are forbidden. Any dealer who wants to be first in giving his trade this captivating beverage, should write at once to Golden Grain Juice Company, P. O. Box 2107, Minneapolis, Minn., for information.—Adv.

Hot Water Each Morning Puts Roses in Your Cheeks

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Girls and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexions, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

Women who desire to enhance the beauty of their complexion should just try this for a week and notice results.

State News in Brief

Doings of Last Few Days Throughout Minnesota Condensed for Hasty Perusal.

Winona.—The 320-acre farm, near the village of Utica, belonging to Charles H. Peabody, has been sold for $48,000.

Faribault.—The farmers' clubs of the southern part of Rice county have decided to hold a community picnic at Roberds lake June 15.

St. Cloud.—Petitions for county option elections in Benton county and for the removal of the court house from Foley to Sauk Rapids, may be circulated soon.

Moorhead.—This city will build a new high school costing approximately $125,000, as a result of approval given the board of education's action by a general committee of citizens.

Warren.—North Star college here has finished its campaign for funds by popular subscription to pay off its indebtedness. The amount raised is virtually $37,000, including a donation of $9,000 by J. J. Hill.

Thief River Falls.—Mrs. Annie Gryting, wife of Rev. Theodore Lewis Gryting, pastor of the Synod Norwegian Lutheran church at St. Hilaire, has filed suit for divorce, asking for alimony and the return of her maiden name.

Mankato.—Robert W. Hargadine, state fire marshal, has the indorsement of Blue Earth county Democracy for the Democratic nomination for governor. This indorsement follows similar action at Winona and elsewhere.

Wheaton.—Contracts have been let for the construction of fifteen ditches in Traverse county, which amounted to more than $150,000. Much of the progress in farm drainage is due to the work of the Traverse county farm bureau.

Albert Lea.—George Prange, a farmer living near Wells, has sold a hog that tipped the scales at 811 pounds. Prange received a check for $64.88 for the big fellow. On account of the shortage of corn the hog was said to be poor.

Mankato.—Deposits in the twenty-two banks of Blue Earth county total $8,288,903, and of this sum the banks of Mankato have $6,009,772. The total resources of the banks of the county are $9,864,760, and of the Mankato banks $7,065,703.

Winona.—The fact that George P. Tawney, former postmaster of Winona, and F. A. Duxbury, Caledonia lawyer, were in conference here led to a report in political circles that opposition to Representative Anderson in the First district is crystallizing.

New Richland.—The fourth name was added to the death list of the Minneapolis and St. Louis train wreck near New Richland, Minn., when A. J. McBride, flagman on the train telescoped by the rear-end collision, died at St. Mary's hospital in Minneapolis.

Mesaba.—Great activity in the Minnesota mining country has begun. Locomotives, steam shovels and other equipment at the Graham mine, No. 1 of the Oliver Iron Mining company, are being repaired by a large crew. The mine has been operated most of the winter and has a large stockpile, but is intended to get more ore from it.

Moorhead.—Banks of Clay county, according to a financial survey, have total deposits of $2,966,120.89, seven times greater than they were twenty years ago. The total capitalization is placed at $740,433.46. Generally satisfactory business conditions in the county also are cited by the report of the survey.

Mora.—The bankers of Mora have recognized the importance of industrial work of boys and girls on the farm by lending the boys and girls in the Mora Pig club $800 to buy thirty two pure bred Duroc-Jersey gilts. Each boy and each girl will be lent $25 without interest, the sum to be repaid when the first litter of pigs is sold.

Duluth.—William H. Lyons of the White Oak Point, Mississippi band of Chippewas, was here on his way from Washington to his home at Ballclub, Itasca county, after appearing before the Indian department in behalf of the members of his tribe. He asked the government to give the members of the tribe an additional allotment of 80 acres a head.

St. Paul.—Make the surroundings of every home in Minnesota beautiful by planting trees, shrubbery and flowers is the message sent to the people of the state in a proclamation issued by Governor Burnquist, designating April 28 as Arbor and Bird day. "In our schools special study of arboreal life should be encouraged by fitting exercises," he said.

Duluth.—With stocks of all grain in Duluth standing at 25,000,000 bushels there is approximately 3,000,000 bushels storage space remaining here after allowance is made for divisions of grades in the bins. It will depend, operators say, upon the extent of the all rail movement to the seaboard during the next week or two, whether congestion can be prevented.

St. Paul.—Election of Fred C. Stevens of St. Paul as fourth delegate at large on the republican delegation was conceded on receipt of returns from all but Aitkin and Koochiching counties at the office of the secretary of state. Totals from 84 counties give Stevens 24,588, O. J. Larson 24,060 and James Manahan [illegible]. Unofficial reports from the missing counties indicate a plurality of about 300 for Stevens over Larson. [illegible] has a safe lead for fourth place on the democratic ticket in the same counties with a vote of 24,236, to 23,[illegible] for W. A. [illegible] and 23,245 for A. C. Weiss.

Land Sales Bring $92,000.

Showing the heavy demand for state land, State Auditor Preus has disposed of nearly 10,000 acres in a number of northern Minnesota counties. The total amount realized for the state school fund from the sales held was approximately $92,000. At International Falls where the first of the sales was held, 2,395 acres were sold for $25,733. The second held at Duluth aided in the disposal of 5,899 acres at $62,910, and the third held at Aitkin saw 440 acres turned over to settlers for $3,040.

Alleges Risk Law Violation.

For the first time the statute prohibiting Minnesotans from being insured in companies that are not licensed here was invoked when S. D. Works, insurance commissioner, started suit against a Twin City company charging that the law has been violated. Mr. Works said the company had taken out policies with companies not licensed in Minnesota. "This sort of thing has been practiced in Minnesota for some time and I propose to break it up," he said. The alleged offense is a misdemeanor.

"YOU TOLD ME THE TRUTH AND I WANT THE PEOPLE TO KNOW IT"

The following unsolicited letter has been received from Mr. J. F. Ward of Donalda, Alberta. It is a plain statement of conditions as Mr. Ward has found them:

A Settler's Plain Letter.

"It is with pleasure I drop a line to you. We had a good year. Off of 65 acres, oats and wheat, I got over 2,500 bushels of wheat and oats. Oats went here from 50 to 100 bushels per acre, and wheat from 25 to 52 per acre. Just see me being here one year and have over 700 bushels of wheat. It is now over $1.00 per bushel. Oats is 42 cents, and going up. You told me the truth, and I want the people of Toledo to know it. Hogs are 8¾ cents; cattle are high. Canada is good enough for me. I have 5 good horses. I sold 2 good colts, 2 cows and 18 head of hogs and killed 2. I have 6 hogs left. I got 400 bushels of potatoes off an acre and a good garden last summer, fine celery and good onions. One neighbor had over 1,200 bushels of wheat, and sold over $700 of hogs and 2,000 bushels of oats. This is a great country. If you should tell the people of Toledo of this it would get some of them thinking. The soil is a rich black loam, and a pleasure to work it.

"We have a good farm. We have a flowing well with soft water. It is the best water in the country. Some people think they got to go to war when they come out here. They need not be afraid of war. There is no war tax on land; only school tax, $12.00 on 160 acres, and road tax of two days with your team. I tell you the truth, there is no land in or around Toledo as good as our land here in Alberta. If anybody wants to write us, give them our address.

"We have had nice weather. We have had it quite cold for one week, but no rain and sleet, and the sun shines nearly every day, and it is hot in the sun. Coal is $2.25 per ton. The people are very nice and good here. We are well enjoying the West. The horses and cows are feeding on the prairies all the winter. We just have two horses in the stable to go to town with. Yours truly, (Sgd.) J. F. WARD, Donalda, Alberta, Feb. 9, 1916."

Statement of Steve Schweitzberger

"I was born in Wisconsin, but moved with my parents when a boy to Stephen Co., Iowa. I was there farming for 50 years. I sold my land there for over $200 an acre. I moved to Saskatchewan, and located near Briercrest in the spring of 1912. I bought a half section of land. I have good neighbors. I feel quite at home here the same as in Iowa. We have perfect safety and no trouble in living up to the laws in force. My taxes are about $65 a year on the half section for everything. I have had splendid crops. Wheat in 1915 yielded me over 50 bushels to the acre. That is more than I have ever had in Iowa, and yet the land there costs four times as much as it does here. The man who comes here now and buys land at $50 an acre or less gets a bargain. (Sgd.) S. Schweitzberger, February 9th, 1916." Advertisement.

His Unlucky Days.

Seated in a row on the porch of an old-country inn, with their chairs tipped back, some old cronies were going on about unlucky days. After all had given what they considered their unlucky days, a quiet old chap at one end spoke up:

"Aa'll tell ye ma unlucky days. Aa's fund oot in ma time that it's unlucky to be struck wi' leetening on a Monday; or te be catched wiv a circular saw on a Tuesday; or te tumble overboard on a Wednesday, or te be run ower by a motor car on a Thursday; or lose a ten pun note on a Friday; or be bitten by a mad dog on a Saturday, and hev nowt for dinner on the Sunday!"

Holt Boy in The Philippines

With the detachment of U. S. Marines serving at our naval station at Cavite, Philippine Islands, is Herbert C. Severson, of this place.

Herbert, who is a son of Thorval Severson, of Holt, enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps at its St. Paul recruiting station on Nov. 10, 1915. Marines wear a distinctively military uniform, and their four year enlistment embodies sea, foreign shore and home duty.

Foreign service ranks easily first in the hearts of these "soldiers of the sea," and it is very likely that Severson's tour of tropical duty will be crowded with excitement and adventure, and that he will have many interesting narratives to recount to his friends when he returns to civil life.

Farmers' Bulletin No. 507 gives simple methods and full directions treating seed grain for smut and it will be sent free to all for the asking, by the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

There is considerable difference in the percentage or purity of Formaldehyde. One dealer may sell a 24 per cent and another a 48. In the treatment of small grains for smut twice as much of the 24 per cent would have to be used for each gallon of water, to get the results a 48 per cent Formaldehyde would give. Don't fail to treat seed for smut and keep the above in mind.

STOP EATING MEAT IF KIDNEYS OR BACK HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Clean Kidneys If Bladder Bothers You—Meat Forms Uric Acid.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and uninary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Adv.

Wireless Amateurs' Message.

It was a very pretty thing that the amateur wireless operators of the country did on the night before Washington's birthday. At midnight the hundreds of boys who make up that army sat waiting for a message from Davenport, Ia. When it came, everyone within hearing repeated it, and each boy who received it relayed it eastward in his turn, until it reached the operators of the Harvard Wireless club. They delivered it to a delegation of boy scouts, one of whom read it aloud from the platform of the town hall in Lexington. The message was this: "A democracy requires that a people who govern and educate themselves should be so armed and disciplined that they can protect themselves."—Youth's Companion.

Has a $100,000 Woodpile.

A $100,000 woodpile—walnut logs heaped over three blocks of ground—is waiting the completion of the new gunstock factory at Chillicothe, Mo. A force of 1,100 men is buying up the walnut timber in Kansas, Iowa, Illinois, Arkansas and Missouri. Trainloads of logs are arriving in Chillicothe daily. The factory already has a pay roll of 1,500 men and, when completed, will be the largest plant of its kind in the country. With a decrease in demand for guns the manufacturing of wooden ware, such as motor car and wagon spokes, will be taken up.

WISE HOSTESS

Won Her Guests to Postum.

Three great coffee drinkers were my old school friend and her two daughters.

"They were always complaining and taking medicine. I determined to give them Postum instead of coffee when they visited me, so without saying anything to them about it, I made a big pot of Postum the first morning.

"Before the meal was half over each one passed up her cup to be refilled remarking how fine the coffee' was. The mother asked for a third cup and inquired as to the brand of coffee I used. I didn't answer her question just then for I heard her say a while before that she didn't like Postum unless it was more than half coffee.

"After breakfast I told her that the 'coffee' she liked so well at breakfast was pure Postum, and the reason she liked it was because it was properly made.

"I have been brought up from a nervous, wretched invalid, to a fine condition of physical health by leaving off coffee and using Postum.

"I am doing all I can to help the world from coffee slavery to Postum freedom, and have earned the gratitude of many, many friends." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms:

Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c pkgs.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both forms are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

"There's a Reason" for Postum.

KEEP PLACE CLEAN SO FLIES WON'T BOTHER YOU

If you want to be rid of the fly evil this summer get the habit of keeping your premises clean. Once you get the habit it won't be much trouble to do so.

Drain your garbage, wrap it in paper and put it in a metal bucket with a fly-proof lid. Every day or two burn or bury this garbage or have it hauled away.

If you keep a horse, don't have a manure pile or bin. Put the manure is a small receptacle—say, a tin tub or a barrel which can be kept covered from flies. Have this taken away and spread on a field oftener than once a week.

If you have an outdoor toilet, see that the vault is closed up tight where the house fits over it. Use sod to make it so if you cannot get cement. Use plenty of lime on the sewage and keep covers on the seat holes.

Keep your house screened, keep a swatter handy and keep your eye peeled—for during cold or rainy weather a few flies almost surely will wander in. Vigilance and action on your part will so discourage the flies after one or two seasons that they will keep away from your premises.

Tell this to your neighbors and urge them to join you in the campaign against the fly pest. Pretty soon others will see the advantage of sanitation, and if there's any "git-up-and-git" in the neighborhood it will not be long until everybody in your end of the town will have the sanitary habit.

It is not expensive to get rid of flies. There are people who may feel they cannot afford to buy a garbage can or other little necessities of clean premises. Where there's a will there's a way. If you cannot afford today to spend any money, set your mind on cleaning up the place and do the best you can. Use such extra tubs and buckets as you have at hand. Above all, don't be lazy. Clean up right!

School Children Should Fight 'Em

The schools must help in the campaign against flies. Each of the various grades should take a particular part of the work, says a writer in the International Harvester company bulletin. Let one grade canvass the town and enlist the groceries, meat shops, restaurants and householders in a movement to clean up alleys and back yards, provide for proper disposition of garbage and for sanitary outhouses.

Another grade might make fly traps and sell them to the various grocers and butchers for use at their places of business and to the city authorities for use in public places. That was done successfully in Holland, Mich., last year.

Still another grade may collect all the information which can be secured on the subject of flies. All grades may write compositions on "The Fly," "The Fly's Travels," "Confessions of a Fly," "Dangers of a Housefly," and similar subjects. Prizes may be offered for the best essay from each grade.

Flies Diminish the Milk Flow By Annoying Cows

Cows seriously annoyed by flies do not give more than 60 per cent as much milk as they would ordinarily. It is to the advantage of farmers and others who keep cows to protect them from flies this summer. It can be done quite simply. In the first place, spray each animal with a mixture composed of three parts fish oil and one part kerosene. Apply it with a small spray pump. Secondly, keep the stable and barnyard as free as possible of manure. Remove it frequently and use some simple disinfectant freely about the premises.

Fly Talk Is Dirty

When people discuss the fly frankly and seriously they use dirty talk necessarily. It is a nasty subject, but we are bound to consider it for our own protection, and to take steps to abate the evil.

How does typhoid fever spread? Generally it is communicated when the solid and liquid food to be eaten by healthy persons is contaminated in some manner with human excrement from someone who has the disease.

This is where the house fly gets in its filthy work. Suppose your next door neighbor has typhoid fever. The waste matter cast from his intestinal tract is emptied into the outside toilet on his premises. Flies swarm about the toilet vault until dinner time at your house. Then some of them attend your meal. They alight on the food and poison it with germs either from their hairy feet or by depositing a speck which also contains germs.

Do not pooh pooh this statement. Ask your doctor if it is not the gospel truth. Then get busy and help kill the flies. Thus you may keep death out of your own home.

TEUTONS BOMBARD FRENCH RAILROAD; ARMY ENTERS VAUX

ARTILLERY SHELLS PARIS-VERDUN LINE—GERMAN TROOPS GAIN FOOTHOLD IN VILLAGE NEAR VERDUN.

TWENTY-EIGHT PERSONS KILLED IN AIR RAIDS

Zeppelin L-15 Which Visited Eastern Counties of England Drops Into Sea—Surrenders to British Patrol Boat—Crew Saved.

London, April 3.—In two fierce attacks with large numbers of troops, the Germans gained a foothold in Vaux village, five miles northeast of Verdun, the French war office admits. Paris also admits that German artillery has begun the bombardment of the Verdun-Paris railroad from Avocourt, six miles to the north.

The bombardment is believed to be a prelude to a German drive southward toward the railway and a general assault on French positions northwest of Verdun.

Accompanied by Air Battles.

The cannonade is being accompanied by hourly air battles. Convoyed by armored Fokkers, German airships are speeding along the railway, signalling the range to the crown prince's batteries. French airmen drive off the German flyers as each fresh squadron appears.

On the west bank of the Meuse bombardment in the region of Malancourt continued, but the Germans made no fresh infantry attacks. The Germans launched their first attack against Vaux village from the north. It was stopped by a French curtain of shell fire and infantry fire that threw the Teutons back with heavy losses.

Disregard Losses.

The Germans rushed forward to the second attack regardless of losses and after heavy fighting captured several houses in the western portion of the village.

Heavy artillery exchanges occurred in the Argonne, the French shelling effectively the railways north of Haute Chevauche.

The German victory at Malancourt renews the menace to all the French fortified positions on the west bank of the Meuse and the Germans are expected to follow up their advantage by a massed attack on Bethincourt and a new drive in the Avocourt region as soon as artillery can be brought up.

Zeppelin Is Destroyed.

Twenty-eight persons were killed and 44 injured in Friday night's air raid, according to official figures.

One of the five Zeppelins, the L-15, which visited the eastern counties of England during the night dropping some 90 bombs, was damaged, presumably by British anti-aircraft guns and came down off the Thames Estuary. It surrendered to British patrol boats. The crew was saved but the airship broke up and sank while being towed in.

It is said little damage was done.

Brandeis for the supreme court, has voted to recommend confirmation to the entire committee. Those voting for confirmation were Senators Chilton, Walsh and Fletcher, Democrats; against, Senators Cummins and Works, Republicans. The full committee is understood to stand practically even.

SLAV HOSPITAL SHIP SUNK

Russian Vessel, Portugal, Torpedoed Without Warning in Black Sea—115 Lives Lost.

Petrograd, April [illegible].—The Russian hospital ship Portugal has been sunk in the Black sea by a German submarine with the loss of 115 lives, it is officially announced. Among the missing are Count Tatischeff, Red Cross delegate; the Baroness Meyendorff, 14 other sisters of charity and 50 Russian and 29 French medical corps workers.

Lone Pirate Taken to New York.

Philadelphia, April 3.—Ernest Schiller, who forcibly took command of the British steamer Matoppo on the high seas, passed through Philadelphia in custody of detectives who were taking him to New York. He was removed from the jail at Lewes, Del., the detectives saying they had received information that a plot was on foot to rescue him. Schiller said while on the train he was anxious to learn whether the four accomplices who he said had agreed to assist him had gotten on board another steamer.

NAVY DEPARTMENT EXPOSED SECRETS, CHARGE IN HOUSE

FURNISHED SPECIFICATIONS OF GUNS AND OTHER FEATURES, MEMBERS OF NAVAL COMMITTEE ASSERT.

DANIELS IS SUBJECTED TO CROSS-EXAMINATION

Denies Any Knowledge of Charges—Designs Said to Be in Hands of Russia and Germany—Passage of Armor Plate Measure Urged.

Washington, April 4.—Accusing his department of having furnished specifications and intimate details of the 14-inch guns, armor strength, and other offensive and defensive features of the United States army to other governments "big navy" members of the House naval committee subjected Secretary Daniels to a gruelling cross-examination.

Representative Butler of Pennsylvania made the charges that the navy's plans and specifications had fallen into the hands of the Russian government and the Krupps under Daniel's administration. The secretary denied any knowledge of the charges.

Knows Nothing of Case.

"Do you remember having turned over to the Russian government the designs and specifications of our 14-inch gun, armor and other national effects during your administration?" Butler asked.

"I do not," Daniels replied.

"If that was done, I would say it was wrong?" Butler asked.

"Absolutely," Daniels retorted.

"Then you know nothing of the fact that the designs and specifications were furnished the Russian government under your administration," Butler insisted.

"I know nothing of it," Daniels replied.

To Ask for Letter.

"Will you ask Admiral Strauss for a copy of the letter sent to the Krupp company in Germany so we will know whether the specifications of our 14-inch guns were given to the German government?" Butler asked.

Daniels said he would ask for the letter. Daniels urged passage of the armor plate without amendment, opposing an amendment offered by Butler that the private armor manufacturers would be given contracts in case they would bid a price satisfactory to the secretary of the navy.

Objects to Armor Plate Price.

"I know it would be a costly experiment," Daniels said. "I know these armor plate dealers would not produce armor at any price without a large profit. I would not give to any secretary the power to deal with monopolies. It must be a public transaction. The rule of the secretary under your amendment would be final. A price that might be satisfactory to one secretary probably would not be to another. The whole proposition for private contract for armor plate manufacture is unsatisfactory to me."

Daniels said the armor plate delivery had been prompt and the quality satisfactory, the only objection being the price.

INVOLVED IN GERMAN PLOTS

Washington, April 4.—A quantity of correspondence belonging to Horst von Der Goltz, the alleged German spy, who has said he was the directing head of the plan to blow up the Welland canal, has been seized by Scotland Yard detectives and will be made public shortly by the British foreign office, according to an announcement by Department of Justice officials.

It is understood that the correspondence contains details of plans to blow up the Welland canal and of invasion of Canada from the United States. The letters now in possession of the British authorities are said to contain the names of persons in this country hitherto unmentioned.

Engineer Blamed For Train A[illegible].

Cleveland, Ohio, April 4.—Engineer Herman Hess has been dismissed by the New York Central railroad, it has just been learned as a result of the recent wreck at Amherst, Ohio. He is held responsible for the disaster by the railroad. Towerman Albert Ernst, one of the chief witnesses at the federal and state inquiry into the accident, will be retained as will Flagman Perry Beach, exonerated by General Superintendent A. S. Ingalls from the charge that he did not properly flag Hess' train.

Exciting Aerial Fight at a Height of 9,000 Feet—Lieutenant Brandon's Machine Hit Several Times by Zeppelin Machine Gun Bullets—Flies Above Enemy Craft.

London, April 4.—The Zeppelin raid was the third in as many successive nights. Raiders reached the coast of Scotland—the first they had been over that country and the farthest north Zeppelins had yet traveled. Other raiders visited northern and southeastern counties of England. Although many bombs were dropped official details were lacking up to the time of the filing of this dispatch as to the number of the raiders or the casualties.

London, April 4.—With the exception of the big air raid of January 31 when the casualties were 67 persons killed and 117 injured, the Zeppelin raids of Friday and Saturday nights caused greater loss of life than any previous aerial attack this year.

The coast of Scotland and the northern and southeastern counties of England were attacked by Zeppelins Sunday night, according to an official announcement by the secretary of war.

The total casualties for the two nights, according to an official report, were 59 persons killed and 166 wounded.

Defense Methods Improved.

As some sacrifice for life lost, however, the British public finds satisfaction in practical proof afforded of a great improvement in the defensive methods dealing with aerial incursions. For the first time since the inception of this method of warfare on the British coast not only has one raiding Zeppelin been brought down and its crew taken prisoner, but the official report recounts an exciting aerial fight between a Zeppelin and a British airman, Lieutenant Brandon, who mounting to a height of 9,000 feet, flew over the raider and dropped several bombs on it with effect.

Hit by Zeppelin Gun.

The machine of Lieutenant Brandon was hit several times by machine gun bullets from the Zeppelin. It is still unknown whether the Zeppelin in this fight was the L-15, which was brought down off the Thames estuary, or another craft which is believed to have dropped its machine gun, petrol tank and other parts.

Alfred Brandon, the British airman, is a native of Wellington, N. Z. He is 32 years old and only joined the flying corps last July.

Philadelphia, April 3.—Ernest Schiller, who forcibly took command of the British steamer Matoppo on the high seas, passed through Philadelphia in custody of detectives who were taking him to New York. He was removed from the jail at Lewes, Del., the detectives saying they had received information that a plot was on foot to rescue him. Schiller said while on the train he was anxious to learn whether the four accomplices who he said had agreed to assist him had gotten on board another steamer.

Rotterdam's Trade Grows.

The sea trade of Holland's great port, Rotterdam, was increased tremendously since the war broke out, and it is now necessary to deepen the channel connecting the port with the North sea to a depth of 38 feet, which later will be continued to 41 feet at high tide, the operation involving removal of more than 10,000,000 cubic yards of earth by dredging.

HE HAS HAD GRAND CROPS

And Likes the Laws in Western Canada.

"I lived near Lee, Illinois, for 46 years. I came to Saskatchewan in the spring of 1912 and bought land near Briercrest. I have farmed this land, 1680 acres, ever since. I have had grand crops. In 1914 I had 100 acres of wheat that yielded 40 bushels to the acre. I sold this wheat at $1.50 per bushel. I like the country and my neighbours. My taxes on each quarter section (160 acres) are about $32 a year. This covers municipal tax, school tax, hail insurance tax—everything. There is no war tax so-called. I like the laws in force here. There is no compulsion to me in any way. I am just as independent here as I was in Illinois, and I feel that my family and I are just as well protected by the laws of the province as we were in our old home in Illinois. What I earn here is my own. I have seven children and they take their places at school, in sports and at all public gatherings the same as the Canadian born.

There Is No War Tax So-Called.

We reprint the following article, complete, without comment, from the latest number of the "Saskatchewan Farmer," an agricultural paper published at Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan: "The attempt to check emigration from the United States to our prairie provinces by publishing alarming statements about the enormous war taxes that are being paid here—$500 on a quarter section yearly—about forcing young men to enlist for the war; about the cold, no crops and any old story that by its extravagant boldness might influence men and women from venturing north to Canada, is really in the list of curios to our people. Knowing the country, we can hardly take it seriously. Our governments, however, dominion and provincial, are taking steps to expose the false statements that are being made, and thereby keep the channel open for continuing the stream of settlers that has been flowing to us for the past decade.—Advertisement.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water each morning, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from any druggist or at the store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—Adv.

What's Doing in Minnesota

Julius H. Schmahl will again enter the list for the Republican nomination for secretary of state. Mr. Schmahl has personally made the announcement as to his future political intentions.

Luverne.—Haven Wiggins, 16 years old, has had the four fingers of his left hand severed by a circular saw. After the power had been cut off he experimented to see how much the saw would cut before it stopped.

Moorhead.—Plans whereby the Red River Valley association hopes to bring the Jefferson highway to this city, instead of by way of Brainerd, Minn., is promoted by the special committee of the association, which met here.

Cook.—C. E. Benson, special agent of the Indian department, has served notice in this village, Gheen, Angora and Cusson that the towns are in territory covered by the Indian treaty of 1855 and that it is illegal to sell or to bring liquor into them.

Duluth.—The Duluth G. A. R. posts' committee has withdrawn its tentative invitation to Senator Moses E. Clapp to be chief speaker at the exercises here Memorial day because of his vote against the administration on the recent Gore resolution.

Thief River Falls, Minn.—An experiment station for testing peat lands and making it fit for crops will probably be the outcome of the recent visit of Professor Alway of the extension department of the state university, who met with farmers at Mavie, Goodridge and in this city.

Minneapolis.—According to Adjutant General Wood, the Mexican troubles have not caused any unusual activity in respect to recruiting in the Minnesota guard. In fact he says the Twin City companies are about 350 men short of their normal strength. In the country districts the companies are nearly standard.

Crookston.—Superintendent C. G. Selvig called the roll of the senior class of the Northwest School of Agriculture here for the last time, when diplomas and certificates were awarded to fifty-seven students. The principal address was by W. F. Webster, principal of the East high school, Minneapolis, on "Responsibility."

Bemidji.—A loss of about $1,000 was sustained by the Minnesota & International Railway company in this city when a box car crashed through the yard office of that company at North Bemidji. The car is believed to have become derailed on account of icy tracks and the trucks of the car when they left the track turned the car into the building.

Caledonia.—Three children were burned to death in their home in the absence of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carson, living on the Minnesota side of the Red River, just east of Caledonia, according to word received here. Hot coals dumped close to the residence several hours before fired the straw banking on the side of the house.

St. Paul.—Frederick C. Stevens nosed out O. J. Larson of Duluth for the fourth place as delegate at large to the Republican national convention by 201 votes, according to official returns just made by the state canvassing board. The board allowed corrected returns from Hubbard county which added 100 votes to the total polled by Mr. Larson in that county.

Winona.—C. W. Hanson, who dropped dead in Winona recently, left his property to friends. He gave $500 each to Judge R. E. Looby, Judge William Burns and Peter Bender, all prominent residents. Downtown property was bequeathed to J. C. Meyer, brewing company agent. The Odd Fellows lodge received about $4,000. He had no relatives. The will has been filed.

Eveleth.—George E. Lee, president of the National Dom chapter of Eveleth, has been notified by George Brozich of Ely, supreme secretary of the South Slovenian Catholic Union of America, that the 1916 convention of the organization will be held here, beginning September and continuing eight days. Eveleth won by a large vote in competition with Joliet, Ill., and Lorraine, Ohio.

St. Paul.—Judges and clerks who presided at the recent presidential primary election will not receive additional pay where there was any other election or primary to necessitate their services, according to the ruling just made by Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith. The opinion was written on the petition of numerous election officials of the state, who wanted extra pay for the additional time spent because of the presidential primary law. For town elections, the pay provided by law is only $2 a day, while under the general election laws, judges and clerks are allowed 25 cents an hour for registering and receiving the ballots of voters and 30 cents an hour for counting and canvassing the result.

St. Paul.—More than 500 Gopher state boys and girls were to be guests at the university farm, St. Paul, during the week of April 3 to 7. J. P. Sheay of Hutchinson was to be accompanied by forty juvenile farmers, the largest delegation from any one town.

St. Paul.—[illegible] Van Sant [illegible] the [illegible] race according to a report from Minneapolis. [illegible] Eberhart in the delegate race but 10,000 votes behind the leader. Eberhart received 49,951 votes and Van Sant 39,276.

"U" PROGRAM FOR 12 TOWNS PLANNED

SERIES OF LECTURES ARRANGED BY EXTENSION DIVISION INCLUDES TWO CIRCUITS.

EVENTS AT STATE CAPITOL

Interesting and Important Happenings of the Past Few Days Selected and Arranged for the Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

The extension division of the University of Minnesota will furnish twelve Minnesota towns a "University week" in May and June.

"University week" is a unique form of service by the university to its constituents. It is, in effect, a traveling university. A six-day program similar to chautauqua programs is arranged for six towns in the northern circuit and a like number in the souththern part of the state.

The southern circuit will begin May 29 and embraces Zumbrota, St. Charles, Hayfield, Sleepy Eye, New Ulm and Minneota. The northern circuit will begin June 5 and includes Ada, Fertile, Hawley, Halstead, Twin Valley and McIntosh.

Last year twenty-four cities had "University weeks," but because of limited appropriations the extension service had to drop half of the towns and instead of four circuits have but two. The university also has been forced to raise the price of admission for the programs.

Big Year For Farmers.

"Just now is an unusually good time to seed lawns, and if the ground is not too soft for broadcast sowing, the clover and grass should be sown." Dean Albert F. Woods of the state agricultural college says. "The snow has gradually left and the frost is all gone and the ground is in unusually fine condition." Dean Wood's predicts a big year for Minnesota farmers. The present promise, he says, is that spring will go with a rush and that there will be no setbacks like there were last year.

In the southern part of the state the farmers are beginning to work the land.

"The fruit and small fruit generally is in excellent condition. Some varieties of plums may have been killed by that 34 degrees below zero weather but the outlook is good for a bumper apple crop and plenty of strawberries, raspberries, blackberries and other small fruits.

"Some time ago people over the state thought that Minnesota would be dependent upon Montana and other Western States for her seed corn, but the outlook just now is that Minnesota will be able to take care of herself and that the Western States will be the ones that will need help."

Claims For Bounties Unpaid.

When the next legislature meets the members will be confronted with claims totaling nearly $75,000 unpaid wolf bounties now being prepared by the various counties of the state. There are already on file in the office of State Auditor Iverson claims amounting to over $35,000. The last legislature appropriated only $10,000 for 1915 and this amount was exhausted almost in a week. When the money became available claims totaling over $21,000 had piled up, but Attorney General Smith in a ruling held that the money could not be used to clean up a deficiency. Since then no money has been paid out.

After a busy day spent on a tour of inspection of the First State Normal school Governor Burnquist returned to St. Paul well pleased with conditions as he found them. "They are doing a great work," he said. "I was particularly impressed with the Gilmore valley model school which is used by the normal to instruct rural teachers. A feature of the building is the suite of rooms set aside as a home for the teachers."

Could Extend Service.

Agriculture instructors in high schools could serve their communities well by testing seed for farmers, according to Prof. W. L. Oswald, university botanist, who addressed the Minnesota Association of High School Instructors at university farm. He credited many with having already undertaken such service but held that it could be extended. W. J. Corwin of the Grand Rapids high school told of activities of his department in promoting high school gardening and other farm interests.

Sudden Death

Caused by Disease of the Kidneys

The close connection between the heart and the kidneys is well known nowadays. When kidneys are diseased, arterial tension is increased and the heart functions are attacked. When the kidneys no longer pour forth waste, uremic poisoning occurs and the person dies, and the cause is often given as heart disease, or disease of brain or lungs.

It is a good insurance against such a risk to send 10 cents for a large trial package of "Anuric"—the latest discovery of Dr. Pierce. When you suffer from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, get "Anuric" at the druggist. It's 37 times more potent than lithia, dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.

Mud Lake Opening.

Promply at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning every squatter on Mud Lake was visible and making some kind of a noise to attract attention.

Some were on the roofs of their houses pounding away as if they had just made up their mind that a shingle or board needed to be fastened a little more securely. Those who were bound to have a homestead despite it being occupied by a squatter were ready to drive their stakes at ths appointed hour.

Others who take no stock in setting stakes, have filed on the lands, so there are very few homesteads there on which there are not from two to four filings. That there will be a number of contests, there is no doubt. For several days the hotels were taxed to their utmost to feed the hungry land seekers who came from all directions, both near and far, and the livery men had all they could do to furnish teams for trips to the much sought for lands. The squatters came in yesterday and made their filings before U. S. Commissioner William Michelet, who came here from Thief River Falls for that purpose. After laying in a fresn store of supplies and taking a short rest, they will return to Mud Lake to await the outcome of events or perhaps await a contest on their claims in court.

A resolution was passed fixing the fee for inspecting chimneys at 50 cents, said fee to be paid by owner or occupant of premises inspected, and fixing the salary of Fire Warden for his other duties at $5.00 per month to be paid by the village. C. L. Sanberg, S. S. Kolden and H. B. Young were appointed on the building committee for the new hall. The council met Tuesday evening and appointed Sam Mickelson and C. L. Sandberg, a committee to go to Middle River and get their plans for a village hall.

PROSPERITY IN WESTERN CANADA

900 Million Dollars in New Wealth Added in 1915.

Canada as a whole has enjoyed wonderful prosperity in 1915, from the products of the farm, the orchard and the centres of industry. No country wrote a brighter page of history in agricultural and industrial development during 1915 than Canada. Nearly a billion bushels of grain produced. Taxes in Western Canada average $24 and will not exceed $35 per quarter section, which includes all taxes. No taxes on improvements.

When Western Canada was faced with her enormous harvest last fall the military authorities decided that soldiers in Canada could give the Empire no better service for the time being than to assist in harvesting the crops. For that reason leave of absence was given to soldiers who wished to work in the harvest fields, and their labor was an important factor in harvesting the big crops successfully.

The necessity for increasing the agricultural production is commanding even more attention in 1916, and it is now announced that soldiers in Canada may obtain leave of absence from their military duties in the spring for a certain length of time to enable them to plant the seed for the crops in every Province of the Dominion.

The fact that the Government recognizes the seeding and harvesting of Canada's crops as being of the first importance is perhaps the best evidence that conscription or any increase of taxes which would reduce the agricultural activity of Canada will never be considered by the authorities.

Owing to the number who have enlisted for overseas service it has been found necessary to secure farm labor in the United States. It is hoped that fifty thousand can be secured.—Advertisement.

It takes a silly woman to make a fool of a smart man.

SALTS IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS TROUBLE YOU

Eat Less Meat If Your Kidneys Aren't Acting Right or If Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

FRENCH TRENCHES TAKEN BY GERMAN TROOPS IS REPORT

POSITIONS EXTENDING ALONG TERMITEN HILL, SOUTH OF HAUCOURT STORMED AND CAPTURED.

TEUTON ARMY IN AFRICA IS BEATEN BY BRITISH

Loses More Than 400 Men and Large Supplies of Ammunition and Machine Guns, Official Statement Says—German Casualties Reported Numerous.

London, April 10.—French trenches extending more than 2,000 yards along the crest of Termiten hill, south of Haucourt, have been stormed and captured by the German troops in their grim lunge to crumple the side of the Bethincourt salient at Verdun, according to the official announcement of the Berlin war department. The French war office has admitted the Teuton forces had gained a footing in two field redoubts between Hill 287 and Haucourt, the important position which have fallen before the attacks of the crown prince.

Counter Attacks Repulsed.

Vicious French counterattacks against the works taken by the Germans on Termitch hill have been repulsed, Berlin reports, the defeated troops losing 714 men made prisoners. On the other side of the salient, fighting with hand-grenades between Bethincourt and Chattancourt swung to the advantage of the Verdun defenders, Paris announces.

On the east bank of the Meuse, a German grenade attack near Fort Vaux was repulsed.

French Occupy Crater.

In the Argonne, says the official statement from the French war office, mine struggles resulted advantageously for the French in the vicinity of Daughert or Death hill. The French occupied the southern slope of a German mine crater on Hill 285.

On the Woevre front the night was calm, Paris reported. A German reconnaissance against Langenfeldkopf in the Vosges was repulsed.

The German war office reported only artillery combats east of the Meuse and in the Woevre region.

Germans Beaten in Africa.

The British success against the Germans in the campaign in East Africa include the capture of more than 400 men with machine guns and large supplies of ammunition, according to an official statement.

"Further reports from the south indicate that General Vandeventer's success in the Arusha district was more extensive than at first appeared," says the statement. "The German force surrounded and compelled to capitulate was considerable.

"The German casualties were numerous. Already 17 Europeans and 404 native soldiers have surrendered with machine guns and large quantities of ammunition. More prisoners remain to be brought in."

CANADIANS TAKE CRATERS

Inflict Heavy Losses on Germans, Witness Asserts.

Ottawa, Can., April 10.—According to a witness communication received from the front by the militia department German efforts were made during the week of March 28 to April 4 to dislodge the British troops from trenches captured March 27.

The attempt involved an action by Canadian troops in driving the Germans out of five fortified mine craters. From these craters the Germans attempted to seize another crater and prevent the linking up of the new British line with trenches.

On April 1, says the eyewitness, bomb squads from the Eighteenth Western Ontario and the Twenty-first Eastern Ontario battalions, under Lieutenants Speer and Brownlee were sent to capture the advanced positions.

Chicago Milk War Near End.

Chicago, April 10.—The milk war between producers in the Chicago district and the distributers in Chicago is practically at an end. Only one of the distributers, the Borden Condensed Milk company, has not agreed to buy milk at the new price, an increase of 22 cents a hundred pounds over the old price. Local officials of the company tentatively agreed to settle at the price demanded but announced their action would have to be ratified by the directors of the company at New York before contracts were signed.

The KITCHEN CABINET

Contentment is the true philosopher's stone. The poor are rich who have it, the rich are poor who possess it not.

Contentment comes not from outward possessions, but from the inward life.

GOOD THINGS TO KNOW.

When making cake a good plan is to add the soda or baking powder to a little of the flour the very last thing, stirring it in well before adding the whites of the eggs.

Keep absorbent paper in the kitchen on which to drain fried cakes, croquettes and any fried food.

A little beefsteak chopped fine and mixed with cooked rice, salt, pepper, and a little onion made into small cakes or used as filling for peppers, makes a tasty dish.

A common currycomb will clean the brush of the carpet sweeper of threads and hairs.

Spareribs With Sauerkraut.—Trim off the edges of two sets of spareribs, break the bone across the middle, rub well with salt, pepper, and sprinkle with flour. Fill with sauerkraut which has been parboiled 20 minutes. Save the water in which the kraut was cooked, sew the ribs tightly, place on the rack in a roaster, then pour the kraut liquor around it. Cook slowly. Turn once, and when tender serve with mashed potatoes.

Cornmeal Griddle Cakes.—Take a cupful of yellow cornmeal, add a cupful of boiling milk, a half teaspoonful of salt, teaspoonful of baking powder, one tablespoonful of melted butter and a tablespoonful of molasses with a well-beaten egg. Mix well and bake on a hot griddle.

Cornmeal With Raisins.—Take a cupful of cornmeal, two cupfuls of milk, one cupful of seeded raisins, one egg, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one teaspoonful of salt. Mix the cornmeal and milk together and the well-beaten egg and melted butter, add the salt, baking powder and raisins which have been well cleaned and put through the meat grinder. Mix all together and pour into a well-greased pan. Bake in a hot oven.

An egg broken into a pan with a little hot butter stirred until thick and well cooked, then seasoned and spread on buttered bread makes a most tasty sandwich filling.

Let your standard be high—and though you may not reach it, you can hardly fail to rise higher than if you aimed at some inferior excellence.

DISHES OF CORNMEAL.

Cornmeal is rich in fat and mineral matter, and being comparatively cheap when compared with other grain products is a food that can be used profitably in exchange with them for variety, as well as to cut down expenses.

Steamed Corn Bread.—There are few people who do not enjoy the nutty brown loaf of steamed bread, and this may be varied by adding different fruits or nuts to it so that it never becomes monotonous. Take four cupfuls of cornmeal, two cupfuls of graham, a cupful of finely chopped suet, mix well, then add three-fourths of a cupful of dark molasses, two teaspoonfuls of salt, three cupfuls of sour milk and a teaspoonful of soda. The soda may be mixed with the molasses. Add a cupful of stewed prunes cut fine, or a cupful of raisins, and steam in well-greased molds for four hours.

Cornmeal Mush.—A good old New Englander will not ask for a more tasty dish than a good bowl of well-cooked cornmeal mush and rich milk, with perhaps a wisp of salt codfish for an appetizer. To prepare the mush add a cupful of cornmeal very slowly to a quart of boiling water and two teaspoonfuls of salt. Let it cook slowly for an hour. The mush that is left may be poured into a mold and fried in butter after cutting in neat slices.

Scrapple is made by putting the pork scrapple into the hot mush, stirring until well mixed, then pouring into a mold to cool. This is cut in slices and fried and is a great delicacy.

Fried mush with cheese sauce is another well-liked dish. Prepare the sauce by using a tablespoonful of bubbling hot butter stirred with three tablespoonfuls of flour, a half teaspoonful of salt, a half teaspoonful of mustard and two cupfuls of milk. When smooth and thick add a cupful and a half of finely grated cheese, a rich American cheese is best, and when melted serve on the mush.

Grated maple sugar or maple sirup is good on fried mush or small fresh fruits such as strawberries served with sugar and cream makes a most tasty dessert.

A woman who can laugh outside when she is crying inside, has a great accomplishment.

That makes the sunshine everywhere.
—Riley.

JUST COMMON THINGS.

The ordinary vegetable may by a little manipulation, and combining with other foods, make a dish quite out of the ordinary. Here is one worth trying:

Pumpkin Scrapple.—Take a cupful of pumpkin pulp, stir it into a quart of boiling water with a half cupful each of cornmeal and hominy, well mixed, and a half teaspoonful of salt. Cook slowly one hour, stirring frequently, then add a cupful of broken hickorynut meats, pour into a shallow pan, making the scrapple about two inches thick. When cool and hard, cut into half-inch slices and fry in hot fat. Serve with maple sirup.

Turnip Soup.—Mix together a pint each of hot mashed turnips and potato, add a quart of scalded milk. In another dish place four tablespoonfuls of butter, and when melted and bubbling hot add two tablespoonfuls of flour, cook and add to the milk with three tablespoonfuls of scraped onion, two teaspoonfuls of salt and a few dashes of cayenne. Cool 20 minutes in a double boiler, then strain and serve. Sprinkle with grated cheese over the top.

Turnips, like cabbage, should be cooked in an uncovered vessel to make them less strong and more wholesome to eat.

Diced turnips, cooked until tender, then served with melted butter and lemon juice, makes a most tasty dish.

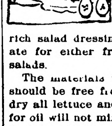
Peas With Peanuts.—Mix a pint of black peas with a pint of peanuts, chopped fine. Season well with salt, pepper and sage and place half the mixture in a buttered baking dish. On top place four slices of toast which have been softened in hot cream. Place the rest of the pea and nut mixture on top and pour over a half cupful of cream. Bake slowly an hour and a half. Serve with cranberry sauce. This will be a good meat substitute.

Salsify makes a most delicious soup, so do carrots. Cook them until tender, put through a sieve and then add to any stock or hot milk thickened with butter and flour cooked together.

For life is the mirror of king and slave,
'Tis just what you are and do;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you.
—Madeline Bridges.

SALAD MAKING.

The making of salad is an art, often the simplest combination, if carefully put together, will make an otherwise common salad an artistic creation. Lemon juice is preferred to vinegar when using fruit and heavy, rich salad dressings are not appropriate for either fruit or meat or fish salads.



The materials to be used for salad should be free from water. Carefully dry all lettuce and fruit after washing for oil will not mix with water. French dressing is the general favorite for crisp vegetable salads as it is quickly prepared. A vinegar that has been used on pickled beets, or cucumbers should always be saved to use in salad dressings. When making the boiled variety the spiced vinegar makes an unusual flavor which is well liked.

If a color scheme is to be carried out a little vegetable coloring may be added to the dressing. A pretty combination is chopped beets with a dressing colored a light pink. Garnish the salad with white leaves of lettuce.

A salad may not only fill an ornamental place on the table, but it is also recognized as having a distinct food value as well as a pleasure to the eye.

There is no more valuable asset in business than politeness and this is true in almost every section of society. FIFTIETH DAY OF FIGHT AT VERDUN; FRENCH GIVE WAY

GERMANS PENETRATE POSITIONS FOR DISTANCE OF 500 YARDS AT DEAD MAN'S HILL.

TOTAL LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES MORE THAN 200,000

Crown Prince Follows Up Advance at Bethincourt With Heavy Drives Against Enemy's Wings Five Miles Apart—Struggle Becoming More Furious.

London, April 11.—The greatest battle in the history of the world entered its 50th day with the crown prince driving home mighty blows and the fighting becoming more furious than since the early days of the campaign against Verdun.

On an arclike front the Germans are throwing more than 150,000 men into action, pounding simultaneously against the northwestern and northeastern gates to the French fortress.

Struggle Enters New Phase.

The French war office in admitting the loss of 500 yards of trenches on Dead Man's hill, emphasized that the struggle has entered a new phase. After squeezing the French out of the Bethincourt salient, the crown prince rushed up fresh troops without a moment's delay and ordered a general assault on both banks of the Meuse along a 13-mile front.

Since the Germans launched the campaign against Verdun with an artillery attack on the night of Feb. 21, they have rolled up the French lines on both banks of the Meuse, capturing about 150 square miles of territory and nearly 30 French villages.

Losses More Than 200,000.

Despite these successes, the most terrific artillery battering the world has ever known has won for the crown prince but one of the forts surrounding the city of Verdun. Since Fort Douaumont fell before the Brandenburgers' attack in the early days of the fighting, the Germans have been unable to make another breach in the French fortress line.

It is estimatetd that the losses on both sides have totaled well above 200,000, far more than were engaged on both sides in the battle of Waterloo.

French Troops Trapped.

Silesian troops cut off and captured 714 French prisoners and 15 large guns in the French retreat from Bethincourt, according to the official statement of the Berlin office. The enemy has been cleared of positions north of Avocourt and south of Crows wood. In these operations the Germans took 276 prisoners.

U. S. MAY BUY INVENTION

War Bill Provides $750,000 to Purchase Patents.

Washington, April 11.—For $750,000 a young American inventor is about to surrender to Uncle Sam all the patents and the exclusive right to the use of a device by which a torpedo can be launched against a battleship of an enemy and so directed and controlled by radio dynamic forces either from shore or from aeroplane as to insure its striking its mark at a maximum distance of 28 miles.

John Hayes Hammond, Jr., of Gloucester, Mass., the wizard son of John Hays Hammond, mining engineer, is the inventor and owner of 128 patents which will be turned over to the government.

Discovery that the government is willing to pay young Hammond a fortune for his invention was made with the introduction in the house of the fortifications bill. The sum of $750,000 was approved as a fair price, both by military officials and subcommittees.

REPORT MADE ON GASOLINE

Preliminary Statistics On Rise in Price Is Before Congress.

Washington, April 11.—The federal trade commission has presented to Congress a preliminary report on its investigation of the rise in the price in gasoline. The report carries a mass of statistics on production and prices, but draws no conclusions as to the cause of the increase of the latter.

There were 100,021,790 gallons of crude petroleum held in 1916, and the production of gasoline increased from 76,663,537 gallons in January, 1915, to 97,056,217 gallons in December.

Austrian Officials May Resign.

London, April 11.—A dispatch to the Morning Post says: "Count Tisza, the Hungarian premier and Baron Burian, the Austrian foreign minister, are expected to resign. The Tisza government is expected to fall owing to the opposition of Austria-Hungary and Turkey to the proposed German plan of establishing a customs union and economic federation between the Central Powers and their allies." Count Tisza has been summoned and informed that he would be dropped unless he consented to the scheme.

IN WESTERN CANADA

"He Who Will and Does Work Will Not Want."

As in the United States it is said, that the Mennonites in Canada are very much oppressed, and have to suffer from a great deal (on account of the War in Europe) and I have been requested to write something about this, I will do so.

Does not Fear Oppressions.

I came with my parents A. D. 1874, from Southern Russia to America, South Dakota, and A. D. 1907 I came with my family here to Western Canada, here we have found a healthy climate; the acre yields on an average more and wheat is better than in South Dakota. What concerns the Government, up to now we have had a good one, have been able to live according to our creed and have not been oppressed in any way, and I believe: All Mennonites, who live according to the fundamental beliefs of the Mennonites and to God's word, as their guide, will agree with me.

He, who, here in Canada, will and does work, will not want. So much as an answer.

Remain your friend,

Very few farmers cultivate the habit of keeping careful accounts of their receipts and expenditures, showing at the end of the year a balance, either for or against. The farmer of Western Canada is no exception to this. It is felt if more careful book-keeping were resorted to there that much better results would be obtained and shown.

Statistical Statement Shows a Dividend of 58% in 1915.

There is the case of the Crowfoot Farming Co., of Crowfoot, Alberta. It has just issued a certified statement of its operations for the years 1912, 1913, 1914 and 1915. This Company has had for the past few years about 1300 acres in wheat and between 200 and 250 in oats. The total operating and general expenses for 1912, including interest at 6% and depreciation at 15%, were $12,587, for 1913 $17,506, for 1914 $18,729, and for 1915, $29,804.43. Expense per acre of land in crop was $7.80 in 1912, $11.57 in 1913, $11.70 in 1914, and $17.87 in 1915. Total receipts were $15,531 in 1912, $30,661 in 1913, $31,589.87 in 1914, and $62,520.26 in 1915. The percentage earned upon capital invested was 6½% in 1912, 30% in 1913, 23 1-3 in 1914, and 50% in 1915, in which year it paid a cash dividend of 58%.

The Company's statement shows that the average dates of finishing seeding was April 20th; the average date commenced cutting was August 18th.—Advertisement.

Open sluices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast and it is said to be but a little while until the roses begin to appear in the cheeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at your druggist or from the store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.—Adv.

War Makes Geographers.

The war has made geographers of us all. It seems that it has also increased the Londoner's knowledge of London. Six wounded officers, all Londoners, born and dwellers in London, were offered a motor trip from their hospital the other day. They selected Hampton court as their objective, and only one of the party had seen it before. It is a common saying in London, that only the visitor really sees the city, and there is at all events an element of truth in the statement.

There is a certain middle-aged commercial man of high standing in London, a Londoner by descent, birth and lifelong residence, who, though he has seen the Blue mountains of Australia and the Victoria falls of Africa, has never been inside Hyde Park, Westminster abbey or St. Paul's Cathedral.—Manchester Guardian.

HANDY HUSBAND

Knew How to Get Part of the Breakfast.

"I know one dish I can prepare for breakfast as well as any cook on earth," said my husband one morning when the cook was ill and he had volunteered to help get breakfast. He appeared with his dish and I discovered it was Grape-Nuts which, of course, was easy to prepare for it was perfectly cooked at the factory, but it was a good illustration of the convenience of having Grape-Nuts about.

"We took up Grape-Nuts immediately after returning from a five years sojourn in a hot country. Our stomachs were in bad condition and we were in poor health generally.

"In a day or two we liked Grape-Nuts better than any other kind of food on the table. We both gained steadily in health and strength, and this was caused by Grape-Nuts and Postum.

"A friend of ours had a similar experience. She was seriously ill with indigestion and could find nothing to eat that would not give her heartburn and palpitation, especially at night.

"She found that a small dish of Grape-Nuts with cream made her a satisfactory supper and gave her a comfortable night's rest. In a short time she gained several pounds in weight."

Winona.—A freight train traveling twenty-five miles an hour here performed quite an unusual stunt. The engine bounded off the rails, ran fifty feet on the ties, struck and battered a guard rail at a switch and leaped back on the main track.

Minneapolis will be asked to invest $100,000 to bring the imperial council, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, to this city in 1917. This amount was fixed at a joint meeting of the executive and campaign committees of the order, following a dinner at the West hotel.

Duluth.—With grain elevators only 500,000 bushels from their capacity, and with grain boats available, officials of a big company have announced their willingness to break up St. Louis bay so that steamers can get under the spouts. No request for such action, however, has come to tug companies, it was said.

Fergus Falls.—B. E. Belleson, secretary of the Stavenger-Laget of America, was here, conferring with local citizens, relative to the annual reunion of the society here June 21, 22 and 23. The largest auditorium here will be inadequate to accommodate the gathering and the meetings will be held in a tent. It is expected 5,000 persons will attend.

Walker.—The Cass County Development association is planning the largest meeting in its history here this month. President M. N. Koll of Cass Lake has announced the program, which includes addresses by Fred D. Sherman, commissioner of immigration; Senator P. H. McGarry, Carlos Avery, state game commissioner, and others.

Minneapolis.—With Governor Burnquist, Dr. Cyrus Northrop, Archbishop Ireland, Judge Fish and others firing broadsides of patriotism and preparedness amid Yankee battle yells of the days of '61, members of the Grand Army of the Republic in Minneapolis and St. Paul celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of founding of the order in Memorial hall, courthouse, guests of the John A. Rawlins' post.

Duluth.—Five thousand Elks and members of their families will be guests of Duluth Lodge No. 133 for the twelfth annual convention of the Minnesota State Elks' association to be held here June 14 and 15. Preliminary plans for the annual gathering are now being made by the local lodge and indications are that the convention will bring to this city the largest crowd that ever assembled here at any one time.

Red Wing.—Michael Carbonare, an 18-year-old laborer, was killed and 15 other workmen were injured in a collision between freight and construction trains in the Milwaukee yards here. The crew of the switch engine which drew the freight train escaped the crash by jumping. A caboose and three bunk cars on the worktrain were telescoped. The wreckage caught fire. Carbonare died a few minutes after being taken to St. John's hospital here.

St. Paul.—Walter J. Smith, former state treasurer of Minnesota, has pleaded guilty to a charge of second degree grand larceny and has been sentenced to serve an indeterminate term of not less than one year nor more than five years in the state penitentiary at Stillwater. His crime was the misappropriation of $18,000 of state school funds by means of a forged Aitkin county school district warrant. R. C. Picket, former clerk in the State Auditor's office, pleaded guilty to forgery in the third degree; penalty one to five years.

St. Paul.—Mrs. Aniela Dorch, confessed slayer of Father Henry Jajeski, former pastor of St. Casimir's church, is an inmate of the state hospital for the insane at St. Peter, being committed just a month from the day she shot down the priest in the church confessional.

St. Paul.—The [illegible] of the Northwest have fixed upon December 5, 6 and 7 as the dates for the next big farmers' convention in St. Paul and a feature of the convention will be the dedication of the St. Paul terminal elevator, which will be in full operation at that time.

BIG BALANCES IN STATE TREASURY

FUNDS MORE THAN DOUBLED IN YEAR ACCORDING TO QUARTERLY REPORT.

EVENTS AT STATE CAPITOL

Interesting and Important Happenings of the Past Few Days Selected and Arranged for the Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

Minnesota's cash boxes bulged with big balances at the beginning of a new calendar quarter. State Treasurer A. C. Gooding reported a cash balance of $5,191,325.08 compared with $2,531,967.67 a year ago. State checking accounts in banks total $1,033,278.53; and deposited in country banks is $887,224.21, while there is $621,464.93 in the treasury vault at the capitol. The general fund balance of $2,522,666.87 is more than $1,450,000 greater than a year ago.

There was a legislature this winter and that is the reason for some gains in cash balances. Early last year there was a final payment of $500,000 on the state capitol which reduced the state's cash. Large credits in permanent school funds, notably from the recent sale of investment securities in those accounts, further swelled cash balances.

Loans of permanent school funds during the last month totaled $563,000 and prospects are that the April loans of like funds will exceed $1,000,000, applications for more than $2,000,000 being on file now.

Reports Timber Steals.

Irregularities in timber scaling resulting in a loss to the state of several thousand dollars have been reported to the State Timber Board by Oscar Arneson, chief of the timber bureau in the state auditor's office. The meeting was attended by Governor Burnquist, Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith, State Treasurer A. C. Gooding and State Forester W. T. Cox. The Rat River Timber Company of Ericksburg, near International Falls, profited from the irregularities, it was charged.

John Cashin, a state timber scaler under Surveyor General S. C. Gribner of Duluth has been discharged.

Charles Sutcliff, manager of the Rat River company denied collusion with the state employe and told the board that his company will make good any loss the state has suffered. He also offered to increase the company's bond to cover any emergencies.

Mr. Arenson's report covered the results of an investigation he began ten days ago, he said.

Farm Buildings Cost $20,000,000.

An unusually large number of farm buildings are being constructed on Minnesota farms this spring, according to A. D. Wilson, director of the agricultural extension division of the University of Minnesota, who has returned after a three weeks' tour of the state. This, he says, is an indication that the $40,000,000 shortage in the corn crop of last year has been compensated by the good prices farmers obtained for grain and live stock.

"During the past four years Minnesota farmers have put $20,000,000 in to farm buildings. There will be no seed corn scarcity this year or at least not a general need."

Banks' Growth Is Steady.

George W. Cooley, state [illegible], has estimated that the amount of road work under state aid to be done during 1916 in Minnesota will be 1,945 miles of grading, 705 miles of graveling and 1,823 concrete culverts and that the cost of the work in Minnesota will be $2,228,000. The estimate is based on reports of proposed work from 69 of 86 counties of the state showing that 1,[illegible] miles of grading, 664.95 miles of graveling and 1,463 concrete culverts are to be built this year at a cost of $1,8[illegible].

Now is the time to clean and test all kinds of seeds and get ready to treat for smut, potato scab, etc.

There is considerable difference in the percentage or purity of Formaldehyde. One dealer may sell a 24 per cent and another a 48. In the treatment of small grains for smut twice as much of the 24 per cent would have to be used for each gallon of water, to get the results a 48 per cent Formaldehyde would give. Don't fail to treat seed for smut and keep the above in mind.

FARMER'S BOY REACHES TOP

Famous Foe of Criminal Wealth.

Rochester, Minn., April 10.—Every red blooded man likes a winner, especially when the winner has had to make a hard and long fight against odds.

Few men have had more obstacles to overcome or have achieved greater fame than our former fellow townsman, Frank B. Kellogg.

THE OFFICE SEEKS THE MAN

Rochester swelled with pride when it learned that more than 125 representative country editors had signed a petition or written Mr. Kellogg to become a candidate for U. S. Senator. It was one of those rare events in modern times—a genuine case of the office seeking the man.

Frank B. Kellogg was raised on a farm in Viola township near this city. His boyhood was similar to that of thousands of other farmers' boys. It was a life of hard work, many sacrifices and few pleasures, attending country school in the winter and doing the usual farm work after school.

NEIGHBORS BELIEVE IN HIM

His old neighbors say that he is still the same, every-day sort of a man and that his manner is democratic and cordial to all.

In 1875 he began to study law in the office of H. A. Eckholdt of this city. During the winter he took care of a farmer's horses and cows for his board and in the spring he went back to the farm and worked through seeding time for $12.00 per month. He also went out during harvest and worked in the field.

FRANK B. KELLOGG.

He served five years as county attorney of Olmsted county. One of his first important cases was when he represented the villages of Plainview and Elgin in Wabasha county against the Winona & St. Peter Railroad Company, and recovered from the railroad about $200,000.00 for these villages on bonds which had been illegally taken by the railroad and sold on the market. This case was brought to Mr. Kellogg after other lawyers had lost it for the villages of Plainview and Elgin, and made many friends for him in Southern Minnesota.

In 1887, Senator Cushman K. Davis made him a partner with himself and C. A. Severance.

ROOSEVELT CALLS KELLOGG

In 1906, President Roosevelt was attracted to Kellogg because of the latter's conspicuous success in private practice. In consequence, he put Mr. Kellogg in charge of the most important trust prosecution ever tried, among them being the Paper trust, the Standard Oil Co., and the merger of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads. All were carried to the Supreme Court of the United States and all were decided in favor of the public.

WINS GREAT LEGAL DUELS

His brilliant cross-examination of the wizards of Wall Street, as well as his legal duels with the great corporation lawyers of the East, won for him the approval of the public and at the same time the bitter enmity of the financial giants.

FOUGHT FOR FARMERS

As member of the resolutions committee of the Republican national convention he championed some important labor planks. He vigorously opposed the reciprocity bill and the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill before Congress, in so far as they discriminated against the farmers of the Northwest.

SETTLED R. R. STRIKE

In 1908, President Roosevelt sent for Mr. Kellogg and asked him to prevent a wage reduction on the Chicago Great Western for which road Mr. Kellogg was general counsel.

With characteristic energy Mr. Kellogg applied himself to the task and was soon able to have the order reducing the trainmen's wages, set aside—a great victory for the trainmen.

A REPUBLICAN

In politics Frank B. Kellogg has always stood with the progressive wing of the Republican party, but he did not go so far as to leave that party four years ago.

HEADS AMERICAN BAR

In 1912, the American Bar Association elected him president in recognition of his eminent legal ability.

HOME TOWN FOR KELLOGG

It is freely predicted here that he will receive a larger vote for U. S. Senator than all other candidates put together.

MINNESOTA LAW FOR CHILDREN AND WOMEN CRITICISED

No Pension Allowed for Family Deserted by Husband-Father.

"Law All Right as Far as It Goes, But Doesn't Go Far."

It is often asserted by politicians of this state that the Minnesota laws concerning women and children are absolutely what they should be and the mother's pension law is cited as an example of our up-to-dateness. The Minneapolis Daily News stated editorially in comparing the Minnesota law with that of other states:

"Minnesota has a good mother's pension law—good as far as it goes. It helps keep the family together when the father is dead or legally divorced.

"But it does not permit a pension for the mother and child when the father has run away, deserted his family, or when he is a good for nothing drunken sot and stays at home and beats up his wife and children.

"So far as the Minnesota law is concerned, the child fortunate enough to have a father hanging around, ready to give it an occasional black eye, isn't considered entitled to any other comforts in life, such as milk and flannel nighties.

"Yes, the Minnesota mother's pension law is all right as far as it goes—

"But it still has a long way to go."

If the women of this state had a word to say in the framing of laws such as this one, which so closely concern their own welfare and that of the children of the state is it not more than a certainty that no such loopholes for criticism would be left in the mother's pension laws and others of a like order?

FARM WOMAN NEEDS VOTE TO GUARD HOME

Interested in Affairs of Government as Much as City Sister.

The preservation of her home and the betterment and care of her children is as important to the woman in the country as to the woman in the town. Today, as never before, are the needs of the city and country the same, for both suffer alike from the same evils, and share the same benefits. Therefore to care properly for her family she must help toward the common good.

No one knows better than the farmer how his wife helps him to earn and carry on the farm. When he dies, he leaves it without fear in her hands. But he leaves it unprotected by a citizen's vote. The woman farm owner is considered a citizen only when the taxes fall due, but on election day she may not say how these taxes shall be spent.

The woman in the country must help to get more state money for country schools in order that children of the country may be properly educated at home, and be given the practical and up-to-date education they should have.

The woman of the country, equally with the man, is interested in better markets, better transportation facilities, cheaper distribution, equal freight and express rates, so that producer and consumer may be brought closer together and a larger share of the profits return to the farm.

The woman of the country is interested in an increased social life. This means better roads, better trolley service, more libraries and meeting halls, and the right to use those already existing for social purposes. If wholesome amusements are not provided country boys and girls, like those of the city, will seek other kinds.

The country woman must protect her family from the contagion that lurks in ready-made clothing. Epidemics of measles, scarlet fever, etc., in the country, have been traced repeatedly to city sweat shops where clothing is finished amid filth and disease.

Every one of [illegible] is controlled by [illegible] and the men who are elected to [illegible] the voice of those who elect them. If we expect them to consider that which is near and dear to us, the protection of home and children, as seriously as they consider the chief interests of men, the protection of business and property, we must have some say in the choosing of the men who make our laws. This is simple justice and sound sense. It means that women must be given the right to vote.

Farewell Party

Tuesday evening, about 8 o'clock the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Payne was suddenly invaded and captured by the people of Holt before the hostess could recover from her surprise while a delegation waylaid Mr. Payne up town and escorted him home. A very pleasant social evening was enjoyed by all present, not the least of these being the making of aprons by the men and of dolls by the ladies. Mrs. Christianson and Prof. Prushek were the prize winners. A splendid luncheon was served and the enjoyment of the occasion was increased by the rendering of piano solos by Mrs. Huseth.

Mr. and Mrs. Payne were presented with a dozen silver knives and forks as a token of the friendship of the people of Holt, and they were received with hearty thanks by host and hostess. Mr. Payne has sold his house and two lots to B. Docken, and has packed his household goods and stored them in S. S. Kolden's building temporarily.

This fine family will be greatly missed here, but they have the best wishes of our people for their happiness & prosperity. They leave to-morrow for Nielsvills where Mrs. Payne and children will visit her parents for an indefinite time. Mr. Payne will go to Leonard, Clearwater Co. where he is to have charge of a lumber yard and will spend his spare time looking after a bank there which his father-in-law, Mr. L. S. Kolden, started about four months ago.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which, if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from any druggist or storekeeper. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do. —Adv.

Dressed Wife as Widow.

Realizing that he was dying, Karl Kellams, three days before his death, asked his wife to buy a black mourning dress and veil so that he could see her as she would appear at the funeral. To satisfy him, Mrs. Kellams dressed in mourning and stood at his bedside. Kellams had been sick of tuberculosis for some months. He recently returned from Phoenix, Ariz., where he had gone in the hope that the change in climate would benefit him.—Philadelphia Record.

Unusual Celerity.

A lady who had just received an interesting bit of news said to her little daughter:

"Marjorie, dear, auntie has a new baby, and now mamma is the baby's aunt, papa is the baby's uncle, and you are her little cousin."

"Well," said Marjorie, wonderingly, "wasn't that arranged quick?"—Boston Transcript.

Evidence.

"There goes another married man," said the girl at the candy counter.

"How do you know?" asked the cashier.

"He used to buy a three-pound box of candy twice a week, and now he buys half a pound once a month."

The thing that worries a rich man is that some of his friends are richer.

GOOD REPORT

Doctor Proved Value of Postum

Physicians know that good food and drink, properly selected, are of the utmost importance, not only for the relief of disease but to maintain health even when one is well.

A doctor writes, "I count it a pleasure to say a good word for Postum with which I have been enabled to relieve so many sufferers, and which I count, with its valued companion Grape-Nuts, one of the daily blessings.

"Coffee was banished from my own table some time ago and Postum used regularly in its place." (Coffee is injurious to many persons, because it contains the subtle, poisonous drug, caffeine.)

"I frequently find it necessary to instruct patients when they take Postum for the first time to be quite sure that it is properly made according to directions, then it has a clear, seal-brown color and a rich, snappy taste, as well as health giving qualities.

The above letter, received over ten years ago, is fully confirmed by a recent letter from the doctor, in which he says:

"It is a pleasure to render a good report covering a product of which I am so enthusiastic a friend.

"I am using in my home your Postum Cereal in both its forms. And, what is more, I am having it used in the families of several patients in which there are children, and all unite in endorsing the fine qualities of your admirable product."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms.

Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c pkgs.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both forms are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

"There's a Reason" for Postum.

ALLIES SEND ARMY OVER GREECE; MAY FORCE NEW CRISIS

TRANSPORT SERBIAN TROOPS OVERLAND FROM CORFU TO SALONIKI — ACTION INCENSES KING.

TEUTONIC ALLIES WARN OF NEUTRALITY BREAK

Athens, April 17 (via Paris, April 18).—An attempt to break up a meeting of adherents of former Premier Venizelos here ended in riotous demonstrations. Speakers were greeted with cries, "Down with the traitors" and "Long live the king." The police cleared the hall amid great disorder.

Steps to Force Crisis.

London, April 18.—Decisive steps by the Allies have forced a new crisis at Athens, with the possibility that Greece may find itself thrust into war against its will.

Overriding the objections of the Greek government, the Allies have begun transporting Serbian troops over land by rail from Corfu to Saloniki. The Austrian and German governments, according to Athens dispatches, protested several days ago that they would regard it as a deliberately unfriendly act if Greece permitted this troop movement.

May Attempt to Stop Allies.

French correspondents at Athens report that King Constantine is incensed at the action of the Allies and may attempt to stop the transportation of Serbian troops by a show of arms.

The Allies did not want to transport the newly equipped Serbian army from the island of Corfu to Saloniki by water, because of the danger from Austro-German submarines. They therefore suggested to Premier Skouloudis that the Serbian troops be sent to Patris by steamer and then transported by rail.

Would Be Breach of Neutrality.

The Greek prime minister sounded out the German and Austrian ministers on this suggestion. They telegraphed their governments and received immediate replies that both Germany and Austria would consider that Greece had overstepped the bounds of neutrality if it acquiesced in the Allies' suggestion.

This information was at once communicated to the ministers of the Allies.

Serbians Reach Saloniki.

Premier Skouloudis announced that Serbian troops would have to pass through Piraeus, the port of Athens, in a movement by rail, and that their presence near the capital might inflame the people with violent demonstrations.

The Allies, however, proceeded with their arrangements and the first Serbian detachments to be landed at Patris reached Saloniki on Saturday.

MAY INSURE SISAL SUPPLY

U. S. Commission Asked to Oversee Disposal of Crop.

Washington, Apr. 18.—Senator Ransdell, chairman of the committee investigating an alleged monopoly to control the output of sisal, has announced that the federal trade commission would be asked to superintend disposal of the 125,000 bales now in Yucatan in order to insure a sufficient supply of binder twine for the American harvests.

The commission representing Yucatan farmers, asked the Senate committee to oversee the sale of the crop, but it does not come within the province of a legislative body. Chairman Davies of the federal commission has informed Senator Ransdell that it has the machinery to proceed with the distribution and will send two men to Yucatan. Senator Ransdell will introduce a resolution to put the trade commission in charge.

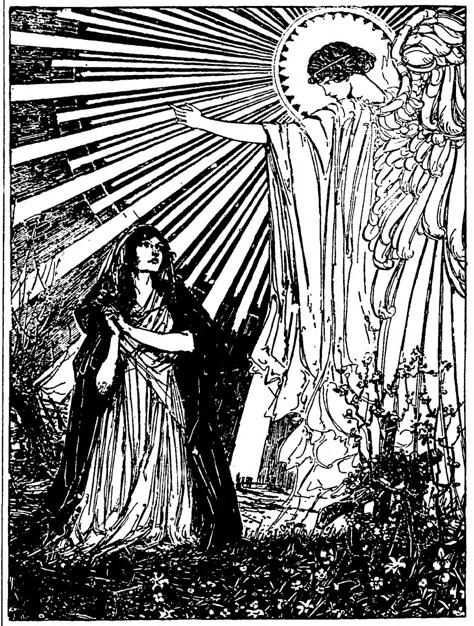
Bombards German Battleship.

Paris, April 18.—A French aviator dropped 16 bombs from an altitude of only 100 yards on the deck of a German warship in the North sea, the war office has announced. The French plane flew so low that it is believed the bombardment had good effect. Aviators were active Sunday night on the Verdun front and east of the fortress, despite the heavy fog. French air squadrons bombarded the railway stations at Conflans, Pagny, Arneville and Rompach.

American Wounded By U-Boat.

Washington, April 18.—An American was wounded by shrapnel and another escaped uninjured when the Russian ship Imperator, lumberladen, Gulfport, Miss., to Marseilles, was fired upon and then set ablaze by an Austrian submarine April 11, the Barcelona, Spain, consul has reported. The wounded man is Gustave Olson, whose brother is foreman of the Berg & Garlon Furniture company of Minneapolis; the other American is Aner Swennsson, whose father is band leader of coast artillery near Boston.

THE ETERNAL YEARS



TRANSCENDENT light, with Easter born,
Fill with thy glow the battle-torn;
"Seek the living among the dead,"
Awaken those whose blood was shed;
Dim with thy glory cannon's flame,
Cleanse humankind of all its shame
Ere day is done.

AWAKE, O nations of the earth!
Comes morn of hope, of life, new birth,
Heed ye the Resurrection call,
Rulers of kingdoms, foemen—all;
Let strife be o'er, the tumult cease,
Crown Him anew the Prince of Peace
Ere day is done.

SACRIFICE MUST PRECEDE SOUL'S EASTER TRIUMPH

H. C. TOLLMAN, D. D., LL. D.

A DIVINE Father near to each human soul, acting in and through the events of daily life, and a risen Christ revealing God's nature to us through our personal communion with him! This is the Easter triumph.

Modern Christian criticism may discuss, as it is now doing, the historical and quasi-physiological problems as to whether the risen Christ had a "material body spiritualized" or a "spiritual body materialized," whether his actual flesh and blood came forth from the grave, as the Gospel narrative most distinctly gives us to understand, or whether he bore that celestial and incorruptible body which St. Paul declares is the body of the resurrection. Yet we need have no fear that the conclusion—if one be ever reached in the future—will affect that vital truth on which our Christian faith has been grounded for nineteen centuries.

The lesson of the Resurrection is purely a personal and individual one. We do well to ask ourselves soberly and seriously what that lesson is. Like all divine truths, it is wondrously simple, yet deeply significant and full of transcendent responsibility. It means nothing less than such life-union with Christ as to effect in us a participation in his immortal and divine character—assuredly no easy process, but the struggle and achievement of a life in constant touch and fellowship with him.

The lesson of Easter plainly tells us that we must die to our selfish selves, to our littleness, narrowness, pride and hate, and rise to the eternal life of service.

No Easter triumph can come to any soul without first a Golgotha of individual sacrifice and self-renunciation. Heaven is no fit place or condition for a man who knows not what service is.

The risen Christ reveals the immortality of love realized in the soul of man, a conception briefly summarized by our Lord in the seeming paradox, "He that saveth his life shall lose it, and he that loseth his life, the same shall save it."

The risen Christ reveals the immortality of truth. The self-opinionated whose prejudices and preconceptions shut out honest inquiry cannot commune with a God of truth. The revelation of Christ was the revelation of truth, and intellectual integrity is the liberty of every son of God: "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

The risen Christ reveals the immortality of service. The divine activity is continually self-giving. God is forever showing the divineness of service. This is the life of God and it is a uniform, inflexible and eternal law that we must enter into such a life before we can approach the infinite ideal of humanity which reveals God. The flowers and starry heavens sing together because there is between them the affinity of showing God's beauty. But between a selfish soul and God there can be no communion.

The risen Christ reveals what was central in the mind of God from eternity. This darling thought in divine evolution was the perfect humanity revealed in the Son of Man. We call Christ our Lord, our King, our Master and our God, and justly so, but the dearest title to him and the one oftenest upon his lips is that of the Son of Man, because it shows what man can be in him and through him. To that humanity we link our hopes of immortality, and we are confident they will not disappoint us.

The lesson of Easter is simply this, that we live the immortal life here, the life of love, sacrifice, truth, beauty and hope as revealed in Christ; that we enter into such individual fellowship with our Lord as to enable us to realize in him the life of God, for he has said: "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father"; that we appropriate his divine life expressed in the joy of self-denial, though it leads us to Calvary.

Easter Bells

Ring happy bells of Easter time!
The world takes up your chant sublime:
"The Lord has risen!" The night of fear
Has passed away, and heaven draws near;
We breathe the air of that best clime
At Easter time.

Ring, happy bells of Easter time!
Our happy hearts give back your chime:
"The Lord is risen!" We die
no more!
He opens wide the heavenly door;
He meets us, while to Him we climb
At Easter time.

Great Mystery Is His.

All the mysteries of land, and water, and air are being solved one by one, but the mystery of life and death are his. Know that, of a surety, had he wished us to break the seal which binds them in his grasp he would have made the way clear. Heaven is with him. Let that suffice, until God's time to make it plain.

WILSON'S REPLY TO GERMAN NOTE TO BE LAST WORD

DETERMINED TO BRING SUBMARINE SITUATION WITH BERLIN TO AN ISSUE—NEW EVIDENCE ACCUMULATES.

WILL BE STATEMENT OF AMERICAN CASE TO DATE

London, April 17.—A news dispatch from The Hague says the German foreign office is perturbed on account of the dissatisfaction expressed in the United States at the German note in regard to the Sussex.

Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg is reported to have had several conferences with Ambassador Gerard and Count Von Burian, Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, and to have sent lengthy instructions to Ambassador Von Bernstorff at Washington.

According to these advices German officials now seem willing to do everything possible to avoid a rupture with the United States.

Washington, April 17. — President Wilson and the cabinet went over the submarine crisis again and reaffirmed their determination to bring the situation with Germany to an issue.

The decision to inform Germany that recent accumulation of evidence of ships destroyed in submarine warfare leads to the inevitable conclusion that her promises to the United States are not being fulfilled remained unchanged. The time of dispatching a communication to Berlin appeared to be the only point undecided.

May Give Notice of Break.

In congress a report was widely circulated that the forthcoming note would in itself give a notice of severance of diplomatic relations. There was nothing to substantiate the story anywhere in official quarters. Cabinet officers did not deny it upon the ground that they had all been bound in honor by the president not to speak on the question.

There were repeated indications that the note would be a statement of the American case up to date without anything in the nature of an ultimatum and still would leave the way open for Germany to avoid the long-feared break in diplomatic relations. It was plain, however, that it would be intended as the American government's last word.

Evidence Gathered by French.

At the state department there was renewed evidence that the United States considers its case complete even without the affidavits which arrived on the steamer St. Paul. Secretary Lansing acknowledged that evidence gathered by the French government from a captured German submarine crew to prove the identity of the submarine involved in the Sussex attack had been placed in possession of the American government. Such evidence, properly substantiated, was regarded as the capstone of the American case if one seemed necessary.

Crookston Bridge Carried Away.

Crookston, Minn., April 17.—The Red Lake river is steadily rising, having gained nearly a foot during the night. Ice carried away the new steel bridge over the river between this place and Gently and the old bridge a mile farther down is doomed. Many basements are flooded and a number of outbuildings have been carried away. Many barns and garages are untenable. The Northern Pacific bridge here is threatened. In rural districts the water is rapidly disappearing.

Spring Colds Are the Worst

They lead to catarrh and pneumonia. They weaken the entire system and leave it unable to resist the sudden changes. They interfere with your digestion and lessen your activity. Neglected they soon become that dread disease known as systemic catarrh. Don't neglect them. It's costly as well dangerous.

PERUNA

Will Safeguard You

Have a box Peruna Tablets with you for the sudden cold or exposure. Tone your system up with a regular course of the liquid Peruna, fortify it against colds, get your digestion up to normal, take care of yourself, and avoid danger. If you are suffering now begin the treatment at once. Give Nature the help she needs to throw off the catarrhal inflammation, and again become well.

Peruna has been helping people for 44 years. Thousands of homes rely on it for coughs, cold and indigestion. It's a good tonic for the weak, as well.

Why, of Course.

Meat Makes Bad Kidneys

Too much meat is just as bad as not enough. Such a diet is apt to load the blood with uric acid and to injure the kidneys. Bad backs, blue, nervous spells, dizziness, rheumatic pains, and bladder troubles indicate weak kidneys, foretell danger of gravel and Bright's disease. Don't neglect this condition. Use Doan's Kidney Pills.

My back got so weak and painful I couldn't lift and the kidney secretions were irregular in passage, especially at night. After using different medicines without success, I tried Doan's Kidney Pills. They restored me to good health and I have never had a sign of kidney trouble since."

How to avoid Operations

Hospitals are great and necessary institutions, but they should be the last resort for women who suffer with ills peculiar to their sex. Many letters on file in the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., prove that a great number of women after they have been recommended to submit to an operation have been made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here are three such letters. All sick women should read them.

Marinette, Wis.—"I went to the doctor and he told me I must have an operation for a female trouble, and I hated to have it done as I had been married only a short time. I would have terrible pains and my hands and feet were cold all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was cured, and I feel better in every way. I give you permission to publish my name because I am so thankful that I feel well again." —Mrs. Fred Behnke, Marinette, Wis.

Detroit, Mich.—"When I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was so run down with female troubles that I could not do anything, and our doctor said I would have to undergo an operation. I could hardly walk without help so when I read about the Vegetable Compound and what it had done for others I thought I would try it. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and used them according to directions. They helped me and today I am able to do all my work and I am well." —Mrs. Thos. Dwyer, 989 Milwaukee Ave., East, Detroit, Mich.

Bellevue, Pa.—"I suffered more than tongue can tell with terrible bearing down pains and inflammation. I tried several doctors and they all told me the same story, that I never could get well without an operation and I just dreaded the thought of that. I also tried a good many other medicines that were recommended to me and none of them helped me until a friend advised me to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. The first bottle helped, I kept taking it and now I don't know what it is to be sick any more and I am picking up in weight. I am 20 years old and weigh 145 pounds. It will be the greatest pleasure to me if I can have the opportunity to recommend it to any other suffering woman."—Miss Irene Froelicher, 1923 Manhattan St., North Side, Bellevue, Pa.

If you would like special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

GRAPE JUICE A BACK NUMBER

Grape juice must take a back seat now, for a new product, made from the juice of farm grains, unadulterated, unmalted, unfermented. Science has finally discovered the ideal thirst-quenching drink, which when served cold, is far in advance of anything in health giving qualities. This new drink is made under a patented process. Fine quality farm grains are utilized, and a piquant flavor is added by means of hop and other blossoms which refresh and nourish. This new drink does not contain the alcohol found in grape juice, nor has it the diluted flavor. It has been favorably passed upon by pure food departments. Any dealer can handle Golden Grain Juice, who has facilities for keeping it cold. Be the first in your town to introduce it to the public by writing for information to Golden Grain Juice Company, P. "ANURIC!" NEWEST IN CHEMISTRY

This is a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce, head of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments for several years proved that there is no other eliminator of uric acid comparable. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—as backache, scalding urine and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, "Anuric" acts quickly. In rheumatism of the joints, in gravel and gout, invariably the pains and stiffness which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear.

What's Doing in Minnesota

Austin. — Herbert Emery, 34 years old, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. Illness and financial trouble are supposed to have prompted the deed.

Duluth. — Jesse R. Hubbard, 45 years old, one of the best known railroad conductors of Northern Minnesota, died at St. Luke's hospital here following an operation.

St. Paul.—More than 1,000,000 hogs have been marketed at South St. Paul since January 1. This announcement has just been made. It breaks all records in the packing town.

Washington, D. C. — Congressman Lindbergh has notified Secretary of State Schmahl to file his name as a candidate for United States senator. Senator Clapp maintains his attitude of silence.

Owatonna. — Miss Winifred Hogan of Owatonna has been named valedictorian of the Pillsbury academy graduating class of 1916. Miss Esther Holcomb of Arlington, S. D., will be the salutatorian.

Brainerd.—The Brainerd Gas and Electric company has been incorporated for $100,000 by St. Cloud capitalists, with Brainerd as its principal place of business and St. Cloud as its principal branch office.

Rochester.—The twenty-sixth annual report of St. Mary's hospital, conducted by the Mayos, just issued, shows, 10,110 surgical operations were performed. The number of patients was 8,265. The death rate was 1.7 per cent.

Albert Lea.—The first spring seeding in Freeborn county was done in Bancroft township on the H. P. Hanson and Black's Seeds farms. Wheat, clover and oats were sown. The south wind of the past few days has taken all frost from the ground. Farmers say seeding will be general in a few days.

Bemidji. — Representatives of Beltrami, Polk, Red Lake, Clearwater, Pennington, Marshall and Kittson counties met here and formed the Northern Minnesota Jefferson Highway Assn. Daniel Shaw of Thief River Falls was elected president; E. M. Sathre of Bemidji, secretary; M. Jenson, Clear Brook, treasurer.

Hastings.—Hastings has gone dry. The licenses of fifteen saloons were revoked by the city council as a result of the recent option vote, and $2,326.26 was refunded to saloon-keepers. Squads in sympathy with the wets became hilarious until checked by the police force. Hastings will lose $7,500 in revenue annually by the town going dry.

Hutchinson. — Socialists of McLeod county will have an active organization this year. The campaign was opened with an address by J. O. Bentall of Cedar Mills, farmer candidate for governor on the Socialist ticket. Davis Haines and B. B. Farber were appointed a committee to organize the 100 or more Socialists of Hutchinson.

Winona. — The body of Peter B. Crogan, driver of the automobile that plunged from a submerged causeway across the Mississippi river from Winona, carrying four persons to death, has been recovered. The bodies of Mrs. Crogan and her 5-year-old daughter were taken from the water the day of the tragedy. The fourth body, that of a 2-year-old son, still is in the slough. A triple funeral for the bodies recovered was held at Ettrick, Wis., the home.

Chisholm.—A tragedy of the backwoods was revealed here when Gust Ruhonen, a Finish farmer living twenty miles north in the Sturgeon lake county, applied at an undertaking parlor for four coffins in which to bury his son and three daughters, who died within a week of scarlet fever. Heavy snows during the winter practically cut the family off from sources of supplies, and before highways could be reopened the children were weakened and suffering from lack of proper food.

St. Paul.—Success of efforts by W. G. Calderwood of the state prohibition committee to prevent railroad shipments of liquor into 31 towns named as being in the territory covered by the Indian treaty of 1863, is a matter of geography, M. L. Countryman, general counsel for the Great Northern, declared in St. Paul. "I presume Mr. Calderwood would not claim these towns are in the dry belt unless he felt quite sure of it, but we shall have to check them up. The railroads will try to live within the law."

Stillwater.—The prison doors at Stillwater have closed on Walter J. Smith and Robert C. Pickit and the two former state officials have begun indeterminate sentences for misuse of state funds. The state board of pardons denied their applications for pardons. The careful arrangements made to prevent the two men from meeting were almost upset. Although an hour and a half elapsed between the time Pickit left the county jail here and when Smith started for Stillwater the men arrived at the prison within a few minutes of each other.

Winona.—Legislative filings were started here when Vincent H. Firth of Lewiston and Charles Wolff of Richmond, farmers, announced themselves as candidates. Their district has been represented the past two terms by James Ferrier of Saratoga. It is said Mr. Ferrier may file.

Duluth.—R. D. [illegible], chief of police, has left for Boston. He will try to run down a much wanted forger for this department and while East will participate in a probate court fight which, it is believed, will result in his being declared one of the heirs to a very large estate.

STATE PRISON CAN GET ENOUGH SISAL

REPORTED CORNERING OF YUCATAN PRODUCT WILL NOT AFFECT TWINE OUTPUT.

EVENTS AT STATE CAPITOL

Interesting and Important Happenings of the Past Few Days Selected and Arranged for the Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

The reported cornering of the sisal product of Yucatan by the International Harvester company will not affect the price or output of twine at the state twine plant at Stillwater, C. J. Swendsen, chairman, and R. W. Wheelock, a member of the Board of Control, said in commenting on the proposed investigation of the sisal situation.

The state plant has manufactured 23,000,000 pounds of twine this year and has sold 18,000,000 pounds, and will have plenty to supply the farmers of the state for this harvest. The plant requires about 30,000 bales a year, and now has on hand enough to keep it in operation until fall.

Warden Reed, who was asked about the situation by Mr. Swendsen, said that he had been in communication with the Commission Reglardore, which controls the output of the Yucatan territory, and that he was convinced the state plant can get all of the sisal needed.

The prices quoted in a letter received recently were about the same as have prevailed for the past few months. Prices made farmers on this year's product are from 8¾ cents for sisal to 11½ cents for standard and 12½ cents for Manila.

Clash Over Union Labor.

Trouble between the George J. Grant Construction company and the union crafts of the Twin Cities is threatened in connection with the erection of the new Historical building by the state. The controversy may inject itself into state politics before settlement is brought about.

A committee of thirty-five business agents called upon Governor Burnquist and told him that the Grant company is building the new Historical building with non-union labor.

R. F. Schroeder, assistant county attorney in Ramsey county and a member of the carpenter's union, acted as spokesman for the committee.

Governor Burnquist told them the contract had been let before he became Governor, but said he will give it his attention and confer with the board of control, which has charge of all public building work in the state. The committee left, apparently satisfied with this assurance.

An employment survey of Minnesota will be started this week under the direction of Hilda Mulhauser, recently appointed national organizer of Federal, state and city employment bureaus by W. B. She was responsible for the organization of the central employment bureau of Cleveland which has been such a success. She drew all free employment offices to one central head. One central bureau is expected in Minnesota. She will work with the commerce body's committee and the state department of labor.

Schmahl to Accept Clapp Filing.

Secretary of State Schmahl's announcement that he would accept without question Senator Moses E. Clapp's filing for reelection as a Republican was not received with loud cheers by Republicans who stood by the ticket two and four years ago. Some of them threaten to take action to prevent the acceptance of the filing on the ground that he is not a Republican and has not supported the policies or the candidates of the Republican party that, on the contrary, he has denounced them.

"Bank service in a mail-sack" sounds farfetched, perhaps. Yet that is just what we are doing for not a few customers of this Bank.

It is'nt always necessary to come to us to make a deposit. Checks and drafts sent by the mail-man get the same considerate attention that a cash deposit receives at the teller's window.

There are times when its more important to "stay on the job" on the farm than to make a trip to the bank. In instances, use the Mails and take advantage of the Mail-Sack bank service that is yours.

The Eighth Grade.

Almost every town in Northern Minnesota is after the Jefferson highway and Holt should'nt be behind the others. Bro. Wilson of The Newfolden Review is one of the committee from Marshall county and he suggests that these two towns work together for the road. The main travelled road north from Thief River Falls comes through Holt, and three miles north of here there is a grade on the road to Newfolden, which is the route suggested. Holt needs this road and wants it too and the commercial club have gone after it with hammer and tongs. Each one is expected to do their part in getting this road for Holt.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from any store that handles drugs which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv.

SPEAKS UP FOR CANADA

And No Wonder—Renting His Land He Made $8.50 Per Acre.

So many Americans now have personal knowledge of Canada that false reports concerning this country are being continually corrected by Americans themselves who know the facts, and who are too fair-minded to let a false statement go unchallenged. A case in point arises out of a statement supposed to be made by a resident of Alberta, and published recently in the Spokesman Review, of Spokane, in which the condition of settlers in this country was painted in a very bad way indeed. The writer of this attack on Canada refused to let his name be known, so it can be taken for what it is worth, but Mr. S. L. Wallace, of N 4723 Crestline, Spokane, who lived for some years in Western Canada, came to the defense of the country in the following letter which was published in the Spokesman Review of February 11, 1916:—

"To the Editor of the Spokesman Review:

"In Sunday's Spokesman Review was a letter from a man in Alberta to the chamber of commerce, asking that something be done to keep Americans from going to Canada and saying that that government was run by the railroads, banks and manufacturers; that once a man got there he never could get away. Had this man published that letter over his own signature there is no doubt but he could get out of Canada.

No country will do as much to help a man to get on his feet if he tries to help himself, as Canada. I know of the government helping people to provisions, feed, seed grain and fuel, and charging only cost of delivery to the nearest town and 6 per cent. What more could a man ask?

I lived five years in Southern Saskatchewan and earned a patent to 320 acres of as good land as I ever saw. I have raised over 80 bushels of oats on sod, 40 bushels of wheat, and 20 of flax to the acre. Until I lost my health I never was better satisfied anywhere. I had my land rented this last year for one-third. It brought me almost $8.50 per acre, or $1,143.91 for 135 acres.

This man says he loves the land his fathers died for. So do I, and I love the land that gave me my home.

Winona.—Ernest Smith, 35 years old, is believed to be dying in the Winona hospital as a result of having been impaled upon the handle of a pitchfork. Smith was adjusting a hay fork on the second floor of his barn on a farm near St. Charles. He lost his balance and pitched out of a doorway. The fork was upright on the ground and it penetrated his body several inches.

Reed the prisoner is unable to work. "Dr. Newman learned Smith's condition when he examined him preparatory to his assignment to work in one of the prison's departments," Warden Reed said. "He ordered Smith taken to the tuberculosis ward for treatment."

Winona. — Two more lives have been sacrificed in the high waters of the Mississippi river. Within 300 feet of where four members of the Crogan family perished a short time ago, Josephine Wieczorek, 21 years old, and Theodosia Wieczorek, her sister, 19, were drowned.

Minneapolis.—A campaign to make the Minnesota forest parks the playgrounds of the country and prove that they are the equal of any forest parks in the world, will be worked out by the Minnesota State Forestry association at its annual meeting in Minneapolis, this month.

HALF OF FIRES OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN

MYSTERIOUS BLAZES CAUSE HEAVY LOSSES MARSHAL'S REPORT SHOWS.

EVENTS AT STATE CAPITOL

Interesting and Important Happenings of the Past Few Days Selected and Arranged for the Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

Practically half of the fires of Minnesota are from unknown origin, according to the annual report of Robert W. Hargadine, state fire marshal. The fire loss in the state in 1915 was $4,722,925, and the loss from 640 fires of unknown origin was $2,319,602. Smokers' carelessness caused 111 blazes last year. The property burned because of the combination of rat-and-match caused a loss of $23,935. Defective flues were responsible for a loss of $164,180, and children and matches combined, caused eighty-two fires and a property loss of $50,000.

Mr. Hargadine in his report recommends that the law be amended to give the state fire marshal more authority to regulate motion picture shows, to prohibit the use of buildings in which occupancy is hazardous and to provide a state building code and to extend the term of the fire marshal to six years.

Frauds Affect School Funds.

Prosecutions will be brought against anybody contributing to the looting of state timber lands, State Auditor J. A. O. Preus said in a statement issued upon his return from Washington, D. C. He was suffering from an attack of appendicitis and gave out the statement from the bedside at his home. "The state has $12,000,000 or $15,000,000 worth of timber still standing on state lands, the proceeds of which are intended for the school fund," said Mr. Preus." "Anyone, be he an employee of the state, a logging contractor of a lumberman, who for selfish purposes and greed is willing to dip his hand into this fund, shall be dealt with according to his deserts. It shall be to the interest of the state that not one stick of timber shall be pilfered."

Oscar Arneson, who recently investigated alleged timber irregularities, conferred with Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith on legal aspects of the situation. His report has been submitted to the timber board.

"Experience has proved that a steady supply of money, which is necessary to good road work, cannot be obtained by annual tax levies," said Mr. Cooley. "Bond issues form the method adopted by nearly half of the counties in the United States."

Easily Fixed.

Soulful Samuel Slopper, the would-be poet, was interviewing his landlord.

"Of course, the whole place wants doing throughout," sighed Sammy. "The wall paper interferes badly with my courting of the evanescent muse, while the color of the paint jars dreadfully with the gladsome visions I fain would summon in poetic rhapsody."

The landlord grinned.

"But I surely must insist," went on Samuel, speaking severely, "upon the doors and windows being attended to. They fit so badly that the draft actually blows my hair about!"

The landlord seized the golden moment to get his own back.

"Humph!" he snorted. "That's easily put right. Get your hair cut."

GOOD THINGS FOR THE TABLE.

When preparing cranberry sauce try this combination, to be served when cranberries are out of season. Add a cupful of seeded raisins to a quart of cranberries that have been cooked and rubbed through a sieve. Cook five minutes after adding the raisins, then turn into a mold and chill.

Graham Cookies.—Take a beaten egg, add a cupful of sugar, a tablespoonful of butter, a teaspoonful of cinnamon, one cupful of sour milk, or buttermilk, one teaspoonful of soda, two cupfuls of graham flour and a cupful of chopped raisins. Drop on a greased pan and bake in a moderate oven.

Maple Walnut Dessert. — Dissolve one package of peach or orange gelatin in half a pint of boiling water. Add a half pint (one cupful) of maple sirup and when nearly cold a cupful of walnut meats, cut rather fine. Set away to harden and serve with whipped cream.

Berlin Cabbage.—Slice red cabbage very thin; let stand an hour in cold water to crisp. Drain and put into a saucepan, using two tablespoonfuls of butter, a half teaspoonful of salt and one tablespoonful of chopped onion, a grating of nutmeg and a dash of pepper for each quart of cabbage. Cook until the cabbage is tender, then add two tablespoonfuls of vinegar, half a tablespoonful of sugar; cook five minutes and it is ready to serve.

Amber Marmalade.—Now is the time to prepare this delicious concoction. Cut in thin slices one grapefruit, orange, and lemon, cover with twelve cupfuls of cold water, let stand over night. Cook until the peel is very tender, four or five hours, let stand again over night, then add ten cupfuls of sugar and cook until thick.

Success doesn't consist in never making blunders, but in never making the same one twice.

The worse a reputation the harder it is to lose.

DISHES DAINTY AND DELICIOUS.

When serving a fruit cocktail of grapefruit, for example, use a French dressing combined with a mayonnaise, seasoning with paprika, tabasco sauce and chili sauce, and adding enough mayonnaise dressing to give the sauce a thick consistency.

Apple and Bermuda Onion Salad.—Cut in small dice two or three cupfuls of apples of good flavor, add a third as much of finely diced onion and a mayonnaise or any good boiled dressing. Celery may be added if liked, using the same amount of celery as onion. This is a salad particularly well liked, served with a pork roast or with chops.

Apple and Raisin Salad.—Pare and cut into small dice three choice apples, squeeze over them the juice of a lemon and add a cupful of raisins that have been soaked over night in orange juice, a cupful of the tender hearts of celery cut in small pieces, season with salt and paprika and pour over a well prepared French dressing. Serve on blanched lettuce well chilled.

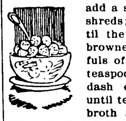
Plum and Cheese Salad.—Select choice canned greengage plums. Drain and dry them and cut open from the stem to the blossom end on one side, removing the stones. Chop fine a dozen pecan meats and half a pimento, rinsed in cold water and dried; beat these into a cream cheese adding cream if more moisture is needed, a little olive oil and lemon juice, any one, or a mixture of the three. Shape the cheese into balls and fill each plum with a small ball of cheese. Arrange the cheese balls and the plums in a nest of heart leaves of lettuce and serve with French dressing.

Crab Cocktail.—Take a half cupful of mayonnaise, a third of a cupful of catchup, a third of a cupful of olives, shredded, a stalk of celery, cut fine, and a can of crab meat. Mix and chill and serve in green peppers or in cocktail glasses.

Care should be taken when serving delicately flavored fruits not to overseason the salad dressing and thus destroy the flavor of the fruit.

All things come to him who waits
But here's a rule that's slicker,
The man who goes for what he wants
Will get it all the quicker.

SEASONABLE DISHES.



Brown a cupful of well washed rice in two tablespoonfuls of butter, then add a small onion cut in shreds; stir and cook until the onion is slightly browned; add two cupfuls of hot broth, half a teaspoonful of salt and a dash of paprika; cook until tender, adding more broth as it is needed. When done add two tablespoonfuls of sausage fat and two canned pimentos cut in bits. Turn out on a platter and surround with cooked pork sausages.

Calf's Liver en Casserole.—Fry five slices of fat salt pork until brown. Add to the hot fat one dozen potato balls, one dozen carrot balls, one stalk of celery, six onions sliced. Cook very slowly for ten minutes, then place in the casserole. Cut in thin slices a liver and lay it on top of the vegetables. Season with salt and pepper, add a pint of boiling water and a tablespoonful of kitchen bouquet. Cool one hour.

Goette.—Boil two pounds of flank beef until tender, then put it through the meat grinder. Put into the liquid left from boiling the meat one pound of coarse oatmeal; cook thirty minutes then mix it with the meat; season with pepper and salt and pour into a mold to cool. Cut in slices and fry brown. This is a dish similar to scrapple and is served with or without sirup.

Rice With Orange Marmalade.—Cook rice in milk and season well, then mold in a ring mold. When ready to serve fill the center of the mold with orange marmalade. This combination is especially good when served with whipped cream, sweetened and flavored with grated orange rind.

Philadelphia Scrapple.—Cook a pig's head in boiling water until the flesh slips from the bones; chop the meat fine. Remove the fat from the liquid when cold and reheat the liquid to the boiling point, adding a teaspoonful of salt for each quart of liquid with pepper to taste; sift in carefully, stirring constantly, cornmeal, to the consistency of mush. Let it boil vigorously for a few minutes then cook more slowly for half an hour. At the last stir in the meat and turn into pans to cool. Cut in slices a half inch thick and fry brown. Serve hot for breakfast.

MORE RICE DISHES

In America, rice is more commonly used as a dessert than as an entree. The wholesome dishes in combination with other foods are legion.

Rice Czarina.—Butter a baking dish and put a layer of boiled rice in the bottom. Over this sprinkle fine chopped fresh tomatoes, season with salt and pepper and dot with butter; place another layer of rice somewhat thinner, and over this spread finely-chopped green peppers and so alternate the tomatoes, peppers and rice until the dish is full, having a layer of rice on top. Pour two tablespoonfuls of melted butter over all, cover and cook in a slow oven 20 minutes.

Belgian Rice Dessert.—Add a half cupful of boiled rice to a pint of hot milk and a half cupful of currants, stir in the yolks of two eggs well beaten and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Remove from the fire, add a teaspoonful of vanilla and form into croquettes. Roll in egg and crumbs and fry a golden brown. Serve with currant jelly and roll the croquettes in powdered sugar.

Rice Creole Style.—Chop fine one onion and two green peppers, saute with half a cupful of raw ham, shredded fine, in a fourth of a cupful of butter, cook ten minutes, then add a cupful of cooked rice and three cupfuls of broth, simmer 20 minutes and add four sliced tomatoes and a teaspoonful of salt. Cover and cook slowly in the oven or in a double boiler.

Japanese Proverbs.

Proverbs have great influence with the Japanese in their daily lives, according to a writer in the Christian Register. Among their countless adages these with their English equivalents are quoted: "Some insects feed upon smartweed" (There is no accounting for tastes). "If in a hurry, go round" (The more haste, the less speed). "Live under your own hat" (Let well enough alone.) "The mouth is the front gate to misfortune" (The tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity).

ASKS FOR AN EARLY REPLY TO DEMAND U. S. QUIT MEXICO

CARRANZA REQUEST BELIEVED MADE DIRECTLY THROUGH THE AMERICAN SPECIAL AGENT AT MEXICO CITY.

FUNSTON HEARS VILLA IS SLIGHTLY WOUNDED

American Military Authorities Receive Information That Outlaw Has Not Crossed Durango-Chihuahua Line—Clash Narrowly Averted, Report.

Washington, April 25.—General Carranza has asked for an early reply to his note of April 12 suggesting that American troops be recalled from Mexico.

This has been learned officially in connection with the fact that Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador-designate, sought an interview with Secretary Lansing. State department officials declined to discuss the matter.

Request Made Directly.

The Mexican embassy stated that the request had not been transmitted through Mr. Arredondo so far as known there. It is understood to have been made directly by General Carranza through Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City. A reply also would be sent through Mr. Rodgers.

Confirmation of the capture by Carranza troops of Pablo Lopez, Villa's chief leutenant, has reached the state department from Consul Letcher at Chihuahua. The message said Lopez was being held in jail there until American officials or army officers could talk to him and satisfy themselves of his identity.

Villa Slightly Wounded.

San Antonio, Texas, April 25.—Advices locating Pancho Villa were received by Major General Funston as Chief of Staff Scott was preparing, it was believed, to leave for the border to confer with Carranza War Minister Obregon.

Funston announced the receipt of a detailed report, the most thorough since the chase began, stating that the bandit leader was slightly wounded.

Has Not Crossed Durango Line.

American military authorities obtained reliable information that Villa has not crossed the Durango-Chihuahua line. When closely followed by American columns in the Hidalgo district, in the vicinity of Parral, with a small band of men, he turned westward to the Sierra Madre mountains.

Clash Narrowly Averted.

General Pershing's headquarters, Namiquipa, Mex., April 25 (via wireless to Columbus, N. M.)—A narrowly averted clash between Carranza soldiers and Major Howze's flying detachment of the Eleventh cavalry was disclosed for the first time when a column arrived here after several days' campaign. The Carranza garrison at San Borja under General Cavias was formed for a charge against the United States soldiers who were drawn up to repel them when Major Howze rode in between the forces, waving his hat. The mission of the expedition was explained to the Carranzistas and trouble avoided, Major Howze withdrawing his men from the town.

LYNCH TO MANAGE CAMPAIGN

To Succeed W. F. McCombs as Chairman Is Report.

St. Paul, April 25.—Fred B. Lynch of St. Paul will be the next chairman of the democratic national committee and will manage President Wilson's campaign for re-election, it has been announced in Washington by J. P. Tumulty, secretary to the president. The announcement was made immediately following receipt of a letter by the president from W. F. McCombs, present chairman and manager of the 1912 campaign, saying that he will be unable to serve after the coming convention at St. Louis. A new law partnership which will take all his time, is given by Mr. McCombs as his reason for retirement. President Wilson sent a letter expressing regret at Mr. McCombs' decision.

Specimens 7,000 Years Old Found.

Philadelphia, April 25.—Valuable archeological specimens ranging from the second dynasty to the Byzantine empire (5500 B. C. to 500 A. D.) have been unearthed at Dendereh, according to reports received by the University of Pennsylvania from Dr. Clarence S. Fisher, director of the university's Egyptian expedition. One of the most remarkable specimens Dr. Fisher states is a necklace with carnelion beads inscribed with the cartouche of Sesotris. These are said to be the first inscribed beads found in Egypt.

Leonard Seppala, twice winner of the 412 mile Alaska sweepstakes, won over his four contestants in the ice bound recent classic. Seppala, whose seventeen Siberian wolf dogs negotiated the distance in eighty hours and twenty-seven minutes, gained a purse of $2,000. This is the fourth time in the last seven sweepstakes that the Siberian wolf dogs have shown their supremacy over the malamutes.

AMERICA REJECTS OBREGON DEMAND ARMY QUIT MEXICO

ADMINISTRATION DOES NOT INTEND TO HEED SUGGESTION FOR WITHDRAWAL—VILLISTAS BURN COLONY.

PRESIDENT SENDS NEW INSTRUCTIONS TO SCOTT

Dispatches Elaborate Orders After Conference With Cabinet Officials—Meeting at Juarez Not Expected to Settle Question—Generals Prepare Reports.

Washington, May 2.—The administration does not intend to heed General Obregon's suggestion for withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico. This has just been learned definitely. New and more elaboratae instructions than heretofore given went forward to General Scott following a conference between President Wilson and Secretary of War Baker and another session between Secretary of State Lansing, Counsellor Polk and Secretary Baker.

Burn American Colony.

El Paso, Tex., May 2.—Villistas have burned the American Mormon colony of Chuhupa, 25 miles northwest of Madera, Mexico, according to information brought to the border by the caretaker of the colony. The destruction took place last week. The 200 Ametrican families in the colony deserted their homes over a month ago, fearing the Villistas.

Question Up to Wilson.

El Paso, Texas, May 2.—The question of withdrawing the punitive expedition from Mexico, on which may depend peace or war between the United States and Mexico, has been put up to President Wilson.

Generals Scott and Funston, with their aides, worked far into the night preparing data and reports and a last code message was dispatched to the War department just before daybreak.

Settlement Not Expected.

Several code messages have already been exchanged and it is understood that the army officers have asked permission to take up, in all its phases, the question of withdrawing the troops from Mexico which General Obregon and his fellow conferees brought to the fore at the conference of last Saturday.

That the conferences here will finally settle the withdrawal question is not believed. Washington, it is said, has suggested that the American representatives obtain all possible data bearing on the question that might be advanced by the Mexican conferees and forward a full report for the consideration of the State department, which now has a Carranza request for a withdrawal of the American troops under advisement.

KAISER'S REPLY IS DELAYED

Tentative Draft Still Undergoing Changes—German Attitude May Not Satisfy America.

Berlin, May 2.—Germany's reply to the American note will be dispatched to Washington this week unless some unexpected incident occurs, but officials are awaiting word from the kaiser's headquarters before fixing the exact date.

A tentative draft framed last week, has not been shaped into a formal communication and is still undergoing some slight changes. It is still understood however, that a decision was reached on the fundamental questions several days ago and that this decision has not been altered.

Certain of the newspapers warn the public not to count too certainly upon America's agreement in full with the attitude to be taken by Germany in the forthcoming reply.

This report is contained in a dispatch from Zurich, which credits the news to the Greek newspaper Nea Alithia of Saloniki.

BRITISH GARRISON AT KUT-EL-AMARA IS TAKEN BY TURKS

FORCE COMPOSED OF 2,970 ENGLISH AND 6,000 INDIAN TROOPS SURRENDER AFTER SIEGE LASTING 140 DAYS.

ALL WAR MUNITIONS ARE DESTROYED BY CAPTIVES

British Forces Starved Into Submission After Last Efforts to Send Supplies Failed—Relief Army Within Twenty Miles—Supply Ship Grounded.

London, May 1.—The British garrison of Kut-El-Amara, 105 miles southeast of Bagdad, has surrendered to the Turks, it has just been officially announced.

The forces surrendering were composed of 2,970 British and 6,000 Indian troops, the war office announced.

General Townshend had been besieged for more than 140 days when he surrendered.

The capitulation at Kut-El-Amara is the first instance in the present war and one of the few occasions in more than a century of wars in which a British garrison besieged by the enemy has been forced to surrender.

Destroyed Munitions.

The British forces surrendered to the Turks after ineffectual attempts had been made to rush supplies of food to their camp.

The official statement added that General Townshend destroyed all his guns and ammunition before surrendering.

A recent official Turkish communication said that the position of the British at Kut-El-Amara was critical, and that they were expecting to receive small supplies of food by aeroplane. An official statement from London showed that a last effort to send supplies to the garrison had failed. It was announced that a ship laden with supplies had been sent up the Tigris, that it had been grounded about four miles east of the city.

Relief Army Near.

Less than a score of miles away, on the banks of the Tigris below the city is a relief army which for months had been attempting to reach the besieged forces of General Townshend. A few weeks ago several victories were announced and hope ran high in England that the mission would succeed. Of late, however, the Turks' resistance has increased and, aided by floods, they have been able to hold the British in check.

U-BOAT SITUATION CLEARER

Relaxation of Tension Is Attributed to Reports Emanating From German Diplomatic Sources.

Washington, May 1.—There is a marked relaxation of tension on the U-boat situation. It was attributed largely to the knowledge emanating from German diplomatic sources both in Washington and Berlin that the German foreign office has completed its reply to President Wilson's note on the submarine issue and that the kaiser is discussing the whole subject of friendly relations between the two nations with Ambassador Gerard.

In the belief that German officials have met the embarrassing problem facing them there is now much conjecture as to how far the kaiser has gone to meet President Wilson's contentions and demands.

SCHALL EXPLAINS HIS VOTE

Minnesota Congressman Says McLemore Resolution Was Trick.

Minneapolis, May 1.—Minnesota congressmen who have been charged with voting against the McLemore resolution were defended by Congressman Schall who was here to make an address at the Twenty-sixth Street District Improvement association's celebration.

"It was a trick of the Democrats opposed to President Wilson," said Mr. Schall. "They did not want to go on record on military preparedness so they introduced a motion to table the resolution. It was against that motion, not against the spirit of the McLemore resolution that I voted."

Wilson Shakes Hands 10,000 Times.

Washington, May 1.—President Wilson was so fatigued by shaking hands with more than 10,000 people this week and attending to public business that he announced his intention of taking a complete rest for the week end.

To Prevent Spread of Stripe Rust.

Washington, May 1.—The department of agriculture is taking steps to prevent the spread of the serious stripe rust of cereals (puccinia glumarum) recently found in this country, but thus far known to occur only west of about the 104th meridian, or the west boundary of North Dakota. The bureau of plant industry and the federal horticultural board have arranged that no samples of seed collected in this area shall be distributed by the department to points east of the 104th meridian.

FARGO P COLUMN

A LAND PROBLEM AHEAD

(FROM THE PEORIA JOURNAL.)

The Nebraska State Journal calls attention to the fact that Uncle Sam's opening of a 4,000-acre tract in the North Platte irrigation district for settlement practically winds up the "free land distribution" of the nation. It adds:

> "Free or cheap land has been the American safety valve. A population straining for self-betterment has had its own remedy—to go west and grow up with the country. With the government reduced to advertising an opening of forty-three farms, the safety valve may be considered forever closed. The expansive energy formerly exerted outward, must hereafter work itself out intensively. Increasing land speculation, with rapidly rising prices of land and proportionately increasing dissatisfaction among the landless would seem inevitable. The tone of our politics and the intensity of our social problems cannot but be vitally changed under the strain of dealing internally with a social pressure which hitherto has had the wilderness to vent itself upon.

"'Land hunger' will soon become a reality in this rapidly growing country and the constant pressure of population, increasingly higher than the ratio of production, is bound to bring us face to face with economic problems that we have heretofore considered remote. The far-sighted statesman and publicist must devote his thought earnestly to the consideration of these questions if we are to escape the extremes which curse the older nations of the world."

In the above will be found one of the reasons that the Canadian Government is offering 160 acres of land free to the actual settler. There is no dearth of homesteads of this size, and the land is of the highest quality, being such as produces yields of from 30 to 60 bushels of wheat per acre, while oats run from fifty to over hundred bushels per acre. It is not only a matter of free grants, but in Western Canada are also to be had other lands at prices ranging from $12 to $30 per acre, the difference in price being largely a matter of location and distance from railway. If one takes into consideration the scarcity of free grant lands in the United States it is not difficult to understand why there has been most material advances in the price of farm lands.

A few years ago, land that now sells for two hundred dollars an acre in Iowa, could have been bought for seventy-five dollars an acre or less. The increased price is warranted by the increased value of the product raised on these farms. The land that today can be had in Western Canada at the low prices quoted will in a less time than that taken for the Iowa lands to increase, have a proportionate increase. In Nebraska the lands that sold for sixteen to twenty dollars per acre seven years ago, find a market at one hundred and seventy-five dollars an acre, for the same reason given for the increase in Iowa lands. Values in these two States, as well as in others that might be mentioned, show that Western Canada lands are going at a song at their present prices. In many cases in Western Canada today, there are American settlers who realize this, and are placing a value of sixty and seventy dollars an acre on their improved farms, but would sell only because they can purchase unimproved land at such a low price that in another few years they would have equally as good farms as they left or such as their friends have in the United States.

The worth of the crops grown in Western Canada is of higher value than those of the States named, so why should the land not be worth fully as much. Any Canadian Government Agent will be glad to give you information as to homestead lands or where you can buy.—Advertisement.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin drinking phosphated hot water. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your druggist or storekeeper a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish tinge which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.—Adv.

The convention opens June 7. The Milwaukee road has been selected by the delegates as the official route.

Thief River Falls.—The charter commission which has been working on a new charter for Thief River Falls has made its final report to the city council. The new charter provides for a city manager, initiative, referendum and recall, while the legislative power is vested in a mayor and six councilmen, each to be elected at large.

St. Cloud.—Although the first meeting of the new city council is scheduled for the third Tuesday in May, none of the men elected has filed an oath of office and one, C. F. Ladner, has declined to serve. In a letter to the city clerk, Mr. Ladner says votes were procured from his friends by misrepresentations, as he was out of the city, and he will not qualify.

St. Cloud.—That by maintaining the Cold Spring dam at a height of 7 11 feet the milling company of that village is not violating the right given it by the state supreme court is the opinion of County Attorney Paul Ahles in his report to the county commissioners, following a complaint entered by farmers of Richmond that the water is backing up and overflowing the roads.

The only remaining Twin City-Chicago lines may be severed by the onrushing water shortly, it is said.

High school cadets acted as escort to the church.

Crookston.—Deputy State Highway Engineer Forbes is here from St. Paul conferring with the board of county commissioners regarding the good roads program for the year. Mr. Forbes is urging greater co-operation between counties and townships. He believes if townships made special appropriations for gravelling each year, working with the county commissioners and the state highway department good results would show in a short time.

Golden Valley.—School children in Golden Valley are taken to school under armed escort and their parents go about their work with shotguns and revolvers following a raid on the district by a mad dog which ruled in a short reign of terror among the farming population.

St. Cloud.—Stearns county officials have received their share of more than $4,000 that will have to be expended by the Northern States Power company in recording deeds transferring property along the Mississippi river formerly held by the Mississippi River Electric company.

Minnesota Attracts Colonists.

The "forward to the land" movement is under way, and statistics compiled by the Minnesota commissioner of immigration indicate the colonization movement for the fiscal year probably will eclipse the record of 1908-9, when hundreds of homesteaders and others settled on government land.

This year's movement is attributed to the general prosperity of the country.

For the first three months of this year the Minnesota Transfer handled 1,054 carloads of immigrant movables for various destinations in Minnesota. Since not all this business is handled through the transfer it is probable that the railroads have handled 1,500 carloads of immigrant freight for Minnesota points.

Many of the shipments originated in Illinois, Iowa and other states where land cannot be obtained as cheaply as in Minnesota.

State's Ditches Damaged.

Flood damage reports from state ditch districts have resulted in the departure of E. V. Willard, state drainage engineer, for northern Minnesota on a special inspection tour. "Sudden thaws of the deep snow are responsible for the conditions reported and they are such as cannot be reasonably provided for," said Mr. Willard just before leaving. "The chief complaints, however, are that the ditch outlets are not sufficiently large and demands probably will be made on the next legislature for action to remedy such conditions."

The total amount of insurance in effect on December 31, 1915, was $1,552,531,113.16, as compared with $1,537,903,129.97 in 1914.

Extra Shifts Work at Prison.

Night and day shifts are being worked at the Stillwater prison binding twine plant and the factory is being pushed to its fullest capacity. The night crew was added more than a week ago. Last year the prison twine plant turned out over 21,000,000 pounds of binding twine and that figure will be exceeded this year. The board announces that it has orders enough on hand to [illegible] every pound of twine the prison can manufacture. The output this year will probably be in excess of 22,000,000 pounds.

Great Russian Fighter.

More than any other member of the royal family, the Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch has devoted himself to the profession of soldiering.

As a youth of twenty-one in the war of 1877-1878 with Turkey, he went with his father, who bore the same name, to the Danube and the Balkans, where the elder Nicholas was commander in chief of the Russian forces in European Turkey.

He was then a junior officer in the hussar regiment and was on the staff of General Radetzky. He took part in the campaigns of Plevna, Lovcha and the Shipka pass, received the cross of St. George for valor and established the foundation of his present high reputation as a horseman and expert on cavalry matters.

Careful of His Complexion.

With sobs in his voice, the applicant for a meal and some old clothes had told his story, and the kind hearted woman had helped him.

Now as he sat eating a hunk of bread and cheese she thought it wise to get in a little good advice. So she began:

"Don't you think that, er, it would be better for yourself if you used soap and water occasionally?"

The tramp sighed dolefully.

"I would, ma'am, I would," he answered eagerly, "but the truth is that there's so many different kinds of soap, and it's so hard to know which is injurious to the skin that I'm afraid to take any risks!"

EXPERIMENTS Teach Things of Value.

If one has never made the experiment of leaving off coffee and drinking Postum it is still easy to learn something about it by reading the experiences of others.

Drinking Postum is a pleasant way out of coffee troubles. A Penn. man says:

"My wife was a victim of nervousness, weak stomach and loss of appetite for years; and although we resorted to numerous methods for relief, one of which was a change from coffee to tea, it was all to no purpose.

"We knew coffee was causing the trouble but could not find anything to take its place until we tried Postum. Within two weeks after she quit coffee and began using Postum almost all of her troubles had disappeared as if by magic. It was truly wonderful. Her nervousness was gone, stomach trouble relieved, appetite improved and, above all, a night's rest was complete and refreshing.

"This sounds like an exaggeration, as it all happened so quickly. Each day there was improvement, for the Postum was undoubtedly strengthening her. Every particle of this good work is due to drinking Postum in place of coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms:

Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c pkgs.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both forms are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

"There's a Reason" for Postum.

L. Ness of Middle River will plant twenty acres of potatoes and J. C. Nordland of the same place will plant a big field too. We understand that A. C. Jahr will plant about 8 acres and P. A. Riesberg 10 or 12 acres this year and that Ole Relerson will also plant several acres.

More farmers should take an interest in the potato and corn crops, they won't fail every year. Try it and see.

Prof. Prushek, Misses Elsie Lawson and Christine Saastad have been re-elected as teachers in our public school for the coming year. This is considered a wise move on the part of our school board and the teachers are to be congratulated on the success of their work in our school.

Farmers have been busy seeding for sometime and but few are coming to town when it is fit to work in the fields.

We thought somebody said the wind never blew in Minnesota, but we know better now. Sunday afternoon the wind reached a great velocity. Window glass was broken, trees blown down and any thing that was loose was blown away somewhere. The telephone wire was badly demoralized and the service crippled for a short time.

But throughout the northwest the storm was much worse in many places than here and in some places almost reached the nature of a cyclone. At least one life was lost in Duluth and considerable damage done to buildings.

GERMANY MAKES CONCESSIONS IN ANSWER TO UNITED STATES' NOTE; TO MODIFY SUBMARINE WARFARE

BERLIN GOVERNMENT DECIDES TO ADOPT METHODS OF SUBSEA ATTACKS TO THE INTERESTS OF NEUTRALS.

NEW ORDERS TO U-BOAT CAPTAINS EFFECTIVE NOW

Instructions to Observe Rules of Search and Safety of Human Life and Follow International Law Are Significant—Requested to Make Demands on Britain.

Berlin, (By Wireless via Sayville, N. Y.) May 6.—Following is the text of the note of the German government in reply to the American note respecting submarine warfare, delivered by Gottlieb von Jagow, the foreign secretary, to Ambassador Gerard:

"The undersigned, on behalf of the Imperial German government has the honor to present to his excellency the Ambassador of the United States, Mr. James W. Gerard the following reply to the note of April 20 regarding the conduct of the German submarine warfare:

Identical With Sussex.

"The German government handed over to the proper naval authorities for early investigation the evidence concerning the Sussex as communicated by the government of the United States. Judging by the results that the investigation has hitherto yielded, the German government is alive to the possibility that the ship mentioned in the note of April 10 as having been torpedoed by a German submarine is actually identical with the Sussex.

"The German government begs to reserve further communication on the matter until certain points are ascertained, which are of decisive importance for establishing the facts of the case.

"Should it turn out that the commander was wrong in assuming the vessel to be a man-of-war, the German government will not fail to draw the consequence resulting therefrom.

Repudiates U. S. Assertion.

"In connection with the case of the Sussex, the government of the United States made a series of statements, the gist of which is the assertion that the incident is to be considered but one instance of a deliberate method of indiscriminate destruction of vessels of all sorts, nationalities and destinations by German submarine commanders.

"The German government must emphatically repudiate the assertion. The German government, however, thinks it of little avail to enter into details in present stage of affairs, more particularly as the government of the United States omitted to substantiate the assertion by reference to concrete facts.

Has Imposed Restraint.

"The German government will only state that it has imposed far-reaching restraints upon the use of the submarine weapon, solely in consideration of neutrals' interests, in spite of the fact that these restrictions are necessarily of advantage to Germany's enemies. No such consideration has ever been shown neutrals by Great Britain and her allies."

"The German submarine forces have had, in fact, orders to conduct the submarine warfare in accordance with the general principles of visit and search and the destruction of merchant vessels recognized by international law, the sole exception being the conduct of warfare against enemy trade carried on enemy freight ships encountered in the war zone surrounding Great Britain.

Has Given No Assurances.

"With regard to these, no assurances have ever been given to the government of the United States. No such assurances are contained in the declaration of February 8, 1916.

"The German government cannot admit any doubt that these orders were given or executed in good faith. Errors actually occurred. They can in no kind be avoided altogether. Allowances must be made in the conduct of naval warfare against an enemy resorting to all kinds of ruses, whether permissible or illicit.

Implies Dangers For Neutrals.

"But apart from the possibility of errors, naval warfare just like warfare on land, implies unavoidable dangers for neutral persons and goods entering the fighting zones. Even in cases where the naval action is confined to ordinary forms of cruiser warfare, neutral persons and goods repeatedly come to grief.

"The German government has repeatedly and explicitly pointed out the dangers from mines that have led to the loss of numerous ships.

U. S. Blamed For "Accidents."

"The German government has made several proposals to the government of the United States in order to reduce to a minimum for American travelers and goods the inherent dangers of naval warfare. Unfortunately, the government of the United States decided not to accept the proposals. Had it accepted the government of the United States would have been instrumental in preventing the greater part of the accidents that American citizens have met with in the meantime.

"The German government still stands by its offer to come to an agreement along these lines.

"As the German government repeatedly declared, it cannot dispense with the use of the submarine weapon in the conduct of warfare against enemy trade. The German government, however, has now decided to make a further concession, adapting methods of submarine war to the interests of neutrals.

"In reaching this decision the German government is actuated by considerations which are above the level of the disputed question.

Helped Develop Laws.

"The German government attaches no less importance to the sacred principles of humanity than the government of the United States. It again fully takes into account that both Governments for many years co-operated in developing international law in conformity with these principles, the ultimate object of which has always been to confine warfare on sea and land to armed forces of belligerents and safeguard, as far as possible noncombatants against the horrors of war. But although these considerations are of great weight, they alone would not, under present circumstances, have determined the attitude of the German government.

Blames British Government.

"For in answer to the appeal by the government of the United States on behalf of the sacred principles of humanity and international law, the German government must repeat once more, will all emphasis, that it was not the German but the British government which ignored all accepted rules of international law and extended this terrible war to the lives and property of noncombatants, having no regard whatever for the interests and rights of neutrals and noncombatants that through this method of warfare have been severely injured.

"In selfdefense against the illegal conduct of British warfare while fighting a bitter struggle for national existence, Germany had to resort to the hard but effective weapon of submarine warfare.

U. S. Attempts Failed.

"Several attempts made by the government of the United States to prevail upon the British government to act accordingly failed because of a flat refusal on the part of the British government. Moreover, Great Britain again and again has violated international law surpassing all bounds in outraging neutral rights. The latest measure adopted by Great Britain declaring German bunker coal contraband, and establishing condidtions under which English bunker coal alone is supplied to neutrals, is nothing but an unheard-of attempt by way of exaction to force neutral tonnage into the service of British trade war."

Power to Confine War.

"The German people know that the government of the United States has the power to confine the war to armed forces of the belligerent countries in the interest of hunmanity and maintenance of international law. The government of the United States would have been certain of attaining this end had it been determined to insist against Great Britain on the incontrovertible rights to freedom of the seas.

"But as matters stand the German people is under the impression that the government of the United States, while demanding that Germany, struggling for existence, shall restrain the use of an effective weapon, and while making compliance with these demands a condition for maintenance of relations with Germany, confines itself to protests against illegal methods adopted by Germany's enemies. Moreover, the German people know to what considerable extent its enemies are supplied with all kinds of war material from the United States.

Guided By Friendship.

"It will therefore, be understood that the appeal made by the government of the United States to sentiments of humanity and principles of international law cannot, under the circumstances, meet the same hearty response from the German people which such an appeal otherwise always is certain to find here.

"The German government, conscious of Germany's strength, twice within the last few months announced before the world to make peace on a basis safeguarding her many vital interests, thus indicating that it is not Germany's fault if peace is still withheld from the nations of Europe. The German government feels all the more justified in declaring that responsibility could not be borne before the forum of mankind and in history if, after 21 months of the war's duration, the submarine question under discussion between the German government and the government of the United States were to take a turn seriously threatening maintenance of peace between the two nations.

Prepared to Do Utmost.

"So far as lies with the German government it wishes to prevent things from taking such a course. The German government is prepared to do its utmost to confine operations of the war for the rest of its duration to the fighting forces of the belligerents, thereby also insuring freedom of the seas, a principle upon which the German government believes, as before, that it is in agreement with the government of the United States.

"Such a demand would be incompatible with the character of neutrality and the German government is convinced that the government of the United States does not think of making such a demand, knowing that the government of the United States repeatedly declares that it is determined to restore the principle of freedom of the seas, from whatever quarter it has been violated.

"The German government, guided by this idea notified the government of the United States that German naval forces have received the following order:

"In accordance with the general principles of visit and search and the destruction of merchant vessels recognized by international law such vessels, both within and without the area declared a naval war zone shall not be sunk without warning and without saving human lives unless the ship attempts to escape or offer resistance.'

"But neutrals cannot expect that Germany forced to fight for existence shall for the sake of neutral interests restrict the use of an effective weapon if the enemy is permitted to continue to apply at will methods of warfare violating rules of international law."

Expects U. S. To Remove Impediments.

"Accordingly the German government is confident that in consequence of new orders issued to the naval forces the government of the United States will now also see to it that all impediments are removed which may may have been in the way of mutual co-operation toward the restoration of the freedom of the seas during the war as suggested in the note of July 23, 1915, and it does not doubt that the United States will now demand and insist that the British government shall forthwith observe the rules of international law universally recognized before the war as are laid down in the notes presented by the government of the United States to the British government Dec. 26, 1914, and Nov. 5, 1915."

"Should the steps taken by the government of the United States not obtain the object it desires—to have the laws of humanity followed by all belligerent nations—the German government would then be facing a new situation in which it must reserve to itself complete liberty of decision.

"The undersigned avails himself of this opportunity to renew to the American ambassador his assurances of highest consideration.

"Jagow."

HOW TO HEAL ITCHING, BURNING SKIN DISEASES

A Baltimore doctor suggests this simple, but reliable and inexpensive, home treatment for people suffering with eczema, ringworm, rashes and similar itching, burning skin troubles.

At any reliable druggist's get a jar of Resinol Ointment and a cake of Resinol Soap. These are not at all expensive. With the Resinol Soap and warm water bathe the affected parts thoroughly, until they are free from crusts and the skin is softened. Dry very gently, spread on a thin layer of the Resinol Ointment, and cover with a light bandage—if necessary to protect the clothing. This should be done twice a day. Usually the distressing itching and burning stop with the first treatment, and the skin soon becomes clear and healthy again.—Adv.

Patchouli for Moth Prevention.

The fragrant dried roots of the patchouli, reports Special Agent Garrard Harris, are held in great esteem in Porto Rico, and it is the general belief in the island that when placed among clothing and in closets they are a sure preventive of moths. In the earlier days of the century the perfume of patchouli was in great favor. It is believed that if the properties of patchouli were more generally known there would be a demand for it in the United States in preference to moth balls. It should have as much vogue as lavender for putting between sheets and placing among garments; and if it were manufactured or shredded into a finer substance and sold in small bags it would be a decided novelty that undoubtedly would prove popular. Great quantities of it grow wild in Porto Rico, and a demand for it from the United States would afford employment to many of the poor country people. In Porto Rico natives bring the patchouli to town and sell it in small bundles that retail at two to five cents.

Mandy the Undisturbed.

Solitude does not make for eloquence.

"Mandy," said Bill Ittner, the ultimate denizen of Bitter Creek, "where's my razor? I need a shave."

Entered then Ike Kidder, the arch enemy of Bill Ittner, a bad citizen from across the range. A nine-inch bowie flashed in his hand. Bill clinched with Ike and the mountain cabin trembled in their struggle. The table was demolished, the stove collapsed, the matutinal water bucket was overturned. Finally, Bill secured the knife. As he pushed the dying Ike from its blade—

"Behind the clock," said Mandy. "You sure do!"—Judge.

GLASS OF WATER Upset Her.

People who don't know about food should never be allowed to feed persons with weak stomachs.

Sometime ago a young woman who lives in Me. had an attack of scarlet fever, and when convalescing was permitted to eat anything she wanted. Indiscriminate feeding soon put her back in bed with severe stomach and kidney trouble.

"There I stayed," she says, "three months, with my stomach in such condition that I could take only a few teaspoonfuls of milk or beef juice at a time. Finally Grape-Nuts was brought to my attention and I asked my doctor if I might eat it. He said, 'yes,' and I commenced at once.

"The food did me good from the start and I was soon out of bed and recovered from the stomach trouble. I have gained ten pounds and am able to do all household duties, some days sitting down only long enough to eat my meals. I can eat anything that one ought to eat, but I still continue to eat Grape-Nuts at breakfast and supper and like it better every day.

"Considering that I could stand only a short time, and that a glass of water seemed 'so heavy,' I am fully satisfied that Grape-Nuts has been everything to me and that my return to health is due to it.

"I have told several friends having nervous or stomach trouble what Grape-Nuts did for me, and in every case they speak highly of the food."

MANY JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOLS IN STATE

PLAN INTRODUCED IN TWENTY-FIVE CITIES IN SEVEN YEARS.

COLLEGIATE WORK PLANNED

Is Taught in Institutions at Faribault, Rochester and Cloquet — Others to Adopt Plan Next Fall, According to Report.

Minneapolis. — Twenty-five Minnesota cities have introduced junior high schools into their school systems in the last seven years, and are now operating them, according to a report compiled by C. C. Bingaman, superintendent of schools, Goldfield, Iowa. The report aims to present a study of the junior high school, or "intermediate," schools in operation throughout the country, especially those in the smaller cities.

Minnesota cities listed as using the junior high school organizations are Faribault, Hibbing, Austin, Barnesville, Cokato, Fergus Falls, Grand Rapids, Henderson, Howard Lake, Renville, Rochester, Sandstone, Mankato, Bemidji, Cloquet, Crookston, Deer River, Duluth, East Grand Forks, Hutchinson, Montevideo, New Ulm, Rushford, Ely and Villard.

Plan Collegiate Work.

Bemidji is listed as having had the plan in use for seven years, Cloquet and Grand Rapids for six, and Austin and Cokato for four. Practically all the cities having junior high schools organize their twelve years of work into six-and-six- or six-three-and-three groups, though a few into six-two-four or three-three-three groups, the junior high school generally comprising the seventh, eighth and ninth years.

The report states that in Minnesota the schools of Fergus Falls, Mankato, Barnesville, Montevideo and Austin expect to organize more or less "junior college" work next fall or soon after. The schools of Faribault, Rochester and Cloquet already are teaching one to two years of collegiate work.

WAR IS DECLARED ON LAKE LINE BY THE TWIN CITIES

Proposed Rates Discriminate in Favor of Duluth, is Claim—30-Day Delay For Traffic.

Minneapolis, Minn. — Minneapolis shippers have declared war against the Great Lakes Transit corporation to prevent that company, they assert, from putting in effect lake and rail rates which discriminate against the Twin Cities in favor of Duluth in such an extent that competition in many lines would be killing to the companies here.

The shippers took action after they had been notified by the Minneapolis office of the Conners' line that owing to the protest of W. P. Trickett, director of the Minneapolis Traffic association, the Interstate Commerce commission had held up all lake and rail rates for a period of 30 days or more. Mr. Trickett promptly branded the charge false and misleading.

St. Paul shippers will back up Minneapolis' stand before the Interstate Commerce commission.

DAIRY STOCK SHOW PLANNED

To Be Feature of Red River Valley Society's Convention.

Crookston.—The board of directors of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association, in session here, selected Thief River Falls for the next annual meeting, December 6 and 7. The association plans to make the meeting the largest in the history of the organization.

Attending the conference were President C. G. Selvig, Secretary [illegible] J. Hauske of Halstad, Vice President A. B. Stensgaard of McIntosh and Treasurer C. M. Davidson of Climax.

A new feature planned this year is a dairy stock show at the convention, for which an additional $100 was appropriated for prizes. This makes possible another competitive dairy stock judging contest between the buttermakers and the dairymen.

AUTO IN LAKE; TWO DROWNED

Machine Jumps Road and Plunges in Water Near St. Paul

St. Paul, Minn.—Entangled in the mud and weeds that line the shore of Lake Vadnais, near St. Paul, Leonard Knowlan, 27 years old, and Clara Sieverson, 19 years old, were drowned when the automobile in which they were riding jumped the Rice road and plunged into the lake.

Four other occupants of the automobile were thrown into the lake, but were able to clamber to safety.

Robbers Considerate; Heed Sign.

St. Cloud. — Robbers who evidently believe in signs entered the Kummer store at Cold Spring and stole $35 in cash and several checks. Since a safe at Rockville was blown to pieces Mr. Kummer had a sign over his safe, "Do not use dynamite, this is unlocked." As a result there were no visible evidences of the robbery and the loss was not discovered until some time after the store had been opened. The robbery was evidently the work of amateurs. Entrance was effected through a window.

1,200 AT AUSTIN CONVENTION

DELEGATES FROM OVER STATE ATTEND SESSIONS.

Governor's Secretary Makes Address Before Minnesota Sunday School Association.

Austin, Minn.—Austin is entertaining the largest convention ever held here; 1,200 delegates from every part state are here to attend the sessions of the Minnesota Sunday School association. A special train from the twin cities arrived with 400 delegates. They were met at the station by reception committeemen wearing large white buttons bearing the words, "Ask me, I live here." High school cadets acted as escort to the church.

Mayor John H. Anderson made the address of welcome. The response was by Vice President W. A. Buchanan of St. Paul. Charles M. Andrist, private secretary of Governor J. A. A. Burnquist, told of the first Sunday school he ever attended, and paid a fine tribute to his mother, who compelled attendance.

DECIDES TO EXPLOIT STATE

Minnesota Forestry Society Holds Annual Meeting.

Minneapolis.—Exploitation of Minnesota's natural attractions for tourists has been decided upon by members of the Minnesota State Forestry association, who held their annual gathering here.

Eight districts of the state, each with distinctive natural characteristics, were designated, as follows:

The Lake Park region, the Bowstring country and Boundary country, Mississippi headwaters, Crow Wing-Mille Lacs region, the Big Woods belt, the St. Croix-White Bear district and the Southeastern River district.

Recreational maps showing railroad, auto and canoe routes will be published.

SCHALL EXPLAINS HIS VOTE

Minnesota Congressman Says McLemore Resolution Was Trick.

Minneapolis, Minnesota.—Minnesota congressmen who have been charged with voting against the McLemore resolution were defended by Congressman Schall who was here to make an address at the Twenty-sixth Street District Improvement association's celebration.

"It was a trick of the Democrats opposed to President Wilson," said Mr. Schall. "They did not want to go on record on military preparedness so they introduced a motion to table the resolution. It was against that motion, not against the spirit of the McLemore resolution that I voted."

GIRL SHOT WHILE STUDYING

Seventeen Year-Old Boy Held Without Charge by Police.

Minneapolis, Minn.—A shot fired through a window of A. Gustave Sund's residence struck Gundborg Sund, his 16-year-old daughter, as she sat at her studies in a room on the first floor. Her skull was fractured, according to Dr. Nimrod A. Johnson.

Detectives, acting upon information given them by the girl's father, arrested Norman Addison, 17 years old. He is held without charge.

Addison, according to Mr. Sund, was forbidden to see the girl a month ago following arrest and punishment in juvenile court for annoying her.

Art Thoroughly Modernized by Two Drivers in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Minn.—The art of duelling, thoroughly modernized, has been revived in Minneapolis. A fare called a taxi in front of the Radisson hotel. Two machines answered. The one that drew up at the curb first was rammed by the one that drew up a close second, whereupon the driver of the first car reversed and rammed the second car. Hostilities continued until the second car was hors du combat with a smashed radiator. The victor pulled away from his fallen foe and executed a hasty flank movement off the scene of battle.

Mad Dog Terrorizes Golden Valley.

Golden Valley.—School children in Golden Valley are taken to school under armed escort and their parents go about their work with shotguns and revolvers following a raid on the district by a mad dog which ruled in a short reign of terror among the farming population. The rabid animal, a stray cur, made a sortie on a herd of swine, biting six of them. Four died. He then ran to a neighboring farm and killed several ducks and chickens, biting and tearing at other dogs as it ran. The dog was finally killed by a farmer.

Prosperity Goes With Saloons [illegible].

Moorhead.—Reports sent out from here recently to the effect that Moorhead is enjoying great prosperity since the county option law went into effect, that many new homes are being built, and that all the merchants report a large increase in business, are said to be objected to by property owners as being untrue and liable to cause trouble by bringing families to the town, the heads of which seek work that is not to be had, and otherwise cause conditions to be worse than they are at present.

BIG DEMAND FOR MINNESOTA LANDS

COLONIZATION MOVEMENT THIS YEAR EXPECTED TO ECLIPSE ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS.

STATE CAPITOL HAPPENINGS

Events of General Interest in Minnesota Condensed and Revised for The Greater Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

The "forward to the land" movement is under way, and statistics compiled by the Minnesota commissioner of immigration indicate the colonization movement for the fiscal year probably will eclipse the record of 1908-9, when hundreds of homesteaders and others settled on government land.

This year's movement is attributed to the general prosperity of the country.

For the first three months of this year the Minnesota Transfer handled 1,054 carloads of immigrant movables for various destinations in Minnesota. Since not all this business is handled through the transfer it is probable that the railroads have handled 1,500 carloads of immigrant freight for Minnesota points.

Many of the shipments originated in Illinois, Iowa and other states where land cannot be obtained as cheaply as in Minnesota.

State's Ditches Damaged.

Flood damage reports from state ditch districts have resulted in the departure of E. V. Willard, state drainage engineer, for northern Minnesota on a special inspection tour. "Sudden thaws of the deep snow are responsible for the conditions reported and they are such as cannot be reasonably provided for," said Mr. Williard just before leaving. "The chief complaints, however, are that the ditch outlets are not sufficiently large and demands probably will be made on the next legislature for action to remedy such conditions."

Increase in Fire Losses [illegible].

There was a material increase in net fire loss of the state in 1915 as compared with 1914, according to figures compiled by State Insurance Commissioner Works. In 1915, the fire loss of the state was $5,381,971.59 as compared with $4,831,013.33 in 1914. The total amount of insurance in effect on December 31, 1915, was $1,552,531,113.16, as compared with $1,537,903,129.97 in 1914.

Extra Shifts Work at Prison.

Night and day shifts [illegible] worked at the Stillwater prison binding twine plant and the factory is being pushed to its fullest capacity. The night crew was added more than a week ago. Last year the prison twine plant turned out over 21,000,000 pounds of binding twine, and that figure will be exceeded this year. The board announces that it has orders enough on hand to take every pound of twine the prison can manufacture. The output this year will probably be in excess of 22,000,000 pounds.

If you Suffer from Backache, Lumbago, Kidneys or Rheumatism, Take Hot Water and "ANURIC"

American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, when your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night, when you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your druggist—"ANURIC." Because of uric acid in overabundance in the system, backache, pains here and there, rheumatism, gout, gravel, neuralgia and sciatica result. It was Dr. Pierce who discovered a new agent, called "Anuric," which will throw out and eradicate this uric acid from the system. Dr. Pierce believes "Anuric" to be 37 times more potent than lithia, and consequently you need no longer fear muscular or articular rheumatism or gout, or many other diseases which are dependent on an accumulation of uric acid within the body. Send Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. 10c for trial package or $1.00 for full treatment "Anuric."

Dr. Pierce's reputation is back of this medicine and you know that his "Pleasant Pellets" for the liver and his "Favorite Prescription," for the ills of women have had a splendid reputation for the past 50 years. Adv.

"Beatin' up a policeman."

"That is a serious offense. Now, aren't you glad you have thought better of it and intend to turn about?"

"And when you get out you will reform?"

"Yas, suh, I'll beat up dat perleeceman what sent me up fo' beatin' him up—after dat, I'se gwine t' be a diffunt niggah, jedge."—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from your druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than one ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The winnings of Western Canada at the Soil Products Exposition at Denver were easily made. The list comprised Wheat, Oats, Barley and Grasses, the most important being the prizes for Wheat and Oats and sweep stake on Alfalfa.

No less important than the splendid quality of Western Canada's wheat and other grains, is the excellence of the cattle fed and fattened on the grasses of that country. A recent shipment of cattle to Chicago topped the market in that city for quality and price.

Western Canada produced in 1915 one third as much wheat as all of the United States, or over 300,000,000 bushels.

Canada in proportion to population has a greater exportable surplus of wheat this year than any country in the world, and at present prices you can figure out the revenue for the producer. In Western Canada you will find good markets, splendid schools, exceptional social conditions, perfect climate and other great attractions. There is no war tax on land and no conscription.

On Wednesday we experienced a peculiar rain or mud storm. The sky became overcast with reddish looking clouds, filling the air with a fine dust which penetrated every crevice in house or office.

It commenced to rain which plastered up the sides of buildings and windows with mud making things look any thing but presentable. Towards evening a young blizzard followed suit, which lasted about 10 minuets and then the clouds rolled away as a scroll and the blue sky appeared in all its beauty. Verily this is going some.

CASEMENT FACES LONDON COURT ON TREASON CHARGE

LEADER OF IRISH REBELS RECENTLY GAINED INTERNATIONAL FAME FOR SERVICES RENDERED BRITISH.

MUCH INTEREST IN CASE, ADMISSION RESTRICTED

London, May 16.—Sir Roger Casement, who only a few years ago achieved international fame for the services he rendered his government in the exposure of the Putumayo rubber atrocities, is facing the bar in an ordinary police court for a preliminary examination to determine whether he should be held for trial on the charge of high treason against the same government in connection with the rebellion in Ireland. Beside Casement stood Daniel Julian Bailey, who faced a similar charge.

Admission Is Restricted.

Not in many years has so much popular interest been manifested in a case before the courts. Long before the hour set for the hearing crowds began to gather outside the Bow Street court, hoping to gain admittance, or at least to have a glimpse of the man alleged to have been the moving spirit in the recent Irish conspiracy.

Admission was restricted to about 100 persons, including representatives of the press.

Among the earliest arrivals in the court was Sir Horace Plunkett of the department of agriculture in Ireland. He took a seat near the magisrate. It was understood Sir Horace was merely a spectator. A number of relatives and friends of Casement, including seven handsomely gowned women, also were present.

Appears Undisturbed.

The stage was all set when the principal was led into the court. Sir John Dickinson, was presided, the lawyers and the witnesses all having taken their places before Casement arrived at 10:40 o'clock and entered the dock.

Far from appearing deeply disturbed at his position, Sir Roger Casement smiled and nodded as he saw friends in the courtroom. With Sir Roger was Daniel Bailey, an Irish soldier captured by the Germans early in the war. He went from Germany to Ireland in the submarine with Sir Roger and was taken prisoner at Tralee.

Two Defendants on Trial.

In the formal charge Casement is described as of no occupation and no fixed abode. The charge against both defendants read:

"For that they did between the first day of November, 1914, and on divers other occasions between that day and the 21st day of April, 1916, unlawfully, maliciously and traitorously commit high treason within and without the realm of England in contempt of our sovereign lord and king and his laws, to the evil example of others in like case and contrary to the duty and allegiance of the said defendants"

Casement is reported to have made a long statement to the authorities and it is believed that the statement will shorten the hearing before the magistrate. The police court hearing is merely a preliminary to the real trial, which will take place later before a panel of the judges of the high court of justice

RUSSIANS THREATEN TURKS

Are Near Main Line of Communication Near Bagdad.

Petrograd, May 16.—Developing a swift offensive movement on the extreme south, the Russians have crossed the Persian frontier southwest of Lake Urumiah and are now within 80 miles of the main line of communication of the Turkish army south of Bagdad.

The Slavs have reached the region of Roanduse, several miles inside the Turkish frontier. They are marching westward toward the ruins of ancient Nineveh and the Mesopotamian city of Mosul. Unless checked by the Turks within a fortnight, they will be threatening to cut off the Turkish forces holding back the British at Kut-el-Amara.

No development of the grand duke's successful offensive in the Caucasus has brought such surprise as the news of the appearance of another Russian army near the Turks' line of communication.

That the grand duke has outwitted the Turks and their German tutors is the belief here

Scott Makes Optimistic Report

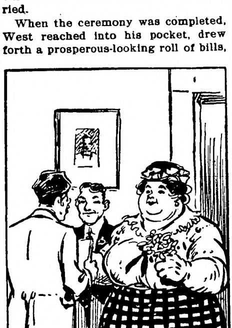
Washington, May 16 Information helpful to the administration in guiding its future course toward Mexico, has been presented to Secretary of War Newton D Baker and Secretary of State Robert Lansing by General Hugh L Scott, chief of staff of the United States army He informed them that while General Obregon at El Paso had refused to put down Mexican co-operation terms in black and white, he offered assistance that will be helpful, provided there are no outbreaks among detached Carranzistas.

WEIGHS 475 POUNDS MORE THAN HUBBY

Judge Refuses to Accept Fee "Because Bride Will Require Some Feeding."

St. Louis.—A blushing young woman who was about to become a bride and who weighed 615 pounds, hesitated at the entrance of an elevator in the Four Courts building the other day, and warned the conductor of the possible consequences if she went aboard. When she was assured that the cable would hold her she ventured and was hoisted with her intended husband, Harry West, who weighs 140, to the office of Judge Calvin Miller. There the pair were married.

When the ceremony was completed, West reached into his pocket, drew forth a prosperous-looking roll of bills, peeled off one marked "V" and handed it to the judge.



The Pair Were Married.

"No, no, you keep that," objected his honor. "You'll need it, for she'll require some feeding."

"Better take it," said the bridegroom. "There are plenty of 'em here."

But the judge's decision could not be changed, and the newlyweds, equipped with passports for their matrimonial journey, again braved the elevator. Then they went on a honeymoon. They would not announce their destination because they said they did not want the trip disturbed by mischievous and would-be humorous friends.

In applying for a marriage license the bride gave her name as Mrs. Gertrude Barker and her age as "over eighteen years." West gave his age as "over twenty-one years."

RAT IN THE GIRL'S SKIRTS

Rodent's Life Cut Short by Young Woman's Escort, Who Wields a Cane.

Green Bay, Wis.—Passengers on an interurban electric car running between Green Bay and Depere, Wis., were thrown into a panic by the screams of a young woman and the discovery that a rat had taken refuge in her skirts. When the panic subsided the men in the car gazed from the windows while the young lady removed her skirts and shook out the rodent, which had been beaten to death

A girl from Depere and her escort were the principal figures especially the girl, under whose skirts the rat found false security. The escort caught the squirming animal in the folds of the girl's clothing and clubbed it to death with his cane. Other male occupants of the car looked on but offered no assistance, while all the women took a hand in the screaming act.

CONFEREES AGREE ON A COMPROMISE BILL FOR BIG ARMY

PROPOSE DEFENSE FORCE IN TIME OF PEACE OF 654,000 MEN INCLUDING REGULARS AND NATIONAL GUARDSMEN

IS REPORTED TO BOTH BRANCHES OF CONGRESS

Measure Includes All Provisions Urged by "Big Army Men Except Federal Reserve—Chairmen Urge Passage—Action is Expected Immediately.

Washington, May 15.—A defense force in time of peace of 654,000 men is proposed in the army bill which Senate and House conferees have just reported to both branches of Congress after several weeks' conference.

Though a compromise, the measure includes all the provisions urged by "big army" men except the federal reserve.

With both chairmen urging its passage, action is expected immediately.

Regular Army of 206,000 Men.

The defense force will consist of an army of regulars totaling in all its branches 206,000 men in time of peace and 448,000 national guardsmen, 800 for each senator and representative. The regular army's peace strength of 206,000 can be expanded to 254,000 in time of war.

In the agreement on the regular army the Senate bill system of organization was retained as a substitute for the House system, which would have recruited a maximum army of 140,000 men.

President Given Authority.

The regular line of the army, the bill now provides, can never go below 160,000 and its maximum strength in times of peace would be 175,000 officers and men. In this calculation, however, there are excluded 5,723 Philippine scouts, 6,409 in the quartermasters' corps 7,290 in the medical department 3,387 in the signal corps and 8,750 unassigned recruits, a total of 31,650.

These, added to the regular line of 175,000 me, give a total regular army peace strength of 206,6590. The President is authorized to increase the regular army divisions to maximum strength without congressional action.

65 Infantry Regiments.

Under the conference agreement the regular army would consist of 65 regiments of infantry, 25 regiments of cavalry, 21 regiments of field artillery, a coast artillery corps of 30,000 officers and men, a signal corps of 3,387 men, including the aviation section, and seven regiments of engineers. In the aviation section the number of officers is increased from a total of 60 to 148, including one colonel, one lieutenant colonel, eight majors, 24 captains and 114 first lieutenants.

The organization plan contemplates attaining the full peace strength within five years as proposed in the original preparedness plans.

VILLA AGAIN REPORTED SEEN

Located near Carrizo, Rumor at U. S. Army Post.

Field Headquarters of the American Expedition, near Namiquipa, Mexico, May 13, via Radio to Columbus, N. M., May 15 Pancho Villa with 1,100 followers has bobbed up again, this time at a ranch near Carrizo, according to reports reaching headquarters

Carrizo is 40 miles northwest of La Ascension. The band was reported scattered along the Rio Carrolitos, made up of recruits from Sonora State and a sprinkling of the men who escorted Villa through the Sierra Madres. At headquarters the reported location aroused little interest. The redisposition of troops continued.

Watchful Waiting, Again U S Policy

Washington, May 15 The Mexican situation has simmered down again to watchful waiting. While contraction of the lines south of Columbus is practically accomplished. Major Langhorne's men apparently are on a hot trail after the Boquillas raiders and Carranzista soldiers are heading toward the Big Bend, avowedly to cooperate in running down the raiders.

President Wilson's Friend Dies.

Neenah, Wis., May 15.—Charles R. Smith, timber king, credited as being the wealthiest man in Wisconsin, has died in New York of apoplexy, according to word received here. Smith was a personal friend and college classmate of President Wilson He gave $5,000 to Wilson's campaign fund four years ago.

Irish Rebel Suspects Freed

London, May 15.—A large number of Dublin residents, arrested on suspicion, have been released from prison as the result of Premier Asquith's visit to the Irish capital, according to dispatches received here Several government employees were among the men released Others included persons suspected of having provisioned the Sinn Feiners while they were besieged by loyal troops and persons from whose houses snipers were active. Premier Asquith planned to continue his conferences at Dublin.

Mrs. Podger, a Lancashire woman, has several sons at the front. Recently a neighbor, superior to her surroundings by education and rearing, called on her, and as they talked of Saloniki, where one of her sons was, she remarked that Salonikians were the Thessalonians to whom St. Paul had sent a letter. "Well," said Mrs. Podger, as she looked up from her washtub, "'e may 'ave written there; I'm not sayin' as 'ow 'e din't. But I'm sorry for 'im if 'e sent parcels. Fly Poison Kills More Children Than All Other Poisons Combined

For Safety's Sake, Use

Is there in your home, anywhere within baby's reach, a saucer of arsenic poisoned paper floating in water, or a can with a sweetened poisoned wick?

During 1913, 26 cases of fly poisoning were reported from 11 states; in 1914, 46 cases from 14 states. Fly poison kills more children than all other poisons combined.

Yet fly poison still is left unguarded except in the homes where mothers have learned that the safe, sure, non-poisonous, efficient fly catcher and destroyer is

TANGLEFOOT

"Symptoms of arsenical poisoning are very similar to those of cholera infantum; undoubtedly a number of cases of cholera infantum were really cases of arsenical poisoning, but death, if occurring, was attributed to cholera infantum.

"We repeat, arsenical fly destroying devices are dangerous and should be abolished. Health officials should become aroused to prevent further loss of life from their source. Our Michigan Legislature, this last session, passed a law regulating the sale of poisonous fly papers."

What's Doing in Minnesota

Duluth. — Six members of the Legislature from St. Louis county have filed as candidates for renomination and thirteen new aspirants have entered.

Moorhead. — S. N. Lee of Rollag has filed as a candidate for the Legislature, opposing Knud Wefald, the legislative "poet," for the Republican nomination.

Fairmont. — Political enthusiasm unsurpassed since the days of torchlight parades greeted Frank B. Kellogg, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, when he spoke here.

Brainerd. — The Mille Lacs-Leech Lake-Jefferson Highway association has been formed here by representatives of Cass, Mille Lacs and Crow Wing counties to obtain the routing of the highway through their counties.

Knife River. — Residents of this village went supperless as they took refuge in the open from the wall of flames that menaced their homes. The forest fire started in the region of Clover Valley, and the residents in that section were forced to flee for their lives.

Minneapolis. — The Minnesota National guard could not take the field for effective active war service without putting in several months in a mobilization camp, to give the men physical fitness to endure the rigors of a campaign, Adjt. Gen. Fred B. Wood says.

Winona. — The banker can have no greater prosperity than the community in which his bank is located, was the thought which ran through the annual convention of the First district group of Minnesota Bankers' association, the concluding sessions of which have just been held.

Duluth. — Charles P. Craig of Duluth, president of the State Fair board and chairman of the Efficiency and Economy commission in 1914, has filed as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Eighth Minnesota district. His opponent for the nomination will be the present congressman, Clarence B. Miller.

Brainerd. — The annual state convention of the Knights of Columbus opened in Brainerd, with delegates present from 49 councils, also all state officers, district deputies and a national officer, E. W. Buckley of St. Paul, national director. The present state membership of the order is 11,843, an increase of 1,400 for the year.

St. Paul. — The four-year term law for county officers has been upheld by a decision of the state supreme court. All sheriffs, county treasurers, auditors, county attorneys, registers of deeds, coroners, superintendents of schools and county surveyors elected in 1914 will hold over until 1918, and will not have to stand for re-election this year.

St. Cloud.—Rev. John Vander Boer, pastor of St. Bernard's Catholic church at Ward Springs, was overcome by fire and smoke while attempting to save his church. The unconscious form of the priest was found in the churchyard after the church had been burned to the ground. He saved practically all of the vestments and altar supplies.

Duluth. The ore movement from the Lake Superior district in April was the heaviest ever known in the initial month of navigation, aggregating 1,658,411 tons. The next heaviest April on record was that of 1910, when 1,520,305 tons were shipped The April traffic is indicative of the tremendous shipments that may be expected the rest of the year

St Paul The fact that a railroad company gives free transportation to a witness in a suit in coming to and going from the place of trial, does not bar the witness from receiving his mileage and per diem from the party in the suit who subpoenas him, according to a ruling handed down by the supreme court in the case of Adam Jakutis against the Illinois Central Railroad company, taken up from Ramsey county

St Paul The Minnesota Territorial Pioneers' association meeting at the old capitol on the 58th anniversary of the admission of Minnesota to statehood, brought together more than 100 men and women, notwithstanding the cold wind that kept many home and the funeral in Minneapolis of Frank Slocum, a pioneer, which many attended. Governor J A A Burnquist and former Governor S R Van Sant addressed the meeting

St. Paul. So serious are the financial affairs of Koochiching county that Attorney General Smith and Public Examiner Fritz have left to investigate and if possible to straighten out the tangle. The district, it is said, is practically threatened with bankruptcy. As one of the new counties, Koochiching has been constructing ditches and roads, and in doing so has bonded itself to the limit While figures are not available, the belief is that the bonding limit has even been exceeded

St Peter Arrangements for the 18th annual convention of the Third district group of the Minnesota Bankers' association which will be held in this city this week have been completed Two sessions will be held A tour of the city and surrounding country will be given the delegates

St. Paul.

It is going to cost students $10 more each to attend the University next year in the colleges of arts, agriculture, education and engineering. The board of regents has directed increase of fees in these colleges from the present total of $30 yearly per student to $40.

The increase was said to be necessitated by the heavy enrollments in these colleges, which demanded a larger teaching staff than the Legislature had provided for.

On motion of C. L. Sommers of St. Paul, the resolution to increase fees was made to apply to the year 1916-17 specifically. The other regents concurred with Mr. Sommers in holding that the old fee schedule might be resumed if the coming Legislature would appropriate liberally enough for instruction purposes. A. E. Rice of Willmar voted against the fee raising. A fee of $5 a semester was voted to apply to students in the University high school, beginning next fall. No fee has been heretofore exacted.

Ruling On Land Sales.

In land sales hereafter, bidders will be advised that if the land purchased at the state auctions is found afterward to possess timber of value, the certificates will be cancelled and the timber reserved for the state.

This announcement has been made by J. A. O. Preus, state auditor, following his visit to Bemidji, where he sold two small parcels of land.

Mr. Preus, for the first time announced the new rule, and as a result the bidders were scarce.

Mr. Preus said that in the past many instances have come to his notice, where purchaser would buy the state lands containing timber, pay the 15 per cent. of the purchase price required by the law, cut off the timber and then let the land go back to the state.

He cited instances where buyers had purchased state land on which the appraisers had estimated the timber at $360, and that 500,000 feet of lumber had been cut off. At the minimum figure of $4 a thousand feet, this timber would have been worth $20,000.

* * *

Reforests Cut-Over Lands.

Minnesota has 2,800,000 acres of idle land, unsuited to agriculture. Of this acreage more than half is cut-over land, most of which has reverted to the state because it was too poor to pay taxes on. Why this land, capable of raising the finest timber in the world, should lie idle is worrying state economists. The college of forestry of the University of Minnesota is offering a solution to the problem and through the work of the station at Cloquet is obtaining tangible results Millions of young trees are being seeded each year and other millions transplanted—the initial work of reforesting the cut-over lands of Minnesota

To women who are suffering from some form of woman's special ills, and have a constant fear of breaking down, the three following letters ought to bring hope:—

North Crandon, Wis.—"When I was 16 years old I got married and at 18 years I gave birth to twins and it left me with very poor health. I could not walk across the floor without having to sit down to rest and it was hard for me to keep about and do my work. I went to a doctor and he told me I had a displacement and ulcers, and would have to have an operation. This frightened me so much that I did not know what to do. Having heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I thought I would give it a trial and it made me as well as ever. I cannot say enough in favor of the Pinkham remedies."—Mrs. Mayme Asbach, North Crandon, Wis.

Testimony from Oklahoma.

Lawton, Okla.—"When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I seemed to be good for nothing. I tired easily and had headaches much of the time and was irregular. I took it again before my little child was born and it did me a wonderful amount of good at that time. I never fail to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to ailing women because it has done so much for me."—Mrs. A. L. McCasland, 509 Have St., Lawton, Okla.

From a Grateful Massachusetts Woman.

Roxbury, Mass.—"I was suffering from inflammation and was examined by a physician who found that my trouble was caused by a displacement. My symptoms were bearing down pains, backache, and sluggish liver. I tried several kinds of medicine; then I was asked to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has cured me and I am pleased to be in my usual good health by using it and highly recommend it."—Mrs. B. M. Osgood, 1 Haynes Park, Roxbury, Mass.

A Famous Physician's Wonderful Discovery

After a series of experimental tests at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., covering many years Dr Pierce the medical director of that hospital, made announcement that he could prove that a medicine which he called "ANURIC" was the best uric acid solvent now to be had. As a remedy for those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—as scalding urine, backache and frequent urination as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gout, it is simply wonderful how quickly "Anuric" acts; causing the pains and stiffness rapidly to disappear.

Swollen hands, ankles, feet are due to a dropsical condition, often caused by disordered kidneys. Naturally, when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists, or under the eyes in bag like formations

It is just as necessary to keep the kidneys acting properly as to keep the bowels active

The very best possible way to take care of yourself is to take a glass of hot water before meals and an "Anuric" tablet. In this way it is readily dissolved with the food picked up by the blood and finally reaches the kidneys where it has a tonic effect in rebuilding those organs

Step into the drug store and ask for a 50-cent package of "Anuric" or send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial pckg "Anuric" many times more potent than lithia eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar A short trial will convince you. Adv.

CASEMENT FACES LONDON COURT ON TREASON CHARGE

MUCH INTEREST IN CASE, ADMISSION RESTRICTED

London, May 16.—Sir Roger Casement, who only a few years ago achieved international fame for the services he rendered his government in the exposure of the Putumayo rubber atrocities, is facing the bar in an ordinary police court for a preliminary examination to determine whether he should be held for trial on the charge of high treason against the same government in connection with the rebellion in Ireland. Beside Casement stood Daniel Julian Bailey, who faced a similar charge.

Admission Is Restricted.

Not in many years has so much popular interest been manifested in a case before the courts. Long before the hour set for the hearing crowds began to gather outside the Bow Street court, hoping to gain admittance, or at least to have a glimpse of the man alleged to have been the moving spirit in the recent Irish conspiracy.

Admission was restricted to about 100 persons, including representatives of the press.

Among the earliest arrivals in the court was Sir Horace Plunkett of the department of agriculture in Ireland. He took a seat near the magisrate. It was understood Sir Horace was merely a spectator. A number of relatives and friends of Casement, including seven handsomely gowned women, also were present.

Appears Undisturbed.

The stage was all set when the principal was led into the court. Sir John Dickinson, was presided, the lawyers and the witnesses all having taken their places before Casement arrived at 10:40 o'clock and entered the dock.

Far from appearing deeply disturbed at his position, Sir Roger Casement smiled and nodded as he saw friends in the courtroom. With Sir Roger was Daniel Bailey, an Irish soldier captured by the Germans early in the war. He went from Germany to Ireland in the submarine with Sir Roger and was taken prisoner at Tralee.

Two Defendants on Trial.

In the formal charge Casement is described as of no occupation and no fixed abode. The charge against both defendants read:

"For that they did between the first day of November, 1914, and on divers other occasions between that day and the 21st day of April, 1916, unlawfully, maliciously and traitorously commit high treason within and without the realm of England in contempt of our sovereign lord and king and his laws, to the evil example of others in like case and contrary to the duty and allegiance of the said defendants"

Casement is reported to have made a long statement to the authorities and it is believed that the statement will shorten the hearing before the magistrate. The police court hearing is merely a preliminary to the real trial, which will take place later before a panel of the judges of the high court of justice

Are Near Main Line of Communication Near Bagdad.

Petrograd, May 16.—Developing a swift offensive movement on the extreme south, the Russians have crossed the Persian frontier southwest of Lake Urumiah and are now within 80 miles of the main line of communication of the Turkish army south of Bagdad.

The Slavs have reached the region of Roanduse, several miles inside the Turkish frontier. They are marching westward toward the ruins of ancient Nineveh and the Mesopotamian city of Mosul. Unless checked by the Turks within a fortnight, they will be threatening to cut off the Turkish forces holding back the British at Kut-el-Amara.

No development of the grand duke's successful offensive in the Caucasus has brought such surprise as the news of the appearance of another Russian army near the Turks' line of communication.

That the grand duke has outwitted the Turks and their German tutors is the belief here

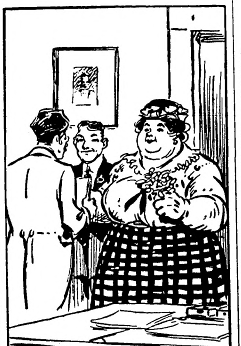
WEIGHS 475 POUNDS MORE THAN HUBBY

Judge Refuses to Accept Fee "Because Bride Will Require Some Feeding."

St. Louis.—A blushing young woman who was about to become a bride and who weighed 615 pounds, hesitated at the entrance of an elevator in the Four Courts building the other day, and warned the conductor of the possible consequences if she went aboard. When she was assured that the cable would hold her she ventured and was hoisted with her intended husband, Harry West, who weighs 140, to the office of Judge Calvin Miller. There the pair were married.

When the ceremony was completed, West reached into his pocket, drew forth a prosperous-looking roll of bills, peeled off one marked "V" and handed it to the judge.



The Pair Were Married.

"No, no, you keep that," objected his honor. "You'll need it, for she'll require some feeding."

"Better take it," said the bridegroom. "There are plenty of 'em here."

But the judge's decision could not be changed, and the newlyweds, equipped with passports for their matrimonial journey, again braved the elevator. Then they went on a honeymoon. They would not announce their destination because they said they did not want the trip disturbed by mischievous and would-be humorous friends.

In applying for a marriage license the bride gave her name as Mrs. Gertrude Barker and her age as "over eighteen years." West gave his age as "over twenty-one years."

RAT IN THE GIRL'S SKIRTS

Green Bay, Wis.—Passengers on an interurban electric car running between Green Bay and Depere, Wis., were thrown into a panic by the screams of a young woman and the discovery that a rat had taken refuge in her skirts. When the panic subsided the men in the car gazed from the windows while the young lady removed her skirts and shook out the rodent, which had been beaten to death

A girl from Depere and her escort were the principal figures especially the girl, under whose skirts the rat found false security. The escort caught the squirming animal in the folds of the girl's clothing and clubbed it to death with his cane. Other male occupants of the car looked on but offered no assistance, while all the women took a hand in the screaming act.

HEROISM IS HIS UNDOING

Ex-Drunkard Decides a Drink Is Just Reward for Bravery In Resisting.

Montclair.—In her annual report, Mrs. Nettie H Patterson, superintendent of the Altruist society here, said that the society's officers had been trying to effect the reformation of a drinking man whose excesses had impoverished his family. Finally he was induced to sign a pledge that he would not indulge for a year

To demonstrate to his wife that he could remain steadfast the man, according to Mrs. Patterson walked twice past a saloon where he had been wont to spend his earnings, each time preening himself on the strength of his will power. As he was about to pass the third time he turned to his wife and said: "Such bravery deserves a drink," and he went inside and got it.

CONFEREES AGREE ON A COMPROMISE BILL FOR BIG ARMY

PROPOSE DEFENSE FORCE IN TIME OF PEACE OF 654,000 MEN INCLUDING REGULARS AND NATIONAL GUARDSMEN

IS REPORTED TO BOTH BRANCHES OF CONGRESS

Measure Includes All Provisions Urged by "Big Army Men Except Federal Reserve—Chairmen Urge Passage—Action is Expected Immediately.

Washington, May 15.—A defense force in time of peace of 654,000 men is proposed in the army bill which Senate and House conferees have just reported to both branches of Congress after several weeks' conference.

Though a compromise, the measure includes all the provisions urged by "big army" men except the federal reserve.

With both chairmen urging its passage, action is expected immediately.

Regular Army of 206,000 Men.

The defense force will consist of an army of regulars totaling in all its branches 206,000 men in time of peace and 448,000 national guardsmen, 800 for each senator and representative. The regular army's peace strength of 206,000 can be expanded to 254,000 in time of war.

In the agreement on the regular army the Senate bill system of organization was retained as a substitute for the House system, which would have recruited a maximum army of 140,000 men.

President Given Authority.

The regular line of the army, the bill now provides, can never go below 160,000 and its maximum strength in times of peace would be 175,000 officers and men. In this calculation, however, there are excluded 5,723 Philippine scouts, 6,409 in the quartermasters' corps 7,290 in the medical department 3,387 in the signal corps and 8,750 unassigned recruits, a total of 31,650.

These, added to the regular line of 175,000 me, give a total regular army peace strength of 206,6590. The President is authorized to increase the regular army divisions to maximum strength without congressional action.

65 Infantry Regiments.

Under the conference agreement the regular army would consist of 65 regiments of infantry, 25 regiments of cavalry, 21 regiments of field artillery, a coast artillery corps of 30,000 officers and men, a signal corps of 3,387 men, including the aviation section, and seven regiments of engineers. In the aviation section the number of officers is increased from a total of 60 to 148, including one colonel, one lieutenant colonel, eight majors, 24 captains and 114 first lieutenants.

The organization plan contemplates attaining the full peace strength within five years as proposed in the original preparedness plans.

VILLA AGAIN REPORTED SEEN

Field Headquarters of the American Expedition, near Namiquipa, Mexico, May 13, via Radio to Columbus, N. M., May 15 Pancho Villa with 1,100 followers has bobbed up again, this time at a ranch near Carrizo, according to reports reaching headquarters.

Carrizo is 40 miles northwest of La Ascension. The band was reported scattered along the Rio Carrolitos, made up of recruits from Sonora State and a sprinkling of the men who escorted Villa through the Sierra Madres. At headquarters the reported location aroused little interest. The redisposition of troops continued.

Watchful Waiting, Again U S Policy

Washington, May 15 The Mexican situation has simmered down again to watchful waiting. While contraction of the lines south of Columbus is practically accomplished, Major Langhorne's men apparently are on a hot trail after the Boquillas raiders and Carranzista soldiers are heading toward the Big Bend, avowedly to cooperate in running down the raiders.

President Wilson's Friend Dies.

Neenah, Wis., May 15.—Charles R Smith, timber king, credited as being the wealthiest man in Wisconsin, has died in New York of apoplexy, according to word received here. Smith was a personal friend and college classmate of President Wilson. He gave $5,000 to Wilson's campaign fund four years ago.

Irish Rebel Suspects Freed

London, May 15.—A large number of Dublin residents, arrested on suspicion, have been released from prison as the result of Premier Asquith's visit to the Irish capital, according to dispatches received here Several government employees were among the men released Others included persons suspected of having provisioned the Sinn Feiners while they were besieged by loyal troops and persons from whose houses snipers were active. Premier Asquith planned to continue his conferences at Dublin.

Fly Poison Kills More Children Than All Other Poisons Combined

For Safety's Sake, Use

Is there in your home, anywhere within baby's reach, a saucer of arsenic poisoned paper floating in water, or a can with a sweetened poisoned wick?

During 1915, 26 cases of fly poisoning were reported from 11 states; in 1914, 46 cases from 14 states. Fly poison kills more children than all other poisons combined.

Yet fly poison still is left unguarded except in the homes where mothers have learned that the safe, sure, non-poisonous, efficient fly catcher and destroyer is

TANGLEFOOT

"Symptoms of arsenical poisoning are very similar to those of cholera infantum; undoubtedly a number of cases of cholera infantum were really cases of arsenical poisoning, but death, if occurring, was attributed to cholera infantum.

"We repeat, arsenical fly destroying devices are dangerous and should be abolished. Health officials should become aroused to prevent further loss of life from their source. Our Michigan Legislature, this last session, passed a law regulating the sale of poisonous fly papers."

What's Doing in Minnesota

Duluth. — Six members of the Legislature from St. Louis county have filed as candidates for renomination and thirteen new aspirants have entered.

Moorhead. — S. N. Lee of Rollag has filed as a candidate for the Legislature, opposing Knud Wefald, the legislative "poet," for the Republican nomination.

Fairmont. — Political enthusiasm unsurpassed since the days of torchlight parades greeted Frank B. Kellogg, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, when he spoke here.

Brainerd. — The Mille Lacs-Leech Lake-Jefferson Highway association has been formed here by representatives of Cass. Mille Lacs and Crow Wing counties to obtain the routing of the highway through their counties.

Knife River. — Residents of this village went supperless as they took refuge in the open from the wall of flames that menaced their homes. The forest fire started in the region of Clover Valley, and the residents in that section were forced to flee for their lives.

Minneapolis. — The Minnesota National guard could not take the field for effective active war service without putting in several months in a mobilization camp, to give the men physical fitness to endure the rigors of a campaign, Adjt. Gen. Fred B. Wood says.

Winona. — The banker can have no greater prosperity than the community in which his bank is located, was the thought which ran through the annual convention of the First district group of Minnesota Bankers' association, the concluding sessions of which have just been held.

Duluth. — Charles P. Craig of Duluth, president of the State Fair board and chairman of the Efficiency and Economy commission in 1914, has filed as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Eighth Minnesota district. His opponent for the nomination will be the present congressman, Clarence B. Miller.

Brainerd. — The annual state convention of the Knights of Columbus opened in Brainerd, with delegates present from 49 councils, also all state officers, district deputies and a national officer, E. W. Buckley of St. Paul, national director. The present state membership of the order is 11,843, an increase of 1,400 for the year.

St. Paul. — The four-year term law for county officers has been upheld by a decision of the state supreme court. All sheriffs, county treasurers, auditors, county attorneys, registers of deeds, coroners, superintendents of schools and county surveyors elected in 1914 will hold over until 1918, and will not have to stand for re-election this year.

St. Cloud.—Rev. John Vander Boer, pastor of St. Bernard's Catholic church at Ward Springs, was overcome by fire and smoke while attempting to save his church. The unconscious form of the priest was found in the churchyard after the church had been burned to the ground. He saved practically all of the vestments and altar supplies.

Duluth. — The ore movement from the Lake Superior district in April was the heaviest ever known in the initial month of navigation, aggregating 1,658,411 tons. The next heaviest April on record was that of 1910, when 1,520,305 tons were shipped The April traffic is indicative of the tremendous shipments that may be expected the rest of the year.

St Paul. — The fact that a railroad company gives free transportation to a witness in a suit in coming to and going from the place of trial, does not bar the witness from receiving his mileage and per diem from the party in the suit who subpoenas him, according to a ruling handed down by the supreme court in the case of Adam Jakutis against the Illinois Central Railroad company, taken up from Ramsey county

St Paul. — The Minnesota Territorial Pioneers' association meeting at the old capitol on the 58th anniversary of the admission of Minnesota to statehood, brought together more than 100 men and women, notwithstanding the cold wind that kept many home and the funeral in Minneapolis of Frank Slocum, a pioneer, which many attended. Governor J. A. A. Burnquist and former Governor S. R. Van Sant addressed the meeting

St Paul. — So serious are the financial affairs of Koochiching county that Attorney General Smith and Public Examiner Fritz have left to investigate and if possible to straighten out the tangle. The district, it is said, is practically threatened with bankruptcy As one of the new counties Koochiching has been constructing ditches and roads, and in doing so has bonded itself to the limit. While figures are not available, the belief is that the bonding limit has even been exceeded

MEAL-TIME CONSCIENCE.
What Do the Children Drink?

There are times when mother or father feeds the youngsters something that they know children should not have. Perhaps it is some rich dessert but more often it is tea or coffee.

It is better to have some delicious, hot food-drink that you can take yourself and feed to your children, conscious that it will help and strengthen, but never hurt them.

A Yorkstate lady says: "I used coffee many years in spite of the conviction that it injured my nervous system and produced my nervous headaches. While visiting a friend I was served with Postum and I determined to get a package and try it myself. The result was all that could be desired—a delicious, finely flavored, richly colored beverage. Since I quit coffee, Postum has worked wonders for me.

"My husband, who had suffered from kidney trouble when drinking coffee, quit the coffee and took up Postum with me and since drinking Postum he has felt stronger and better, with no indication of kidney trouble.

"You may be sure I find it a great comfort to have a warm drink at meals that I can give my children, with a clear conscience that it will help and not hurt them as coffee or tea would."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms:

Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c pkgs.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both forms are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

It is going to cost students $10 more each to attend the University next year in the colleges of arts, agriculture, education and engineering. The board of regents has directed increase of fees in these colleges from the present total of $30 yearly per student to $40.

The increase was said to be necessitated by the heavy enrollments in these colleges, which demanded a larger teaching staff than the Legislature had provided for.

On motion of C. L. Sommers of St. Paul, the resolution to increase fees was made to apply to the year 1916-17 specifically. The other regents concurred with Mr. Sommers in holding that the old fee schedule might be resumed if the coming Legislature would appropriate liberally enough for instruction purposes. A. E. Rice of Willmar voted against the fee raising. A fee of $5 a semester was voted to apply to students in the University high school, beginning next fall. No fee has been heretofore exacted.

Ruling On Land Sales.

In land sales hereafter, bidders will be advised that if the land purchased at the state auctions is found afterward to possess timber of value, the certificates will be cancelled and the timber reserved for the state.

This announcement has been made by J. A. O. Preus, state auditor, following his visit to Bemidji, where he sold two small parcels of land.

Mr. Preus, for the first time announced the new rule, and as a result the bidders were scarce.

Mr. Preus said that in the past many instances have come to his notice, where purchaser would buy the state lands containing timber, pay the 15 per cent. of the purchase price required by the law, cut off the timber and then let the land go back to the state.

He cited instances where buyers had purchased state land on which the appraisers had estimated the timber at $360, and that 500,000 feet of lumber had been cut off. At the minimum figure of $4 a thousand feet, this timber would have been worth $20,000.

Reforests Cut-Over Lands.

Minnesota has 2,800,000 acres of idle land, unsuited to agriculture. Of this acreage more than half is cut-over land, most of which has reverted to the state because it was too poor to pay taxes on. Why this land, capable of raising the finest timber in the world, should lie idle is worrying state economists. The college of forestry of the University of Minnesota is offering a solution to the problem and through the work of the station at Cloquet is obtaining tangible results Millions of young trees are being seeded each year and other millions transplanted—the initial work of reforesting the cut-over lands of Minnesota

[illegible] experiments and tests at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., covering many years Dr. Pierce the medical director of that hospital, made announcement that he could prove that a medicine which he called "ANURIC" was the best uric acid solvent now to be had. As a remedy for those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—as scalding urine, backache and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gout, it is simply wonderful how quickly "Anuric" acts; causing the pains and stiffness rapidly to disappear.

Swollen hands, ankles, feet are due to a dropsical condition, often caused by disordered kidneys. Naturally, when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bag like formations.

It is just as necessary to keep the kidneys acting properly as to keep the bowels active

The very best possible way to take care of yourself is to take a glass of hot water before meals and an "Anuric" tablet. In this way it is readily dissolved with the food picked up by the blood and finally reaches the kidneys, where it has a tonic effect in rebuilding those organs.

Step into the drug store and ask for a 50 cent package of "Anuric" or send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial pckg "Anuric" many times more potent than lithia, eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar. A short trial will convince you. Adv.

A. G. Anderson

For Congressman

I have filed as a candidate for the Republication nomination for Congress in the Ninth Minnesota District. Owing to my personal business interests I have been reluctant to take this action, but have been persuaded by the persistent demands of a large number of the Republicans in all parts of the District.

I have prepared to accept the responsibility which I ask the voters of the Ninth District to confer upon me by placing myself in a position to devote all my time and energy to the duties of the office.

My platform is brief; I stand first and foremost for genuine Americanism and strict and honorable neutrality.

I would insist on a "dollar's worth of service for every dollar spent."

I know that the government records show that we are spending more to maintain our army and navy than did Germany, England, France before the present war, and I would demand a "dollar's worth of preparedness for every dollar so spent."

I believe in preparedness which would protect, but not one which would inspire the spirit of invasion or impose the burdens of militarism.

I stand for business methods, economy and efficiency in National government.

Yours truly,
A. G. Anderson.

ASKS OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY

GOVERNOR DESIGNATES TUESDAY, MAY 30—URGES APPROPRIATE EXERCISES.

STATE CAPITOL HAPPENINGS

Events of General Interest in Minnesota Condensed and Revised for The Greater Convenience of Busy Readers.

St. Paul.

"It is now more than half a century since the close of that terrible conflict in which so many gave up their lives upon the field of battle for the preservation of this nation and the perpetuation of that liberty for which it stands. Comparatively few of those who participated in the great struggle of that dark period of American history are today alive. Most of them are sleeping in the land they helped to make free and in the re-united country for which they were willing to die. The immortal service which the soldiers of the Civil War rendered to all of us, who in our generation are enjoying the results of their sacrifices, together with the valor of those who fought in the Spanish-American war for a righteous cause, can never be forgotten by the patriotic people of a grateful republic.

"Let us therefore, on MEMORIAL DAY, TUESDAY, MAY 30, 1916, close our public buildings, schools, stores, factories and other places of business, and upon that day suspend labor of all kinds, in order that we may hold appropriate memorial exercises, decorate the graves of the heroic dead, and again show our gratitude to them, who in the days when our country was in great danger so bravely went forth in its defense.

"Heretofore the children of our schools have been addressed by the old veterans on the Friday preceding Memorial Day, but this year, by reason of the large decrease in their number and on account of the age of those who remain, a special request comes from them that our state and municipal authorities and our citizens generally volunteer their services for this particular purpose. All, therefore, are hereby especially urged to assist in perpetuating this patriotic custom, to the end that every school in the state may be visited and the future guardians of the nation be inspired with the spirit of true loyalty and patriotism.

"IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereto affixed, at the Capitol, in the City of St. Paul, this 16th day of May, 1916."

J. A. A. BURNQUIST, Governor.

Forecasts 5-Year Drouth.

That we have to endure but one more year after this of rainy weather is the assertion of A. F. Woods, dean and director of the College of Agriculture. "Meteorologists for years have known that the visitation of rain periods occur periodically," Mr. Woods said. "The rain periods occur every twelve years and are of five years' duration. Then we have five years of drouth or, comparatively dry weather."

"This has been proved by the rings or grain of trees. The dry years are faithfully chronicled by the rings, being close together and hard. The wet years will be indicated by thicker rings."

If farmers will only study the tree rings they will be enabled to plant crops best adapted to that particular period, is the belief of Mr. Woods, who says there has been no appreciable variation in the weather periods for 2,000 years.

A few days of warm weather will counteract the harmful effect of the cold rains on crops in Minnesota, Mr. Woods said.

Seven Millions For Roads.

General resumption of road work in Minnesota is scheduled to begin at once according to John H Mullin, deputy engineer of the Minnesota Highway Commission in charge of roads. Already the machinery of counties is being overhauled. This year will see the greatest amount of road work ever attempted in Minnesota, with an expenditure of more than $7,000,000 to pay for 2,000 miles of grading and 1,000 miles of graveling. About $4,000,000 of this will be spent under the supervision of engineers of the highway commission.

Win in Triangular Debate.

Debaters from Minnesota Agricultural college won two victories in a triangular debate between the Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa Agricultural colleges. The Minnesota affirmative team was given two to one decision over the Iowa negative team at the university farm auditorium. The Minnesota negatives were given an unanimous decision over the Wisconsin affirmatives at Madison, Wis. The third of the series was between the Wisconsin negatives and the Iowa affirmatives.

What's Doing in Minnesota

Winona. — The number of candidates for the Republican congressional nomination in the First Minnesota district was reduced when George P. Tawney of Winona, cousin of former Congressman James A. Tawney, withdrew from the race.

Bemidji. — The Sixth district group of the Minnesota Bankers' association, in session here elected R. B. Withington of Brainerd, president; A. A. Fitch of Royalton, vice president; D. D. Bouck of Rice, secretary, and W. H. Smith of St. Cloud, treasurer.

Moorhead. — Clay county's annual "community picnic", will be held June 30, at the Mills farm, east of here, according to a decision of the Clay County Federation of Farmers' Clubs. The annual meeting of the Clay County Farm bureau will be held the same day.

St. Paul. — Major James M. Bowler, a Minnesota pioneer, former member of the Legislature and former state dairy and food commissioner, died at his home in St. Paul. He had been ill about ten weeks, from a complication of diabetes and an infection which necessitated amputation of his left foot.

New Ulm. — At the dedication of the New Ulm armory, Governor J. A. A. Burnquist was the principal speaker. He favored adequate preparation for defense. He complimented the citizens of New Ulm upon their splendid new armory and said it was evident they took a marked interest in military affairs.

Bemidji. — Northern Minnesota is suffering from a scarcity of labor. Lumber camps here can use 500 men at good salaries, and good accommodations. Men are being shipped in from many points, but the demand cannot be supplied, according to B. W. Lakin, logging superintendent of the Crookston Lumber company.

Thief River Falls. — One hundred bankers and twenty-five visitors attended the annual convention of the Ninth district group, Minnesota Bankers' association, here. Resolutions indorse the educational facilities offered by the American Institute of bankers through the Minnesota association, and co-operation in road legislation is urged.

Bemidji. — Miss Maud Clark of the Eighth grade of the Bemidji schools will represent Beltrami county in the state bread baking contest for girls at the Minnesota state fair next fall, provided no other contestant enters for state recognition, as Miss Clark, in a bread baking contest held in the Bemidji schools, won high score, her percentage being 93.

Jackson. — Jackson county had a gala celebration when a class of 176 rural eighth grade pupils were graduated at a program combined with that of other rural organizations of the county into a "May festival of rural education." The morning was taken up with a school officers' meeting. A parade was a feature. The day closed with a May pole dance.

St. Paul. — Whether it is desirable and possible to add two years of college work to the curriculum of every state high school is one of the questions to be considered at the first annual meeting of the All Minnesota Development association in the capitol June 14-15. Interest in the subject has been strengthened by the overcrowded condition at the University and the suggestion that such a step by the high schools would relieve congestion at the larger institution.

Mankato. — Two high school sophomores, Raymond Clausius, 16 years old, son of E Clausius, living near here, and Wayne Anderson, 15 year old son of Conductor O. Anderson of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, went canoeing in the Blue Earth river at Sibley park, and were drowned when their canoe overturned in the swift current of the swollen stream. Their first cries for help were unheeded, as they had been calling to friends on shore in fun.

Minneapolis. — What national guard officers believe is a new and drastic policy of the war department for bolstering up the efficiency of the guard all over the country has shown its effects in a series of orders just received by Adjutant General Fred B Wood, which have spread consternation among officers of the Minnesota guard organizations. Company M of the First infantry, located at Minneapolis, has been ordered mustered out on the ground of inefficiency, as have three companies of the Second infantry.

Minneapolis. — Plans by which a combined federal and state employment bureau may be established in Minnesota, with headquarters in Minneapolis, were discussed at a conference between Anthony Caminetti, United States commissioner-general of immigration, and W. F. Houk, state commissioner of labor. D. C. Adie, assistant secretary of the Minneapolis Civic & Commerce association, attended the meeting as a representative of the municipal body.

Rochester. — Plans have been completed for the sixth annual tournament of the Minnesota State Sportsmen's association to be held in Rochester on June 21, 22 and 23. Local officers of the gun club believe it will be the largest trap shooting event ever held in the state.

St. Paul. — Walter J Smith former state treasurer, who is serving a sentence at Stillwater prison, is rapidly recovering his health and has gained eight pounds in weight since his confinement. It was reported recently that friends will start him in a small bank when he is liberated.

CONTINUE DETERMINED OFFENSIVE IN MOUNTAINS—MAKE PROGRESS IN SOUTHERN TYROL—CAPTURE 3,000.

CROWN PRINCE'S ARMY IS HURLED BACK AT VERDUN

Desperate Fighting in Dead Man Hill Region Continues—Contest Enters Fourth Month—Violent Cannonading in Baltic Sea, Off Sweden, Reported.

London, May 23.—Continuing their determined offensive on the Italian front and extending its scope the Austrians have made further progress in the Southern Tyrol. The Vienna war office announces that the peak of the Armentara ridge has been carried. Several additional villages also have been occupied by the Austrians.

More than 3,000 Italians were captured in the fighting together with 25 cannon and eight machine guns.

Battle Enters Fourth Month.

Fighting of the most intense character is in progress in the Dead Man Hill region northwest of Verdun, where the Germans are desperately battling to break down the French defense and gain undisputed possession of this commanding eminence and the other key position to the Verdun fortress, Hill 304. The contest is entering its fourth month.

Paris bulletins record the repulse of renewed attacks by the crown prince's troops west of Dead Man Hill where the German lines were advanced as the result of furious assaults.

French Take Blockhouses.

Paris also claims the capture of several blockhouses that were held by the Germans in the Avocourt Wood southwest of Hill 304 and the beating off of German attempts to recapture the Haudromont Quarry, east of the Meuse near Douaumont, which the French took Monday.

Violent cannonading has been heard in the Baltic off the Swedish coast according to a news agency dispatch today leading to a report that German and Russian warships have had an engagement in these waters.

British Reported Beaten.

The British forces in the Sudan are reported by Constantinople to have met with a defeat in a battle with rebellious tribesmen in the province of Darfur.

WILSON MAKES FURTHER PROTEST TO ENGLAND

New Note On Mail Seizures Is Emphatic—To Be Dispatched to London at Once.

Washington, May 23.—The new note to Great Britain making further protest against interference with American mails has been laid before President Wilson and probably will be sent to London at once. The general terms of the note were framed at the State department but the President is including some of his own language.

The note is understood to protest particularly against the taking of vessels into British ports and there examining and retaining mail going to and from the United States. The American note will make plain that the United States cannot consent to continuance of the policy to which it already has objected.

SPAIN PLANS TO SOUND OUT PEACE SENTIMENT

London, May 23.—King Alfonso may initiate peace negotiations in the near future, Madrid papers stated, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. The Spanish ruler plans first to sound out peace sentiment in each of the belligerent countries. If results are satisfactory he will send Spanish statesmen to belligerent capitals to work out plans for a truce.

American Gets Prison Term.

London, May 23.—Jeremiah C. Lynch of New York, the American in whose behalf Ambassador Walter H. Page appealed to the British government at the request of President Wilson, has been sentenced to 10 years in prison for participation in the Irish rebellion, the American consul at Dublin has wired Ambassador Page. Lynch was convicted by a courtmartial.

Waite to Plead Insanity, Belief.

New York, May 23.—Four alienists headed the throng of witnesses gathered in the criminal branch of the supreme court for the trial of Dr Arthur Warren Waite. The young New York dentist, sportsman and man about town is charged with murder, first degree, in poisoning his father-in-law, John E. Peck, a wealthy manufacturer of Grand Rapids Mich. Prosecution believes that the defense will rely upon a plea of insanity. To combat this testimony, the state has engaged three medical experts.

The Cure.

Robert W. Chambers, the popular novelist, said in an antisuffrage address in Brooklyn:

"A modern girl—one of those pretty, vote-chasing, athletic modern girls who ride astride, swim in men's swimming suits, smoke cigarettes and read Wells and Shaw—a modern girl of this type repined one day at a tea because she could not be an aviator in the war.

"'Oh,' she sighed, blowing a cloud of cigarette smoke from her lips—'Oh, if heaven had only made me a man!'

"'Heaven did, my dear,' said a placid matron, 'and you'll find him some day, and then all this new-thought nonsense of yours will cease forever.'"

"Human Folk."

The people who live in the hearts of men are the "human beings" of history—the Lincolns, the Mark Twains and the Walt Whitmans of life who lounged through the world in shirtsleeves. They never took the trouble to put on airs, because they knew that if they did they would miss the whole show. The price of admission to that human show—the greatest show on earth—is to leave selfishness and pride at home. That done, you walk in past the doorkeeper without giving him anything but a wink.—Boston Globe.

The Easiest Way.

Tommy had a cold in his head, which confined him to the house, so he was allowed to invite his young friend, Jack, to tea.

Afterward the two small boys commenced playing hide-and-seek, and Tommy rushed into the dining room and asked his father to conceal him. This the father did, behind a big armchair.

Presently in came Jack, and instead of beginning his search, calmly threw himself down on the rug before the fire.

"Come Jack," said Tommy's father, aren't you going to look?"

"No fear," was the small boy's calm retort. "I'm waiting till he sniffs!"

THE REVEILLE

Hark! I hear the tramp of thousands,
And of armed men the hum;
Lo! a nation's hosts have gathered
Round the quick alarming drum—
Saying, "Come,
Freemen, come!
Ere your heritage be wasted," said the quick alarming drum.

"Let me of my heart take counsel:
War is not of life the sum;
Who shall stay and reap the harvest
When the autumn days shall come?"
But the drum
Echoed, "Come!
Death shall reap the braver harvest," said the solemn-sounding drum.

"But when won the coming battle,
What of profit springs therefrom?
What if conquest, subjugation,
Even greater ills become?"
But the drum
Answered, "Come!
You must do the sum to prove it," said the Yankee-answering drum.

"What if, 'mid the cannons' thunder,
Whistling shot and bursting bomb,
When my brothers fall around me,
Should my heart grow cold and numb?"
But the drum
Answered, "Come!
Better there in death united, than in life a recreant—Come!"

Thus they answered—hoping, fearing,
Some in faith, and doubting some,
Till a trumpet-voice proclaiming,
Said, "My chosen people, come!"
Then the drum,
Lo! was dumb,
For the great heart of the nation, throbbing, answered, "Lord, we come!"

LITTLE LEFT OF OLD APPOMATTOX

SOLDIERS of 1865 who revisit the town of Appomattox find that the half-century which has done so much for their country has done nothing for the hamlet made famous by the great event of Lee's surrender.

Indeed, the place has gone backward in fifty years. Its houses have fallen into decay or have disappeared, and its fields have grown up to pine.

The village of Appomattox Courthouse was never a considerable settlement. Like many another county seat in the South, it had its origin in a courthouse, a jail, a tavern, a house or two and a blacksmith shop—a center to which the inhabitants of a rural district could come at intervals to transact legal business.

A visitor to Appomattox Courthouse today—or "old Appomattox," as it is now called in that neighborhood—must be disappointed, unless he has the faculty of visualizing the momentous events that took place there, and near there, in April, 1865.

The court building had then stood there half a century. About 1890 it was burned. Today the square in which the old courthouse stood is covered with the debris of the fire, but out of the wreckage trees have grown up as companions to those that shaded the old courthouse before the fire.

The village that clustered around the courthouse has nearly disappeared. Four old frame structures have survived fire, storm and neglect, but these are sagging and out of joint and seem soon to pass away. One or two of these houses are tenantless. The tavern, once the Appomattox hotel, is the home of a farmer and the overseer of about 1,500 acres of adjacent land now owned by Col. George A Armes, a retired officer of the United States army, who lives in Washington. Another house is occupied by a small farmer who has not dwelt long in that part of the state.

The Surrender house, the McLean house, in which General Grant and his staff met Lee and his military secretary, is not there. It was a broad-fronted brick house with a covered porch across the front, with the entrance in the middle and a hallway through the center.

The house was torn down in 1892. It was proposed to reconstruct it at the World's Fair in Chicago, but after the demolition of the house the plan was carried no further, presumably for lack of funds. The piles of brick and lumber that had been the house are rotting in the garden. There has been some talk of a patriotic society building the house on its old site.

An interesting personal story goes with the history of the Surrender house. It was the home of William McLean who had moved to Appomattox from the vicinity of Bull Run, to avoid the scenes of war that destroyed the peace and safety of his family in 1861.

McLean was a farmer, then living in a frame house near Manassas on the road leading to Blackburns Ford on Bull Run. July 18 the first fighting between the troops of Gen. Irwin McDowell and Gen G T Beauregard took place at that ford, and General Beauregard took up his headquarters in the McLean house. A shell from a Union battery struck the house.

After the battle of Bull Run, July 21, 1861, McLean and his family moved to upper Fauquier county. He next moved to Lunenburg county. War followed him. Then, declaring that he would take his family so far from the fighting grounds that war would not further trouble them, he rented a house in the hamlet of Appomattox. Fate made this house the Surrender house.

The McLean house near Manassas long ago was a ruin, but another house near it, which Beauregard also used as headquarters, is often erroneously pointed out as the McLean house.

McLean's son—J. Wilmer McLean—is a business man in Manassas—a hamlet that since the war has grown into a thriving town.

The table in the McLean house at Appomattox on which the articles of surrender were written is in the National museum at Washington. The flag of truce under which the negotiations between Grant and Lee were conducted is also there, having been loaned to that institution by the widow of George A. Custer.

Colonel Whittaker of Grant's staff, who carried the flag, lives in Washington and is expected to take part in the celebration at Appomattox.

Maj. George C. Rounds of Manassas, a Civil war veteran, resident since the war at Manassas, who promoted the Blue and Gray reunion on the field of Bull Run, has promoted the coming fraternal celebration at Appomattox. Major Rounds has been urging upon the war department and congress for years the desirability of converting the battlefields of Bull Run into a national park. He also takes a keen interest in the future of Appomattox Courthouse.

On the surrender ground is now a dense pine growth, in which is the only important monument at Appomattox. It was erected by North Carolina April 9, 1905.

Though the Appomattox Courthouse village of the Civil war period has practically disappeared, there is a new and thriving town called Appomattox, which is now the county seat of Appomattox county. It is three miles from old Appomattox and is on the Norfolk & Western railroad.

During the Civil war there was a siding on this railroad called Appomattox station. It was here that Custer with his cavalry division got in front of Lee. The place has grown to be the town which today is called Appomattox.

When the old court building was destroyed by fire, the courthouse was rebuilt at Appomattox station.

The Wheat Yield Tells the Story of Western Canada's Rapid Progress

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The heavy crops in Western Canada have caused new records to be made in the handling of grains by railroads. For, while the movement of these heavy shipments has been wonderfully rapid, the resources of the different roads, despite enlarged equipments and increased facilities, have been strained as never before, and previous records have thus been broken in all directions.

The largest Canadian wheat shipments through New York ever known are reported for the period up to October 15th, upwards of four and a quarter million bushels being exported in less than six weeks, and this was but the overflow of shipments to Montreal, through which point shipments were much larger than to New York.

Yields as high as 60 bushels of wheat per acre are reported from all parts of the country; while yields of 45 bushels per acre are common.

Thousands of American farmers have taken part in this wonderful production. Land prices are still low and free homestead lands are easily secured in good localities, convenient to churches, schools, markets, railways, etc.

There is no war tax on land and no conscription.

Huge Profits in Utah Mining Stocks

The unheard-of prices for silver, lead and copper has created a boom in Utah mining stocks such as was never before experienced. Speculators and investors who pay heed to what we are telling them now should make bigger profits through the purchase of Utah mining stocks than they can ever hope to make in any other form of investment.

Here Is a Chance to Make Money Quickly!

We are offering for immediate subscription 50,000 shares

Whirlwind Consolidated

At 12½c Per Share, Net

The property of the Whirlwind Consolidated Mining Company is located in the American Fork mining district—the district which is now attracting more attention than any other of the rich silver-lead-gold districts of Utah—about thirty miles southeast of Salt Lake City.

To give you an idea as to whether the stock offered is cheap at the price or not, let us explain that its next-door neighbors are all commanding much higher prices while Whirlwind has just as good a chance to make a bonanza silver-lead mine as any of them.

The Dutchman Mine, which adjoins the Whirlwind on the south side, is a big producer and ships ore regularly. It is now mining close to Whirlwind lines. Dutchman stock cannot be bought at any price. The Texan, which adjoins on the north, sells at 28c to 30c a share. Miller Hill, which adjoins on the northeast, sells at about the same price. Pacific, one of the big mines of the camp, also scrapes elbows with Whirlwind on the northeast, is $1.00 bid, with $1.25 asked.

Whirlwind Consolidated

At 12½c a Share Is a Rare Bargain and Should Be Snapped Up at Once

If you want to make money, send in an order for some of this stock—500 or 1,000 shares at least—just as quick as you can, for the allotment will all be gone before you know it. It would be best to wire for what you want and send your money by mail, stating in your letter in whose name the certificates are to be made out. Whirlwind is listed on the Salt Lake Stock and Mining Exchange and is traded in every day.

This is a chance of a lifetime. Take our word for it and when we have something else to offer that is good we will try and let you know about it, so that you can get another whirl at this big market.

We have been in business here for over seventeen years. As to our responsibility we refer you to any bank in the state of Utah, Dun's or Bradstreet's. Now take our advice and let us show you how to make money in Utah mining stocks.

We handle all Utah mining stocks and want your business. Free Market Letters on request.

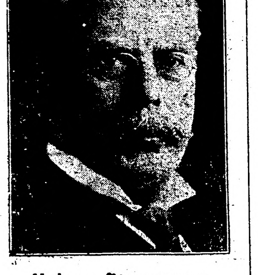
An Expert on Postal Affairs



Halvor Steenerson
Congressmam, 9th Minn. Dist., & candidate for renomination at primaries June 19th 1916

The most important work of congress is done by old members, who have, through ability, long experience and study, become experts on one particular subject.

The post office department of the U. S. is the largest business itstitution in the world. It comes closer to the people than any other department of the goverment. The services of the best talent in the country in the direction of its affairs is none to good.

Halvor Steenerson is one of the best posted men in America on postal affairs. This was recognized when, in 1914, he was selected, by the democratic administration, as one of the three American delegates to the International Postal Union congress at Madrid, Spain.

The rural mail delivery service was first proposed by Major Kyle, a congressman from South Dakota. But its development has been largely by the efforts of the present congressman from this district, and it is his ambition to see it extended to reach every farmer in the country. He has always given the affairs of the district careful attention and has been active in other matters, but his services on the Committee on Post Office and Post Roads is his special contribution to the welfare of the country.

When Halvor Steenerson became a member of congress he abandoned the largest law practice in northern Minnesota, and an income larger than the salary of a congressman. He did so because he was not ambitious for great riches, and had a desire to serve the country in its highest law-making body. He is one of the men in congress who faithfully and diligently studies every issue that come before them and his acts are based on knowledge of the facts, as far as they can be found. He desires to continue in service and will appreciate your vote.

Respectfully Submitted to the Voters,

Steenerson Campaign Committee.

Nelson Indorsement For A. G. Anderson

Genuine Americanism of Congressional Candidate Impresses Senior Senator

By George F. Authier.
(From Minneapolis Tribune)

Washington, May 20th. -(Special) Senator Knute Nelson yesterday commenting on the personality of A. G. Anderson, candidate for Congress in the Ninth district. Senator Nelson unhesitatingly put his O. K. on Mr. Anderson. The phase in Mr. Anderson's character that appears to appeal to Senator Nelson most is his genuine Americanism.

"I have known Mr. Anderson," said Senator Nelson, "ever since he came from Iowa many years ago, and have always found him to be an honest, trustworthy, and reliable man, both in business and in politics.

He is thorough-going Republican and possessed of a genuine spirit of true Americanism, having the welfare of our common country uppermost in his heart. He always has taken a great interest in public affairs. I frequently, in times past have consulted him on important public questions and have found that his diagnosis and conclusions were fair, just and sound."

FRENCH RE-OCCUPY PART OF CUMIERES HELD BY GERMANS

AUSTRIANS CLAIM GAINS; ITALIANS MAKE STAND

Vienna Announces Capture of Entire Mountain Ridge in Bitter Trentino Struggle— Sinking of Italian Steamer Morivia and British Vessel Danewood Reported.

London, May 29.—The tide of battle at Verdun has again turned in favor of the French, according to the latest official bulletins from Paris.

Attacking the German lines to the west of the river Meuse, French troops have recaptured part of the village of Cumieres, which the Germans stormed earlier in the week. Trenches northwest of the village also were reclaimed in the French attack, while on the opposite bank of the river Paris claims the repulse of a German effort to gain further ground in the neighborhood of Fort Douaumont.

Vienna Claims Success.

Vienna announces a notable success for the Austrians in the bitter struggle waged in the Trentino. They have captured the entire mountain ridge stretching from Cornociocampe to Maata, inflicting heavy losses on the Italians and capturing more than 2,500 prisoners, besides four cannon and as many machine guns.

Austrians Held in Check.

Rome officially reports the Italians making a determined stand which held the Austrians in check in all but one sector of the front. An Italian retirement from an advanced position on the Astico river is admitted. It is in this district that the Austrians have been exerting the heaviest pressure and in the Asiago sector along this front the Rome war office records the continuance of the battle with varying fortunes. The main Austrian attack here is on the Italians' positions east of Assa valley.

The sinking of the Italian steamer Morivia of 2,288 tons by a German submarine is reported from Paris. The British steamer Danewood also has been sunk.

TWO KILLED IN COLLEGE FIRE

Lose Lives When Flames Gut Iowa School Building.

Oskaloosa, Iowa, May 29.—Two men were killed, two probably fatally injured and property damage estimated at between $80,000 and $100,000 was wrought by the fire in the main building of Penn college here.

Robert H. Williams, business manager of the college and state secretary of the Prohibition party, and Harry Oakley, a freshman, were killed.

George Minear and Howard Kelley, students, are in the hospital and may die. The flames reached a 40-gallon tank of alcohol, which exploded, scattering liquid fire in all directions.

"SAVIOR OF PARIS" IS DEAD

General Gallieni Passes Away Following Operation.

Paris, May 29.—Joseph S. Gallieni, until recently French minister of war and popularly known as the "savior of Paris," died at Versailles, following an operation for kidney trouble.

Gallieni, a veteran of the Franco-Prussian war, was one of the most brilliant members of the French general staff. His daring stroke against Germans early in the war is said not only to have had much to do with saving Paris from capture by the kaiser's armies, but marked a turning point in the European struggle.

Empire Builder of North West Dies On Monday

St. Paul, May 29.—James J. Hill, the most widely known figure of the northwest, died at his Summit avenue residence at 9:30 o'clock this morning as the result of an infection developing from bowel trouble. Hill was unconscious for nearly twelve hours before he died.

Following a relapse late yesterday of the aged financier, he failed rapidly during the night. All members of his family were at the bedside with the exception of Mrs. Anson M. Beard of New York, a daughter.

Just as Hill was dying two Little Sisters of the Poor approached the house from the south driveway. They were met at the door, and extended their sympathy. Then they left quickly.

One of the first to leave the house was John J. Toomey, Hill's confidential business agent and associate for years. Toomey took his departure at 9:50. He was quickly followed by Ralph Budd, assistant to the president of the Great Northern.

Louis W. Hill was next to leave. He walked between Rev. Father Thomas J. Gibbons, vicar general of the St. Paul arch-diocese, and George McPherson, an intimate friend of the family. Grief showed plainly on the face of the empire builder's successor. All three went to L. W. Hill's residence.

At this juncture Dr. Egil Boeckman's car drove up with Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Hill and Mrs. Louis Hill. Both women were crying.

Hill's wealth is estimated at a quarter billion. Besides having absolute control of the First National bank and Northwestern Trust Co., Hill was a large owner in the Chase National bank of New York, the First National of Chicago, and the Northwestern National of Minneapolis.

The estate will probably be held in trust by the Northwestern company.

Louis W. Hill, the oldest son, will take up his father's work. He has been closely associated with his father for the past ten years.

According to a statement issued by the surgeons at noon today, Mr. Hill died of blood poison, due from intestinal catarrh and hemorrhoids. Governor Burnquist has ordered that all public flags be half-masted until after the Hill funeral, probably Thursday. Archbishop Ireland will conduct the services.

WALL STREET MOURNS HIS LOSS.

New York, May 29.—News of the death of the man who for two generations has been a dominant personality in the financial community was received in Wall street with many expressions of sorrow and a feeling of personal loss, as Hill had many personal friends and was a popular figure in the street. His death did not cause the slightest disturbances in stocks. Great Northern and Northern Pacific were virtually inactive. They were heavy at the opening, being off one point, but recovering later. Hill last visited here six weeks ago.

James J. Hill discovered "the bread-basket of the world", in the Great Northwest; he led in its development from a wilderness into what now comprises six wealthy states dotted with 400,000 farms; and he blazed a trail for transportation which reached eventually from Buffalo to Asia, with a total mileage of rail and steamship facilities that would nearly girdle the earth.

That but roughly spans the story of his achievement.

Near Guelph, in Ontario, where James J.(erome) Hill was born in 1838, the son of an Irish-Canadian farmer who died when the boy was 15, there stands a tree stump labeled: "The last tree chopped by James J. Hill."

It marked the lad's resolution to go to the United States. He had been prompted by an odd incident. According to the story that is told, a strange traveler had stopped at the Hill farm to take dinner, and left his horse at the gate. Young Hill saw the animal was tired and he carried it a pail of water. The stranger was pleased with the lad's thoughtfulness, and as he drove off he tossed him a newspaper from the United States, and called out gravely:

"Go there, young man. That country needs youngsters of your spirit."

Hill read the paper carefully. It contained glowing accounts of opportunities in the States. He resolved to investigate for himself. It was the next morning that he chopped his last tree.

As a mere roustabout lad of 18, he toured from Maine to Minnesota. When, in 1856, he disembarked from a Mississippi river packet at St. Paul that place was a frontier town of 5,000 inhabitants. At the sign of W. J. Bass & Co., agents for the Dubuque & St. Paul Packet company, he found a job as both stevedore and clerk.

In the fifteen years that followed he seized every opportunity to study the whole problem of river transportation. He gathered no end of experience and a little capital with which he launched his own firm of Hill, Grass & Co., which promptly displayed its initiative by bringing the first load of coal that had ever been seen in that section into St. Paul. Two years later, with a flat-bottomed steamer he established the first regular communication with St. Paul and the Manitoba ports of the fertile Red River valley.

At about that time St. Paul was having its first experiment in railroad building. Eighty miles had been laid to St. Cloud, 316 miles to Breckenridge, both of which terminals were at the southern end of the Red River valley, and there were about 100 miles of track "which began nowhere and ended in that same indefinite spot." This venture ran up a debt of $33,000,000 and collapsed, with its only assets being "a few streaks of rust and a right of way."

Hill had had sufficient success in the region to be seized with a consuming desire to purchase the defunct property. After five years of financial dickering, including the sale of all his other interests, which netted a fortune of $100,000, he and a syndicate of three others—Sir Donald A. Smith, George Stephen, and Norman W. Kittson—obtained the object of this desire.

The St. Paul, Minnesota and Manitoba railway was formed to operate the property, with Hill as general manager. When in 1883 Mr. Hill was elected president he undertook the extension of the road from its Dakota and Minnesota homestead to the Pacific ocean. He was confronted by three great competitors to the south, each of which had received big bonuses as government aid, whereas the "Manitoba" or the Great Northern, as it came to be known, did not have a dollar of government subsidy or an acre of grant to forward its progress from the Minnesota boundary to the sea.

TO EXTEND THE U. S. IDEA.

"Whereas, Under the leadership of George Washington and others, 13 hostile, quarreling and jealous states were, in 1787-1789, brought into such relations, through federation under a written constitution, that war between these states and 35 other states since joined with them under that constitution is now not only impossible, but unthinkable; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the government of the United States should indicate immediately that this country is prepared to meet the representatives of all the democratic nations of the world in a convention the purpose of which shall be to extend the ideals expressed in Philadelphia in 1787, and thus promote the solidarity and the peace of the whole civilized world."

WITHERING FIRE IS HOLDING GERMANS IN VERDUN BATTLE

FRENCH REPLYING TO TEUTONS' GUNS SHOT FOR SHOT—VICIOUS INFANTRY ATTACKS CONTINUE UNABATED.

CONTINUE ATTACKS ON EAST BANK OF MEUSE

German Troops Extend Positions and Cross Douamont Ravine—Rome Reports Repulse of Austrian Attacks—Turks Stop Russians on Persian Front.

Berlin, May 27.—German troops have continued successfully their attacks on the east bank of the Meuse, extending their positions to the west of Haudremont quarry and crossing the Douaumont ravine, the war office announces. South of Fort Douamont the French were driven back farther. The Germans captured an additional 600 prisoners and 12 machine guns.

London, May 27. — The battle of Verdun continues unabated. On both sides of the Meuse river, northeast and northwest of the fortress, the Germans are keeping up their unprecedented bombardments and vicious infantry attacks while the French are replying to the German guns virtually shot for shot, and under a withering fire holding the Germans at almost every point.

Penetrate French Lines.

One more gain, however, has been made by the Germans. After recapturing Fort Douaumont and taking trenches south and southwest of the fort, the Germans to the west have occupied a section of French trenches after a series of attacks, in all of which they were repulsed with heavy casualties, except the one where they penetrated the French lines.

Around Douaumont a heavy artillery duel is in progress, and northwest of Verdun the Germans have increased their artillery fire against the French on Hill 304, probably preparatory to another infantry attack for possesison of this much-fought-for vantage point.

Slavs Repulse Germans.

A German attack aginst the Russians west of Dalin Island gave them momentarily the possession of a Russian advanced trench, a counter-attack by the Russians dislodging the invaders.

An attempt by the Teutons to advance aginst the Russians north of Olyke station, southeast of Lutsk, was repulsed by the Russians.

In the region southeast of Trent and across the border in Italy, Rome reports the repulse of Austrian attacks and the throwing back of the attackers in disorder. In the Astico-Posina region the Italians are replying effectively to the bombardment of the Austrians.

Turks Stop Russians.

In connection with the fighting on the Persian front, according to Constantinople, the Turks have stopped the advance of the Russians in the region of Kasr-I-Shirin, and also defeated Russian detachments at Sulamanish, north of Kasr-I-Shirin.

WOMEN TO REFORM DRESS

Federation of Clubs Stand for Standardizing Street Attire.

New York, May 29.—Shall the women of America standardize their street dress?

Two thousand women delegates, alternates and visiting club members of the thirteenth biennial convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs answered the foregoing question in the affirmative at an open conference of the Home Economics committee of the federation yesterday. The committee has devoted two years to investigating the practicability of the plan and as a result it is prepared to introduce a resolution favoring it at next week's session of the convention. Gowns for evening wear are to be excluded from the proposed limitations.

ONLY FEW CONTESTED SEATS

Big Majority of Delegates to Republican Convention Elected.

Chicago, May 27.—There will be fewer delegate seats contested in the Republican national convention which meets in the Coliseum on June 7, than in any national convention of the party in 20 years. With all the 985 delegates to the 1916 convention elected, with the exception of those from West Virginia, which will be chosen by direct primary June 6, only 53 contests have been filed with Secretary Reynolds of the Republican National committee.

Swindled Out of $10,000.

East St. Louis, Ill., May 24.—A man giving the name of John R. Harris told the police that he had been swindled out of $10,000 in a fake "fixed horse race." He said he turned his money over to three men at a hotel here and that in a few minutes they left the hotel ostensibly to get some money from a safe deposit vault. A bellboy said he saw men answering the description of the alleged swindlers start towards Belleville in an automobile.

St. Paul. — The State of Minnesota cannot tax inheritances of bonds of a Minnesota corporation transferred by will or under the interstate law by a non-resident to non-resident heirs, according to a per curiam opinion of the supreme court in suit brought in the district court of Ramsey county to collect inheritance tax upon the estate of Francis H. Jury Law Is Valid.

Minnesota's "five-sixth Jury law," which permits a jury hearing a civil action to return a verdict signed by any ten or eleven members of the panel after twelve hours' consideration, has just been held to be valid by the United States Supreme Court and not in conflict with the Federal Constitution. The case in point is the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad company against the estate of Constantine Nanos, deceased.

The railroad company attacked the validity of the Minnesota law, declaring that it contravenes the seventh amendment of the Federal Constitution. The Nanos estate was awarded a five-sixths verdict aginast the company in compliance with the state law. The company appealed to the higher tribunal in Washington from the Minnesota Supreme Court decision which upheld the validity of the law.

Chief Justice White, who delivered the opinion of the court, said that the contention that the Constitution had been violated "is in conflict with an essential principle on which our dual constitutional system of government rests."

Case Puzzles Board.

Representatives of the Algor Smith Lumber company, and the Virginia & Rainy Lake Railroad company have answered charges of trespass on state lands before the state timber board. The charges grew out of the cutting of timber for the railroad's right-of-way.

The representatives of the two companies asserted that it was not a case of willful trespass, and offered to pay for the timber they had cut.

The case was referred to Attorney General L. A. Smith for settlement, ambiguity in the law relating to such instances making it impossible for the board to decide the question.

Schools To Save Paper.

Teachers pupils and school authorities of the state have been requested by C. G. Schulz, state superintendent to save their waste paper in aid of the movement which has become nation-wide to conserve the print paper supply of the country. Mr. Schulz suggests to the teachers and pupils that the saving of the waste paper about the schools and the homes of each not only will prove profitable, but will inculcate the habit of public cleanliness. Paper and rags can be sold best in carload lots.

DAIRYING IN WESTERN CANADA

Accompanying Industries Also Prove Highly Profitable.

The cheese industry throughout western Canada today is in a highly flourishing condition and is bound in a very short time to become much more important. The war has created a great demand for that article, and its use abroad has given it a lot of useful advertising. The article known as Canadian cheese is now sought not only by the soldier in the trenches, but by the ordinary civilian consumer, who, having used it, is quick to appreciate its value. This means that after the war there will be a demand created for it that would not otherwise have been. Up to the present the war needs have limited the local supply, but with the increased effort that is now being put forth it is hoped that this will be met. As a matter of course the prices are high, and the farmers who contribute to the cheese factories are making money.

The cheese season is now fully open and there is every prospect of an excellent year because the high price which obtained last year will undoubtedly be maintained this season. Western Canada has all the natural resources for the making of cheese, the feed and the cool nights, two things essential, and in time it is bound to become one of the finest cheese countries of the continent.

The lower foothills of Alberta, used only at the present time as ranges or for no purpose, will in time produce cheese in great quantities, and doubtless will soon equal the famous uplands of Denmark.

The cool nights mean the better keeping of milk and cream and cheese, and that is a great thing for the industry, especially when combined with possibilities of cattle feed such as exist on the long slopes from the Rockies eastward.

The hog market, which may be classed as an adjunct of farming, is an exceedingly good one, and the low cost at which the feed can be produced, coupled with the high prices realized, make this industry very profitable.

One of the first thoughts that occur to the mind of the average prospective settler is the likelihood of suitable markets. In this connection the following table will be illuminating. It is supplied by the P. Burns company, packers and exporters, of Calgary, and shows the average monthly price paid for hogs for the six years 1910 to 1915 inclusive. When one considers the low initial cost of the land and the small overhead cost of maintenance and feed, these prices challenge comparison.

	1910	1911	1912	1913	1914	1915
January		7¾	8	8	7¾	$6.71
Feb.		7¾	8½	8½	8	6.96
March		7¾	8	8½	7½	7.16
April		7½	8¼	8¾	7½	8.06
May		7½	9	8½	7	8.26
June		7	8½	8	6.85	8.30
July		7¼	8½	8	8	8.12
August	8	8	8¾	8½	8½	7.93
Sept.	8	9½	9	8¾	7¾	8.86
Oct.	8	8¼	8½	7¾	6	9.02
Nov.	7¾	9	8½	7	6½	8.36
Dec.	7¾	8½	8¼	7¼	6¼	8.70½

A farmer of Monarch, Alberta, claims the distinction of being the first in the province to sell a carload of hogs at the high price of eleven cents a pound, live weight. The sale was made a short time ago at Calgary, and at that time was a record, although prices have since gone as high as $11.12½ per hundredweight. With such prices available for hogs the farmer has a market for everything his farm produces, as there is practically no farm product which cannot be converted into good hog flesh. The uncertainty of results which attends grain farming even under most favorable conditions is removed when the settler goes in for raising hogs, beef and dairy products. With Western Canada's cheap lands, heavy crops, and climate free from diseases of stock, the stock farmer is as sure of success as anyone can be.—Advertisement.

Hon. Knute Nelson,
Washington, D. C.

My Dear Senator:-

I want to express my sincere appreciation of your vote on the warning resolution. The Americanism of Minnesota was slandered by the vote of the other members of our delegation, a fact which adds greatly to my appreciation of your courage in standing alone for America and American rights in the present crisis.

I am especially surprised at the action of the member from my district. It seems to me that there was not even a political reason, sordid as such a consideration is in such a matter, why Mr. Steenerson should not be for "America first."

Sincerely yours,
Ole O. Sageng.

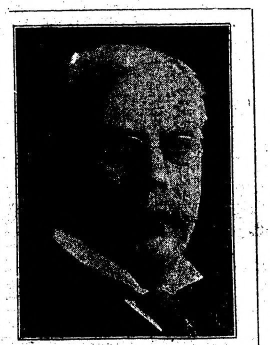
Regulation of Prices



Halvor Steenerson
Congressmam, 9th Minn. Dist., & candidate for renomination at primaries June 19th 1916

Theo. Roosevelt has said that the only alternative of goverment ownership is regulation of prices.

Halvor Steenerson helped to frame the first law regulating railroad rates, when a state senator in 1884. Through his victory in the "Steenerson Grain Rate Case" a few years later the right of the state to regulate rates was established, and all railroad rate legislation in the country is based on that decision

He believes the power of congress extends to regulation of prices of natural commodities, the supply of which has fallen into the control of monopolies, and at present is engaged in an attempt to have the rule applied to gasoline. If successful, it is likely to be extended to cover all neccessities sosituated that the supply has been "cornered" and the people oppressed by excessive prices.

He has always favored reasonable preparedness, and supported President Roosevelt's two battleships per year program, but is opposed to the "army of a million and biggest navy on earth" idea.

Halvor Steenerson is a firm believer in and able advocate of the principles of the Republican party. He is a man of independence. He is not a tool of any political ring or boss and does not seek to ride into office on the coat tails of someone else, but does his own thinking and stands on his own feet.

He desires to continue representing the Ninth District in congress and will appreciate your vote at the primary election on June 19th.

Respectfully Submitted to the Voters,

Steenerson Campaign Committee.
